PROCEEDS ON HER VOYAGE

THE CHINA MAIL WITH HER CLAIM UNPREJUDICED.

Mr. Macfarlane Takes the Coptic for San Francisco and Talks Before Leaving.

When the steamship Coptic was within an hour of sailing for San Francisco yesterday, and the steamship China announced to sail for Yokohama a few hours later, a BULLETIN representative found Geo. W. Macfarlane in the bustle of packing his traps, at the Snow cottage in the Hawaiian hotel grounds. Mr. Macfarlane was asked what arrangement had been made under which the China was proceeding on her voyage before the matter of her registry was determined. In answer he selected a document from a loose packet and handed it to the questioner.

The writing was a certificate from the Collector General of Customs, to supplement an extension of the sea letter of Consul Hopkins in London, and was at first refused by the Executive but conceded at a late hour on Saturday. It reads as follows and its purpose is to allow the China to complete her round voyage without prejudice to Mr. Macfarlane's claim for a Hawaiian register now pending in the Circuit Court:

"Office of Collector General of Customs,
Honolulu, August 14, 1897.

"To whom it may concern:
"I, James B. Castle, Collector General of Customs of the Republic of Hawaii, hereby certify and make known that in respect of the steamship China, now in the port of Honolulu, and about to proceed on her voyage to Yokohama, Hongkong and wayports, and return to San Francisco, application has been made in this office by George W. Macfarlane, claiming to be the owner of said steamship, for a Hawaiian register, and that proceedings are pending in the Hawaiian courts to determine his right to such registry.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the above named day.

"JAMES B. CASTLE, Collector General, etc."

Mr. Macfarlane also showed the reporter the following letter, which he had addressed to Charles T. Wilder, Hawaiian Consul General, at San Francisco on August 4:

"In regard to the transfer to me of the steamship China and the steamship Baracouta, I desire to say that the facts are as follows: "About a year ago the subject of transfer to me was under discussion by Mr. Schwerin, yourself and myself. About the 8th day of May last, I being in San Francisco, it was finally decided that the transfer should be made, Mr. Huntington having arrived from the East, and that application should be made for Hawaiian registry for said vessels. The ships were both held by an English corporation and it was necessary to take steps to disincorporate said corporation before the title could be conveyed to me. I proceeded at once to London, stopping in New York to discuss the details with Mr. Tweed, counsel for the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. I then went to London, where the necessary steps were commenced to disincorporate the English corporation and carry out the transfer which had been agreed upon. There was no break in the proceedings and the matter was finally completed on the 2nd day of July. A provisional register was issued by Mr. Manley Hopkins prior to the receipt of telegraphic instructions to register no foreign vessels."

Mr. Macfarlane further stated that, with a knowledge of the time and order of the different steps in the transaction, Minister Hatch at Washington wrote to the Minister of Foreign Affairs, earnestly recommending that a Hawaiian register should be granted to the steamship China on her arrival at Honolulu. Mr. Hatch in that letter expressed the opinion that Senator Frye, chairman of the committee of foreign relations, would have no objections to the act when he knew all the circumstances.

Talking along amidst his packing, but interrupted by several business and friendly calls, Mr. Macfarlane said:

"When I arrived here I knew what rights I had and would not abate one iota of them. I would like to say that I appreciate the disposition shown by President Dole from the outset, in being willing to recognize the steps that had been taken as lawful and regular. Mr. Cooper came round at last to the granting of the extension of the London sea letter without prejudice to our case.

"Captain Seabury joins me in expressing appreciation of the evident desire of President Dole to help Mr. Cooper out of his dilemma and allow the vessel to get her register. The legal proceedings will give the Minister of Foreign Affairs a fuller opportunity of explaining the matter to the United States Government.

"When the vessel arrived here Mr. Cooper wanted the flag hauled down, as he thought Consul General Wilder had granted the register in the face of instructions, but the fact that the provisional register had been granted in London put a different complexion on the matter. Captain Seabury said he should like to see Mr. Cooper come on deck to pull down the flag.

"Notwithstanding the differences with Mr. Cooper at the beginning, however, he showed at last every disposition to meet us fairly, finally instructing Mr. Castle to sign that certificate.

