TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The Advertiser's statistics and reasoning about balance of trade would make a competent political economist think that its editor was striving to displace Mark Twain as the leading humorist.

"There promises to be better time made in settling up the claims against Hawaii than is usual in such business."—Star.

This is good news, for the claimants; if the Star is to be relied on.

The Advertiser meanders through Collector Castle's report and concludes by finding fault with absentee sugar men, who use the Republic for what they can get out of it. Did it ever strike the staff of the Advertiser that the trouble with the sugar men is that they read and believe the Advertiser; that its stories about revolutions, cholera, and filibusters have scared capital out of these islands and keep it out; for capital is ever sensitive.

The changes in the embassy to Washington may lead to a new judge being appointed if Judge Cooper is selected to take the Foreign Office. He may—remembering that the judgeship is a surety; year in and year out, and that the other requires confirmation by the Senate next session in February. In case he does, however, the Advertiser states A. G. M. Robertson, Cecil Brown, and Jas. A. Magoon as among the probable candidates for his position on the bench. Is the order given intentional? Shades defensible! Was Cecil to be placed second to the gay duck?

What on earth does this mean? Says the Advertiser regarding the last annual report of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association. "It shows that while secular civilization is not far behindhand in its work, and is rapidly extending its influence among all classes of people." Then it says after apparently showing that the missionary has not done, or is not doing, all he has been credited with, in President Garfield's words, "on the floor of Congress during the debate on the reciprocity treaty, that the people of America had done a noble work when they undertook to plant on those distant islands the Christian institutions of the great Republic."

Notwithstanding W. O. Smith is going to New Zealand to study the land laws, and that the Star says: "adaptation of the best ideas in New Zealand, England and the United States on land laws, taxation and sanitary matters, should provide Hawaii with satisfactory system," it may as well be plainly stated that the only land laws in the world worth considering are to be found in Victoria and South Australia. All other ones in the world even beginning to be in the category of good are only adopted from those two Australian colonies. But who could expect that knowledge to have filtered into the brains of our untravelled local leaders.

The Star raises its journalistic voice and proclaims one C. L. Clement, an employee of the Tiser, a maker of bad impressions abroad because a letter of his in "Printer's Ink" contains that statement. Then it says, after reciting the names of various papers published here: "On the proposition this is not a country of free speech." The Star proudly places its name in the list. * * * Star comment, however, has been unrestricted, while that of the other

BISHOP-COOKS-JUDD.

We publish in another column an article in the Advertiser this morning purporting to be extracts from a letter from the Rev. Dr. Joseph Cook to the Rev. S. E. Bishop with comments by the latter. The studied insults of our local Rev. to Minister Willis on the authority of the suppressed portions of Dr. Cook's letter we do not need to notice. As on the former occasion Mr. Willis is just a good enough American to be able to take care of that without anyone's help. Nor do we need to notice S. E. B.'s plaintive appeal that Dr. Cook's "avowed" "ignorance of the attendant circumstances of the occasion" be made to "exculpate him from the censure bestowed on him at the time." What we really wish to emphasize is, the point we took at the time, and we now reiterate, the whole fiasco was due to the way visitors of importance who come to the islands are carefully stuffed with misinformation and prejudice. And that in this instance, as Dr. Cook now acknowledges, the offender was Albert Francis Judd, Chief Justice of the monarchy, ditto, ditto, of the Provisional Government, and, if anything, still more ditto, ditto of the Republic. We repeat the Dr.'s words, italicising the special portions.

"I owe much to the generosity and sagacity of His Honor the Chief Justice, and should be sorry to have him blamed at all in this affair. He had discussed Hawaiian matters freely with me but was in no way (?) responsible for a syllable of my speech. Certain suggestions which he quoted days before from various quarters into what it might and might not be proper to say, I had treated humorously, by asking if some one would write out a safe speech for me to memorize and deliver, and he had joined with me in appreciation of the absurdity of trying to wear a straight waistcoat on July 4th, etc.

Fancy! The Chief Justice discussed Hawaiian matters, but was in no way responsible for the speech, but quoted certain suggestions and Cook replying to them "write me a safe speech and I will recite it." The Chief Justice may well say to S. E. B. when he meets him, or the Advertiser staff, "I can attend to me own enemies but God save me from my friends."

COLD COMFORT FOR MINISTER HATCH.

