Whitney Says Piano Tuner Is No Labor Man

Merchants Busy, But Not "Dead Ones" Yet

There is another side to the apparent lack of interest in the Merchants' Association. Some of the members think that the President was a little harsh in his remarks yesterday, but they are not disposed to take serious offense, believing it better to remain silent over than to stir up a fuss.

One of the members who is enthusiastic over the work that can be done by the Association and believes in its success, said this morning:

"The lack of interest in the affairs of the Association are certainly to be regretted. Possibly it should not be called lack of interest either, but the facts of the matter are that many members of the Directorate are very busy men about town and sometimes find it hard to attend meetings at any stated hour.

"Among the members, the same place is to be found and a failure to realize that the Association is constantly called upon to act on matters of great interest to the business community and that the individual members should not leave it all up to the directors, has been the cause of non-attendance at general meetings.

"The president, secretary and directors of the Association have been particularly active during the past year in urging legislation beneficial to the Territory and influencing appointments by the Federal Government, and have been particularly active in connection with the working in connection with the Chamber of Commerce, the Association unquestionably accomplishes a particular mission and a disbandment or even merging of its members into the Chamber of Commerce would prove a loss in the effective work done by the two separate organizations along through different channels for a common end."

Hartwell Bitten By Dog

Chief Justice Hartwell has been bitten by a dog again. The dog belongs to George R. Carter, once Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

The bite is really quite a serious one, one of the fingers of the hand with which the Chief Justice writes his legal opinions being nearly bitten off. Several stitches had to be taken in it, and now the Chief Justice is obliged to go about with his hand swathed in huge bandages, and is confined at his home, unable to go to his office.

The biting occurred night before last. The Chief Justice left his home to stroll over to Carter's, and was followed by his little dog, which risked being found in contempt of court by not going back when ordered.

When the Chief Justice and his dog reached the yard in which stands the house of the former Governor, two more dogs rushed out. They were large dogs with strenuous dispositions, and they resented the intrusion of the fice. With exultant yelps and howls they precipitated themselves upon the small dog, which

Vivas Goes Free

Vivas had been in contempt of court, which was the reason for his being committed to jail for five days by District Magistrate McKay of Wailuku. The law does not allow of any appeal on such a question.

The reason the Chief Justice granted the petition was that the commitment was not in proper form. It only specified that Vivas was committed to jail for contempt of court. Section 2073 of the Revised Laws specifies that "whenever any person shall be adjudged guilty of any contempt or sentenced therefor, the particular circumstances of the offense shall be fully set forth in such judgment and in the order or warrant of commitment."

This was not done in the Vivas case, and as a consequence, he goes free. But he has already served four days of the five-day sentence.

The hearing took place at the home of the Chief Justice this morning, Hartwell not being able, on account of a dog-bite, to be in court. Vivas was represented by two attorneys, Magoon and Humphreys.

Lenord's Tuning All For Pianos

"Lenord stayed at my house for about six weeks," said Fred Whitney of Irwin & Co., this afternoon. "I know absolutely nothing about him. He was a stranger to me, and I took him for a visiting capitalist. However, from what I do know about the man, I feel convinced that he is not a labor agent or anything of the sort, and I do not believe that report for a moment. For that matter he was so talkative by nature that I feel sure that he could not have kept such a thing to himself had it been a fact."

Thomas Wall, of Wall, Nichols Co., stated this afternoon that he knew the man about two months ago, and left a sign and asked that orders be received there for him as a piano tuner. He went up to Hawaii about three or four weeks ago.

The name of the man who, representing himself as strongly connected with the American Federation of Labor, and is said to be trying to stir up trouble for the plantations by effecting an organization of Japanese, Portuguese and other laborers, is George B. Lenord, a piano-tuner who has his office at the store of Wall, Nichols Company.

This statement is made an authority of some of those whom Lenord has approached with his proposition that they go in with him and aid him in organizing this international union.

Lenord is now on Hawaii, where

Sims Defies Judge Andrade In Police Court

SENT TO PRISON FOR CONTEMPT

The worst scene which ever happened in a Hawaiian court took place this forenoon in the Police Court, when W. R. Sims, charged with drunkenness, insulted the court, the prosecuting officer and others present, and finally defied Judge Andrade to step down from the bench, evidently with the intention of making an assault on him. Throughout the affair Judge Andrade showed remarkable tact and patience, and it was only after the matter had become absolutely intolerable that he committed Sims for contempt of court, sentencing him to imprisonment for three days.

"I wish to state that I am here in court voluntarily," said Sims on entering.

"You are here because it is your duty to be here, answered the Court.

As the complaint was being made out by Prosecutor Brown, Sims walked over to the table which has been reserved to the prosecution exclusively under a rule which was promulgated by the Court a few days ago. Sims was asked to go back to the table reserved for attorneys, but this he declined to do, and Officer Madeiros started to remove him.

"Don't put your hands on me," cried Sims wildly. "If you do you assault me. You are assaulting me. I appeal to Your Honor."

The Court explained the new regulation to Sims. "Go over where you belong," he ended.