"The impression seemed to have got around on Saturday that I had taken the British oath of allegiance before the late Commissioner Hawes, thus forfeiting my rights as a Hawaiian citizen, but on my cross-examination by Mr. Cooper in court the rumor was totally disproved.

"Our attorney advised us that until we got our case into court, and our testimony in, and a certificate from the Collector General, saying that our case was now pending in court to determine my rights to Hawaiian registry, we could not accept an extension of the sea letter from the Minister of Foreign Affairs, as he had claimed at the Executive meeting that the document was no longer valid after the ship's arrival here. We had by law applied to the Collector General for a register and he had to give his reasons for not granting a certificate.

"If annexation should take place and an American register thereby come to the steamship China, it will be a benefit to American citizens. Whereas in the case of the Hawaiian register lately granted to a sailing vessel of Kitcher's the benefit, in a like contingency, would be altogether to British subjects.

"It is only eleven months since I was granted a Hawaiian register for the steamship Aztec, and the conditions were exactly similar to those in the case of the China."

When Mr. Macfarlane had buckled the last strap and stood up to bid goodby to those in the room, he remarked in a tone of triumph—not to say "gusto"—that with the usual good time of the Coptic he should land at San Francisco in thirty days from his leaving London. Pretty good traveling, that—to cross the Atlantic, then the American continent, and make the round trip between San Francisco and Honolulu, remaining here four days, all inside of a month.

THE REGISTRY QUESTION

CASE OF THE CHINA FAR FROM EXCEPTIONAL.

Mr. Macfarlane's Hawaiian Citizenship Attacked—Progress of the Mandamus Hearing.

Owing to the projected departure of Captain Seabury the master and George W. Macfarlane, the nominal owner, of the steamship China, their testimony was taken on Saturday before Judge Perry, at Circuit Court chambers, in advance of the return day of the writ of mandamus to compel the Collector General to grant a Hawaiian register to that vessel.

Captain Seabury gave a sort of history of the China; he had her value stated in San Francisco at about $200,000; had stated outside she cost $740,000, but she would not be worth her actual value to one outside the company.

Mr. Macfarlane said he was whole owner of the China, and related facts about bill of sale and mortgage already known. The mortgage was made to secure the Pacific Mail's interests in the ship; had given no charter, and made no engagement to reconvey the vessel; when he took out provisional register was not aware that instructions had been sent to the London consul to grant no more Hawaiian registers; his father was originally British; did not know if he had naturalized as an American, as he died when witness was a small boy; had received no letters of denization, nor ever taken an oath of allegiance to any government of Hawaii; had followed legal advice in taking a letter of indemnity from Mr. Huntington; received no consideration beyond perhaps £50. for which he had not asked, to become the registered owner; would receive no profits and share no losses in running the China.

Minister Cooper said there would be four points in the answer of the respondent. He would raise the question of the jurisdiction of the Court, the question of whether or not it lies in the discretion of the Collector General to grant a register, the question of the nationality of Colonel Macfarlane and the question of the ownership of the China.

The regular hearing on the writ began before Judge Perry at 10:30 today. Following is a condensed report of the evidence:
P. C. Jones—Firm of C. Brewer & Co. was registered owner of bark Foohing Suey, but held no actual interest in the vessel; had eighth interest in bark R. P. Rithat; could only testify exactly of Foohing Suey, registry of which was given when he was manager of the firm; familiar with term "registered owner" but not with "flag owner;" familiar with principle of having persons not owning in vessels being their registered owners; the way we did with the Foohing Suey was to make a charter for a term of 99 years.

Cross-examined—Do not remember what oath was taken; do not remember whether I gave the officer to understand that I was no more than the nominal owner.

T. Bain Walker—Am British Vice Consul; on August 13 received communication from H. Hackfeld & Co., agents of the China, and answered it.
Mr. Cooper objected the letters were not material, as the Minister of Foreign Affairs had not written the letter required in the case. The Minister of Foreign Affairs could not recognize letters passing between the agents and the consul. Objection over-ruled on Mr. Hartwell's argument that it was the statutory duty of the Minister to write such a letter.

Witness—The letter asked if there was any legal impediment to granting a Hawaiian register to the China; answered that I was not aware of any legal impediment; understood I was present at the conference with the Cabinet on Thursday at the request of the Foreign Office.