The mouthpiece of the present administration says that F. M. Hatch, Esq., will be Minister at Washington for Mr. J. L. Stevens' Republic of Hawaii. A Washington telegram of Sept. 23d says that one of the big questions for the next Congress will be that of Cuban annexation, and goes on to say: "Senator Sherman is the ranking Republican member of the Foreign Relations committee and if the Senate committees are reorganized next winter he will be the chairman. In any event he is considered an authority on foreign relations, and his influence is considerable. * * * Senator Sherman is anxious for Cuban independence, but is said to oppose annexation."

Senator Sherman is facile princeps of the Republican party, and what he does not know about Hawaii, since reciprocity was first under consideration in Washington Mr. Hatch cannot tell him. The Senator does not believe in our treaty; does believe in Hawaiian independence, and as chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate he will be as resolute an opponent of Mr. Hatch's views as he was he was of Minister Carter's.

So Francis M. Hatch goes to Washington as Minister for Hawaii. He goes to secure annexation, and will probably return, as Bo Peep's sheep did. The would-be Minister, Wm. R. Castle, returns to Hawaii without having had the honor of airing his credentials in the capitol of the United States.

Judge Cooper will take Mr. Castle's portfolio and the Circuit Court will lose a capable judge.

Either Magoon, Robertson or Brown will succeed Judge Cooper. Of these men we would pitch a penny for choice, but for one thing: One of these men is reported to have said, when asked to subscribe to the funds of the Hawaiian Relief Society, "G—D—the kanakas, let them starve." This expression renders him peculiarly fitted for the position.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The appointment of an inspector of electric wiring is a good move, and the person appointed is an excellent choice, for he knows where the poor wire that Willie Hall imported was placed. The Board of Underwriters are live men.

The organ of the President of the Board of Health says that the mounted patrolmen are still doing quarantine duty at Kahauiki, Wai-kiki, Diamond Head, and Wailupe—the very same kind of quarantine duty that the light house keeper does when he neglects to light the green range light to our harbor. The terror that our patriots display is not becoming to men who have repeatedly died for republican institutions in Hawaii. They do not wish to die again.

There is, as the Advertiser says, no "law" which compels plantation owners or managers "to look to any particular source of supply" of labor. All there is the treaty between this Government and Japan. So far as the plantation owners or managers are concerned they are independent. But the Government is not. It is bound by its treaty obligations, and the planters must bring their own labor into the country at their own expense—or take what the Government has pledged itself to bring.

The Bulletin must wish to give an extraordinary picture of the destitution in Honolulu, when it says, speaking of the work of the Ladies' Relief Society, "the relieving of the wants of twenty-one thousand people in a week is a grand showing." The whole population of Honolulu is only a little over 28,000 by the sanitary census. What the ladies, did was to deliver 21,000 separate rations in the week, or, in other words, to feed say 21,000 divided by 7, or about 3000 separate people. Still that showing evinces a frightful amount of poverty, as showing nearly 11 percent of paupers in our midst.

C. H. Kluegel proposes as practical hints in rendering fertile our waste lands, to use pumping plants in connection with our artesian well system. It would seem from his marks that land not capable of being irrigated by pumping plants by reason of their elevation cannot receive the benefit of irrigating systems. However he states as a set off to this "The limit at which the lift, and consequently the pump expense, becomes prohibitive, has apparently not even been proposed. There is yet a large field for extension of irrigation and cultivation before this limit is reached."

From recent unlicensed liquor cases and opium cases as detailed in court on evidence, it would appear that the regular force don't take up this business, but that specially paid informers, go round and endeavor to entrap those alleged to be in the illegal business, into carrying them on. Then they arrest them. If this is to be the method of enforcing the law in this country dismiss the regular force. Simply hire every man to entrap every other man at the pistol's point into committing crime. The Republic's coffers will be filled and the national morality established. Otherwise dismiss every nefarious spy and informer connected with the business, and protect the public morals instead of debauching them.

Funeral of Sam Louison.

In spite of the unusually hot weather, and in spite of the extraordinary circumstances now existing in Honolulu, the friends of Sam Louison turned out in a body yesterday to show the high regard and great friendship in which the young man, so abruptly and untimely called away from this world, was held by his fellow citizens.

