Republican Majority In Control of Appointments

Mayor From Cot Ushers in New Regime; Five G. O. P. Men Control Committees and Lay His Appointments on Table; Democrats Protest Several Points

At 12 o'clock today the new board of supervisors of the city and county of Honolulu, with Mayor J. J. Fern in the chair, took up the reins of municipal government which had been dropped at a minute before by the retiring members of the old board. The meeting adjourned at 12:05.

The assembly room in the city hall where the ceremonies were held and the halls outside were packed with city employees, friends of the new administration and interested spectators.

Mayor J. J. Fern arrived at the city hall at 11:30 and was taken immediately to the mayor's office where he posed on a cot specially prepared until the time arrived for his entrance.

Just as the clock struck 12, with the Hawaiian band playing, Mayor Fern supported on either side by Lester Petrie and William Ahia and followed by the other members of the board, entered the hall and took their respective places. Father Valentin offered the prayer.

Factions Lock Horns
Hardly had the board got down to business when the minority, consisting of Petrie and McClellan, and the majority composed of all of the Republicans locked horns.

The first mooted point was over the appointment of standing committees. Petrie moved that the rules of the old board be adopted as the temporary rules of the new board, but this was amended by Arnold to the extent that "The board shall establish rules of procedure and appoint all standing committees," which was aimed to deprive the mayor of this appointing power.

Immediately Petrie was on his feet. "I think the Arnold amendment is in poor taste, as it is simply petty politics. There is no reason for us to fight on this or any other point."

Arnold pointed out that it was the power of the board to make its own rules, and when the vote was taken it stood 5 to 3 for the amendment.

The next clash was over the appointment of the mayor. Petrie moved that a temporary committee be appointed to consider the appointments. Arnold, however, who acted as the spokesman of the Republicans throughout the meeting, moved that they be laid on the table for future consideration.

Mayor Fern, however, ruled that his motion was out of order and ordered the roll called on Petrie's motion, which lost 5 to 3. McClellan accidentally voted against it. Arnold's motion was then put and carried.

Throughout the meeting McClellan had constantly voted "no" on all party questions. On Petrie's motion to appoint a special committee on appointments he voted "no" from habit. As was usual a good joke the rest of the members did not allow it to be changed.

Shortly before the close of the long session, Supervisor Arnold rose to move that all present incumbents of office remain as now for one month, this being a step to ratify that portion of the mayor's message which promised 30 days' grace. The motion was opposed, however, as not necessary, and Arnold withdrew it to move for adjournment.

Mayor Fern put the motion at 10 minutes to 1 o'clock and it carried unanimously.

Previously to the meeting the mayor and members of the board had taken their oath of office and filed their bonds.

Following the prayer Fern appointed Arnold, Petrie and Ahia as a committee on credentials and a recess.

MEAT SHORTAGE LOOMS! FARMERS DECREASE STOCK?

Territorial Food Commission Calls Ranchers Together to Devise Remedy

Stockmen and others vitally interested in the meat situation on Oahu and throughout the territory gathered at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon in conference with the members of the territorial food commission at the Chamber of Commerce.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the outlook in the meat and dairy supply, a question over which two theories have arisen. One of these is that farmers and stockmen should keep every cow now in their possession, whether of the best breed or not. The other is that poorer cows should be culled from herds to make room for the best blood.

Albert Horner recently urged that the former theory be adopted here, warning that unless this is done there will be a shortage of cattle that may mean a famine.

That it is the intention of a large proportion of the ranchmen to reduce their herds, maintaining that they are now overstocked, while a small proportion say they intend to keep about the same number as at present, was the declaration of Horner in a report to the meeting.

The reasons given for slaughtering the cows have been first, to reduce the herds because of the shortage of pasture and, second, to improve the stock. In no case has any one maintained that it was the intention to increase materially their herds.

With no prospects for increase in the size of the herds and possibilities of a decrease and the same condition obtaining in the dairies the situation is regarded as serious.

"Taking this situation into consideration in connection with the request from Washington that these islands be made self-sustaining in so far as foods are concerned—during the present emergency—and the further, but not the least important fact that the population of the territory is rapidly increasing, it means that more beef and dairy products must be imported to meet the increased demand; increase our own herds quickly or reduce consumption," said Mr. Horner in concluding his report.

L. L. McCandless, one of the largest cattle owners of the islands, declared that he considered the spread of anthrax the most serious thing in the present situation, for if it gets into the herds in the mountains it will be impossible to stop it. If the government would open up lands from which cattle are now restricted because of the ruin they bring to trees and would lower the standards of meat required, Mr. McCandless said that he thought the situation could be met.

TREASON CHARGE UPON BELGIANS

AMSTERDAM, Holland, July 2.—The new war tribunal today sentenced three Belgian laborers for three, five and six years respectively, the charges against them being "treason."

Electric Co. Pays $90,000 For Esplanade

At public auction at noon today the Hawaiian Electric Co., through F. E. Blake, manager, purchased for $90,000 lots 63 to 68, Esplanade lots containing an area of 30,000 square feet.

The upset price of the land was $90,000 and the Hawaiian Electric Co. was the only bidder. It was expected there would be some keen competition for the possession of the property, it having been reported that the territorial government would endeavor to secure it.

Following the sale Manager Blake announced that the land will be used for the erection of a new power house, plans for which are now being made in New York City by Westinghouse, Kerr and Church, architects. The first unit for the new power house, a generator with a 10,000-kilowatt capacity, has already arrived in Honolulu.

FRENCH CHEER U. S. SOLDIERS

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)
A PORT IN FRANCE, July 2. (Delayed)—Picturesque scenes took place here when the American troops arrived. As the transports steamed into harbor, in a long line, at an early hour, the news that the Americans had arrived spread like wildfire. Crowds gathered to see the landing. Whistles blared a welcoming din. Bands were hurried to the waterfront and played national airs and cheers went up. "Vive la France! Vive les Etats Unis!" Flags were flown everywhere, both French and American.

RELATIONS OF JAPAN, U. S. SAID FINE

TOKIO, Japan, July 2.—Declaring that the relations between the United States and Japan are now very friendly, and a proposal that Japan should offer to trade her South Sea possessions, largely taken from the Germans, for the Philippines, marked today's session of the Imperial Diet.

The relations of the two countries were again the main subject of discussion. One of the speakers, M. Katsura, attributed the misunderstanding to the ambiguity of Japan's Chinese policy, as it appears to America. He said that Japan is suspected in America of an intention to exploit China. Another speaker suggested a resolution calling for negotiations by Japan to exchange for the Philippines.

Foreign Minister Motono smiled as he said that the relations of the two countries have never been better than at present and that "the cordial understanding is the result of frankness."

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)
LONDON, Eng., July 2.—News from Peking late today says that a scheme to restore the Manchu dynasty to power is afoot in China but that it is not believed a coup to accomplish this will be attempted immediately. The plan has caused a sensation in Peking. Gen. Chang Shun, credited with supporting the plan, has placed strong guards to protect himself and his associates.

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 2.—U. S. Minister Reisch today cabled to the state department that Gen. Chang-shun and other militarists have sent a cablegram to President Li of China ordering the restoration of the Manchus to the monarchy and that civil war is feared.

(Special Cable to Nippon Jiji)
TOKIO, Japan, July 2.—China has been declared a monarchy. Hsuan Tung, the 12-year-old boy who was deposed five years ago, has been placed upon the throne by the Manchus, and military governors of the various provinces in China have ceased being a republic yesterday afternoon, when the officials in Peking placed the boy emperor on the throne.

Whether or not Japan will recognize the boy emperor remains to be seen, but it is thought she will be first to recognize the monarchy. England has as a rule followed Japan in all Far Eastern decisions, and Tokio diplomats believe that Great Britain will give recognition should Japan officially recognize the monarchy.

Consul-General Tzang Woodhuan of China said today that he had not received any official news regarding the change from a republic to a monarchy, and did not think it likely that such is the case. He said he would have received official notification had the young emperor been placed on the throne.

$80,000 ALLOTTED TO LIGHT CHANNEL OF PEARL HARBOR

Congress has at last appropriated the $80,000 authorized two years ago for lighting the entrance channel to Pearl Harbor.

Advices received in today's mail from Washington by the 19th Light-House District, the local one, and made public by Lighthouse Inspector A. E. Arledge, state that Congress has definitely made the appropriation.

The appropriation is for lighting the entire entrance channel. Between 15 and 20 light stations will be built to replace the present system of light buoys.

STRONG'S RECOMMENDATION NOT FOLLOWED BY WAR OFFICE

Commander of Hawaiian Department on May 23 Sent Letter to Washington Which is Answered by Decision Not to Call Out Guardsmen—No Reasons for Stand Made Public

Hawaii's National Guard will not be mobilized. Definite and final information to this effect was received in this afternoon's mail from the war department at Washington by Brig. Gen. Frederick S. Strong, Hawaiian department commander.

Action of the war department in refusing to mobilize the territorial organization is contrary to recommendations made by Gen. Strong in a letter sent to Washington on May 23, it was learned this afternoon.

In a communication on that date the department commander urged that the guard be mobilized. As conditions stand at present there is no possibility that any mobilization will be effected. Great emergency and other cause will be held as sufficient for calling out the guard.

Gen. Strong's answer, received today, is a letter of considerable length. The letter was not released for publication in detail, and this afternoon it could not be ascertained whether causes had been ascribed for the war department's decision or not.

Brig. Gen. Samuel I. Johnson of the guard stated this afternoon upon learning of the receipt of the letter by Gen. Strong that he had received a similar communication a few days ago, and that he and the food commission cabled Friday, urging mobilization.

FIRST CALL TO COLORS UNDER DRAFT EXPECTED TO COME ABOUT SEPT. 1

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 2.—Under the new selective draft law, Americans will be called to the colors about September 1, it was announced today.

With this announcement, draft regulations issued by President Wilson make it clear that there will be no class exemptions from the working of the law. Individuals, however, are cited absolutely on their merits.

There will be local boards in each county of less than 45,000 or city of 50,000 to pass on such applications for exemption.

President Wilson in issuing the regulations today asked the boards to work fairly and impartially "and remember that our armies at the front will be strengthened and sustained if composed of men free from any sense of injustice in the hands of selection."

33,000 HAWAII RESIDENTS ARE REQUIRED TO REGISTER

Approximately 33,000 male residents of the territory will be required to register for military service on July 31, according to figures compiled by the registration board recently appointed by the governor and headed by Will Wayne, secretary to the chief executive.

The next meeting of the board of registration will be held Thursday afternoon, at which time the members will confer with Sheriff Charles H. Ross, County Clerk David Kalanokalani and the county physician with regard to the part they will play in the registration.

Little or no trouble is anticipated by the board in arranging the preliminary work which will precede the registration, as nearly 200 persons of various nationalities have to date offered their services as interpreters and in other capacities.

EFFORT TO OUST JAPAN'S PREMIER FAILED IN DIET

(Special Cable to Nippon Jiji)
TOKIO, Japan, July 2.—A resolution to impeach Premier Terauchi was presented in the Imperial Diet today. Members of the Kenseikai, the opposition party, headed the motion for impeachment. The resolution failed by a vote of 234 to 124. The Seiyukai, the governmental party, supported the premier.

GERMANY FOOD STOCKS SCANT

LONDON, England, July 2.—The German paper Kreuz Zeitung says that Food Controller Michaelis announced that a household search made for foodstuffs by the military authorities netted only four per cent of the existing stocks, the amounts found being very slight.

MOTORISTS FINED FOR INFRACTIONS

Several motorists were arrested yesterday in an unexpected Sunday rally made by Chauffeur "Bob" Lillis and police. In police court this morning Adair Falk was fined $5 for speeding, it being said he was going about 45 miles an hour, and W. A. Louison, William Lee, R. Horrich, Antoine Kahane, and Chan Wan were fined $10 each for driving without licenses. Similar cases of Howard McKinny and C. W. Thatcher were continued to July 3 and 6, respectively. Q. Kawaka, who was arrested by motorcycle policeman Branno and Perera on a charge of reckless driving, will be arraigned July 4. Thatcher was arrested by motorcycle policeman Branno and Perera on a charge of reckless driving, will be arraigned July 4. Thatcher was arrested by motorcycle policeman Branno and Perera on a charge of reckless driving, will be arraigned July 4.

New Russian "Drive" Opens

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)
PETROGRAD, Russia, July 2.—Russia, renewed in strength and fighting temper, has begun a mighty drive against the Germans and Austrians. The offensive was resumed on Sunday in Galicia, the Slavs captured Konchuk and more than 10,000 prisoners, as well as seven heavy guns. They have also occupied the strongly fortified positions southwest of Sasany, on the route of the Turks from the Caucasus to Lake Derbark.

BERLIN, Germany, July 2.—The Russians have taken Konchuk in Galicia, but a fresh Russian attack was frustrated with losses to the Slavs beyond any yet recorded.

PARIS, France, July 2.—The French have entirely ejected the Germans from the trenches captured during the past few weeks on the Alsace road, Alsace sector.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 2.—It was learned here today that three weeks ago Minister of War A. F. Kerns of the new Russian cabinet informed the administration that Russia would launch a big offensive early in July. Today's news indicates that the reorganization of the Russian army is completed.

PETROGRAD, Russia, July 2.—Special services were held in the great Kazan cathedral today in honor of John F. Stevens and the other noted American railway engineers on the mission to Russia. The honor is without precedent in Russian history.

The Council of Workmen and Soldiers held a street demonstration but the parade passed quietly. Some banners were shown asking for an early peace.

HENRY W. KINNEY, superintendent of the department of public instruction, will return to Honolulu tomorrow on the Mauna Kea. He has been traveling among the schools of Hawaii during the last few weeks.

The county of King and Maui have crossed boundaries. Honolulu, Oahu, Maui, and Hawaii are now under one administration.

PUT CITY WELFARE BEFORE POLITICS, SAYS NEW MAYOR IN HIS OPENING MESSAGE

Mayor Joseph J. Fern's inaugural message to the board of supervisors today was as follows:

To the Honorable, the Board of Supervisors, of the City and County of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii.

Gentlemen:

It has been the custom for the mayor of this city and county, upon taking his office, to address the board of supervisors on matters which he considers of the greatest importance. Owing to my recent illness, I am unable to address you at length relative to the finances of the city and shall therefore confine myself to a very brief statement of those things which I believe should receive prompt attention at your hands.

I have every reason to believe, and do believe that the board of supervisors, as at present constituted, will work shoulder to shoulder with me in my efforts to give the city and county of Honolulu a practical, efficient and economical administration of the public affairs during my term of office.

I can assure you, gentlemen, that it will at all times be my highest ambition to work with you for these ends. We must remember that we do not represent any political party or faction, but are the representatives of the citizens of this city and county, and while doubtless we each consider political affiliations to have great value, such affiliations should not be allowed to interfere with the administration of public affairs. If you will join me during the coming two years in conducting the business of the municipality on these lines, I am sure that when we give up the office which we this day assume it will be the universal verdict that we have done well.