Mr. Cooper said this was a mistake, and Mr. Walker asked leave, smilingly, to apologize for his intrusion on that occasion. A clerk had brought him a telephone message that he was requested to attend. Mr. Cooper said there was no occasion to apologize. Mr. Hartwell said Mr. Walker was present when Mr. Macfarlane and himself arrived at the Foreign Office. Mr. Cooper said President Dole possibly had invited Mr. Walker, and he himself was glad to see him there.

Witness—It was not stated in my hearing what objections the Government had to the register; heard the Minister of Foreign Affairs allude to assurances given to United States Government that no more foreign vessels would be registered; the Minister did not state any reasons to me.
Cross examined—Received no communication from Minister of Foreign Affairs regarding application for register.
Direct examination as witness for respondent—Made a search of the records of the British Legation; found that Mr. Macfarlane's birth had been recorded, also the birth of his parents; the register I have always considered as prima facie evidence of British nationality; the law of British nationality is that a person born of British parents in a foreign country, unless the parents or himself have renounced allegiance, is of British nationality; there may be a question of double nationality; if he does not renounce it, he may claim the right of a British subject.
Q.—Would the British consul receive as a British subject a man born of British parentage in this country?
A.—Yes.
John Ena—I am flag owner of four foreign-built vessels of Hawaiian registry—the ships John Ena and Hawaiian Isles, the steamer Alexander and the ship Honolulu; had money in the John Ena and Hawaiian Isles; these two vessels are actually owned in foreign corporations; they made a bill of sale to me; I do not hold any interest now, having sold my shares; made a declaration that I was the sole owner, having taken a bill of sale but paying no money; am familiar with the expression, "flag owner;" put no money in the Alexander or the Honolulu; consented to be the registered owner; practised no subterfuge on the customs officers; made a clear statement and they understood me; the value in the bill of sale of the John Ena was one dollar, but the actual value about $100,000; do not know whether they understood that I did not own in the vessels.
Cross-examined—I took the usual oath.
W. F. Allen—Was Collector General of Customs twenty years nine months ending in 1884; was familiar with registration of Hawaiian vessels by flag owners—"paper owners" I called them; that was a common practise—a good many whaling vessels and quite a number of coasters; practise not discontinued in my time; have learned of its being continued; party making a register would bring a bill of sale, and we accept that bill of sale as evidence that he was the owner; sometimes I knew that the consideration was not paid but not always; I would make a fair valuation for the purpose of taxation; a common practise was to make a long charter.
Cross-examined—Threw the responsibility on the person making the application without going behind the returns, after ascertaining through the Foreign Office that there was no legal impediment; never inquired whether he had given a private charter, it would be going beyond my authority.
Redirect—I consider that a meagre bill of sale (the China's exhibited) for so large a vessel; there is an absence of details such as masts, rigging, anchors, etc.; am not aware what British form is.

To Mr. Cooper—In case of a mortgage I would have communicated with the Cabinet at once.
F. B. McStocker, Deputy Collector General of Customs, testified of proceedings in which he had taken part regarding the China's application. Received the papers when protested stamp duty of $2000 was deposited; had got an answer to notice given the Foreign Office, saying it was not proposed to grant any more registers; so far as he understood the Aztec was registered under similar forms to those of the China's application; think the bill of sale according to British form, some details of matter absent; personally was not satisfied with forms in Aztec matter, and referred it to Collector General; in three or four hours received instructions to go ahead; nothing in appearance of China's bill of sale that makes it unsatisfactory; told Macfarlane his bond would be $2000, but would not accept it as that would have made finality; allowed him to leave it in the office, and it is there now; Mr. Lyle surveyed the China; I do not know any difference in form between the cases of the Aztec and the China; these was not a great deal of hitching and hauling about the Aztec, only about the matter of stamps; Mr. Thurston acted for Mr. Macfarlane in the Aztec's case; until further inquiry is made I cannot state if there is any legal impediment to the China's registry.
Cross-examined—Received a letter from Macfarlane formally demanding registry; had not refused registry at that time; answered that "not being satisfied that no legal impediment existed" we declined to grant the register.
Recess from 11:50 to 1:30. Collector General Castle was to be the next witness.

Two Small Fires.