The funeral took place from the Masonic Temple yesterday afternoon. The beautiful casket was covered with flowers, and many beautiful designs were noted.

The deceased professed the Hebrew religion, and knowing the orthodox sentiments of his father and family, and of the deceased, the floral designs and the ceremony were in full accord with the true faith. The large number of masons present testified to the popularity of the deceased.

John H. Soper, Master of the Lodge, delivered the impressive service of the masons. Beautiful anthems were rendered by one of the best choirs in town, accompanied by Wray Taylor. Colonel Soper as master of ceremonies, was followed by Rev. Alex. Mackintosh and Andrew Brown, and their eloquent words moved many people in the audience to tears.

As pall bearers acted F. A. Schaefer, H. J. Nolte, W. F. Allen, J. S. Walker, M. E. Grossman, J. W. Jones, A. E. Murphy and E. Towse.

The chief mourners at the cemetery were A. Louison, a brother of the deceased, and Dr. and Mrs. Howard, in whose home the deceased has resided, and with whom the greatest friendship was established.

The body is at present deposited in the Paty vault at the Nuuanu cemetery, and will probably be transferred to San Francisco for interment in the near future.

Another Runaway.

The horse of Mrs. W. F. Allen got scared this morning while Mrs. Allen was making a short call in a store on Nuuanu street. The horse ran away, passed half a dozen policemen, who looked admiringly at the runaway, banged into an innocent hack which was capsized and which contained eggs enough (all finally smashed) to make a pudding; then it collided with a telephone post and being finally smashed, had the shafts broken and a general excitement created. When will these runaway stop? After the child is drowned?

Timely Topics.

Honolulu, Sept. 20, 1895.

All over the world at present questions of hygiene are the main issues of the day. While the learned scientists of Europe are devoting their time and skill to find remedies which can destroy the disease breeding germs, the diseases go on and cholera, diptheria and typhoid ravage cities and countries.

Whenever a disease becomes epidemic it is because the germ found conditions which suited it and in which it felt at home and ready for business. The sanitary conditions of the town and of the home becomes of vital importance. Honolulu is having a taste of a cholera epidemic and it behooves everybody to do his best in placing every home in the best sanitary condition possible.

When the general house-cleaning which will take place next Monday is over, many housekeepers will find some household furniture which needs renewal and others missing both as to utility and convenience.

We call attention to-day to our Oil Stoves. The "Dietz" Stove which we carry in stock has gained a great reputation everywhere. The one we especially recommend is the most complete oil stove ever offered in the market. It is perfectly safe for the user of it, and it will answer all purposes in a well regulated household. Five quarts of oil is sufficient to burn ten to twelve hours. In ten minutes a half gallon water can be boiled. It will fry and boil, bake or broil at the same time. You can boil potatoes and bake biscuit at the same time. In ten minutes you can broil a steak to perfection, and in an hour and a half you can roast an eight-pound turkey. Once tried the "Dietz" Oil Stove will be found the very thing for the housekeeper, and the price brings it within the reach of everybody.

The Water Coolers which we have on hand are the very things for restaurants, saloons, schools and stores. After the water is boiled fill the cooler with it, and even without ice, it will keep a pleasant temperature. Large families will find these highly ornamental coolers of great advantage and a great saving in regard to ice.

What, however, is more useful than a Monarch Bicycle. In San Francisco and other places mail and paper carriers, business men and professional men use the Monarch, and have within the diamond arranged a leather bag, very easily fixed, which will contain paper, document, lunches and clothing and do service as the saddle bags do to the horseman. The Monarch is the most solid and best appointed wheel introduced here, and can be purchased on the installment plan.

The excursion trains to Waianae yesterday were well patronized. People are happy to be able again to get a good day's outing and with plenty of fresh air and magnificent scenery.

There was a small blaze back of Kawaiahae Church, last night, at the premises occupied by Mr. Podyen. The fire was extinguished easily without the help of the department.

It seems to be uncertain who will be the candidates for the lieutenantancy in Company D, J. A. Kennedy and A. G. M. Robertson, whose names have been mentioned are both members of the Council of State.

The Board of Underwriters has appointed W. I. Warriner, electrical inspector for the board. His duty will be to examine all premises intended to be insured and report the condition of the electrical system to the underwriters.

The police seems to have positive proofs that the opium found last Friday in a boat, the occupants of which were arrested came from the U. S. S. Olympia. How the opium got there, of course is a puzzle. From the other islands, perhaps?