CANTONERS

I recommend for your earnest consideration the advisability of adopting a system of cantoners for our public highways, both in the city proper and in the outer districts. I believe it has been the experience of all persons that roads should be kept in repair at all times, and this can best be accomplished by the employment of cantoners.

PAY OF LABORERS

From a variety of circumstances, prominent among which may be named the present war in which we are engaged, the cost of living has been materially increased during the past months. On the other hand the material prosperity of those interested in the main industries of this territory, has likewise materially increased, but unfortunately, the day laborer has received but a small part of this increased prosperity. I recommend for your careful consideration the advisability of raising the pay of day laborers, so as to offset the increased cost of living; but any raise in pay should not be such as to affect the credit of the municipality, or to deplete the public treasury.

VACATIONS

I recommend to your serious consideration, the passage of an ordinance providing for annual vacations, with pay, for those engaged in public works, not only to the highly paid employes, but for those engaged in the more humble positions in the city and county.

CITY HOSPITAL

I trust that during our term of office, ways and means may be provided for an emergency and city hospital.

FREE GARBAGE

I trust that the time is not far distant when the finances of the municipality will warrant the enactment of an ordinance providing for free garbage collection and disposal in the residential district of our city, and a passage of an ordinance providing for the care of vacant lots.

ROADS

The prosperity of a community can be measured to a large extent by the condition in which that community maintains its highways. It is useless to have attractions which are inaccessible by roads, and the merchant and householder is put to very serious inconvenience and loss if the public highways are not maintained in good workable condition.

FRONTAGE TAX

Through the cooperation of both political parties in the territory, the legislature of 1917 enacted amendments to the so-called frontage-tax law, more equitably distributing the cost of the construction of public highways in the district of Honolulu. It should therefore be our duty to faithfully carry out the mandates of this law, using such discretionary power as may reside in the board in so doing, in such a way as will work the least possible hardship on property holders when roads are to be constructed under this law.

PARKS AND PLAYGROUNDS

The public health, and particularly the health of those who will hereafter grow into citizens of this mun-

OUTSTANDING FEATURES OF MAYOR FERN'S INAUGURAL SPEECH

- Calls for cooperation of new officials for economy, harmony and efficiency.
- Political affiliations must not be allowed to interfere with administration of public affairs.
- Urges adoption of thorough cantonier system for roads.
- Recommends consideration of increasing pay of day laborers for city, but economy principle must rule.
- Recommends provision for annual vacations for city's employes.
- Urges need for developing emergency hospital.
- Urges passage of free garbage disposal ordinance.
- Calls for continued attention to good roads.
- Supports frontage tax and urges carrying out the law.
- Recommends development of parks and playgrounds.
- Asks action to build city hall.
- Points out that both parties urge efficiency in public health, police, fire department and lighting service and urges close attention to their development.
- Expresses appreciation of the honor bestowed by electorate and asks board's assistance in making the next two years a term of "real service to the municipality."

capitals, depends largely upon public parks and playgrounds. The health of the child is one of the greatest importance, and a due sense of civic pride requires that our beautiful city should be well supplied with parks and playgrounds, well equipped with proper appliances and made as attractive as possible.

PUBLIC SCHOOL BUILDINGS

The public school buildings of the city and county should be maintained in good repair and kept in perfect sanitary condition. The public school buildings and grounds should be made as beautiful as possible. The educational value of such surroundings is of incalculable value to the growing children as well as to the community at large.

CITY HALL

The advisability of securing a proper site upon which to erect a suitable building for a city hall must be apparent to every one giving the matter consideration. The increasing values of real estate make it the part of wisdom to secure a suitable location for such a building at the earliest possible opportunity.

PUBLIC HEALTH, POLICE, FIRE DEPARTMENT AND ELECTRIC LIGHTING

The platforms of the two great political parties in this territory are in accord on the subject of the importance of maintaining the public health, police, fire department and electric lighting systems in a state of the highest efficiency. These branches of the public service, require our most careful consideration at all times. This consideration I believe will be given by the present board, so that we may have a city of which each member of the community and those visiting our shores may be proud.

I deeply appreciate the honor conferred upon me by the electorate of this city and county in electing me, for the fourth time, to the position of mayor, and trust that, with your kind assistance, my term of office will be of real service to the municipality.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen, your humble servant,

JOSEPH J. FERN,
Mayor, City and County of Honolulu,
Territory of Hawaii.

COURT TAKES NO ACTION ON LIBEL DEMURRER

Following argument which lasted for three hours, Circuit Judge Heen shortly after noon today took under advisement the demurrer of Roderick O. Matheson, editor of the Advertiser, in the suit filed by the city and county attorney's office charging him with criminal libel of Governor Pinkham.

Argument for the defendant was was taken.

On the platform with Mayor Fern were Palmer Woods, his secretary; Father Valentin and Dr. R. G. Ayer. Just off the platform at the left sat former Mayor John Lane.

During the meeting Attorney Joseph Lightfoot sat at McClellan's left hand directing him how to vote and coaching him on the points of law as they came up.

At 11 o'clock the old board met for the last time.

Beginning with Ben Hollinger each member took occasion to praise Mayor Lane and the other members and point out the excellent work which the board has accomplished.

Mayor Lane, the last speaker, said: "It is now 11:45, and in 15 minutes we will go out of office."

"When we first went into office we had many differences of opinion, but as time went on we came to understand each other better, and now I feel sure that we all hold a hearty feeling of regard for each other."

"When we first took office we started the operation of the frontage tax law which was at first very unpopular, but because we had promised to improve the roads we dared to put it into operation which the previous Democratic board had not."

"The growth of the city and the fine streets which we have show that our stand was well taken."

"The new board will have many duties to perform but the work of this board, which in the years to come will stand out as the first progressive board, has greatly lightened the work to come."

"The only regret which I have in leaving is that I shall be unable to carry out the many plans which I have had in view for the betterment and advancement of the city. I now retire to private life, feeling honored that I have been able to hold the office of mayor of Honolulu."

W. E. Pietsch, founder of the Gospel Mission Home for unfortunate women and children, announced today that the home will be moved tomorrow from Kaimuki to its new quarters on the Quinn ranch, recently purchased in Palolo valley. Two new buildings and an extension have been constructed to care for the 75 inmates of the home.

Miss Neva Young has arrived from Iowa to take charge as matron, and Cecil Martin, manual training instructor, a graduate of Los Angeles Polytechnical school, becomes the vocational instructor.

"The prospects were never brighter for a successful home than now," said Pietsch today. "Our move is in the right direction and we are receiving very gratifying public support, which is imperative, as the home is a heavy expense."

Pietsch will continue in general charge, unless he should be called into Uncle Sam's service as an army chaplain, for which duty he has volunteered.

conducted by Attorney Lorrin Andrews of the law firm of Andrews & Pittman. The prosecution was represented by Deputy City Attorney A. M. Cristy.

Cristy laid stress on the topic of the editorial upon which is based the charge of criminal libel. The editorial was headed, "Under What Flag?" It was largely a criticism of the governor regarding an address delivered by him at a recent meeting of school children with regard to the fund for French orphans and intimidated lukewarm Americanism.

"If a public official makes a speech and we do not like it, must we keep still and say nothing about it or offer no criticism?" asked Attorney Andrews. "You can't deprive the press of its right of liberty."

One of the grounds of the demurrer was that the editorial in question was merely a criticism of a public official in his public duty.

ANOTHER FARM DAIRY COW DIES FROM ANTHRAX

Anthrax has taken another animal at the T. F. Farm dairy in Moiliili. A one-year-old from the herd that has been left there since the first outbreak of the disease died yesterday in the corral.

Up to this afternoon no other cattle in the herd had died nor were they showing any symptoms of the disease, according to Charles S. Judd, executive officer of the board of agriculture and forestry.

This is the second animal of the Farm herd that has died within a week, the other being a cow whose death occurred last Wednesday morning. Both animals had been treated with the anthrax serum and were supposed to be immune from attack thereby.

Superintendent Judd stated this afternoon that Dr. Victor A. Norgaard will give another serum treatment to all of the cows in the herd. It is not felt that there is cause for alarm over either of these recent deaths, the grounds being so heavily infected, board officials say, that the losses are not surprising.

The board still intends to move the Farm herd from Moiliili to the animal quarantine station at Ala Moana road as soon as the army horses at the latter place have been removed. In the meantime Dr. Norgaard is to have the board fence around the so-called "gladders" paddock built tighter, to aid against any possibility of anthrax spreading from there.

Neither Charles S. Judd, superintendent of forestry, nor Dr. Victor A. Norgaard, territorial veterinarian, is in favor of the proposition of having ranch owners purchase the T. F. Farm dairy herd to be slaughtered outright. It was announced today.

This plan was offered by Prof. W. A. Bryan at a meeting last Saturday of the board of agriculture and forestry. While the board has received no complaints as regards the proposed extermination of the herd, says Dr. Judd, it does not favor the plan, and Dr. Norgaard also is against it.

"Such a course as this is not followed on the mainland," said Judd. "and I do not believe it should be done here. If the Farm herd were to be slaughtered, would it be wise to follow out the same plan at Hanalei, Kauai, where there are about 2000 cattle exposed to the anthrax? These cattle have all been vaccinated and are presumed to be immune from the disease."

It has been pointed out that, while the beef of exposed cattle could be used for consumption as food, a milk cow, if killed for beef, would bring only about one-third of its value.

The moving of the Farm herd to the quarantine yards at Ala Moana has been delayed for a few days at the request of army officials who have animals there that they desire to have moved.

STEVEDORES WORKING AS STRIKE DATE PASSES

At 1 o'clock this afternoon, McCabe, Hamilton & Renny reported all their stevedores working. No strike has yet been declared, although yesterday, July 1, was the time limit originally set by the stevedores' union here for local shippers to meet the men's demands for a higher wage scale.

It is now believed that no decisive action will be taken by the union before July 15.

WEEK-END GAMBLERS ARRESTED TOTAL 28

Twenty-eight gamblers were brought in by Sgt. Kellett's detectives over the week-end. Fifteen represented by Attorney Leon M. Straus demanded a jury trial and were committed to the circuit court. The remaining defendants were disposed of as follows: Eleven paying fines and forfeiting bonds of $10 each, $10; one discharged and one case continued.

of well known Honoluluans who volunteered for service early and are now getting their commissions in the quartermaster department.

Historic Building of '30's to Be Razed Soon Honolulu Hale Sold to Frank Godfrey For $10

Honolulu Hale, built about 1836 by Kamehameha III, which was sold today for $10.

Historic Honolulu Hale sold for $10 to one lone bidder Frank Godfrey, today at noon when King Kalakaua's dinner-bell called together a small group of spectators to witness the last event in the life of the building. Within 60 days the building will be torn down and the ground upon which it stands will be cleared of all traces of it, according to the agreement which the purchaser signed after the auction. The auction was conducted by Elmer L. Schwartzberg of James F. Morgan Co. and in the curious crowd were a number of Honolulu's kamaisias—old-timers.

Godfrey, former newspaperman and author, has lived through many of the scenes which made the building locally famous.

between the years of 1833 and 1836 (there are no records to show the exact date), Honolulu Hale has stood through the years as a landmark defying the march of progress but now its end is near.

For many years the Honolulu Hale housed the offices of the old Hawaiian government. Later it was used as the customs house and before the present postoffice was built it occupied the site. It was owned by Henry M. Whitney, who owned a book store and published the Pacific Commercial Advertiser in the other end. In 1887 it was the meeting place for the revolutionary party which forced the king to give the haoles greater rights and in the tower their arms and ammunition were stored. Many lawyers now prominent in legal circles here had offices there. Among these was W. R. Castle.

The building was erected by Kamehameha III and owned by him or his estate until June 13, 1884 when it was sold to the government for $27,000. Queen Emma, Mrs. B. P. Bishop and C. R. Bishop signed the deed.

There are many stories told of how Kamehameha used the building to raise money but, according to the records at the archives, the following are the facts. In September 1851 Kamehameha secured a loan from the minister of finance of $3,000 at one per cent a month for eight months. At the end of the eight months he was evidently unable to pay the debt and there was some talk in the privy council on the question of selling the building. Instead, however, he was loaned $9,000 more at 12 per cent a year for two years and the $3,000 was included in the mortgage. When this debt was paid is not exactly clear but as far as can be ascertained it was probably settled up at his death.

In 1845 the government leased the building but did not move in until the next year when the several departments were formed. Kamehameha was paid $1,000 a month for its use.

The order for its demolition came Thursday from the U. S. government which owns the site and building on a request from the health department, which has declared it unsafe and insanitary.

When the Honolulu Hale is sold at public auction by Elmer L. Schwartzberg of James F. Morgan Co., the old dinner bell of King Kalakaua will be used to call the bidders together. Its site will be used as a parking place for vehicles.

REPORTED POISON PLOT ABOARD WALDEMAR IS EXPOSED BY OFFICER

Story of Water Being Contaminated is Denied By Honolulu Federal Inspector

Was there a plot in Honolulu to place poison in the fresh water tanks of the ex-German steamer Prinz Waldemar?

According to a story in the Seattle Times of June 12, Capt. H. W. Aka is quoted as saying the German officers of the vessel had lined the drinking water tanks with a deadly poison. Aka, who is chief officer of the Waldemar when she was a German boat, and commanded her when she was towed to Seattle for repairs.

Absolute denial of the "vend" is made here, however, by Capt. Joseph J. Meany, U. S. inspector of hulls. When he was told of the story today, he said the Waldemar's tanks were all cleaned out here thoroughly and that no sediment of any kind, or anything suspicious, was found in them. "I do not believe Captain Aka ever made such a statement," he said.

The Seattle paper's story runs as follows:

"Seeking to wreak vengeance on their enemies, who might attempt to operate the German liner Prinz Waldemar, interned in Honolulu harbor, officers of the vessel lined the fresh water tanks with a deadly poison which would be absorbed by fresh water and cause the death of all who drank it. So says Capt. H. W. Aka of Honolulu, master of the vessel, which arrived in Seattle this morning from Hawaii."

"The Prinz Waldemar came into port conveyed by one of Uncle Sam's fighting ships and in tow of the tug Goliath. Capt. Thomas Nielsen of the Puget Sound Tug Boat Company, and will be repaired and placed in service by the United States shipping board. Says Plot Unearthed Here

"German treachery is evidenced in every part of the vessel, said Captain Aka, although the most startling discovery was the fact that the fresh

UNOFFICIAL FIGURES GIVE 6000 PROBABLE ELIGIBLES ON DRAFT PLAN

Only one man out of every four eligible here for Uncle Sam's new army is likely to be under the selective draft on the first call, according to figures worked out by Attorney Robert W. Breckons, who likes to analyze statistical possibilities. He also figures that the total number of eligibles in Hawaii will be about 6000, expecting that by far the larger portion of those who register will be disqualified for one reason or another.