The fire department was called out twice since the last issue of this paper. The first alarm at midnight on Saturday was for a cottage on Queen street belonging to Russian Frank's establishment, the shell of which was saved and the adjoining buildings protected by the efforts of the department. The second alarm was sent in shortly after noon yesterday, the fire being located on Liliha street, near School, in a cottage occupied by Captain Thompson of the Ke-ahonou. With its contents it was entirely destroyed. Captain Thompson lost all his personal effects valued at about $300.

James Bennett, commonly known as Boatwain Ben, was charged with larceny in the first degree in the police court today and bail fixed at $500. His trial is set for the 19th. He is accused of entering the room of D. G. Camarinos and stealing $200 from the pocket of his pantaloons while he slept.

A HANGING CHINA CLOSET.

Design For an Attractive Cabinet Arrangement of the China.

Is a cabinet for choice china wanted? If so, let a carpenter construct one for you according to the design and instructions recently given in The Ladies' Home Journal and here reproduced for your benefit:

A good size for the middle compartment is 36 inches high and 24 inches wide. To each side a smaller compartment, measuring 18 inches square, may be fastened securely with screws and glue. Six inches deep will be enough for the large one and 5 or 5 1/2 inches will be sufficient depth for the smaller ones. A cornice molding may be arranged around the top of the large cupboard, but for the smaller ones a narrow strip or band fastened around the top will be quite enough to take away the blunt box corner appearance. Rods and curtains may be arranged as shown. Ordinary brass or bronze hooks are to be used where indicated in the drawing. They can be supplied by the carpenter.

If an elaborate affair is desired, the interior of the cabinet may be lined with pale blue or other delicate shade of velour, plush, or, well—ordinary cotton flannel. Avoid in the arrangement of your china a crowded, shop display effect. Only your choice bits should be put on view therein. If you have a collection of delft, line your cabinet with white. If your china is principally of Dresden, use pale green; for a collection of royal Worcester, yellow, and if of cut glass, black cloth or velvetine. The curtains, if in black, might be embroidered in gold thread to make them less somber, but the design should not be too elaborate. Care should be taken to have the cabinet fastened securely to the wall by an expert carpenter, as it will necessarily be a heavy one when filled with china.

The Hall Cabinet.

Seasoned.

Mrs. Brady—Of don't know what's the matter with it. The man as sold it could not use it as seasoned lumber.
 Brady (in disgust)—Seasoned, is it? Well, the lumber must have been seasoned in the fall, then, for the leaves are all dropping off.—Puck.

PRESERVE THE LOOKS How the Skin and Hair should be Treated.

The eyes should be washed daily. The dust which we all suffer from should be removed from the eyes by some lotion.

The water for the face should never be cold, because it shocks the nerves. For daily sponge baths do not use hot water, but lukewarm.

A soft crash face cloth is the best towel to be used, and all the lotions are applied by means of it. For drying the face this is simply wrung dry, no "everyday" towel ever being applied to the face.

Amateur (the next morning)—Heavens, Breach! I didn't know it was going to be a masquerade affair.

Before giving your order for a portrait, see what King Bros. have to show in crayon enlargements and judge for yourself whether they can give you the best value for your money or not.

MONDAY, AUG. 16, 1897.

If reports are true the Slavs of the emancipated Baltic provinces are again disgraced by the employment of assassins as political agents. It was Serbia the previous time. Now it is Bulgaria that revives the vile methods of government in the dark and middle ages. Some disciplinary music of the "concert of Europe," it would seem, needs to be played for the benefit of the Turk's enemies as well as for his own regulation.

Latest indications are that the coal miners' strike is going to prove a disastrous failure for the strikers. As a very great proportion of them admittedly had no grievance, sympathy ought only be felt for the women and children, who are the greatest sufferers.

So the Powers are allowing Greece to be mulct in indemnity for the war in which they would not allow her to employ the best part of her fighting strength.

It does the U. S. N. minstrels great honor that their concert on Saturday evening is for the benefit of local charity.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS

TURKEY WANTS HER MONEY BEFORE LEAVING THESALY.

Assassination in Bulgaria—Expedition to South Pole About to Start.

The steamer Misera brings news a day or two later than the China, of which the leading features are given below:

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

It is understood that the peace conference has arranged for the appointment by the Powers of three delegates to control the revenues assigned to the service of the Greek debt.