If Hotel Richelieu keeps on as it did on Saturday, the proprietress Mrs. Freimann is to be congratulated. A most elegant dinner, a most fashionable patronage, and a generally good jolly time are the passwords given out. Come around and see for yourself.

Our thrifty housewives cheerfully acknowledge that L. B. Kerr gives better value in Housekeeping Goods than any store in town. Sheetting, Mosquito Netting, Bedspread, Table Cloths, Napkins, Glass Cloths, Towels, etc., sold on the principle of small profits and quick returns.

To close them out Shirt Waists, formerly selling at $1.50 each, have been reduced to $1; and Pith Hats, which were selling at $2, from this on will be sold at $1 each. Call early before the supply is exhausted. A. Barnes, New Republic Building, King street.

James Bolster received a call from the members of the Y. H. I. yesterday at his residence in Palolo valley. "Jim," who has been quite ill for some time has improved greatly and hopes soon to be able to be around again. His friends went up to the valley in two busses and had a most enjoyable time.

Its mighty strange to see how some people can walk around in the hot tropical sun, clothed in heavy black clothes and a tall plug hat. However, most folks are more sensible, and wear suits made of Light Serge or Tweeds bought at L. B. Kerr's on Queen street. He sells a single yard at wholesale prices.

F. Clifford Rhodes, formerly of the Press Publishing Co., has accepted a position as foreman with the Evening Bulletin.

Lots of game and fish were distributed by the Lehua sportsmen this morning. Nobody was forgotten and even a fat beautiful toothsome lamb was hailed by a prominent lady on King street this morning with a great deal of relish, where is the lamb? There is more, says our sporting reporter, of the same kind to come.

The meeting of squad 6 of the Citizens' Guard, held on Saturday, was not very harmonious. Chas. Lynn and O'Brien were nominated as captains. The latter was elected in spite of a strong opposition and it is understood that a protest will be made against the election. The squad is one of the best organized and it is generally considered a pity if any serious disagreement should arise.

THE CATCH OF THE SEASON.

The Lehua Returns Loaded With Game.

(From a special correspondent.)

On Friday afternoon at 6 o'clock, the Lehua left this port with a jolly good hunting party, the members of which wanted to catch the fish and shoot the game of the ever genial Fred. Hayselden, who happened to be "quarantined" in town, and who as usually was ready to accommodate and welcome his sporting friends.

The steamer left and sportsmen and their traps were on board. Old shooting clothes had to be fumigated and the boxes with "ammunition" were carefully inspected.

The steamer left, however, and the 25 "boys" on her claim that they had a most excellent time. Judge Whiting was blooming with health, General Neumann was happy (his "cribs" were not to be despised) and the whole gang were ready for the sporting work that may yet appear on record in the American Field or the Breeder and Sportsman.

Then we arrived off Lanai. The weather up there was not very pleasant. It rained enough to drown the microbes of Honolulu and we wouldn't have been successful at all if the fish hadn't come around.

We divided then, Whitney, Lane, Sproull, Sam Wilder, and George Robertson went up with Hayselden, and they had the best of us. Life on Lana'i is not for the ordinary mortal. There is not better place in this country, or a better host than the "boss" of the island, but we remained on board and "fished."

Good heavens! Didn't we fish. "Dear INDEPENDENT (—you are dear)" we fished—and played poker; and then we fished and played cribbage, and brothers Whiting and Paul were serene through it all.

At last a streak of luck came and we bagged nearly 800 pounds of the finest fish in the ocean. The skilled our professionals was finally demonstrated and Whiting was happy once more.

When we picked up the boys from Lanai, we had the laugh on them. They probably had a good time up at Fred's place, but, on board, we had the fish. What are 40 pheasants and 20 turkeys and plenty of rain to a good night's rest and Fred's cocktails and all other inconveniences in comparison with our fish. We fished, and don't you forget it, and we filled our bags.

LEHUA.
 Lehua is all right, but the editor of THE INDEPENDENT would like to know?

Death of Dean.

The kamaainas in the town were quite shocked when they heard about the sudden death of William Dean.

The deceased was an Englishman and had resided here for over thirty years (probably near forty). He was about 64 years old at the time of his death and leaves no family in this country.