Breckons works out his figures on the basis of the 1910 census report. The draft age—21 to 30 inclusive—is not specifically covered by the 1910 figures. They do show, however, totals for the ages from 15 to 24, which, adding on the seven years which have elapsed, makes 22 to 31 now. There will be little difference, he maintains, between the numbers of males from 22 to 31 and those from 21 to 30, so he has assumed that the 15 to 24 figures of 1910 can be used for analytical purposes now.

The 1910 figures showed the following:

Hawaiian	2,500
Caucasian-Hawaiian	900
Aleutic-Hawaiian	420
Portuguese	2,500
Porto Rican	650
Spanish	1,250
Other Caucasian	1,050
Chinese	9,500
Japanese	340
Korean	1,725
Filipinos, negroes and others	21,510

Subtracting those disqualified on account of foreign birth and ineligibility to citizenship, which takes out the Japanese and large numbers of others, subtracting also those who have died or moved away (all of which is only estimated), he finds that 6000 eligibles remain. There is, of course, no increase in the number since 1910 by birthrate, since those born since that time are not old enough to come under the draft.

Assuming that the first call under the selective draft law will be for 700,000 men, this is in proportion to about one in 143 of our national population. If Hawaii's quota is worked out on the same basis, dividing 200,000 territorial population by 143 gives 1400 as the probable number asked in the territory in the first call. Fourteen hundred out of 6000, the estimated number of eligibles, gives approximately one in every four.

Breckons has made liberal margins for approximations, particularly on deductions for disqualifications.

water tanks had been poisoned and all aboard the liner if she were taken to sea would die of thirst or from the deadly drug. The steel water tanks were lined with a chemical unknown to the United States guards, but which they were told in Honolulu would cause death in a few hours. The poison plot is reported to have been bared to government officers in Honolulu by one of the interned German sailors from the Prinz Waldemar.

"Not only was the death of the American officers and crew placed aboard the liner by the United States government planned, but the ship's machinery was wrecked and other equipment destroyed. The boilers were made worthless by placing intense heat under them while they contained no water, the engines were damaged and pieces of machinery thrown overboard, the ice manufacturing plant was destroyed, electric dynamo crippled and the ship's bilges filled with cement.

Conveyed by War Vessel

"The work of destruction was also carried to the deck, where winches were disabled and parts of machinery thrown into the sea. So intense were the fires placed under the boilers that the vessel's stacks are blistered to the very tip.

"The Prinz Waldemar towed by the tug Goliath, made the voyage from Honolulu to Seattle in 19 days. Nine days out from Honolulu the liner was met by an American fighting ship and conveyed to Seattle harbor. During her voyage to this port the Prinz Waldemar was commanded by Capt. H. W. Aka, a native Hawaiian who has been master of sailing ships and steam craft plying out of Hawaiian ports to the Orient and South America for many years. Patrick Campbell, who calls Seattle his home, came over from the islands as chief officer of the Prinz Waldemar and T. H. Finnigan of San Francisco held the rank of chief engineer of the vessel.

ARMY FIELD CLERKS
RECEIVE PROMOTIONS

Cable advices received yesterday at army headquarters from Washington promote army field clerks one grade each as follows:

Charles F. Parsons, orders; Lindley Hines, inspector-general's office; James A. Phillips, records; Myron C. Auwers, stenographer, and William E. Redmon. Together with the promotions goes increased pay of $200 each a year.

Wheeler S. McClure, who has been one of the enlisted men at headquarters for some time, has been discharged at the expiration of his enlistment period for the convenience of the government and now becomes a civilian messenger at headquarters. He comes in for the promotion in pay under the army bill for messengers. Callistus Edwards and John A. Anderson, messengers, also receive this increase.

The regular meeting of Olive Branch Rebekah Lodge, No. 2, I. O. O. F., will be held on Thursday evening of this week. The installation of officers for the coming term, heretofore set for that evening, has been postponed until Thursday, July 13.—Adv.

BUILDING OPERATIONS
IN HONOLULU IN LAST 6
MONTHS COST $1,077,585

During the six months ending June 30, $1,077,585.15 has been spent for new buildings in Honolulu, according to the report of Henry Freitas, building inspector. This amount represents 653 permits, a large proportion of which are for new buildings, although many were for repairs and additions.

For the month of June 101 permits were taken out for a total estimate cost of $223,542.60, which is the largest amount of building for one month so far this year.

$1,500,000 TAXES FOR U. S. COLLECTED

Approximately a million and a half dollars was collected by the local internal revenue department during the 12 months ending last Saturday, Collector John F. Haley announced today.

Saturday was the last day for the payment of special taxes by liquor dealers, theaters, physicians, dealers in narcotics, brokers and others, but just what amount has been paid on these taxes, or how many firms and persons are delinquent, is not yet known by the office.

During July the tax on corporation stock, which amounts to 50 cents for each thousand dollars, becomes payable. The payment of this tax this month will cover an entire year.

PUNOHU MADE COUNTY JAILER

With the advent of July and the expiration of several commissions, Sheriff Rose today made several appointments in the police department.

Confirming a story in the Star-Bulletin shortly after election, Sheriff Rose this morning appointed William K. Punohu jailer at the county jail in place of J. J. Fern, who took office today as mayor.

Punohu leaves the position of assistant jailer. For this job the sheriff has appointed Solomon Meheula, deputy clerk in the deputy sheriff's office. No one has been named to take Meheula's former job.

The sheriff also named all of the six deputy sheriffs on Oahu to succeed themselves. Their commissions which expired today, were reissued as follows:

Chief Deputy Julius W. Asch, Honolulu; John Fernandez, Ewa; R. L. Gilliland, Waianae; Henry H. Plemer, Waiakala; Joseph Luahiwa, Koolauloa; R. W. Davis, Koolauloko.

POLICE NOTES

Thomas Gonsalves, arraigned on a charge of assaulting Joe Mendoncia, was discharged Saturday.

Ichikawa was fined $10 for operating his auto without proper numbers, which he had been warned several times to get.

Noda and Iwasaki, operators of sampan 206, were arraigned in police court Saturday on a charge of stealing $30 worth of fish June 26 from F. Kuramoto. The case is set for a hearing July 2.

The cases of eleven defendants for vagrancy were called for the sixth time in police court Friday and continued on request of their attorney, Leon M. Straus, who was engaged in the circuit court.

Henry Kawai got a suspended sentence on two charges, one of driving without a license and the other of not registering his car, but Judge Irwin stated that he did not intend to make a practice of giving such a sentence just because defendants obtained the required papers after their arrest, as Kawai had done.

BRITISH BUYING CUBAN SUGARS

(By Nevins & Callaghan.)

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 15.—

Throughout the past week the market remained dull but very steady with refiners willing to continue buying on basis of last week's prices, viz. 4 1/2c basis 96° c.i.f. for Cuba, 5 1/2c basis 96° c.i.f. for Porto Rico and 4 1/2c basis 96° c.i.f. for full-duty sugars. The offerings from Cuba were especially light and generally held at 5c basis 96° c.i.f. for June and July shipment with an occasional parcel appearing for sale at 4 1/2c basis 96° c.i.f. The light demand for refined sugars made refiners indifferent to raws at any advance, but the fact that the British commission continued steadily in the market for July shipment Cubas at 4 1/2c basis 96° f.o.b. Cuba, had a strengthening influence on the market. The details of the purchases at this price by the British commission were not published but the quantity is not believed to exceed 10,000 tons. Aside from these f.o.b. sales, the transactions in Cubas reported during the week consisted of only 10,000 bags for last half July shipment which were taken by an operator at 4 1/2c and some 25,000, 30,000 bags in port and at float for New Orleans which were taken by a New Orleans refiner at 4 1/2c basis 96° c.i.f. Throughout the week limited sales of Porto Ricos were made from day to day at the unchanged basis of 5 1/2c basis 96° c.i.f. and some 4000 tons of various full-duty paying sugars, principally San Domingos, were taken by local and Canadian refiners at 4 1/2c basis 96° c.i.f. The market closes steady with further buyers at last prices and with only light offerings of Cubas in evidence at 4 1/2c for June and 5c basis 96° c.i.f. for July shipment.

The weekly cable from Cuba on June 11th reported receipts for the entire island of 60,000 tons as compared to 33,000 tons for the corresponding week last year. The total stock at shipping ports was reported as 760,000 tons as compared to 800,000 tons a year ago. Notwithstanding that all refiners are now quoting refined prices on the basis of 7 1/2c less 2% the domestic demand has been extremely light, and there has been some sugar offering from second hands at around 7 1/2c less 2%. The export refined business is still checked pending the settlement by congress of the proposition to repeal the drawback privileges on sugar.

CONTRACT PROBE IS POSTPONED

Further investigation of the letting of the contract for the removal of the warehouse of Davies & Co. at the foot of Bishop street will be taken up by the territorial grand jury next Friday, City Attorney Arthur M. Brown said Saturday.

The investigation is believed to have begun Friday, W. R. Hobby, acting superintendent of public works, and D. J. Sullivan, said to be a San Francisco contractor, having been subpoenaed to appear before the jury as witnesses, and to bring with them certain documents, advertisements and plans relating to the removal of the warehouse.

W. C. Woodward, former assistant superintendent of public works, was also subpoenaed by Detective Harry T. Lake, but because of being in the country, could not be present. It is understood that both Hobby and Sullivan were examined by the jury.

Hobby today declared that the idea that it is against the law to let contracts for such work without calling for tenders is wrong. On the other hand, he declared it is directly in accordance with the law, which is contained in a special act, he says.

Tenders were not called for, and were not required, he adds. "We simply let the contract to Mr. Sullivan, the San Francisco contractor, and that was all there was to it," he said. "It was concluded that there was no firm or firms here that could handle the job as cheaply."

The contract fixes the price of the removal at $10,000.

SPECIAL OFFICER ROUNDS UP DELINQUENT AUTOS

A special officer went to work for the tax office this morning to round up all automobiles on which taxes have not been paid, and on which taxes have been paid but the tax tag not affixed.

In many instances, the office points out, owners of machines have paid their taxes but have left the tags home or put them in their pockets and forgotten about them, while the law requires that such tags shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the machine.

The injunction suit brought by Capt. Seth Scofield against Tax Assessor C. T. Wilder, which seeks to prevent the assessor from collecting taxes on the officer's machine, is to be heard in federal court on July 12.

TELEPHONE EXCHANGE TO BE ERECTED IN KALIHI

Following out its plans for branch exchanges in the different parts of the city, announced several months ago, the Mutual Telephone Company has taken out a building permit to erect an exchange in Kalihi on Kalihi street, just north of King. The new building is to be 36x50 feet in size, two stories high and constructed of concrete. It will cost $15,000.

This week only 16 permits were taken out but the total estimated cost amounted to $30,275. Of the 16 permits 10 were for residences, one for a store and the rest for additions or alterations to present buildings.

RANCHERS GIVEN WARNING ABOUT SPINY PIG WEED

The recent and extensive spread of the vigorous weed called spiny pig weed, (amaranthus spinosus L.), in the pastures near Honolulu and in other parts of the territory has prompted the board of agriculture and forestry to warn ranchers and dairymen against this obnoxious plant and to use every possible means to prevent its further spread.

The Spiny Pig Weed is closely related to the Tumble Weed and the Beet Root which are found on the mainland and in Hawaii grows to a height of at least five feet and spreads by seed in an alarmingly rapid manner. The chief objection to this weed is the fact that it bears a pair of very sharp thorns at the base of the leaves. Cattle will not eat the plant and shun localities where it occurs.

This weed is particularly obnoxious because its seeds, considering the size of the plant, are relatively small and are formed in enormous numbers, one plant producing as many as 115,000 seeds. Since the seeds mature long before they are suspected and are shaken off by the wind, it is important to destroy the plant before the seeds form or come to maturity, in order to prevent the weed from spreading.

It is, therefore, suggested that in order to prevent the occupation and ruin of pasture lands by the spread of the Spiny Pig Weed, all persons owning or controlling such lands, attack at once the weed where found, removing it by the roots and burning the plant, seeds and all.

THREE VACANCIES IN U. S. REVENUE OFFICE FILLED

A reorganization of the staff of the office of collector of internal revenue was completed this morning, three new deputy collectors being office as successors to a similar number whose resignations became effective last Saturday.

J. S. Mackenzie, member of the well-known local family of that name, was appointed to succeed J. W. Pratt who, with his family, will leave for California shortly. Palmer E. Woods, who resigned to become secretary to Mayor Purn, succeeded by J. Brooks Brown, formerly with the department of public instruction. F. S. Nishimoto, an honor student at McKinley high school this year, succeeds S. G. Noda, recently appointed Japanese interpreter in the district court. "In each instance these resignations are regretted," said Collector John F. Haley today.

BUILDING DEPT. CUTS EXPENSES

The building department of the city and county has not cost the taxpayers a penny, but on the contrary saved money, according to the report of Henry Freitas, building inspector, filed with the board of supervisors this morning.

For the six months there was appropriated for his department $2775. The expenditures amounted to $2115.63, while the receipts from building fees totaled $2242.30 or a saving of $126.67 with the appropriation still untouched. Freitas' report on the schools also shows economy. Of the $17,440.83 appropriated for repairs and maintenance $17,150.27 was spent, leaving a balance of $289.56; new buildings $42,695.81 appropriated, $10,637.99 spent, balance $32,057.82 and janitors $14,013.10 appropriated, $9702.72 spent and balance $4310.38.

JAPANESE HOSPITAL BUILDING IS READY

One building of the new Japanese hospital on School street is up and another is nearly completed, according to Ripley & Davis, architects. One of the four big wards which are to be built, each measuring 190x20 feet, is entirely enclosed and work on the interior is under way. The first floor of the administration building is finished and work is now progressing on the second floor. Beside the three other wards there are four other buildings which will compose the group including the nurses' home, contagion ward, laundry and kitchen.

SUGAR HOLDS UPWARD SWING

With the distribution of quarterly dividends Saturday and today, sugar stock was the big trader on the exchange today with a rising price tendency. Oahu was the leader with 530 shares going at $14. Oahu reached $30.50, Ewa $34, Waiailua $37.75, and 1° of Haiku brought $205 each.

Among the unlisted securities Mineral Products recovered its balance a little going up to 34. Montana-Bingham remained steady at 45. Dividends totaling $237,000 were distributed. Those paying and their rate follow: Haiku $1, Kekaha $2, Koloa $1, Paia $1, Pioneer 40 cents.

HONOLULU COAL PRICES TO SEE NO DECREASE

That regardless of the agreement between the government and coal operators on the mainland to reduce the price of coal, it will be practically impossible to see any reduction here because of the high freight rates and the possibility of their going even higher, N. E. Geddes, of the Inter Island, said today.

"The coal situation here is much different from that on the mainland, as it is now almost impossible to obtain any kind of ship transportation," said Geddes. "I got a letter from Japan just the other day announcing that when our contract ran out the rate would be advanced and the same applies to the coal we get from the states."