"Do you mean to say that you have made rules to say where people who have business with the court may go? Have you lines drawn to show people what steps they shall take?"

"Go over where you belong, Mr. Sims," repeated the Court.

Sims still remonstrated and Brown took him by the shoulder to lead him to his place.

"Give me an opportunity to respond," cried Sims, but the Court repeated its order, and a couple of officers dragged him, in spite of his wild struggles, over to his place. During this journey Sims caught hold of the witness stand, and temporarily delaying his progress shouting loudly: "Shame, shame!"

At 11 o'clock Sims came into court, and immediately one of the most exciting scenes which could be imagined was enacted, the excitement last-

DIETZ-BARROWS COLLEGE WEDDING

Relatives From Honolulu Attend The Ceremony

Santa Rosa, Nov. 16.—A marriage celebrated in this city last evening, which was of interest not only in Santa Rosa, where the bride is a general favorite, but in the bay cities and on the campus at Berkeley, where the principals first formed the acquaintance that led the way to the altar, was that of Miss Edith Alastair Barrows, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barrows, to H. Werner Dietz, son of George Dietz, a prominent Hawaiian planter and former resident of Sonoma county.

Both graduated from the State University, he in 1903 and she in the class of 1905, and both are members of fraternities.

Mrs. Frank L. Hoyt was the matron of honor. Little Miss Margaret Wall, daughter of Surgeon-General W. E. Wall of the Hawaiian Islands, a niece of the bridegroom, was the ring bearer. The Rev. Leander Turney officiated. Miss Frances Woolsey of Berkeley, a college friend of the bride, played the wedding march.

It was distinctively a college wedding. The bride was gowned in white messaline silk. Mrs. Hoyt wore a pink creation of the same material. A reception and buffet repast followed the ceremony.

After an extended honeymoon tour the couple will go East, where Mr. Dietz is doing some important work on the North Pacific project for the Government. He is a Government civil engineer. Later they will go to Honolulu.

Members of the Dietz and Wall families came here from Honolulu for the marriage.

Miss Barrows has been prominent in church, educational and social circles since she left the university.

QUEER FISH CAUGHT

A strange-looking fish, partly possessing a resemblance to a squid, a snail and a pan-cake, with a variation of reddish, brownish and other colors, was caught by the crew of the U. S. tug Iroquois this morning near the naval wharf. The fish is small; its movements are elastic. Its name is "Iroquois," having been captured and named by the crew. The little creature is a novel product of the sea and will be quite an addition to the aquarium. Manager Potter of the Aquarium was notified and immediately came down to see the new-found fish. Its eyes are set on long stalks and protrude about two inches. There is a pretty collection of feathery hair on the back and, when the fish is in motion, it waves back and forward gracefully. Its belly is partly split from fore to aft, opening and closing at intervals.

HARTWELL BITTEN BY DOG

fled with howls of terror to the shelter of the ex-Governor's lanai. But there was no safety to be found there. The Carter dogs were at home, and they followed the judicial dog back and fast. They cornered him, and licked their chops at the pleasing prospect.
The Chief Justice became afraid that in a moment more he would have no dog, so he rushed to the rescue, diving into the yelling, howling, quivering mess, he endeavored to extricate his own particular canine in one whole piece.
But the dog of a Carter brooks no interference. The two large dogs promptly turned their attention from the feeble Chief Justice, with the result that he retired in bad order, and nearly minus a finger.
A doctor was called to dress the wounds of battle, and the Chief Justice was ordered into retirement until he should be out of danger.
This is not the first experience with dog-bites that the General has had. He has been bitten once before, and on that occasion, as on this, the dog was no common dog. It belonged to King Kalakaua.
That was a long while ago. General Hartwell and King Kalakaua were playing billiards in the billiard-room at Healea Lawn, and the king's dog was frisking about. The General thought to be friendly with the dog, but the dog was not one of the friendly kind. Instead of wagging his tail in gratitude, he took a job out of the General's leg.
"Oh, for something new," sighed the society leader. "Why not give a camphor ball, dear? It would be so appropriate to this time of year."

So far as is known, Honolulu is not as yet in touch with San Francisco by wireless. It was expected that the apparatus on board the transport Sherman would get in touch with the local naval station wireless office, the local wireless operator trying to make connection with San Francisco through the Sherman. It is evident that no such wireless messages have been sent to or received from the transport Sherman which sailed yesterday afternoon. Captain Carter, when asked this forenoon, professed that he did not know anything about the matter.

ALEWA HEIGHTS PEOPLE WILL HAVE WATER

New Lot Owners Will Install Pumping Plant

Alewa Heights is going to have water, even if the Government is at present unable to furnish it. There was a meeting of the Alewa Heights Lot-Owners' Association last night, at which it was decided to install a pumping plant to bring water on the lower residence lots. There were about thirty people present at the meeting, fifteen of whom own residence lots, and these fifteen all signed the agreement to stand their share of the expense. There are 28 lots upon which water can be taken in this way, and it is understood that the owners of all of them have signified their willingness to pay their share toward putting in the pumping plant.