Dean was a successful mechanic. He worked in this country as a carpenter and his last job was as foreman at the erection of the Palace.

Dean was always a true friend, an honest Britisher. He was well fixed as far as the goods of this world are concerned, and he was at all times ready to help a countryman or any friend who was truly in need of assistance.

The old gentleman died quite suddenly at the residence of E. Phelps on Saturday. He was buried yesterday at noon. The estate of the deceased, who died intestate, has been placed in the hands of the British Commissioner.

Old Dean was a good, loyal, and honest man, who will be missed by many a man in Hawaii nei.

Where Was A Armstrong?

Last Saturday we "took in" an incident which ought to make Mr. Armstrong—the Portuguese-hater—pale. In the district court we noticed at one time that the said court of Hawaii had been transformed and that Armstrong's slurs on the Portuguese were demonstrated to be false, in a more determined manner even than explained by signers to dozens of settlers, circulars and protests.

The judge was a Portuguese on this occasion and so were the prosecuting and defending attorneys. The defendants, the interpreter and the officer of two court. And yet—Mr. Armstrong says the Portuguese are not in it and not even "white." Poor "pink" old chippie.

Sans Souci.
 The most lovely spot on Oahu is Sans Souci. This favorite seaside resort, which has been immortalized by the pen of Robert L. Stevenson, who resided there for months, is only four miles from Honolulu and within easy reach of the trams. The surroundings and bathing at this famous resort are superior to anything found in the Hawaiian Islands. Cottages and board can be obtained on easy terms. The table set by the manager is better than any offered here at other hotels. For picnics, bathing parties and outings the best accommodation can be secured by giving notice to the manager.

papers named and of the orators indicated and of all who choose to talk or write, has been without license." That seems to us contradictory. To object to saying that there is no free speech and then to put your name in the list on the proposition does not quite fit.

It will be remembered that in objecting to the matter of sending W. R. Castle as Minister Washington. THE INDEPENDENT said it was only done to enable him to attend to a certain matter of private business. Further that we first announced he would be back in less than six months. Now everyone reads between the lines and sees why the violent opposition in the Senate was calmed and his appointment confirmed. The argument used was: He won't be able to do any harm because he will go over in time for congress, and he has to go over any way, on other business, and we have all had our share but he hasn't had any so far. This will give him a show, as well as honor amongst his folks. And it is certain Thurston can't go back, and no other warming pan can be found, and gentlemen, if you don't agree we'll all resign. Something to this effect moved the tears of the Senators and the pocket of the country into agreeing that W. R. Castle's expenses to the States and back—at $500 a month—should come out of the latter.

DR. COOK DIDN'T KNOW.

He Writes to Mr. Bishop Concerning July 4th Affair.

MR. EDITOR:—The following extracts from a letter of Joseph Cook, L. I. D., the eminent lecturer, will explain themselves:

MELBOURNE, Sept. 25, 1895.

The Rev. Sereno Bishop, Honolulu, H. I.

Dear Sir: I thank cordially for your article in THE INDEPENDENT of August 15th, which reached me only a few days ago. * * *

It never entered my thoughts until I read the statement last week in your article that references to Hawaiian politics were excluded from your celebration by agreement between the committee in charge and the chairman. The committee never told me this—no one else did so. I was in California when the agreement which you mention was made. * * *

I owe much to the generosity and sagacity of His Honor the Chief Justice, and should be sorry to have him blamed at all in this affair. He had discussed Hawaiian matters freely with me, but was in no way responsible for a syllable of my speech. Certain suggestions which he quoted days before from various quarters as to what it might and might not be proper to say, I had treated rather humorously, by asking if some one would write out a safe speech for me to memorize and deliver, and he had joined with me in appreciation of the absurdity of trying to wear a straight-waistcoat on July 4th, when defending, as I intended to do, in their application to the Republic, the principles of the American Declaration of Independence, which was to be read from the platform. * * *

With high respects,

Yours faithfully,

JOSEPH COOK.

Dr. Cook also states that he was at the time wholly ignorant of the State home of the American Minister, or of his official record in Honolulu. Knowing those now, he considers that his interruption was not even more emphatic. Dr. Cook's ignorance of the attendant circumstances of the occasion, as above avowed, would seem to exculpate him from the censure bestowed upon him at the time.—S. F. B.

The above is taken from the Advertiser.