Independence Day, July 4th, is one of the four holidays in the year when the Bishop Museum is closed.

C. Matsui, charged with burglary, is scheduled to plead in Circuit Judge Heen's court Tuesday morning.

Circuit Judge Ashford has appointed W. R. Castle as appraiser of the estate of the late Dr. W. L. Moore.

Lee Tai Yong, charged with cruelty to animals, was given a suspended sentence of 13 months by Circuit Judge Heen.

William E. Miles left in the Mauna Loa this afternoon for Kauai, as manager of the All-Student team, which is to spend the Fourth of July week in the Garden Island.

THEATRICAL OFFERINGS

DE WOLF HOPPER
LAUGH PRODUCER

"Sunshine Dad," the Hawaii feature, is filled with action and one of the big reasons is that De Wolf Hopper is the bright and shining star of the offering. Hopper is keen for action, which trait was well known to the Fine Arts-Triangle producers prior to his entering into a long-term contract with that organization. Consequently when a play is in course of construction in which he is to be starred all plans are made that will supply him with "pep." Also, Hopper is keen for action in other members of the cast and the producers bear this fact in mind at all times.

The result is a comedy that is one long gambol of laughs, with a plot that is more than is usually expected in comedies. The story concerns a diamond band stolen from a Hindu shrine. Several Hindus are on the track of the thief, a bogus nobleman, and he slips the plunder to the Widow Marimore (Fay Tincher), who wears it as a garter. It falls off at a ball and Sunshine Dad picks it up. Thenceforth, the diamond band, the widow, Dad himself, his straight-laced son, the latter's sweetheart, the Hindus, and a rampaging lion are involved in a rapid whirl of comic events which keep whirling until "the end" appears on the screen.

Comedy is the order of the program at the Hawaii, the companion picture being "The Snow Cure," a whirlwind comedy with Ford Sterling in the main role. To state that this is a Keystone Comedy tells the story better than a column of description.

VAUDEVILLE BILL IN BIG DEMAND

Following the success of the past several days the management of the Bijou theater has decided to continue for a limited time the big aerial act, "The Flying Mayos," the same act that has caused the hair to stand on ends on the pates of hundreds of thousands of followers of vaudeville across the continent of the United States wherever the Orpheum or United circuits have houses. If there is anything that can be done on an aerial trapeze the Mayos do it. About the best thing that can be said of any act is "it leads all of its kind." The Mayos are second in the entire United States in salaries paid on the big time. They are frequently the headliners when it is common to give this feature position to this kind of an act.

The other two acts on the program, "The Filipino Quartette" in acrobatic and balancing feats and Miss Adeline Aflague in popular songs and dances, would make a big bill of amusement but the Bijou will also present this evening a photoplay drama of deepest interest with the charming Peggy Hyland and Antonio Moreno in the leading roles. "Rose of the South" is the offering from the pen of Arthur Train. It has a setting in the Sunny South during the days of the Civil War, always a setting that produces deepest interest and allows for strong scenes and thrilling situations. This is no exception to the rule.

Mr. Alina is connected with Bishop & Company.

August 13 has been set by Circuit Judge Kemp for the hearing of the land court petition of the Honolulu Rapid Transit Land Co., which is seeking to register title to more than 9000 square feet of land in Kakaako. NEW REGIME WORKS WELL IN ODESSA

[By Associated Press]

ODESSA, Russia.—All the authorities here are now working under the supervision of representatives of the Committee of Parliamentary and National Freedom. This committee has issued a manifesto urging the cooperation of all parties in an effort to avoid disputes. As perfect quiet prevails there is every indication that the new regime is working satisfactorily here.

FAVORITES SEEN IN WESTERN FILM

A new stellar combination is being presented at the Liberty theater, at the present time in the Lasky-Paramount picture, "The Golden Fetter," in the persons of Wallace Reid and Anita King, both of whom have attained previous fame and popularity, in supporting casts and as stars, in previous Lasky productions. Lasky has given this combination every possible advantage in the way of a supporting cast which includes: Tully Marshall, Guy Oliver, Walter Long, Mrs. Lewis McCord, C. H. Geldert, Larry Payton and Lucien Littlefield.

Many Honolulu patrons of the silent drama have followed with deepest interest the work of Reid, for the reason that with the advent of Paramount Pictures in this city he appeared to good advantage in minor parts in Lasky offerings. He has gradually worked his way to steller honors and deserves the prominence he is now receiving. Anita King first won fame as the "Paramount Girl" through her spectacular automobile trip from Pacific to Atlantic.

The story of "The Golden Fetter" is laid in the "wild and woolly West" in a mining town at that. It carries with it all of the dramatic incidents with which it is the pleasure of playwright and novelist to invest the West. Also, it carries a romance and it is in the romantic that Wallace Reid particularly shines. Anita King is a capable support in this line of work.

NEGROES RIOT; SHOOT POLICEMEN, KILL ONE

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., July 2.—Racial trouble again broke out last night, when more than two hundred negroes rioted. Without warning they fired upon some policemen who were in an automobile, and killed one officer and wounded others. They have taken possession of the "black belt" and all are armed.

In the darkness of last night they have had the police forces, who were hurried to the scene when a riot call was sent in, at a disadvantage since they are in the houses of the district and are able to keep under cover. Apparently little can be done until daylight.

There was no terror nor disorder outside of the "black belt," outside of which a patrol was established to keep the rioters without the white districts.

Their Opportunity

Every new administration comes into office with an unusual opportunity—Honolulu's new city administration is no exception.

In fact, Mayor Fern and the new board of supervisors have the greatest opportunity for effective, telling, constructive work that has been offered any set of city officials since local self-government was established, more than a decade ago.

For the first time a board has been elected on non-partisan votes.

The independent vote has figured largely in other elections, but it never demonstrated itself with such power as on June 5 when it elected to the board five Republicans and two Democrats and defeated two Republican and five Democrats.

Non-partisan voting did this. Of course not all or even a majority of the votes cast were by men adhering to neither party. But the deciding votes—the votes that placed two Democrats on the board with five Republicans—were the votes of men casting their ballots not for party candidates but for candidates they felt could best deliver the goods for efficient city government.

What does this mean now?

It means that the new board goes into office free to make appointments and pass appropriations on the basis of efficiency and not politics. The present board owes little to party organizations. It owes everything to the city at large. To serve either party organization first and the city second would be a gross betrayal of trust, and the Star-Bulletin does not size up the new board as one that will betray a trust.

The party organizations have already been too active for their own good since the election. If they try to run the city, through the board, it will wreck the board and wreck the next two years of administration.

On the other hand, if the new board makes the record which it should make, every member will be re-elected two years from now. Nothing in Honolulu can defeat them. For they will have given such an administration that the sound principle of non-partisanship in local government will have advanced 100 per cent, and the majority of voters will be independent of the party whip.

Habit in politics is as hard to shake off as habit in business, society, eating and drinking. The habit of listening to the party politicians is difficult to break. Perhaps it may seem to some of the new supervisors that party organizations represent the people. They do not represent the people in Honolulu today and analysis of the vote at the last election shows it.

So the counsels of the party politicians are not wise counsels for the new supervisors. Better, far better, to act with independent judgment; better to study, listen, weigh all sides and then act as conscience dictates.

Courage and judgment—courage to shake off the leeches of politics, judgment to choose the right course for oneself—will carry the board on the right road, over all petty barriers. The Star-Bulletin speaks for many thousands of Honoluluans in saying that there is today a great hope that the board will cut loose from the political habit of the past and welcome the habit of the future—efficiency—service to the city first.

This is a board that can do it.

The city will watch very carefully to see who, if any, begins factionalism, who stoops to pettiness, who is a sagger, who is not big enough for the job.

All have been elected on the theory that they have the ability and experience to do a real service to their city.

That means work, not squabbles.

JOHNSON STILL FIGHTING.

Hiram W. Johnson, California's outspoken governor, appears to be disappointing those of his critics who predicted that as United States senator he would be "suppressed" by the statesmen at Washington.

Johnson made his maiden speech early and has been making himself heard in the senate ever since—to good effect. Recently a mainland journal referred to him as follows:

"This dynamic statesman from the Pacific Coast who has captured the attention and applause of all Americans within the brief period in which he has served his state in the United States senate. Entering the national councils at a supreme crisis in the history of the republic, he has assumed the leadership of those members of the senate who are standing fast for democratic ideals of government. His fight in opposition to an unconstitutional press censorship has electrified the country."

Johnson won and kept the confidence of California because he was fighting for democracy and the average man, crudely and violently though he did it and with political methods that sometimes savor the "machine." He is fearless—and that gets a long distance in public life when backed by a minority of average men.

Hawaii Advertised By Newspaper Progress

The Star-Bulletin's Anniversary and Progress Number and the Advertiser's Automobile Edition last Saturday constituted the largest newspaper output ever published in one day in Hawaii. Each paper printed 10,000 copies. The Star-Bulletin was virtually sold out in advance and at the rate of sale since Saturday afternoon the edition will shortly be exhausted. Many hundred copies of each paper are being mailed out of the territory. Looking over the orders for mailing out the Star-Bulletin number, one is deeply impressed with the wide advertising which Hawaii will get throughout the states and in Europe.

The anniversary edition of this paper, celebrating its fifth birthday and the general progress of Honolulu as well, carried the largest volume of paid advertising ever assembled in one regular issue of an Hawaiian daily. It also set a new record in the number of full-page advertisements.

Perhaps the most striking feature of both editions was the recognition that the Saturday newspaper is one of the biggest advertising powers in the territorial business field. Due to steamer schedules, the Saturday paper covers the Hawaiian group better than an issue on any other day, and the Saturday afternoon issue, with its advantage of more than 12 hours later news gathering, naturally commands the situation from an advertising and circulation standpoint.

ITALY'S POLICY OF PUBLICITY.

Italy is rather reversing the usual order of things in this war, with a frankly avowed policy of stimulating publicity for her navy. Other nations are using the censorship freely, but the Italian Navy has established a press and publicity office to let the world know what Italy is doing in the war and, frankly, to advertise the Italian nation and correct century-old impressions entertained abroad regarding the people who live in Italy, their qualities and their ambitions.

The navy publicity office also is attempting to encourage the development of the Italian merchant marine, showing that a country almost surrounded by the sea should extend her seafaring interests. The office, which is in Rome, is in charge of a naval officer of captain's rank who acts as censor. The managing editor has a staff of a dozen newspaper writers who make it their business to travel with different naval vessels, visit scenes of disaster, report battles, and submarine captures and write special articles. All of their work is prepared by the managing editor and then distributed to the Italian newspapers and reviews.

In addition, if a special writer from some local or foreign newspaper or review wishes to get information first hand, he is examined regarding his credentials, and these being satisfactory, is given permission to travel when and where he pleases, his articles later being subject to censor, as on the army front.

The press bureau also has its own publication, La Marina, has its own photographic staff and its moving picture department. One of its useful means of securing publicity is the arrangement of lectures by prominent persons, the lecturer being furnished with either a moving picture film or lantern slides. Arrangements have been made for such lectures in the United States.

H. Gooding Field, who can smell a statistical discrepancy as far as a French "seventy-five" can shoot, is going to root into the city hall financial figures, at the behest of certain Democrats. He is on the devious trail of that slippery phantom, the "deficit," and if the said deficit is anything more substantial than a phantom, trust Field to trail it to its lair, slay it in single-handed combat and nail its hide to the barn-door where all may see. H. Gooding Field is the Sherlock Holmes of local statistics.

President Wilson may not order the manufacture of beer and wines stopped, but on Oahu absolute prohibition is not only a practical necessity but a measure of fairness to the important military population. Men in Uncle Sam's uniform cannot be sold liquor and others ought not.

Boston never did have much use for un-Americanism and the mauling which the Socialists received yesterday will reimpress the fact.

Since the Liberty Bond campaign waked up the country, "pocket patriotism" is no term of reproach.

Mayor Fern's recent term as jailer ought to help him apply parliamentary law to the new board.

China may be slow on the initiative but is certainly strong on the recall.

Germany can neither whip nor buy Russia into a separate peace.

Gen. Pershing is of Alsatian blood. He ought to be a good biter over against the German front.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS REPORT LAYS STRESS ON MANUAL TRAINING VALUE

The value of manual training both from the theoretical and practical standpoint is the outstanding feature in the annual report of the industrial schools board made public today. The report declares that the boys have completed a splendid concrete structure, equipped with a modern boiler plant, machine shop and wood-working and electrical plant. It is proposed to install a tailoring department in the next year.

On the other hand farming is to be dropped except to meet the needs of the school, as it has been found that not a single boy leaving the school has engaged in agriculture.

Lack of teachers and buildings has handicapped the academic instruction program as only one teacher has been available to tutor 100 boys.

The school in recent months has been organized on a military basis and gymnasium work encouraged. A band of 20 pieces also has been formed.

A detention home, within easy access of the juvenile court in Honolulu, has been established during the past year and supported by the city and county of Honolulu, to care for children awaiting trial, dependents not yet permanently provided for, and sometimes paroled juveniles.

A partial self government plan has been established, and, when more instructors are added to the staff, it is hoped that the plan may be made complete. Honor cottages will be built, and it is deemed desirable to segregate the boys at different ages. A new parole system has been put into effect. After a boy has earned 5000 credits by good conduct and workmanship he is eligible for parole. Before he can be paroled, if he is a small boy, his parents or relatives must guarantee that he will attend school, and sign an agreement to that effect; if he is older a position must be guaranteed.

Girls' School
The Girls' school is established on the cottage plan. This helps to remove the idea that the institution is solely for punishment, by giving them the feeling of having a home.

There has been inaugurated a new system of discipline. Aluminum money is now given, instead of credits, with which the girls are required to buy all clothing and incidentals needed at the institution.

In the industrial department every effort has been made to make the branches taught practical. Training is now given in laundry work, mat and rug weaving, garment making, cooking and general house work. Agricultural classes look after the lawns, flowers and vegetables.

The recreation grounds have been greatly improved, giving more opportunity for outdoor games. Tennis courts are now being built. One new cottage has been erected and 2.26 acres of adjoining land obtained during the year from the government. By convict labor much new land has been brought under cultivation.

TAX LEAGUE NAMES OFFICERS AND HEARS TAX EQUALIZATION REPORT

The Tax Equalization League of Hawaii met Friday night and heard two addresses, one by John F. G. Stokes on "An Application of the Area Basis to the Frontage Tax System" and the other by C. H. Merriam, registrar, on "Recent Progress in Hawaii Towards Tax Equalization."

The league re-elected the former officers and executive committee. The old and new officers are, Prof. W. A. Bryan, president; Will Wayne, secretary, and Marston Campbell, Prof. J. S. Donaghy, Charles H. Merriam, Ed Towse, Allen Herbert, W. A. Bryan and A. V. Hogan, members of the executive committee.

Stokes' paper was a discussion of the present frontage tax law as to how assessments could be most equitably applied.