The Government has agreed that whatever is expended for this purpose now shall be considered as advance payment of water rates after the Government shall have put water on the lots. It is expected that at the next session of the Legislature provision will be made for doing this.

The pumping plant which is to be installed will cost about $1000, so the expense on the individual members of the association will not be heavy. A 4-horsepower engine will be put in to run the pump. The only question left to be decided is as to whether the water shall be pumped from the Wylie street main or from the main on Judd street.

SIBERIA MAKES VERY FAST VOYAGE

Nine and a half days' trip from Yokohama, encountering good weather with little head wind, the Pacific Mail liner Siberia arrived one day ahead of her regular time, docking at the Hackfeld wharf shortly after 8 o'clock this morning. She brought 17 cabin passengers for Honolulu and 85 through. In the steerage there were 207 immigrants. The Honolulu mail consisted of 36 bags and the cargo was 1138 tons of general merchandise.

Among the Honolulu passengers were Rev. and Mrs. John Usborne, who have just returned from a trip around the world.

Y. Takakawa and his family returned from Japan.

Mrs. B. C. Howard, wife of the Pacific Mail agent at Yokohama, arrived and will remain here for some time. She was accompanied by a maid.

F. W. Goome and Geo. E. Wolf are prominent business men. The former is from Kobe and the latter, who is accompanied by his wife, is from Manila.

Captain Kincaid Smith, M. P., is a littlefisher of note. He is returning from a tour of the world. While in Japan he looked into Japanese military movements.

Among the officers of the liner a slight change was made while she was in Chinese ports. K. W. Clark, who has been made a freight clerk, succeeded J. P. Horne, who is now purser of the Manchuria. Clark was formerly on the China and is very popular. Third Officer H. H. Birchholm is not going on this trip. While in Hongkong he was taken suddenly ill and was sent to hospital.

The Siberia sails at 4 o'clock this afternoon, taking the local mail.

Captain Brooks of the British steamer Queen Helena, which arrived from Newport News on Wednesday afternoon with 5432 tons of coal for the United States Navy, has had a very interesting trip before coming here. He made a stop at Pitcairn Island, a British possession, previous to making this port. The island is very small and is populated by only 130 inhabitants. According to Captain Brooks, the inhabitants are very good people. "They are quiet and industrious. They make their living by fishing and are not used to drinking or smoking," he said. "When I was there, they came out to meet me on board the steamer. They asked me to give them sugar and many other things which were new to them. Of course, when I found them to be good people I gave them all they asked for. I told them to take the steamer if they cared to. They simply laughed and thanked me for what things I gave them. Their language is English."

So far as is known, Honolulu is not as yet in touch with San Francisco by wireless. It was expected that the apparatus on board the transport Sherman would get in touch with the local naval station wireless office, the local wireless operator trying to make connection with San Francisco through the Sherman. It is evident that no such wireless messages have been sent to or received from the transport Sherman which sailed yesterday afternoon. Captain Carter, when asked this forenoon, professed that he did not know anything about the matter.

FRIDAY DECEMBER 6, 1907

Let obedience to the law be taught in the public schools.—Abraham Lincoln.

Sims was a little bit early with the holiday celebration, but the intention seems to have been good.

Just let it be a one-round affair between Jess Woods and Pat Gibson. They quit bickering and sniffs.

Labor agitation for the purpose of tying up business has no degree of patriotism, good sense, or good judgment.

Kindly remember that there are no defects in Hawaii's yacht, and if any should develop it is not good business for Honolulu to exaggerate them.

Naval station officers state they know nothing about a relaxed wireless message from Honolulu to San Francisco by way of the transports. It is a subject that might well be of interest and worthy a trial.

According to all the information that can be obtained, the people on the Coast are the only ones who have any "information" regarding Hindus for Hawaii. The continuing and well established fact is that any man in search of work can get it in Hawaii.

The suspension of the Kansas City bank is one of the largest failures the West has experienced. As the Government called for a bank statement on December 3, it is possible that the Kansas City institution was caught in a position that fostered the pukecky sentiment. That all other banks throughout the country have not seriously suffered, stands as good evidence of the real strength of the situation and near approach of normal conditions.

HONOLULU HYENAS AND THEIR WORK.

Isn't it about time for the knocking element of Honolulu to see the light, appreciate their folly and join the boosters?

Is it not the time and the hour for Honolulu business men and Honolulu sports, street-corner growlers, and the professional knockers to quit unpleasant ways and smile a little?

There is no doubt what the answer should be.

The last few weeks—and we might with some measure of truth say months—have witnessed the most unfortunate exhibitions of bickering, nagging, petty criticism, that Honolulu has experienced for many long years.

It is needless. It is injurious. If the people are so filled with cantankerous spite that they cannot straighten out their kinks of ill-will, it would be highly proper for a peace conference to be held to discover whether it is possible for the Honolulu disposition to be ironed out.

Review of "Who's a knocker?" and "Who hit Billy Patterson?" or "What did they do with the baseball sock?" are needless items of discussion.