The Porte is negotiating a loan to cover the evacuation of Thessaly. The ambassadors propose that the indemnity should be paid in four yearly instalments of one million pounds Turkish. The Turkish Government wants the evacuation to occupy the same period, and wishes to hold Volo until it has been paid. Germany demands that Turkey shall be allowed to hold the districts of Trikala and Turnavo until the indemnity has been paid. England strongly opposes this.

Turkey's prompt abandonment of the proposal to send the Turkish fleet to Crete is significant of her attitude whenever the Powers take a bold and united stand.

The deputies representing the principal provinces have sent to the foreign admirals an official declaration, accepting autonomy, and expressing a desire that the Turkish troops be withdrawn from the Island. This action is attributed to a belief of the Cretans that Djavad Pasha, the new Military Commandant, is really charged by the Sultan with instructions to wreck the autonomy scheme.

Mr. Goschen, first lord of the admiralty, said in the House of Commons that the action of the admirals, in deciding to exclude the Turkish fleet from Cretan waters, "is not disapproved by Her Majesty's Government."

EUROPE.

Parliament was prorogued on the 6th inst. The Government intends next session to deal with the redistribution of seats.

The Gaulois of Paris points out that under the commercial treaty concluded between Canada and France in 1893, France will benefit by any advantage which Canada gives Great Britain.

The necessary sum of money to defray the expenses of the South Pole expedition having been assured by the vote of a further credit of 50,000 francs, the steamer Belgia, with the South Pole exploring expedition on board, will leave Antwerp on August 15.

It is rumored at Sofia that the object of the visit of Prince Ferdinand and M. Stoilff, the Bulgarian Premier, to King Charles of Roumania, is to induce reluctant Roumania to join Serbia and Bulgaria in the rising against Turkey, for which, it is alleged, secret preparations have for a long time been in progress.

A Vienna dispatch reports that the Bulgarian poet, Constantinoff, has been assassinated. It appears that he was making a political tour with his friend, Takoff, who is a strong opponent of the present Cabinet and of the Government of Prince Ferdinand. According to the despatch, the Bulgarian authorities gave orders for the assassination of Takoff, and the miscreants who were hired to carry out the instructions mistook the poet for their intended victim.

The London Morning Post says the American claim of $28,500 for the extradition of Butler seems an act deserving severe condemnation. If a nation will behave in such a manner, it ought not to be surprised when the Attorney-General of New South Wales asserts that the cost of extradition is excessive and unwarranted.

In the Hungarian Parliament the Minister of Commerce, Baron De Daniel, replying to an interpellation on the subject of the Dingley Tariff, said that the Government considered that Hungary, in protecting her export interests, should not act alone, but to insure success the Government thought all states should agree in a common course of action.

UNITED STATES.

Wheeling, W. Va., Aug. 5.—At Fairmont, the tie-up promised by organizer Rae has not materialized. In Kanawha Valley all the mines but one are working. On the Norfolk and Western road the strike has entirely disappeared. The Eastern Ohio miners are getting hungry and have soliciting committees out with wagons scouring food. The people are contributing liberally, and Secretary-Treasurer Lewis thinks they can hold out another month at least.

Washington, Aug. 5.—The big battleship, Indiana, sailed away from Newport today for Halifax, where she will be docked, cleaned and painted. She is the first of the battleships that has been sent from the United States to a foreign dock for lack of docking facilities at home.

The Kewalo Bicycle Track, to be known as Cyclomere Park, is at last a reality and "not a dream," thanks to the energy and enterprise of Mr. Desky, and will be opened with a grand meet next month, and all the young men—and perhaps also the lovely girls—will want to try their luck on it. In anticipation of increased sales on bicycles we have quietly laid in a good stock of Tribune Bicycles than which there is none better in the market. The Tribune is now recognized in the United States as the best; it is the favorite with all the society people and business men all over the Union, and our own American Minister rides one. Recent advices announce a cut in prices of low grade, but the strictly high grade wheels still sell readily at the former list price. We have made better arrangements with the manufacturers, whereby we are enabled to sell the Tribune bicycles at list price—$100, and invite all intending purchasers of wheels to come and inspect our stock before going elsewhere. We have ladies' and gentlemen's road wheels, racers and all models manufactured by the celebrated Black Manufacturing Co. We also carry the Columbus, Columbus Juvenile for Boys and Girls, B & H Special, Zimmy and Stormer, which are sold exceedingly cheap.