Mr. Merriam said, in discussing tax legislation:

"The preliminary work of the Tax Equalization League in going before the legislature of 1915 and advocating the appointment of a commission to consider the tax problem in Hawaii has borne good fruit."

"Though the time given the commission was too short, enough was accomplished to mark the recommendation of the commission as the most constructive and advanced of any dealing with this question for many decades."

"The most important suggestions of the Tax Equalization League were approved and recommended by the tax commission, and while the program was not entirely adopted by the legislature, a great deal was accomplished. County Payments Advanced."

"Provision for the increase in the payments to the counties from two-thirds of one per cent to a full one per cent of the real estate valuations, has placed every county in an excellent financial position, and the resulting good of free sewerage, free garbage collections, as well as urgently needed water and sewer extensions and the building of good roads, will soon be appreciated facts."

"The increase in the inheritance tax rates will result in a great improvement of revenue to the territory from this source—a source which feels the burden of the tax scarcely not at all."

"The cessation of the assessment of the leasehold interest in land will prove of great value in eliminating confusing claims and clearly placing the assessment solely on the land and improvements. It is expected to also improve the revenue and to reduce the bookkeeping expense in the tax office."

"The law governing the collection of automobile taxes has been greatly improved and strengthened, and other loopholes have had attention, so that the assessor has greater power than ever before to compel equal compliance with the law."

"A new system of bookkeeping was approved which should result in a tremendous saving of time each year in preparing the assessment books. Look for New Tax Sale Bill."

"It is to be regretted that the bill providing for an up-to-date delinquent tax sale law was not passed. However, as the bill did not receive consideration on its merits but was turned down largely for political reasons, it is expected that an early introduction of the same bill at the next session of the legislature may have better results. This law is badly needed as the present inadequate provisions permit the chronic slow payers to escape in many instances, while the honorable taxpayer bears his full burden without complaint."

"A delinquent tax commission has been authorized by the last legislature, for the purpose of investigating the old unsettled accounts, and vesting the commission with power to cancel such as are considered uncollectible. These accounts have to be carried along each year, so that by wiping out the worthless ones, quite a saving of time will be effected."

"Probably the most important change in the tax law is that which authorizes the installation of the Somers system for the valuation of land for assessment purposes. Reports of its use in many cities of the mainland gives assurance that its adoption here will result in the equalization of tax assessments to a degree never possible heretofore, and will so systematize our methods that the benefit will be recognized at once."

"This is the main recommendation that was put forward by the Tax Equalization League, and I feel certain that the results which the Somers system will bring to Hawaii will be so momentous and gratifying that the league should feel amply repaid for its efforts, even though no other legislation had been passed for the betterment of our tax system."

Rogan Gets Back In The Game; Wreckers Defeat Infant Squad

Wrecking Crew Lands on New Pitcher and Sends Him to the Shower—Rogan Plays Left Field in First Game—32nd Infantry Team Leaves Gate Open and 25th Runs Through—32nd Infantry Gets to Waterhouse in Fifth—3000 Attend

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, July 1.—The post baseball park was the scene for the fans this afternoon, the 25th and 32nd Infantry nines being billed to battle, and 3000 of the faithful turned out and witnessed the Wreckers down the infants by the one-sided score of 9 to 2. It was a wild and woolly exhibition of the national pastime, abounding in several instances with strenuous kicking of the umpiring by the athletes representing the baby regiment and at one time it appeared as if the chief umpire, Thompson, would forfeit the game to the Wreckers. Mr. Thompson appeared very much off today in his decisions on balls and strikes. Rogan again appeared in the lineup of the 25th Infantry and celebrated his return by cracking out two hits, one of which was a long home run drive out of the lot via center field. The game was won by consistent hitting on the part of the Wreckers, that aggregation gathering 14 bingles as compared with seven for the infants. Errors on the part of the 32nd Infantry fielders at critical periods also assisted in rolling up the overwhelming score.

Riggs, a recently assigned recruit to the 32nd Infantry, essayed to stop the Wreckers and labored on the mound for four innings, the Wreckers gathering eight bingles, including three home runs while he was on the slab. He also punctured two of the Wreckers in the ribs, all of which helped in the run gathering. At that Riggs might have escaped with less damage if his support had not deserted him. Due allowances must be made for a young pitcher the first time he faces the Wreckers. That aggregation sure takes delight in walloping a rookie's delivery all over the lot. Mashaw completed the game and yielded two runs and six hits, as well as touching two funny spots in the five innings he performed on the hill. This lead was too great for him to overcome.

Waterhouse Starts
Waterhouse started the game for the 35th Infantry and performed four and two-thirds innings, the infants annexing two runs and five hits off his slants. He pitched himself into a ticklish situation in the fourth inning and was relieved by Jasper. The infants had two on and one down in the fourth when Chief tapped one to the pitcher's box, Mr. Waterhouse evidently was thinking of the supper bill of fare, or something else, and tossed the pill home for what he thought was a forecourt, permitting Chief to stroll to second. This lapse of memory soon settled his case for Jasper soon took up the job of holding the infants for the rest of the game. Waterhouse should fret, he receives credit for the victory in the official averages. Also, he helped to cheer the rooters of the Baby Regiment by his inside baseball. Every member of the Wrecking squad hit safely, Smith, Rogan, Goliath, Swinton and Fagin gathering a pair of safeties, Rogan, Moore and Goliath walloping the pill for four-ply swats. Ralls was the batting hero for the 32nd Infantry with three clean wallops. Hawkins, Johnson and Swinton played a stellar fielding game for the Wreckers, while Boyle, Holcomb, Stratton, Chief and Ralls performed creditably for the infants.

The Thirty-second Infantry was first to score, gathering two markers in the first frame. Buckland was safe on Moore's wild heave to the first base bleachers, reaching second safely. Boyle lifted to Johnson, Holcomb singled to center scoring Buckland, reaching second on the throw-in. Smith muffed Ralls' tap to short, Holcomb registering. Ralls percolated second, Stratton whiffed and Chief out to Hawkins for the third out. The Wreckers came back with a vengeance in the second, counting five times. Riggs hit Johnson amidship, Moore promptly cracked out a home run to deep left center, Goliath skied to Riggs, Swinton also was hit by the pitcher, Fagin hoisted to Holcomb, Ralls threw the ball to the bleachers on Waterhouse's dribbler to third, Swinton perching on third and Waterhouse on second, Hawkins tapped one to third and on the throw to first dropped the pill, Swinton scoring. Hawkins reaching second and Waterhouse third, Smith scored both with a rousing single over second base. Rogan died Ralls to Hemming for the third out. There was nothing doing for the infants in their half of the second.

Today's game was finished under protest, announcement to that effect being made to the stands by the chief umpire. It was the result of Manager Smith's unsuccessful attempt to have the umpires change positions. Patterson to call balls and strikes and Thompson to decide on the paths. While in several instances Thompson's decisions appeared off color, objections to his decisions being made by both teams, it will be up to the executives of the league to take some action. The fans certainly turn out in force to see the games at the post and while heretofore the games were played in remarkably fast time, today's contest required one hour and 50 minutes, not counting time taken out for protests of decisions, and the majority of the fans, especially those from Castner, had to double time to make retreat and supper.

LOCAL MEN APPOINTED IN RESERVE TO STAY

Honolulu men who have recently received commissions in the quarter-master reserve corps are not liable to a call to active service away from here under present war conditions, according to opinion expressed today at army headquarters.

Quite a number of local citizens have recently been commissioned as captains in the reserve corps, and since their acceptances a current report that they might be called to mainland training camps for duty has caused considerable wonder on the part of the reserve men.

However, it is the opinion that there is little likelihood at present for any such call. The greater part of these officers are intimately connected with big businesses here.

NEW ATTACHES IN POLICE COURT GET IN ACTION

Several changes were apparent in the personnel of police court officers this morning, chief among which was the return of Senator Charles F. Chillingworth at the prosecuting desk after being absent since the beginning of the last legislature. Attorney William J. Sheldon, who has been acting as deputy city and county attorney in Chillingworth's absence, was in court as usual, but on the side of the defense.

All the appointees of Judge Harry Irwin were in their places excepting P. Maurice McMahon, third assistant clerk, who last week declined the appointment on account of what he termed a small salary. No one has been named in McMahon's place and the judge says he may appoint a woman stenographer to handle civil cases. The salary is $125 a month.

Most of the Republican clerks and interpreters sat on the side lines this morning to watch their successors warm up. The new men in action this morning were A. V. Gear, first clerk in place of N. Fernandez; Dan K. Kaeo, succeeding himself as second clerk; J. C. Baker, Hawaiian interpreter in place of James Hakulele; F. C. Benevides, Portuguese interpreter in place of Joseph Diaz; Japanese interpreter Noda in place of Ed Townsend and Chinese interpreter Wong in place of L. M. King.

'MASTER BOMB' IS INVENTED BY AMERICAN BOY

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 1.—A bomb pronounced by ordinance experts as an absolute success and to be the most deadly known, was invented by Lester P. Barlow, of Pennsylvania, a first class electrician, while working at the Frankford Arsenal. The bomb was displayed in the house today by Representative John Q. Tilson, a member of the house military affairs committee. Mr. Tilson said Barlow had experimented with the aerial bomb from February to September, 1916, at Frankford, and experts had declared the bomb was effective and would explode six feet above the ground. It is now being manufactured, and will be used by the army and navy.

"The bomb explodes horizontally," said Mr. Tilson, "and with terrific force. The fragments go in every direction. The model I have here works only on land. If it strikes water it does not work. They are developing one to drop on submarines. I have seen the drawing. It is on the same principle, excepting its nose. There is a timing device in this new one that can be set to let it go at any depth below the surface of the water before it explodes, so that if it hits any solid substance on or below the surface of the water it will explode instantly, but if it is simply going down through the water the machinery will set it off at the designated depth.

Dropped from Any Height
"The one for the use in land warfare will explode when within five or six feet of the ground, it makes no difference from what height it is dropped. If dropped from 2000 or 3000 feet it would make no difference. When it gets within a certain distance of the ground it fires."

"One was exploded at the Sandy Hook proving ground. They were afraid to drop it from an aeroplane there. It is dangerous to drop it within a mile of where anybody lives, and you cannot be quite as accurate from an aeroplane as you desire. So the testers suspended it at the proper distance above ground and detonated it by an electric spark."

Mr. Tilson said the fearful destructiveness of the exploding bomb was such that it is difficult to test it in the thickly populated regions of the east. He said a large tract of ground had been recently selected for the next test.

Lester P. Barlow, inventor of the bomb, is a native of Pennsylvania, who enlisted several years ago as a coal passer in the navy and developed into a first class electrician. Barlow was at one time in charge of Villa's aeroplane squadron, but returned to the United States when the break came between this government and Villa. He is now employed in the making of these bombs by an arms company located in Connecticut.

Mr. Tilson recently exhibited to the house various makes of machine guns, rifles and projectiles. He explained additional types today, but devoted most of his speech to the Barlow bomb.

BRITONS IN U. S. URGED TO JOIN IMPERIAL ARMY

NEW YORK, June 3.—Lieutenant-General T. M. G. Bridges, head of the military head of the British Legion in the United States, has issued the Associated Press a statement urging the enlistment of British subjects in the United States.

"There are large numbers of British subjects living in the United States who up to now have been unable to enlist, as no machinery was available to handle them," Bridges said. "I expect that they will now come forward in large numbers to do their duty by their country."

Ages of 18 and 45
"Men between the ages of 18 and 45 desirous of enlisting in the Imperial or Canadian forces may present themselves at the United States recruiting depots, where they will receive their preliminary examinations and be forwarded free of cost to British or Canadian depots."

"While affording this opportunity for voluntary enlistment, it must always be remembered that the law of nations does not recognize a man without a country, and that every man who enjoys the privileges of citizenship has corresponding obligations to fulfill."

"It will be the object of both countries to insure that there is no escape from these obligations. I consider that measures will be taken to this end. All men, therefore, should lose no time in selecting the branch of service to which they wish to be posted."

Statement by White
A supplemental statement by General White said:
"According to the 1910 census there were at that time 600,000 British and Canadian male subjects over 21 residing in this country who had not completed their naturalization. Accurate figures of men between the ages of 21 and 30 will be obtained through the medium of the registration of the selective draft.

"British and Canadian subjects are fairly well scattered throughout the Union, but the largest numbers appear to be concentrated in New York, Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia, although there is a considerable number on the Pacific Coast."

"Any men found medically unfit on the final examination at New York or at the Canadian depot will, of course, be returned at the expense of the British or Canadian Government."

HOPKINS TAKES OFFICE AS HAWAII AUDITOR

Manley Hopkins, formerly in the tax office, this morning assumed his duties as new territorial auditor, succeeding J. H. Fisher.

For the time being, Auditor Hopkins announced, there will be no changes in the personnel of the staff of the office. Mr. Hopkins was sworn in on Saturday before Chief Justice A. G. M. Robertson, and this morning presented a bond of $10,000 to the governor for his approval.

During the next few weeks Mr. Hopkins will busy himself "getting into the ropes" of the office. Mr. Fisher was on hand this morning to help the new auditor get started.

ENGLAND PLANS TO PROMOTE WELFARE,
HEALTH OF BABIES

[By Associated Press]

LONDON, Eng.—One thousand baby shows and perambulator parades will be part of a great national campaign to be held in England during the first week of July to promote the health and welfare of babies.

Mayors, medical officers of health and town clerks in 250 districts will cooperate with the National Baby Week Council which is promoting the shows. Lord Rhondo is chairman of the council which includes members of the cabinet, doctors and social workers.

In each of the 250 districts there will be a mothercraft and baby welfare exhibition with competitions, and about 40 sections, devoted to every feature of baby-rearing. There will be a first-aid section, showing how to deal with humps, cuts, burns, chilblains and other infantile troubles.

WANTS ADVICE ON ADS HEADED

Complaining that their advice has been ignored by certain business men of Honolulu as members of the Chamber of Commerce, the Advertising and Subscriptions committee of that organization in a letter to its president, J. F. C. Hagens, urge that the firms of Honolulu "can do well and save money by a more careful consideration of the functions of this committee."

Although the committee has been active during the past few months in its work of deciding for the members of the chamber just what advertising propositions offered either have or have not appeared to be good business propositions, they have found that time and again little and sometimes no attention has been paid to their efforts.

The particular case on which the committee registers its present complaint is that of a "phrase book" which is being put out by a certain Japanese printing firm of the city. The committee decided that the proposed publication did "not offer a genuine medium for general advertising."

Notwithstanding the opinion of the committee, several obligated themselves "to support this so-called advertising medium."

LETTERS

U. S. HAS MADE GOOD

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.
Sir: The landing of American troops on European soil, for the purpose of making war on an European nation is a condition of affairs that would have been laughed to scorn a dozen years ago, even by ourselves. But it has come to pass. America has been lagging in the extreme in entering the great world conflict, but now that she is in it she will stay to the end. With her eyes wide open she entered, knowing full well the sacrifices she must make and the price she must pay, be she victor or vanquished.