The thing to do is to quit petty knocking and fault-finding, get down to business, recognize the right of the other fellow to live, and, if you can't say something pleasant, SHUT UP!

There is nothing easier on earth than to kick a town down-hill. A few human hyenas with a snarl and a whine for everything and everybody do immeasurable harm. They make the people around them uncomfortable, they injure the business of the town, they cause people who might otherwise visit the place and spend their money here to avoid it, and spread an adverse reputation abroad.

The human hyena serves no good purpose on earth. Not in Honolulu, anyway.

The good-natured men; the men who have a good word for their associates and can see something bright in every day that passes are men of the hour, and the men whose influence, energy, good-will and sound sense will not only put this town on the high road of prosperity, but keep it there.

The BIG men of this town have set an example. They got together, notwithstanding the sharp edge of competition between them might have been as keen as that of any peanut-sucker in the corner.

These men possess generous common sense and MAKE USE OF IT. With conditions as they are on the mainland, these big men could—if they had been so evil-minded—have turned hyenas and strewn wreckage all along the way.

They didn't do it. They don't intend to. Their every energy has been devoted to justifying the confidence the people have placed, and will continue to place, in them.

The record of the larger business interests during a period that was shaking some of the largest Eastern mainland institutions to their very foundations, is one that must ever arouse the pride of all citizens—big ones and little ones.

Why not carry this spirit into the smaller details of life in this town? WHY NOT?

Why not quit nagging? Why not quit nagging?

Why not get together?

Remembering that when your neighbor does well you are sure to get a share of the prosperity.

Be a booster.

Don't be a Honolulu Hyena.

Don't be a Knocker.

Is the "other fellow to blame"?

You quit and there'll be one less.

DON'T YOU BELIEVE IT.

KILAUEA VOLCANO

CHAS. E. RUSSELL TELLS ABOUT HIMSELF

My grandfather and father were Abolitionists. My father was one of the contributors to John Greenleaf Whittier's National Era; and when he became a newspaper proprietor made his journal (Davenport, Iowa, Gazette) an uncompromising Abolition organ. I was brought up to the newspaper business by my father in his office. When I was 22 my father lost his newspaper chiefly through the maneuvers of a railroad company he had fought for many years. I was then successively an editorial writer on the St. Paul Pioneer Press, night editor Minneapolis Tribune, managing editor Minneapolis Journal, managing editor Detroit Tribune. I came to New York and after walking the streets and nearly starving three months, got a job as reporter on the old Commercial Advertiser under George Cary Eggleston; reporter on the World; reporter on the Herald; reported the Anarchist troubles in Chicago for the World; Johnson's flood for the Herald; Washington for the Herald, 50th Congress. Assistant city editor Herald 1892-94; City editor World 1894-97; managing editor Morning Journal, Publisher Chicago American and Examiner. Health went to pieces 1902 and in 1904 I left the newspaper business and retired to Evanston, Ill., to finish a life of Thomas Chatterton on which I had been engaged ten years, and a book on Swinburne. At that time I never expected to do any more active work and looked forward to a quiet, peaceful Christian existence. I fell by accident into the Beef Trust fight. Everybody's Magazine wanted a series, whereas I had contemplated only one article, and when the series was done sent me on a trip around the world to observe economic progress and conditions in the countries that seemed not awake to economic problems.

That was where "The Uprising of the Many" came from. I came home with radical convictions. The Beef Trust work had opened my eyes to the monstrous extortions practiced by Organized Greed, and what I saw in Switzerland, Australia and New Zealand did the rest. Merely to see what New Zealand has done is a liberal economic education. Since I came home I have written two or three little things about democracy, caste and the like. If you care to know about my books (and few do here) they are: "Such Stuff as Dreams" (poems), 1902; "The Twin Immortalities" (poems), 1904; "The Greatest Trust in the World" (Beef Trust book), 1905; "The Uprising of the Many," 1907. Also the Chatterton book, which is done at last.

The beginning of my economic education was in 1892, when the Herald sent me through the anthracite coal regions and I saw the inside of the huge spoliation that goes on there, and glimpsed the fact that the true Abolition was only begun when African slavery was ended.

When I was a reporter (six years) in New York I did chiefly murder mysteries and politics. I reported all the national political conventions that met in my time. The whole thing was doubtless a jumble more or less (I mean my experiences as a reporter), but it gave me a chance to see something of life as it is. Come to think of it, I seem to have done everything about a newspaper office from wrapping up mail and running the engine to financing the enterprise. I remember I once had a job in which I was at the same time market reporter and dramatic critic ("poor and poetry") it was called in the office) and I took it in perfect seriousness then, but looking back it seems very humorous. The best job I ever had was city editor; to be a king or president is nothing compared to being the city editor of a New York paper, if you have a managing editor you can bully and a proprietor that keeps his hands off. To take one thousand horse ends of news and weave them into patterns differing every day is no mean art, and to get from one hundred bright minds the best work they are capable of is field purchasing, and there is not another post known to man that combines these two delightful occupations.—Doubleday Page & Co.'s Notes on Books and Authors.