One of the valley streams runs through the eastern boundary of the property. The main dwelling is a commodious two-story building, containing large drawing room, spacious dining-room, billiard room, bedrooms, etc., and has all modern improvements. The house is substantially built and the rooms are all well ventilated. Sanitary plumbing throughout. Cottages, Stables, Carriage Houses and Out-houses on the property. The situation commands an unsurpassed view of the Harbor, the main portion of the City and the adjacent mountain scenery. This is one of the largest and finest residences that has been offered at public sale in Honolulu, and must be sold to close the above Estate. Immediately following the sale of the residence, I will sell the ENTIRE HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE particulars of which can be obtained at my office. The Old Stand: The New Stand: You Can Find

Where for the past seventeen years we served the people of Honolulu, having neither accommodation nor proper facilities for conducting an increasing business, our efforts for the past seven months have been mainly directed to erecting a building ample for our requirements and equipped with facilities for handling all business with dispatch. We feel that this result has been accomplished notwithstanding a number of unavoidable delays caused by material not coming to hand as anticipated. In giving our attention to the details of building we were obliged to neglect some of our jobbing trade which we regret, and hope under the new conditions to make up for same by prompt and faithful attention to all matters placed in our charge.

Is our own creation adapted in every detail to conducting our business. In opening this stand we do so with the purpose of confining ourselves to the lines of goods carried by us at the old store but showing a more complete assortment than heretofore. Understanding the requirements of this community we will endeavor to supply our trade with strictly up to date goods of a quality that we can guarantee. We invite inspection of our stock.

"OLD CURIOSITY SHOP."

Katie Putnam Fills the Opera House on Saturday Evening.

A crowded house witnessed Katie Putnam's rendition of her famous dual roles of Little Nell and the Marchioness in the play of the "Old Curiosity Shop" on Saturday evening. In her version of the story Miss Putnam follows the lines laid down in the novel very closely and to those familiar with the book her rendition was a delightful one. She was well supported by H. B. Emery as Dick Swiveller and J. D. O'Hara as Quilp. Miss Putnam's songs were encored as a matter of course.

Tomorrow evening the last performance of the season will be given, the play being "Erma, the Elf," in which Miss Putnam assumes three different characters and sings five or six songs.

Marriage.

Mrs. Martha D. Donnolly, nee Bolster, was married to Mr. John Winter at the home of the bride in Beretania street on Saturday evening. The ceremony was performed in an impressive manner by Dr. H. N. Hoyt of California, who is here filling the pulpit of Central Union church during Mr. Birnie's vacation. Only relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. There was a bounteous supper, with an elegant wedding cake on the middle of the table, and a very pleasant sociable time followed the feast. The groom is an engineer on the Oahu plantation, and his bride an amiable and highly esteemed lady of Honolulu birth. She is a daughter of Mr. Alex. Bolster, the veteran typographer. When a person is suffering from headache or a feeling of fatigue, the chances are ten to one that the liver is inactive. A few doses of APENTA WATER will invariably bring about a most satisfactory result.

FAMILIES SUPPLIED.

Etiquette For Brides.

Prospective brides will be interested in the following from The Home Journal: It would be perfectly proper if you are to be married in church and in your traveling dress for you to go directly from the church to the station, omitting everything in the way of a reception or a collation. Your mother should send written notes of invitation to your immediate family and the immediate family of the bridegroom, asking them to be present at the church. The sending out of announcement cards is entirely a matter of personal taste.

At a quiet, home wedding the collation might consist of salads, sandwiches, ices, meat and sweet jellies, bride's cake, small cakes, coffee, lemonade and any other beverage you may desire. Have the collation spread on one large table and let the service be informal.

At a daytime wedding, even if the bride wear all white, the bridegroom should wear the afternoon costume—that is, trousers showing a fancy pattern, black waistcoat and frock coat, white silk four-in-hand tie and white kid gloves. The bridegroom should give the bride a list of those friends, ladies and gentlemen, whose acquaintance he wishes her to make, and cards should be sent to them.

A bridal party in marching into a church where there is only one aisle would go in this order: First, the ushers, two by two; then the six bridesmaids, two by two; then the maid of honor, walking alone, and then the bride, on the arm of her nearest male relative. The bridegroom and best man should be waiting at the altar. Returning, after the ceremony, the procession is in this order: First, the bride and bridegroom; next, the maid of honor with the best man, then each bridesmaid on the arm of an usher.