With the first booming of the German guns on European soil, no threatening cloud darkened our horizon. The thought of this country being drawn into the very vortex of the great struggle was extremely remote. But fate has decreed otherwise. Suddenly the call for men went forth, which was answered by a spirit of willing loyalty to the country.

Our material resources were immediately mobilized. Money to the extent of billions of dollars was called for and was forthcoming with no hesitation. The most impressive token of love for mother country was manifest in the registration of nearly ten million men, men from every walk of life, ready and more than willing to serve their country in any capacity.

To remain out of the war a minute longer than we did would have rendered us unworthy of a place among world republics.

We have unleashed the dogs of war, and America, the proudest, grandest, truest and greatest nation in the world, has made good.

ELSASS LOADING FULL SWING NOW

Sugar is piling into the holds of the Elsass today, work having begun this morning at the railroad wharf. Stevedores are loading sugar from the cars direct to the big merchantman, because the Wilhelmmina is loading from the sugar chutes further down the wharf. About Thursday or Friday the Elsass will be shifted to the chutes to load from the sugar warehouses on the pier.

After cleaning up the pier, she will move to Pier 6. Because of the delay here in transferring the vessel from navy department to shipping board control more sugar has accumulated, so the vessel will load 7000 tons here instead of the 3500 originally planned. She will load between 3000 and 4000 more at Hilo, and steam from there for San Francisco direct.

STEAMER BRINGS 30 TO HONOLULU

Bringing 30 passengers, 21 tons of cargo, 15 packages of express matter and 881 bags of mail, an American steamer is in port today, having arrived this morning from San Francisco.

No one of great prominence is aboard and the total list of passengers is light. Among the passengers for Honolulu was Capt. F. Ryer, who arrives to take the ex-German steamer Gouverneur Jaeschke to San Francisco about July 25 or later.

Another mail from San Francisco will arrive tomorrow morning in the Matson liner Maui, which has 148 sacks. The steamer is believed to be on time, no word to the contrary having been received from her by the local agents, Castle & Cooke. Passengers on the Maui are 152 cabin and 13 steerage. There are 55 packages of express matter and 8033 tons of cargo aboard for Honolulu, also 720 tons for Hilo. The liner is due to dock at Pier 15 about 7:30 tomorrow morning.

JAPANESE ARE PLEASED WITH SEA ACTIVITY

TOKIO, Japan, May 26.—The Japanese people have been generally pleased to learn that their navy is taking a more active part in the war, and the news that a flotilla of destroyers is engaged in the patrol of the Mediterranean has created a favorable impression.

Rear Admiral Kozaburo, Rear Admiral Kazuo Sato and Rear Admiral Ichisue Yamaji are now commanding the Japanese squadrons detailed, respectively, in the India seas, the Mediterranean and the South Pacific. The despatch of a new battle squadron under Rear Admiral Yamaji to the South Pacific on a special mission has greatly extended the sphere of operations of the Japanese navy. Consequently the emergency expenditure has swelled to three times the former figure.

The newspaper Yomiuri, which reflects the views of the foreign office, declares that the time has come for Japan to bear responsibilities and burdens similar to those of her allies in Europe. It adds that the extension of Japanese naval activities in the Mediterranean is but a natural result of the changed position in which Japan finds herself.

"Japan," says the Journal, "should secure an influential footing, equal to the European powers, in the coming peace conference."

AZUMA TO SPEND JULY 4TH HERE

At 11 o'clock this morning the Japanese cruiser Azuma, all repairs to her damaged rudder completed and in place, was floated out the inter-landed drydock. She shifted to the navy slip and began reloading the coal and ammunition which she transferred to lighters before she went on the dock to reduce her dead weight as much as possible.

According to officials of the Japanese consulate general, the Azuma will be in port here for the Fourth of July. It will take several days to finish loading the coal and stores she put off before going on the dock. Repairs made by the Honolulu Iron Works were finished yesterday, as the result of work day and night on new bushings and castings made for the cruiser. Many Japanese visited the cruiser yesterday and this morning.

Cost of the repairs will be several thousand dollars. Work done by the iron works cost about $1000, while the drydock fees will be several thousand dollars more, based on the cruiser's tonnage and the number of days she was on the dock.

JAPANESE LINER IN FROM ORIENT

Bringing several Honoluluans back to their "home town," a Japanese liner is in port today from the Orient.

Among the local people returning on her were Max Basker, the importer; Mrs. Lionel Hart, H. Kubota, Mrs. H. Moribe, Mrs. Y. Matsushige, N. Seida, S. Shimano, and others. Dr. Elizabeth Beatty is among the passengers stopping over here.

The steamer had on board 109 saloon passengers, 19 second cabin and 381 steerage passengers when she arrived here. Of this number eight cabin were for Honolulu and 223 steerage passengers.

HARBOR NOTES

Next mail for San Francisco leaves at 5 o'clock this afternoon on a trans-Pacific liner now in port at Pier 7. Mails close at 3:30 p. m. at the post-office.

The Matson liner Wilhelmmina, steaming for San Francisco at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from Pier 19, will take the next mail out after the one leaving today. Mails will close at 2:30 p. m. at the postoffice.

The schooner Luka began loading cargo today for Fanning Island. It is not expected she will be able to leave for a week yet, owing to legal difficulties she has been plunged into from a libel plastered on the vessel by a Filipino sailor.

So many passengers have booked for the inter-islands Fourth of July excursion to Hilo that all steerage space has been sold out and about 80 passengers will sleep on mattresses placed on deck. There were more than 250 booked today.

PASSENGERS ARRIVED

The following passengers have arrived from San Francisco: Mrs. R. Peil, Mrs. C. King, Miss M. Johnson, P. Park, H. Underwood, H. Brown, J. Myers, S. Amama, Mrs. L. Holmes, C. B. Krause, Capt. F. EFFICIENCY FOR SUNDAY SCHOOLS

AIM OF COURSE

About 40 Sunday school teachers, prospective teachers, and superintendents were enrolled in the first meeting of the summer efficiency school for Sunday school teachers yesterday morning in Mission Memorial hall on King street.

Under the supervision of Rev. Henry P. Judd, one of the originators of this plan to train Sunday school teachers, the first class spent an hour in the prescribed procedure. The first half hour was spent in studying the textbook written especially for that work by Dr. A. F. Schaffner, who was assisted by the leaders in Sunday school work.

The second half hour was devoted to special study under departmental heads. These leading the groups are Rev. E. E. Pleasant of Kahului, who will be here for several weeks; Rev. Akaike Akana, Miss Lulu Canover, Mrs. Charles M. Nelson and Rev. Henry P. Judd.

The course will continue for ten weeks and if it proves as successful in the future as it has in the start, it is expected to develop into a permanent institution. Anyone desiring to study Sunday school teaching is eligible for the meetings which take place on Sunday mornings at 9:30 in Mission Memorial hall, and the expense is only that of the textbook.

The committee in charge of the work consists of Rev. Henry P. Judd, Pastor D. C. Peters, Mrs. M. T. Wilcox, Mrs. E. A. Cooper, Miss Lulu Canover and Fred H. McNamara.

OUTRIGGER CLUB REVIVES SPORTS

Something like an ovation was accorded "Dad" Center at a luncheon at Lanikaes at noon, when about 40 members of the Outrigger Canoe Club collected at lunch to back him in his efforts for the revival of the old sports in the surf, for which the club was famous eight years ago.

It was urged by Mr. Center and a number of others, that by supporting the nominations made by the committee appointed by the president and approved by the board of directors, the best results would be secured in eliminating petty politics in the elections of the Outrigger Club.

Mr. Center announced that on the fourth of July the great Kamehameha canoe, which has long been in possession of the club, would be launched with appropriate ceremonies, and furthermore that he would have a right-hand lieutenant from now on in the person of Duke Kahanamoku, who has joined the Outrigger Club and will swim for it in the events of 1918.

PENALIZED, SIX SALOONS CLOSE

Six saloons, penalized by the liquor license commissioners at their meeting June 23 for violating various regulations, are closed today. Their names, penalties and offenses follow:

Service Saloon—To be closed two weeks, July 2 to July 14. Selling liquor to man on tabu list.

Aala Saloon—To be closed six days, July 2 through July 7. Selling liquor there was reason to believe might be resold illicitly.

Kilohana Saloon—To be closed six days. Same time and offense as above.

Bansal Saloon—To be closed one day, July 2. Same offense as above.

Sunrise Saloon—To be closed three days, July 2 through July 4. Same offense as above.

Front Saloon—To be closed one day, July 2. Offense same as above.

STOCK EXCHANGE MEN FIRST OF TROOPS TO ENTER BAGDAD CITY

LONDON, Eng.—Members of the London Stock Exchange were the first troops to enter Bagdad. The stockbrokers were headed by one of the most prominent members, now a major in their regiment. The older members of the exchange assembled on the floor the other day were told of the exploits of their younger business rivals by Field Marshal Lord Grenfell.

Vincent Astor will pay the wages of New York policemen who will go to France to drive the Honor Legion ambulances.

$60,000 Y. M. C. A. For Orientals To Be Erected

Fort and Vineyard Corner Will Be Site for Group of Two Buildings

What will be one of the building projects of the year is the proposed construction of a Y. M. C. A. on upper Fort street at a meeting place for all of the Oriental races.

The plans have been drawn by Ripley & Davis, architects, and bids for its erection were called for last week. It is estimated that the cost of the two buildings, which will comprise the group, will be in the neighborhood of $60,000.

The site of the Y. M. C. A. is at the corner of Fort and Vineyard streets, the property having been purchased from the Love estate for $25,000 several months ago. The money for the land was raised by public subscription among the Orientals as is also the money for the two buildings, of which $30,000 has been collected.

The idea back of the project is for the establishment of a Y. M. C. A. for the Japanese, Chinese, Koreans and other Oriental races; a place where they may meet for athletic programs and other kinds of entertainment and instruction.

According to the plans drawn up by Ripley & Davis, at the corner of Fort and Vineyard streets, the administration building will be erected and back of it on Vineyard the gymnasium. Both buildings will be two-story wooden structures.

On the main floor of the administration building will be the offices and reading rooms, while the second floor will be occupied by class rooms and a large size auditorium, which may also be subdivided into more class rooms. The size of this building will be 60x80 feet.

The gymnasium building in the rear will be 50x100 feet in size. The first and second floors will be used for the gymnasium, while the basement will contain the lockers, baths, exercise rooms and a room for the secretary. At one end of the gymnasium a stage is to be erected for entertainments and a gallery will entirely circle it at the height of the second floor.

FARRANT TURNER, AFTER HIGH COLLEGE HONORS GOES TO PLATTSBURG

Farrant Lewis Turner, son of Mr. J. C. Turner of 1822 Punahoa street, Honolulu, and one of Honolulu's popular boys, was granted a diploma on June 13 by Wesleyan university, Middletown, Conn. He is now with the New England division of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at Plattsburg, N. Y.

Mr. Turner, who belongs to the Psi Upsilon fraternity, is a member of Corps and Coffin, a junior society, Mystical Seven, a senior society, of the college senate and is secretary-treasurer of the college body. He is also manager of the basketball team and captain of the swimming team.

MRS. MARY M'GUIRE TO BE BURIED TOMORROW

Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at Silva's undertaking parlors for Mrs. Mary McGuire of 3554 Leahi avenue, who died yesterday at the home of her son, James W. L. McGuire, near Kapiolani park. The deceased was born in Kailua, Hawaii, 32 years ago. She was the wife of the late James W. McGuire and is survived by five sons, four daughters, 21 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. The body will lie in state at the house until tomorrow morning, after which it will be removed to the undertaking parlors to lie in state until the hour of the funeral.

The children surviving are Mrs. D. Noble, Mrs. A. K. Dalton and Fred McGuire of San Francisco; Mrs. Otto Rose of Hilo, and Mrs. Von Sar, J. W. L. J. A. Thomas, C. and Charles S. McGuire of Honolulu.

SOLDIER TRIES SUICIDE BUT AIM IS BAD

In a supposed fit of despondency Pvt. C. H. McCabe, Battery E, 9th Field Artillery, attempted to kill himself in Helen's court about 7 o'clock last night by firing two shots from a .38 caliber revolver. He is now recovering at the Fort Shafter department hospital from a flesh wound in the head which officers there report are not serious. Poor aim prevented a fatal wound.

McCabe was alone in his room when the shots were heard. He was immediately taken to the emergency hospital, where he was treated by Police Surgeon R. G. Ayer. McCabe told Deputy Sheriff Asch he was tired of it all.

MRS. PARIS BRINGING DAUGHTER'S ASHES HERE

Mrs. Doris E. Paris will arrive from the mainland tomorrow, bringing with her the ashes of her daughter, Katherine, who died in Chicago on May 35. The funeral services will be held at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at St. Andrew's cathedral. Rev. Canon William Ault officiating. It has been requested that no flowers be sent.

MAUI CASE REMANDED

Exceptions are sustained and the action remanded to the circuit court in the case of the territory of Hawaii, for the county of Maui, against Hugh Howell and the U. S. Fidelity and Guaranty Co., in a decision handed down by the supreme court today.

This was an action against the principal and surety on an official bond of $5000 put up by Howell as county engineer of the Valley Island. It was alleged that a resident of Maui was injured through purported negligence in the repair of a road. The decision of the supreme court holds that the plaintiff's complaint states a cause of action.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Police Sergeant and Mrs. M. L. Needham announce the birth of a son, Moses, Thursday.

The Tom Saffery case, which was set for a hearing before United States Commissioner George S. Curry, may be postponed again. The commissioner is ill at his home today.

Circuit Judge Ashford has signed an order sustaining the demurrer of William Wolters, one of the defendants in the case of Mrs. Theresa Wilcox Belliveau against C. Bolte et al., an action to set aside a deed, and dismissing Wolters as a defendant.

The report of Circuit Judge Kemp's court for the first year, beginning July 1916, and ending last Saturday, shows that, during that period, 165 probate and 14 equity cases were determined, aside from the hearing of 67 final and 50 annual accounts of estates.

A resolution in respect to the memory of the late Attorney Arthur K. Ozawa and John Richardson will be presented to the supreme court at 10 o'clock tomorrow, by the Bar Association. Brief summaries of the careers of the two well known kamailinas will be presented by Attorneys W. R. Castle and William O. Smith.

No change in the recruiting status at guard headquarters has been noted since the receipt of a cablegram last week from Washington stating that local guardsmen will not be required to register for the selective draft, and also that persons who join the guard after registration will not be drafted, was the statement today at guard headquarters.

Oscar Apina in auto 235 ran into K. Shimazu on a bicycle on Beretania street near Fort street shortly after noon yesterday and crushed the rear wheel. About the same time K. Haya was taken to the emergency hospital from Pier 15, where he sustained a broken arm when a door dropped upon him. He is an employee of the Inter-Island steamship company.