FIVE YEARS OF "BEST SELLERS"

Some one with a turn for statistics has been compiling a graded list of best selling books for a period of five years, as shown by The Bookman's lists. According to this list the 12 "Best Sellers" for these years, with the number of points credited to each, are as follows:

1. The Virginian (Wister)..... 1738
2. Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch (Rice)..... 1671
3. The Right of Way (Parke)..... 1595
4. Coniston (Churchill)..... 1487
5. The Masquerader (Thurston)..... 1266
6. The Crisis (Churchill)..... 1179
7. The House of Mirth (Wharton)..... 1106
8. Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall (Major)..... 931
9. The Marriage of William Ashe (Ward)..... 887
10. The Mississippi Bubble (Hough)..... 884
11. The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come (Fox)..... 866
12. Lady Baltimore (Wister)..... 818

As will be seen from this list, only two authors, Owen Wister and Winston Churchill, have two books in the list, and this is all the more surprising, as these authors are both known to be rather slow workers. Although Mr. Wister stands at the head of the list with "The Virginian," Mr. Churchill leads slightly in the total number of points, with 2957, as against Mr. Wister's 2587.

New Loans Appreciated

BANKS WILL RESUME CURRENCY PAYMENTS SOON AS POSSIBLE

Washington, November 25. A more confident tone is heard in the announcement of the new loans provided at the Treasury Department today than at any time since the announcement of the loans a week ago. The visit of Sherman in Europe, and particularly his visit to France, and the fact that the National Bank of Commerce, the largest of the banks, has resumed its operations, and the fact that the Treasury Department has announced its belief that the banks throughout the country would be soon in a position to resume cash payments.

The outlook is of peculiar interest to the Treasury officials, because for nearly a month Government receipts have been declining as a result of the curtailment of currency. The Treasury officials are not, however, unduly alarmed. It is also true that the Treasury officials are not unduly alarmed. It is also true that the Treasury officials are not unduly alarmed. It is also true that the Treasury officials are not unduly alarmed.

There is a general feeling of confidence in the banks. In New York, Chicago and other cities, the banks are resuming their operations. The Treasury officials are not unduly alarmed. It is also true that the Treasury officials are not unduly alarmed.

It is believed among the Treasury officials that a complete understanding was arrived at between the banks of New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis, New Orleans and San Francisco by which they will have a general resumption of currency payments within the next few days, possibly before the close of the present week.

The reports received at the Treasury Department today from Chicago and Boston are that currency payments in the latter city are on the increase, and that the situation at those cities, and in fact at all other points, is quite promising.

payments of large sums to the expiring centers of the West and South, and it is confidently believed that these payments will be continued in increasing amounts until such conditions are again reached or until the necessity for them has passed.

In addition to the discussion of the resumption of currency, the Treasury officials were also discussing the possibility of a new one-year certificate. Ad- vanced amounts of these certificates are steadily coming to the Treasury as security for bank note circulation. These represent allotments made by Secretary Cabelman about the middle of last week.

Subscriptions for the Panama 2 per cent bonds are also arriving in large numbers. These subscriptions are numerous that it is not expected it will be possible to open a schedule and classify the bids before closing the Treasury Department on Saturday night after the time for subscriptions.

The daily cash statement of the Treasury does not yet show the effect of any considerable payments for the new certificates. This is partly because only 25 per cent of the face value of the amount sold is paid into the Treasury in cash, while the remainder 75 per cent is left with the banks on deposit. It is also true that the Treasury officials are not unduly alarmed. It is also true that the Treasury officials are not unduly alarmed.

Of all the boy workers in London, newsboys are the healthiest, barbers boys the most unhealthy—a tribute to the open-air life.

Observation in the New York schools show that drivers of bunks, vans and ice wagons are the largest consumers of nutritious liquors of all classes of persons in the city.

President On Guard

WILL HAVE NO FEDERAL OFFICE—HOLDER ELECTED TO CONVENTION

Washington, Nov. 25. Instructions have been issued to Frank A. Knicker, first assistant postmaster general, to see to it that no federal office holders are elected as delegates to the republican national convention to vote for the nomination of President Roosevelt.

The instructions were issued by President Roosevelt, whose statement was interpreted by newspaper reports from the south that Hatcher had held a conference at Chattanooga recently with H. Clay Evans, republican leader of Tennessee; Newell Sanders, chairman of the republican state committee; J. O. Thompson, collector of internal revenue for Alabama; and H. Sharp, collector of internal revenue for Tennessee, at which it was decided that Roosevelt delegates should be sent from all the southern states and that Hatcher be removed from the list of delegates for the convention. The instructions from the President to Knicker indicate that he is not going to have it said that the work was done by persons he had appointed to office. That he is still being urged to be admitted even by the Taft supporters, and his silence on the subject is giving much concern to those who still believe that Taft has a good chance for the nomination.