Potato Salad. Four cold boiled potatoes, two hard boiled eggs, chop fine together, one teaspoonful of pepper and one of mustard, two teaspoonfuls of salt, one egg beaten light, two teaspoonfuls of sweet cream, four teaspoonfuls of good cider vinegar.

Terrible Man. Visitor (in Washington)—Isn't it unusually dark this morning? Democratic Congressman (with much ferocity)—Yes. The sun is rising very reluctantly. It is afraid Speaker Reed won't recognize it.—Chicago Tribune.

Reviving a Rivalry. "I've heard a great deal," said the English tourist, "about the remarkable bluffs along the Mississippi." "Yes," remarked the Chicago man. "St. Louis is the biggest one."—Detroit News.

"Boy Wanted." "It's your wife at the telephone," said the office boy. "Tell her I'm out for the afternoon." "He says to tell you he's out for the afternoon, mum."—Detroit Free Press.

Twice. "I heard that Pose, the photographer, was 'held up' twice in the same evening." "Yes, he was retouched."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Trouble. "You're drunk," said the policeman. "Nozing of th' kine," explained the tipsy wheelman. "I 'eh jus' bicycle tired."—Philadelphia North American.

Well Earned Rest.

Lady (to polite laborer who has offered her his seat)—Oh, no! Keep your seat, my good man. You have been working hard all day. Polite Laborer (sympathetically)—Take it, ma'am. Thrus, O've bin carryin' 'hod all th' day, but you've bin shoppin'—Puck.

If you are interested in the subject of enlarged portraits, it would be worth your while to see the samples at King Bros. at prices ranging from $5.00 to $10.00 frames and all. They can't be beat.

City Carriage Co., J. S. Andrade, manager. If you want a hack with good horse and careful driver ring up Telephone 113, corner of Fort and Merchant streets. Hack at all hours.

Don't be persuaded to accept what is not really good in enlarged portraits, just because you have given an order for one. King Bros. will give you something infinitely better and cheaper than you can get anywhere else in town.

We don't expect you to give us the preference if what we have to sell is inferior or our prices higher than our rivals, but when we offer a superior article for less money, you do yourself a wrong by not looking into the matter. Call and see our samples of portrait work. King Bros., 110 Hotel street.

Bubbles or Medals.

"Best sarsaparilla." When you think of it how contradictory that term is. For there can be only one best in anything—one best sarsaparilla, as there is one highest mountain, one longest river, one deepest ocean. And that best sarsaparilla is—? . . . There's the rub! You can measure mountain height and ocean depth, but how test sarsaparilla? You could if you were chemists. But then do you need to test it? The World's Fair Committee tested it,—and thoroughly. They went behind the label on the bottle. What did this sarsaparilla test result in? Every make of sarsaparilla shut out of the Fair, except Ayer's. So it was that Ayer's was the only sarsaparilla admitted to the World's Fair. The committee found it the best. They had no room for anything that was not the best. And as the best, Ayer's Sarsaparilla received the medal and awards due its merits. Remember the word "best" is a bubble any breath can blow; but there are pins to prick such bubbles. Those others are blowing more "best sarsaparilla" bubbles since the World's Fair pricked the old ones. True, but Ayer's Sarsaparilla has the medal. The pin that scratches the medal proves it gold. The pin that pricks the bubble proves it wind. We point to medals, not bubbles, when we say: The best sarsaparilla is Ayer's.

Not Liqueur That Killed Him. Mr. Rimmose (looking at a paper)—See here, Mr. Goldwater, how do you explain this? Here is an account of the sudden death of an athlete, a man who never drank a drop of liquor in his life, a model of physical health, the paper says, and yet he dropped dead at the age of 39. It wasn't liquor that time, now was it? Mr. Goldwater—What was he doing? "He was in a merry party of friends and was singing 'Just Tell Them That You Saw Me.'" "Oh! Direct visitation of Providence most likely."—New York Weekly.