LIONEL HART'S BRIDE RETURNS WITHOUT HIM

After a stay of several months in the Orient, Mrs. Lionel R. Hart (Julia Beckley) returned this morning to Honolulu, or rather is on her way to San Francisco as a through passenger on the liner which brought her to this port.

Mrs. Hart was met at Pier 7 by her mother, Mrs. George Beckley, and said that although she bought her ticket through to San Francisco she may possibly change her mind and wait over here until the next boat.

Lionel Hart is believed to be in the Orient. Mrs. Hart says she does not know just what his present address is. Mr. and Mrs. Hart left Honolulu several months ago on their wedding trip, going to Japan and China.

JUDGE KEMP HEARS 196 DIVORCE CASES IN YEAR

One hundred and ninety-six divorce cases were heard in Circuit Judge Kemp's division of circuit court from July 1, 1916, until last Saturday, according to reports completed today. Of this number 16 were contested and 180 not contested.

The number of cases by nationalities was as follows:

Colored, 6; Hawaiian and part-Hawaiian, 41; white, 32; Portuguese, 14; Chinese, 5; Filipino, 3; Japanese, 75; Korean, 5; Porto Rican, 7; Russian, 1; others, 7.

U. S. TRANSPORT BRINGS LUMBER FOR ARMY WORK

Four days ahead of her supposed schedule a U. S. transport left the coast yesterday for Honolulu, loaded with lumber for construction work on this island.

At this is the boat decided on to carry the big group of officers from Hawaii to the mainland, the fact that she is four days ahead of time will be especially interesting. It will mean that instead of leaving here on July 25, they will probably leave earlier.

HUNG LEE FINED FOR DRIVING LAME HORSE

Hung Lee thinks he got stung going and coming when he bought a mule. He was fined $20 in police court this morning for cruelty to animals and in explanation says he purchased the mule from the army with the assurance that the animal was sound, but shortly afterwards the mule went lame. Then H. N. Crabbe, assistant humane officer, arrested him for driving a lame animal.

BOARD OF MISSIONS ELECTS LOWREY HEAD

F. J. Lowrey was elected president of the Hawaiian Board of Missions at the recent annual meeting of that organization.

Other officers to serve during the coming year were chosen as follows: A. C. Alexander, first vice-president; Walter F. Frear, second vice-president; William A. Bowen, auditor; Rev. J. L. Hopwood, recording secretary.

PLACED UNDER BOND TO KEEP HANDS OFF WIFE

Domingo Ortiz was found guilty this morning of threatening to cut his wife's throat and sentenced to give a $500 bond to keep the peace for one year. If the bond is not forthcoming he will be sent to jail for a year.

Detective Fred Belmont, Porto Rican interpreter, says there is a story that Ortiz' father suffered his ears to be slashed off in Porto Rico rather than give up some hidden coin.

SHERIFF WANTS OLD POLICE BADGES BACK

Drastic measures will be adopted soon by the sheriff's office if holders of special police badges and commissions do not turn the same in at once. Anyone operating with the old badges and commissions is now doing so without authority, according to Deputy Sheriff Asch, who says that hardly a fourth of those outstanding have as yet been turned in.

Japanese Warship To Fire Salute To America On July 4

For the first time since the declaration of war a foreign war vessel will fire a salute of 21 guns in Honolulu harbor on July 4. Captain T. Niino of the Japanese cruiser Azuma, now in Honolulu harbor, announced today that the salute of 21 guns would be fired from the Japanese warship in honor of the celebration of Independence Day.

Captain Niino said this morning that he was proud of being in command of the first foreign vessel to fire a full salute in Honolulu since the U. S. declared war. The salute will be fired at 12 o'clock noon.

BIG LIE FREE FROM ANTHRAX; KAUAI MENACED

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
HILO, Hawaii, June 29.—No sign of any anthrax outbreak on the island of Hawaii has so far been discovered, but still, nevertheless, precautions are being taken to guard against an outbreak.

Dr. H. B. Elliot, the territorial veterinarian for this county, is in close touch with the situation and he says that although there have been all sorts of wild rumors going the rounds, nothing in the way of anthrax has been noted so far. Some cattle have died in different parts of the county, but examination always showed that some other cause than anthrax was responsible.

On Kauai new cases of the dread disease were discovered a few days ago in the Lihue district, according to wireless despatches, and this makes three separate localities on that island. On Maui there are still two infected districts, notwithstanding the assertion that two other cases at different places were declared not to be anthrax.

It is reported from Kauai that about five years ago a man died from some mysterious disease at a place on the windward side of the island and that a Japanese doctor declared the cause of death to be anthrax. This diagnosis was laughed at by other physicians, who stated that the cause of death was another disease. Whatever the cause of death was, the story is now being revived by those who say that there must have been anthrax on Kauai at least five years ago.

KAHUI GUILTY OF MURDER, GETS LIFE SENTENCE

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
WAILUKU, Maui, June 29.—After a trial lasting one day, the jury in the case of Sam Kahui, charged with the murder of Noa Kana, aged 72, brought in a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree, and Judge Edgington imposed a sentence of life imprisonment.

Kahui, who had been evicted from his home on land on which he had been squatting in the Ukumehame valley, on land of the Olowalu Company and the Catholic church, blamed his troubles on Kana, his neighbor, who had appeared as a witness in court against him, and who was later put in custody of the law lands of which Kahui had been dispossessed. Kahui went one night to Kana's house, strangled the old man to death after a fight, and then set fire to the cabin. He confessed the murder to Sheriff Crowell, but repudiated this confession at the time of his trial. Circumstantial evidence, however, was against him.

The jury was composed of Hugh Howell, G. W. Patterson, Charles Thompson, G. J. Bechert, A. D. Furtado, Jos. Melnick, Ed L. Duvau, Charles A. G. Martinson, W. A. Robbins, A. S. Medeiros, Charles Akana and J. H. Nelson.

TWO SMUGGLING SUSPECTS JAILED

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
HILO, June 29.—Deputy Collector of Customs Byron K. Baird captured two alleged opium smugglers Wednesday afternoon. The prisoners were taken to the steamship Enterprise and are charged with having tried to dispose of three half-pound tins of opium valued at about $255.

The collector had received a tip that opium was coming ashore in Hilo. The hunt led to a Chinese store on Front street where Baird saw the two suspected men enter.

The revenue men waited for a minute or so and then, accompanied by a police officer, entered the store, and in the rear discovered the men, and three tins of opium on a box.

The alleged smuggler, one of whom is said to be a junior engineer and the other a fireman on the Enterprise, were placed under arrest and are now in the Hilo jail. It is probable that a United States marshal will arrive in Hilo on Sunday to take the men to Honolulu. On the other hand the case may be tried in Hilo as there will be a federal judge here.

MAUI BOY EXPECTS TO BE CALLED TO COLORS

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
WAILUKU, Maui, June 29.—Bertram Aiken, son of W. O. Aiken, has received notice that the Indiana national guard regiment, of which he is a member, will probably be mustered into the U. S. service in a few weeks. He expects to receive orders for duty at any time now. Aiken was in school in Vincennes, Ind., when troops were sent to the Mexican border, and he and most of his class-mates enlisted at that time. He has been home on indefinite leave for several months.

HILO FATHERS PLAN TO SUPPLY OTHER ISLANDS WITH FOODSTUFFS

Farmers Willing to Increase Production if Transportation is Provided

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
HILO, Hawaii, July 1.—Food Agent Moir is back from a trip to the Kau district where he took an inventory of land available for small farming and the raising of foodstuffs. He found that a large amount of food could be raised in that district if the matter of transportation could be arranged.

An effort is to be made to secure special transportation rates from the railroad and steamship companies, so that the surplus foodstuffs that cannot be disposed of in Hilo may be shipped to Honolulu. The produce could be shipped by auto-truck to Glenwood and from there brought by train to the wharf where it could be shipped to Honolulu on the inter-island steamers.

Demonstrations Needed
Mr. Moir says that he thinks the small farmers need a demonstration plot of land where they may be shown how and what to raise.

The food conservation agent is confident that, after a while, the farmers will become acquainted with the advantage of raising the proper kind of foodstuffs and that when they know that there is a market, either in Hilo or Honolulu, or in both for their produce, the matter of inducing the growers to go ahead on a large scale will become an easy proposition.

In the Kau district little or no rain has fallen. Still, what foodstuffs that are being raised, look well.

Kona is said to be ready to go into the produce line in a large way, if transportation difficulties can be overcome. The small farmers of that region declare that they could feed the whole of this island and most of the people of the other islands if they could only get what they could raise to market.

With Kau and Kona, to say nothing of Hamakua, in the running, as food producers, Hawaii will be well provided for—that is if the transportation problem is solved satisfactorily, as no doubt it will. The Inter-Island Steamship Company and the Hawaii Railway Company have always shown a cooperative spirit in encouraging the production of some existing crop, or the introduction of a new one.

ARMY WON'T PAY $3 PER TON FOR ITS COAL
(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—Fifty thousand men are still needed to bring the regular army up to war strength, Secretary Baker announced last evening.

Referring to charges for fuel that are being asked of the government the secretary of war said that the proposed charge of $3 a ton for bituminous coal at the mines as fixed by the operators is exorbitant, in his estimation, and is oppressive and that the army will not pay it for the fuel which it requires.

THEATRICAL BUSINESS TO GIVE RED CROSS BENEFIT

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service.)
WASHINGTON, July 2.—Leading members of the theatrical profession have decided upon an aggressive campaign for Red Cross funds. Their plan is to have nationwide benefits, with special performances in the chief cities and even down to the smaller cities and larger towns on less elaborate scales.

While no day has yet been set for this great Red Cross benefit, already 250 of the managers of the theaters and other amusement enterprises have promised their support and the intent is to utilize practically every theater in the country.

RAILROADS SAY RAISE IN RATES NECESSARY

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service.)
NEW YORK, July 2.—The representatives of the leading financial interests of the country are expressing their regret and general disappointment over the decision of the interstate commerce commission not to permit the requested 15 per cent increase in general freight rates to the railroads.

A number of lines whose stocks went tumbling Saturday at the official announcement that no early increase in freight rates is to be allowed are able to see no hope of escaping reorganization unless there be an early reversal of its decision by the interstate commerce. The high grade stocks, which were likewise affected by the decision, have already commenced to rally.

"DRY" STATES ARE GIVEN PROTECTION OF NEW LAW

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service.)
WASHINGTON, July 1.—At midnight Saturday night 35 of the 48 states of the Union became bony dry, under the terms of the Reed amendment, which prevents intoxicants from being shipped into states which have voted for prohibition. In eleven of the other 33 states, the bonydry prohibition provisions are in force in portions of the states.

In addition, the despatches from the American headquarters in France announce that American prohibition has followed the flag across the Atlantic and the district wherein the troops of General Pershing are in camp is bonydry so far as the American soldiers are concerned.

The French authorities have given the American military police full authority to maintain discipline and to police the country and the city near which is the camp. Automatically there goes into force the portion of France the same prohibition as affects the army at home, and no intoxicants whatever are to be sold to any man wearing an American uniform.

The American military police are given authority over fixing the hours during which Americans are to be allowed to frequent the cafes and over the patrolling of the streets.

CHINA BOY EMPEROR REPORTED NOW RULER

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service.)
LONDON, England, July 2.—A Reuters' despatch from Peking says that General Chang Hsun, who was named by the southern provinces as dictator and who has been since acting as such, yesterday informed the president that he must retire. The reason given for the demand of the president's resignation and his retirement was that the Manchou emperor, Hsuan Tung, has been restored to the throne.

SCOUTS ISLAND FOOD SHORTAGE, MAUI PRAISED

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
WAILUKU, Maui, June 29.—Maui has the credit of having made more progress than have any of the other islands in the matter of food preparation, according to Dr. A. L. Dean, president of the College of Hawaii, and head of the new territorial food commission.

Dr. Dean made this statement to an audience of Maui men and women who gathered at the Wailuku town hall last Friday to hear his talk on food production and conservation, and an outline of the plans of the commission. The address was given under the auspices of the Maui County Fair & Racing Association, the speaker being introduced by President F. F. Baldwin of the organization.

Dr. Dean stated among other things that he does not expect there will be a food shortage in Hawaii because there will be plenty of money here to buy food, and with Hawaii's sugar in such great demand there will also be the ships to carry the sugar and incidentally to bring back food supplies. But for the sake of the rest of the world the speaker urged the importance of drawing as lightly as possible on the mainland supply of foods, and advised producing all we can in the way of substitutes both for home consumption and to export.

In Dr. Dean's opinion, should the islands ever be besieged by a hostile fleet, Oahu will be thrown upon its own resources, and any food produced on the other islands would be of no avail. It is the hope of the food commission, he said, to get the production of certain staple foods so well established that they will become permanent crops and not simply emergency ones as at present.

DELEGATE KUHIO PLAYS IN RED CROSS BENEFIT

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Prince Jonah Kahanamano, delegate from Hawaii in the house of representatives, scintillated as a diamond star of the first magnitude for a short time Saturday afternoon.

It was in the annual baseball game between house Democrats and house Republicans that the Hawaiian delegate won his diamond laurels Saturday. He played in the second inning and while in the field retired two of the Democratic batters and got a hit, later scoring.

Despite the efforts of Delegate Kahanamano, the Democrats beat the Republicans in the annual game. The final score was 22 to 21 and there were 50 hits and 45 errors. Playing time was three hours and twenty-three minutes. President Wilson, his cabinet, high officials and members of the foreign diplomatic corps were in attendance and cheered the players wildly. The game was for the benefit of the Red Cross and netted $3000.

RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE IS EVIDENTLY COMING SOON

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service.)
LONDON, Eng., July 2.—Despite another attempt on the part of von Hindenburg to win over the Russians to consent to an armistice, it is now recognized by the German commanders on the eastern front that they must be prepared to meet a great Russian offensive in the very near future, and the prospect, with their forces reduced to a minimum for the sake of strengthening the western armies, is not bright.

Advices sent from the front by the newspaper correspondents to the Petrograd press agree that all fraternization between the Russian and German soldiers has ceased, and the men who were visiting each other in their trenches three weeks ago are now facing each other grimly in the trench fighting that has recommenced.

FIFTEEN KILLED WHEN WATER TANK FALLS OVER

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service.)
MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 2.—Revised lists given out last night of the casualties resulting from the accident to the "whaleback" steamer Christopher Columbus from the toppling of a great water tank upon its deck, when it ran into a dock Saturday, place the number of dead at nine men and six women. There were thirty-three seriously injured.

Investigation of the accident to the Christopher Columbus is being conducted by federal inspectors. The steamer bumped the dock so hard that the current of the river was unusually strong, due to the heavy recent rains that have caused it to rise. Investigation has not reached the question of the position of the tank, which fell fifty feet from the deck to the dock of the whaleback.

SOCIALIST PARADE FOR PEACE IS BROKEN UP

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service.)
BOSTON, July 2.—What was announced as a "peace demonstration" by the Socialist parties was broken up by soldiers and sailors yesterday afternoon. Wild disorder and rioting ended the unpatriotic demonstration of the Socialists and the trouble was only quelled after the police reserves finally dispersed the crowd.