NEW BRYAN DEMOCRACY CLUB ADOPTS RESOLUTION FOR COMMONER

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 24.—A Chicago campaign for the nomination of William J. Bryan for the Presidency by the Democratic National Convention was officially born today. The County Democracy Bryan League, fully organized and equipped, and with Robert E. Burke as its leader, was formally organized in the first place. The members of the Bryan League are all adapted for the new body. Burke will not reserve all of the credit for the impetus and impetus of the Bryan movement in Chicago to himself. He extends the olive branch to the Jeffersonian, the League Club and to any other Democratic organization which wishes to get in on the ground level. He also extends the olive branch to the Chicago Democratic League, to be composed of representatives of all organizations which are members in good standing of the Democratic National Convention of William J. Bryan.

"We will have some meetings before the end of the week," said Burke. "This is on the order for Bryan, and we want him to win."

She: And after we have married, dear, you'll tell me everything that happens, won't you? (In a low voice) My husband does. O. My darling, I'll tell you a lot of things that don't happen at all.

Railway Building

WORK WILL BE RESUMED IN MIDDLE WEST UNTIL WINTER

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 25.—Construction work on the Harriman lines, which was discontinued when the financial flurry began, will be resumed all along the line on December 1st, when thousands of workmen will be put back to work. The Lane cut-off, west of Omaha, the heaviest piece of railroad construction, will be pushed to completion before cold weather prevents further work. The cut-off will be finished by January 1st. The work of double tracking will not be undertaken until spring on account of inability to secure steel rails. Work on the main line between Cheyenne and Denver will be resumed, as will the cut-off north-west of Topeka, on the road from Kansas City to Lincoln. When cold weather prevents further work on the Union Pacific, workmen will be moved to the Coast and the rebuilding of the Coast line between San Francisco and Los Angeles will begin.

As a result of recent accidents to various navies the British warships will have their magazines coated with refrigerating machinery.

HINTS ON CLEANING.

A copper kettle should be rubbed with a cut lemon dipped in powdered lath brick. When all the stains have disappeared it should be washed with warm soapy water, and finally polished.
A bottle of ammonia should always be kept near the sink and whenever a pan has been used for frying it should be half filled with warm water and a few drops of ammonia, rinsing it out well afterwards.
Mildew stains should be rubbed with a little ammonia before being sent to the wash. If they have not disappeared after drying spread a thin coat of lemon juice and streak over and spread on the grass in the sun.
It is a mistake to try scrubbing brushes with the bristles side upward. They should always be put with the bristles down, otherwise the water will soak into the wooden part and the bristles soon become very loose.

MOSQUITOES, MALARIA & CO.

Never was such an indictment drawn against the mosquito as that presented by Dr. Edward A. Ayers, whose researches have attracted the attention of the entire scientific world.—Says the New York World, he began his work eight years ago and he has brought to the door of the pest the responsibility for two of the most destructive diseases to which human beings are susceptible—malaria and yellow fever. Dr. Ayers was only last week the recipient of a high honor at the hands of the Academy of Medicine, which made him the Wesley M. Carpenter lecturer of the year. Of course, his theme was the mosquito.

"Most of us are blind, yes, blind," said Dr. Ayers in discussing mosquitoes. "I have in mind when I say that the vast tracts of swamp-lands in New York, and particularly within striking distance of this city, and in New Jersey, which are absolutely abandoned to the mosquito, perhaps the greatest enemy of man."

"The expenditure of a little money in draining, from $1.50 to $5 an acre, and all these lands would be transformed within a few months into blooming gardens. Disease would be given a blow that would put it on its knees. That small expenditure of money would mean something in the pocket books. The swamps land in which the mosquito flourishes is rich. Experiments have been made on reclaimed land, and it has returned from $10 to $100 an acre. Yet we pass it by. And that's why I say most of us are blind."

"Did you ever pause to think of the ruin and death to human nature the mosquito works? The mosquito is the breeder and carrier of our two greatest enemies—malaria and yellow fever. After eighteen years' research we have come to this: The germ of yellow fever is only pathogenic for human beings when introduced by inoculation. The regular process by which inoculation is accomplished, in nature, is through the bites of the mosquito, the insect having previously become contaminated through the act of biting a yellow fever patient within five days of attack. Although the bites of a recently contaminated mosquito can produce a mild attack of yellow fever, the bites of the same insect, when its contamination dated back for several days or weeks, which produce severe or fatal attacks. The yellow fever mosquito, after they have once become contaminated, retain the power of inoculating the disease through the rest of their lives.

"In the forty-seven years preceding the Royal Commission's discovery, 25,952 residents of Havana died from yellow fever, a constant mortality of ten per cent. Under the vigorous control of Gen. Gorgas in 1901 it was completely stamped out in ninety days. He went to work on the mosquito.

"Now let me tell you about malaria. They are worms which are in the blood of from ten to fifty per cent of the people of the entire tropical sections of the globe, representing the best vigor of innumerable millions of human beings. For a useless worm that can have its only service in God's universe than to retard the development of man. Malaria makes you sick, but those worms in you.