They Went After It. "Great Scott, Rastus! You look as if you had been fighting a buzzsaw." "Yes, sah. I was in dat smash up in de Bucktown wheelmen's race." "I heard about that. How did it happen?" "Dollah fell out'n de pacemaker's pocket right in de middle ob de race."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

He Knows She Won't. "They say, Grumpy, that the queen of England has 60 pianos and doesn't play any of them." "I'm a little bit cramped this spring, but I'll buy my daughter 59 more if she'll follow the queen's example."—Detroit Free Press.

A Legal Novice. "Yes, indeed, the courts hold that ignorance of the law is no excuse. I learned that by bitter experience." "You were ignorant of the law?" "No, but my lawyer was."—New York Sunday Journal.

Reason Enough. "Wat's de matter wid Lizzie Casey? She acks stuck up." "Ain't ye heard? Why, her brudder just got 60 days for lickin a policeman."—San Francisco Examiner.

Gauged. The Sweetest—Do you love me more than you ever loved any other girl, George? The Dearest—Yes; I know I do by the sickening fear I have whenever I see your father.—Truth.

WATERFRONT ITEMS

LINEAR MIOWERA COMES IN FROM VANCOUVER.

Fresno Clears—J A Cummins' Smart Trip to Kona—Balling of the Barkentine Stanford.

The "Weary-Mary" no longer. Inspector Johnson is discharging the Miowera.

The odor of the Orient prevails at the mail wharf.

The barkentine Jane L Stanford sailed for Puget Sound this afternoon.

The bark Fresno cleared for Port Townsend in ballast this morning and will sail tomorrow.

Tomorrow, high tide large 7:25 a m; high tide small 6:10 a m; low tide large 0:00 a m; low tide small 1:10 a m.

Commander Free, R N R, of the Miowera declares the Aorangi will arrive from the Colonies in three days from this date!

The steamer W G Hall will be laid up for repairs this week and the steamer Mikahala occupy the leeward Kauai route.

The ship Commodore will complete her cargo—3100 tons—of sugar tomorrow which will be the last of this season's crop.

The Pacific Mail liner China, commander Seabury, sailed for Yokohama with the Hawaiian flag defiantly floating over her at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The Oriental and Occidental liner Coptic, commander Sealby, docked at the Mail wharf about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon nine days and some hours from Yokohama hence from that port August 5. She left about 900 tons of freight and continued on her voyage to San Francisco at noon yesterday.

A protest against the further unloading of the S S Miowera's cargo was entered at the custom house by Hackfeld & Co who complained that the Mail wharf where the Miowera is being discharged is already occupied by the Coptic's cargo. The chances are the Miowera will continue to unload at the Mail wharf, however, as there are no other wharves available.

With the following memoranda of her voyage the Canadian-Australian liner docked at the Mail wharf at 5 o'clock: The R M S Miowera, Thos Free, R N R, commander, left Vancouver at 6:16 a m, on the 8th inst; Victoria at 6:30 p m, same date; cleared Tatoosh Island at 11:27 p m, passed the barque Imerlecky standing to eastward in Lat 39 27. N Long 139 20. W on the 11th August. Arrived at Honolulu at 4:30 a m. Experienced for the first three days fresh and strong winds from S E to S W with head sea thence to arrival fine weather. The Miowera brings about 500 tons freight for this port.

The steamer J A Cummins has made a smart voyage between Honolulu and Kailua. Captain A Gartenberg of Griubaum & Co Ltd hearing that his wife who has been visiting relatives in Kona was seriously ill chartered the steamer to go to her bedside. The steamer left here Saturday morning with Captain Gartenberg and Mrs McGuire, mother of Mrs Gartenberg, and arrived at Kailua at six o'clock Sunday morning where Captain Gartenberg telephoned ahead for horses and the Cummins then proceeded to Keauhou where on horseback Gartenberg continued his journey. He found Mrs Gartenberg much better and will remain until the return of the steamer Mauna Loa next week. The steamer reached here at eight o'clock this morning. The Cummins logged 163 miles between the bell buoy off the channel and Kailua. She will go on the regular Waimanalo route tomorrow.

GOOD PLAYING ON BOTH SIDES IN SATURDAY'S GAME.

Streak of Luck in the Last Half of the Ninth Gave the Soldiers the Winning Run.

There was some good ball playing on Saturday in the game between the Regiments and St. Louis teams, and if Dayton had not got rattled in the third innings and let the Regiments make five runs the chances are they would have been badly left.