"Wherever mosquitoes can exist, here you will find men with malaria. That malaria is only in its best—or worst—in the tropics. If we take the United States as a basis for estimating the world prevalence of malaria we start in with an annual death rate of 15,000 out of 275,000 infected. The total annual contribution of deaths from malaria at this rate is over 250,000, and the total of infected persons in over 6,000,000. During the past one hundred years 100,000 of our people have died from yellow fever and some 500,000 have been infected. Picture for yourself the figures of those hundred years! They ought to be a blank! Don't you think a halt should be called on the mosquito and that public opinion should make the State drain a swamp land wherever one is to be found?

"The United States is just awakening to the problem there is in all this. The present possessions have brought the question fairly home. But England and Germany and France have been working for a long time at it. There is a college in Liverpool, another in Berlin, and a third in France where the mosquito is known and studied and his extermination thought out so that disease may be the quicker overcome.

"Just to show you what Italy has done in a little while, let me tell you that last year it brought the death rate from malaria down from 15,000 to 4,000. How? By getting after the mosquito. By an investment of $3,000,000 in building a draining canal along the River Po it aided largely in this. It understands what menace there is in the swamp lands.

"New Jersey, thanks largely to State Entomologist John B. Smith, has appropriated $250,000 to swamp treatment and up to July last had dug between 7,000 and 10,000 feet of draining ditches. There are about 200,000 acres of swamp in New Jersey, and the appropriation promise to be sufficient, although politics threaten to lighten the purse strings for next year. Long Island has about 50,000 acres of swamps bearing down the efforts of her land boomers and communities like Flushing, which is surrounded by 4,000 swamp acres. She will have to fight.

"New York City is ridiculously infested with mosquitoes—many of them the malarial anophelae—from her park waters and water tanks that crown the skylines of a host of buildings. One healthy favored pair of mosquitoes can start a progeny in June that in two months will rival the human population of the globe in his immaturity. Thus the mosquito has probably destroyed more human beings than exist today.

"Let the people get busy and make their representatives whom they elect get busy. The conditions of the day and the revelations of science demand it."

Since J. J. Hill issued the fiat that the Government must grant bonuses to help the railroads build the needed new tracks it is no more than an obvious duty to collect those fines for rebating, so that the Government can have the money ready.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

2 Benefit Games Of Baseball

The baseball bantams got together this noon and had a peace conference. Peace was declared.

The participants were Mique Fisher, Pat Gleason and Charles Falk. What they said on first arriving is not stated. The upshot of it all is that the Spaulding Coast team will play a benefit game with the Honolulu St. Louis team on Sunday, December 15th.

Furthermore, the Spaulding team will play another benefit game on Tuesday afternoon, December 17th, the opponents of the Coast team being an All-Hawaii aggregation that includes four members of the St. Louis team.

It is settled. All are supposed to have agreed to not knock. The games will be for the best team to win, let the score be what it may. There has been good baseball. There will be more of it.

Josh Woods stated today that he had in connection with the Fisher-Gleason conference this morning. The agreement was reached under the influence of the Baseball League Trustees.

Woods also says Gleason was not at the conference. Charles Falk furnished the information for the Bulletin's original statement.

PAYNE SAYS MIGHT BE A GOOD THING TO CLOSE SOME NEWSPAPERS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 23.—Representative Payne, chairman of the House Committee on Ways and Means, and Representative Dalzell, ranking member of that committee, and the members of the House Committee on Rules, had a conference with President Roosevelt today. Both agreed on leaving the White House that there would be no revision of the tariff at the coming session of Congress. Asked if this statement applied to the schedule on news print paper and wood pulp, Payne, with a hearty laugh, remarked: "What does that 15 per cent. rate on wood pulp amount to? If it closes up some of the newspapers I think it might be a good thing."

GREW MISS CARROLL'S HAIR AND WE CAN PROVE IT

Beautiful Hair At Small Cost.

WITHIN the last decade great and rapid strides have been made in Materia Medica. Many diseases that were considered incurable fifteen years ago are now cured in a few days, and in many cases prevented altogether. The scientists of late years have been delving for the cause, the foundation, the reason and the starting point of disease, fully realizing that the actual and true cause must be ascertained before the remedy can be located. Hair troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp, and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment, and when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all of its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions).

The natural and logical thing to do in either case is, feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is identical with the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp. It feeds and nourishes the hair and does all the work originally carried on by the natural nutrients or life-giving juices generated by the scalp itself. It penetrates the pores of the scalp quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One twenty-five-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself. Now on sale at every drug and toilet store in the land. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

MR. AND MRS. COOKE

FOR COLLEGE LIBRARY INCREASE DONATION

The trustees of Onu College met yesterday at the office of P. C. Jones. On opening the bids that had been called for in connection with the building of the library it was found that John Ouderick was the lowest, it being $24,793. Other bids ran up to $40,000.

The original gift of $20,000 from Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cooke was found inadequate after the plans and specifications had been finished, and without any hesitation, Mr. and Mrs. Cooke raised the gift to $35,000. This most generous act will enable the trustees to proceed with the work of erecting the building according to the original plans.

Fisher Is Disgusted With Pat Gleason

ST. LOUIS MANAGER IN A MIX UP

Pat Gleason, the manager of the St. Louis baseball team, is doing everything in his power to cause a baseball mix-up.

"Mique" Fisher, the manager of the Spalding team, is absolutely disgusted with Gleason, and, upon reading Gleason's letter in an afternoon paper, which was mainly an attack on Jess Woods, spoke as follows:

"This fellow Gleason can tell more different stories than any man I ever talked with. My dealings with him have been the only unpleasant experience that I have had while in your beautiful city. His letter states or intimates that Woods has made us promises that he cannot fulfill. Let me say right here that Woods is doing more for us than he agreed. He has arranged the Volcano trip for us and it came as a pleasant surprise. This will cost him more money, as he has agreed to keep us upon our return from Hilo. Upon a request from me Woods has kindly agreed to handle an extra exhibition game that will be played by us upon our return. He will not receive one cent for his services and does not ask one cent. In behalf of my ball club, I wish to state for once and all that Woods has treated us right and has made some close friends amongst us for his kind treatment.

"Many of the St. Louis players have donated their services and the All-Hawaii team will be strengthened by them and a game will be played upon our return from the Volcano. Jess Woods will be in charge of this game for us.

"Barney Joy has lost every friend that he had in our crowd by his actions while here."

The game that will be played between Fisher's All-Stars and the All-Hawaii, aided by some of the St. Louis boys, will be the most interesting game yet played by the Coast team. Fernandez of the Diamond Heads, Bushnell, Evers and En Sue of the Salina will be used in this game. Reuter will pitch and Donahue will catch. It will be a team that will make Fisher's bunch go some to win.

GLEASON'S CHARGES IGNORED

Honolulu, T. H., Nov. 6, 1907.

To the Baseball Public: Many of my friends have requested me to answer the charges of Gleason, manager of the St. Louis baseball club. I prefer to let others make my defense and to those desiring facts I refer to Mr. M. A. Fisher, manager of the Spalding ball club. Mr. John Soper, who has the handling of all finances for all the ball games; the members of the All-Hawaii club, and the individual members of the St. Louis club.

I will make but one statement, and that is this:

My first object in bringing the Spalding ball club to Hawaii was for personal gain, as anyone but a fool might know. Mr. Soper's statements will show that in this venture I have cleaned up twice as much money for the St. Louis ball club than they made in their entire 1907 season.

The only way in which so-called Manager Gleason has reciprocated is with his hammer. It has been through no efforts of Gleason's that the Spalding team is now in Honolulu. He tried every way possible to block it.

It is unfair to the members of the St. Louis team that they should be dragged into this affair only on the personal jealousy and grievance of their manager, or, as he signs himself, "captain." As a manager he is in a class by himself.

Yours for clean sport.

Jess Woods, who has the benefit game for the Spalding team in charge, has made arrangements with the Palama team and the Chinese A. C. for a preliminary game. The Palamas have consented to a match with the Chinese boys. There is more rivalry between these two teams than between any other teams in Hawaii and this game alone will draw as big a crowd as the All-Hawaii-Spalding game.

Both of these teams will start to practice at once and a handsome silver cup will go to the winners.

The Chinese boys are jubilant over the prospects of meeting the Palamas in a match.

game will be played between the Chinese Aloha Club vs. Aala A. C. and the second game between the Oriental A. C. and the Asahi A. C.

The opening game of the League has been postponed from November 17th up to the present time in order not to conflict with the series of games already played between All-Hawaii and "Mique" Fisher's All-Star players, and during that time the officers have steadily gone ahead with the preparation for this opening day.

The department of the Secretary of Hawaii and the Chinese and Japanese Consuls have been asked to kindly loan the League the flags they can spare and they were granted. The band stand at Ala Park will be decorated with these flags on Sunday, and with the Hawaiian band playing gala music it would seem there was a holiday.

Invitations will be issued to all the honorable members of the League to be present at the opening of the League, and there will be seats reserved for them on that day.

The officers of the Riverside Junior Baseball League are as follows: Bernard H. Kelekollo, president; C. K. Abe, vice president; W. Tin Chong, secretary; Robert Asam, treasurer; and August Guerrero, umpire.

POLICE VS. ALL-STARS

The Police baseball team and Bernard's all-stars are ready to meet each other tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Baseball League grounds. Each team is confident that his own will win and after tomorrow it will be known who the winners will be. Both these two teams can play ball and it is hard to pick out the winners. Of course, Bernard's all-stars have already one game to their credit and they are sure that they can repeat the dose.

The Hawaiian band will play during the game and keep things lively. Tickets can be had at the Hawaiian News, Young building.

A NEW AIRSHIP

Sydney, N. S. W., Nov. 16.—Professor Alexander Graham Bell tested his huge kite flying machine today at the Brough laboratories at Roddick. The airship or kite is composed of 240 cells. Towed by the "Ugly Duckling," the airship soared gracefully until the outer net was reached, where the airship was freed from the tug.

It continued to soar for a short time and then settled on the water. Dr. Bell was completely satisfied with the test. He claims that when moved at a certain speed the kite can be maneuvered regardless of the direction of the wind.