The demonstration of yesterday had been advertised by the Socialists as in the interest of peace. Leaving the party headquarters the parade started through the streets with Socialist flags and banners and signs. It was the "wording" of some of these that exasperated the soldiers and sailors. Immediately self-organized bands of the country's land and sea fighters gathered and undertook to seize and destroy the offending signs. Their efforts were resisted and others joined in the melee. Soon banners and signs were being trampled under foot and a riot was in progress.

An attack was made on the Socialist headquarters, offensive mottoes were torn from the walls and thrown into the square. Literature found in the rooms followed and next the furniture was thrown out. These were piled up together in a heap in the square and burned.

HOW OLD IS ANN?
By DOROTHY DIX
The World's Highest Paid Woman Writer.

STRICTLY speaking a woman's age is a triangular secret between her mirror, her makeup box, and the family Bible. How summers, and she, how many winters have passed over her head is her own affair, and it is nobody's business whether she is as old as she looks, or as young as she feels.

The greatest modern discovery, so far as the fair sex is concerned is the finding of the Fountain of Perpetual Near-Youth, so that the woman of today who has drunk of it's waters is anywhere from twenty to forty years younger than the woman of the past was at the same age.

At the time when her grandmother felt that she was through with life and retired to the chimney corner with her knitting to prepare for the Other World, the modern woman just begins to really live, and buys herself a circular clock around the globe, and fares forth to see what this world is like.

Of course there was never any greater absurdity than to measure age in terms of years. How many birthdays one has celebrated has nothing to do with the case. Age is not a matter of mathematics. It is a question of mind and heart and temperament, especially with women. There are those who are born old and are gentle in the cradle, and there are those who are eternally young and are debutantes at ninety.

Therefore, when you would know a woman's age, seek not to ascertain the year of her birth, for that is of no consequence. Judge not by crow's feet, for they may be but the fine print in which experience has written the most interesting chapter in her history; not by a halting gait, for that may be rheumatism which has all gone for its own. But judge of her age by the wrinkles on her soul, and the stiffness and lack of elasticity of her mind. These are the real marks of old age.

Also there be these signs which never fail to tell how old Ann is. Apply them to the lady next to you and see how they work out. Also and likewise use them as a litmus test to really find out how old you are yourself.

The first indication that a woman gives that she is beginning to grow old is when she commences shying at a date as a nervous country house does at an automobile. After a woman passes her thirty-fifth birthday, chronological chronicle cease to exist.

for her and she never remembers anything, no matter how interesting, that happened later than last year. A middle aged man will greet an old friend rapturously and say, "By George, Bill Smith, is that you? Why, I haven't seen you in twenty years." Or he will recall that fifteen years ago he met Jones in Europe. But Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Jones indulge in no such incriminating reminiscences. They indulge in glittering generalities as to dates and content themselves with an elusive reference to a "long time," which commits them to no specific number of years.

Of course when a woman abandons hope and becomes the Oldest Inhabitant she renews her connection with the calendar. Then she remembers all about the cold winter of '78, or the hot summer of '96, but in the interim wild horses could not drag from her any date that would give you a line on how old she must be now if she remembers all about the soldiers starting for the Cuban war. When she refers to such matters, she always says that she has heard her mother tell of them.

The second sign of approaching age in a woman is when she begins to preface her statement with the remark, "was a mere child when that happened," and to confide to you that her husband, if he happens to be fat and bald, is much, much older than she is.

This sign is universally exhibited by the good looking women, who have grown and married children, who have retained their willowy figures and still have their own hair and teeth. They never fail to relate at every opportunity how they were married when they were very, very young, and they give you to understand that the gentlemen who led them to the altar should have been indicted by the Grand Jury for cradle snatching.

At this age married women become suddenly coy and kittenish and begin to speak of themselves as "we girls," and to exhibit a morbid and unfounded fear of what Mrs. Grundy will say if they are not chaperoned in an inch of their lives.

It is only young women in their twenties who are daring and unconventional, not afraid of trusting themselves unprotected in the society of men. Fifteen and forty is a timorous creature who trembles to think what people would say if a young thing, such as she dares to be thought, went out alone, without her mother.

The third sign of age in a woman is when she begins to be shocked at everything she sees, and especially when she is horrified at everything that young girls do. People who are as young as the newest fashion, and the latest dance, and the freshest ideas, see no impropriety in them. They belong to their day and they take them as a matter of course as they do their ham and eggs at breakfast.

To sweet-and-twenty three layers of chiffon is as modest a dress as reinforced broadcloth was to her grand mother; the fox trot as little suggestive a dance as the minuet; she sees nothing more indiscreet in showing her ankles than her wrists, and she discusses subjects with perfect propriety that no perfect lady was even supposed to know about thirty years ago. That is because she belongs to this age, and these things are done now, and they were NOT done in her mother's and grandmother's time.

Therefore when you see a woman begin to hold up her hands in horror at the way young girls dress, and the way they go staking around with men, and the way they play golf, and the books they read, and the bold ideas they express, and the awful way they go off after careers, why, you are perfectly safe in setting the lady down at half past fifty, or over. Her ideals are those of her own youth, when her grandmother and maiden aunts were shocked at her doings-on, and held up their hands in horror over her.

The final sign of age in a woman is when she sets to the place where she cannot change her mind, when all of her mental processes have hardened into a set mould, and she is impenetrable to a new idea. When you find a woman who has gotten into a rut, mental and physical; who holds the same point of view no matter how situations change; who sits day after day in the same chair at the same window, and is upset if any of her little habits are broken into, who thinks all the new styles hideous, the modern books and actors not what they used to be, who talks of how much better things were in her youth and prophesies that the world is going to the dogs, she's old—as old as Methuselah, no matter what she told the census man.

And that's the way to tell how old Ann is.

STAR-BULLETIN 'FAMILY' MAKES MERRY AT BIG BIRTHDAY PARTY

Laniakia is Scene of Celebration From 6:30 to 12 Saturday Evening

The Star-Bulletin "family"—more than 150 of them—celebrated a joint birthday Saturday night—the fifth anniversary of the newspaper's establishment, which occurred July 1, 1912.

Laniakia was the scene of the birthday party and Laniakia belonged to the Star-Bulletin for the evening. Beginning with supper at 6:30, the program ended at midnight. In between there was a little bit of everything that goes to make a family entertainment lively and enjoyable.

After W. R. Farrington, general business manager and toastmaster for the evening, had called the family together at the tables spread in Laniakia, a Hawaiian guitarist discoursed music. Carlos Caocoy, the gifted musician, also discoursed music and other things and was presently joined by Ted Vaughan, whose humorous songs were a feature of the evening. A poem by Sporting Editor Merrick in the best sporting-laureate style caused much amusement.

With the clearing of the tables, the stunts began. First there was a distribution of birthday gifts, which whole lot of the family got there, being called to the front of the house and each gift was handed out to the accompaniment of roars of laughter from the rest of the family, as the unlucky individual's peculiarities or known failings "around the shop" were hit off.

Last of all the gifts was one of a more serious nature—a handsomely embossed statement from the "family" to General Business Manager

Farrington expressing the appreciation of everybody "from the top floor to the basement" in the attitude and cooperation of the business management. It was presented by Harry S. Hayward, superintendent of the printing department, and Mr. Farrington responded with a few words of return appreciation for the fine spirit of "work together" shown in every department of the big plant.

Next followed a series of cartoons by John C. Poole, the Star-Bulletin staff artist, flashed on the screen by Eddie Fernandez. They proved one of the biggest hits of the evening.

First came a cartoon of Frank C. Atherton, president of the Star-Bulletin Company. As this was put on the screen, Riley H. Allen, editor, spoke for all the Star-Bulletin to express the cordial appreciation of the entire "family" for the president of the company and his personal interest in the advancement of everything connected with the concern. Mr. Atherton responded in a brief, telling talk, touching upon the keynote of cooperation.

Another good talk came from Emil A. Bernat, secretary of the company, when his cartoon went on the screen.

A long and laughable series of cartoons, cablegrams, want ads, personal and news items appeared after this, each touching up gently some member of the "family." Then Eddie Fernandez showed a one-reel laugh-maker and following this came the big prize dance, the climax of the evening.

The floor was cleared in a jiffy and in another jiffy was divided into squares and numbered and a wheel of fortune set spinning while the dancers went into the first one-step. When the wheel stopped, with the indicator pointing to a number, the couples standing on the square correspondingly numbered got a prize, all of the prizes going to the girls. Silk stockings, big boxes of candy, perfume and other prizes went to the lucky dancers.

A feature of the dance was the prize fox-trot. Mrs. Augustus E. Murphy, society editor of the Star-Bulletin; Mrs. W. R. Farrington and Mrs. E. A. Bernat graced the dance. Out of a dozen gracefully-gliding couples Miss Nani Fern and her partner, Mr. Chavez, came out victorious and Miss Fern carried off the handsome perfume atomizer offered as a prize.

At midnight the party ended. Everybody from John Crowell, one of the real veterans of the business, to the smallest office-boy and carrier, said it was a real party.

MANY CANVESES AT ART EXHIBIT

Gordon Osborne's wax model of a fountain it is proposed to erect on the grounds of the Outrigger club in memory of Jack London was exhibited for the first time Saturday night at an art exhibition in the Pan-Pacific building, which was visited by several hundred local art lovers.

The wax model represents London, lover of outdoor life, at work in the open. It is a suggestion for a larger model in clay to be perfected before the whole is worked out in marble. On the pedestal is a bas relief of Mrs. London, co-worker of the late author, at the wheel of the Snark in which they made their memorable tour of the South Seas.

While the art exhibit is a small one, it contains a number of excellent pieces of work by well-known local artists, there being about 60 canvases altogether. D. Howard Hitchcock is showing 17 pictures, E. W. Christmas, 10; Gordon Osborne, 10, and one by Lionel Walden. Twigg Smith's marine views are especially pleasing. Two of these masterpieces being "The Coast Line at Puna" and "Hawaii Water." Splendid examples of coloring are two water colors, "Incoming Tide" and "Hawaiian Fishers," by Christmas. "Honolulu, a Sketch," is the only Walden picture on exhibition.

MISS DIECKMANN GIVEN RECEPTION BY CLUB

Members of the Business Girls' Club of the Y. W. C. A. held a special meeting and supper at the beach house Friday. Following the supper the girls made leis which will be sent to the Asiatic conference.

Miss Annetta Dieckmann, who will leave soon for the mainland, was tendered a reception by the members of the club. She was presented with a beautiful picture by Miss Ethel Carter.

Rest for Beauty

The nervous woman is rarely pretty. She may be extremely beautiful when young, but the nervous tension under which she lives inevitably wears out her body. At twenty five she looks near thirty, at thirty she seems forty, at forty, she's thin, haggard, wrinkled, old.

So if you are the least bit neurotic, take extra good care of yourself. Rest more than the ordinary woman does, to overcome the nervous strain, eat plenty for food soothes the nerves; eat often to keep the blood in the stomach. This does not mean that occasional nibbles of candy are all the energy to go towards digestion. Unfortunately, it is hard to convince the nervous woman that she must rest. She always means to, but she never will take the time for her type can find more things to do than any other sort of woman.

Bertha Williams—So many have asked me about proper diet to avoid gaining flesh that I am talking on that subject once or twice every week. So watch the Chats for articles on what not to eat, if you would keep thin. Remember though, that girls be taken or that meals may be eaten any time of the day or night. It means frequent nourishment at regular periods. A good plan is an egg and milk between breakfast and luncheon and between luncheon and dinner, and a cup of hot chocolate and a cracker just before going to bed.

The nervous woman should rest a lot to conserve her energies. When possible, she should lie down in preference to sitting down, as the relaxation is more complete. It is surprising the number of minutes of rest that can be snatched between the duties of the day. If the rest follows immediately after a meal, it will do double good, for it will allow much for a girl your age and your height. However, at 16 many girls are over developed in the bust, a condition that passes in a few years, when they become more mature. Do not use any means yet to reduce, except to avoid fattening foods. Tight waists will not reduce, they will only make the figure stiff in appearance.

PYTHIANS ELECT OFFICERS

Election of officers was the chief business of the Knights of Pythias at their regular meeting Friday. Richard Gosling was elected chancellor commander; Harry Evanson, vice-chancellor commander; H. B. West, prelate; Otto Heine, master of finance; Z. K. Myers, master of exchequer; A. B. Angus, keeper of record and seal; Edward Kruech, master at arms; E. W. Bull, master of work; Ernest Gibson, inner guard.

MILLION AND HALF OF WORKERS GET INCREASE

(By Associated Press) LONDON, England.—Fifteen hundred thousand employees in the British Isles received increases in wages totaling $1,500,000 during April, according to statistics prepared by the labor department of the board of trade. These are larger figures than previously have been recorded in any one month.

DETECTIVES FIND BEANS, NO CASH

No hidden treasure was found Friday afternoon by Detectives Belmont and Ah Kui, who went to Kahu-kui to search for $1400 thought to have been buried by Domingo Ortiz.

The two detectives searched the chicken house, the attic, looked under the bed, behind the clock and in the sink, but all they could find was a sack of cheap crackers and a pot of garbanos beans which, according to Mrs. Ortiz, was all her husband gave her and the children to eat.

Ortiz was arraigned in police court Saturday on two charges, one of threatening to cut his wife's throat and the other of embezzling $800 from his stepson, Bap-lata Ortiz. The latter case was nolle prossed for lack of evidence and the former continued to July 2. In the meantime the police will still try to find the money which the neighbors say the defendant has buried somewhere.

HAWAII IS TO HAVE BAEDEKER

Hawaii will have a Baedeker. This was the announcement made by A. P. Taylor, secretary of the Hawaii Promotion committee. There have been a number of requests made for a booklet which would give the location of Hawaii, the transportation facilities and the cost of the tours. This will be compiled by the committee.

A Baedeker is a species of guide book first discovered in Germany by a publisher named Karl Baedeker. His books on travel became famous more than 50 years ago, and have since that time been the official travel books used by tourists on the continent.

The Hawaiian Baedeker will cover Hawaii completely giving only the necessary details. A number of principles and booklets have been published in the past, but nothing of this kind has been proposed before for the territory.

ASKS $2500 BALM IN BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT

Mary Perry has "suffered in mind and body" and has been damaged in her reputation and feelings" to the extent of $2500, according to her allegations in a suit for breach of promise which she has filed in circuit court against John Reis.

The woman asserts in her complaint that on May 3, 1917, while at Waipahu, this island, she consented, at the request of Reis, to marry him. She further alleges that since that time they have not been married, and intimates that the defendant does not intend to

CROWDS BOOKED FOR HILO TRIP FOR THE FOURTH

With an extensive program of festivities completed, entries in all events of the track and swimming meets greater than ever, the crews in trim, and the boats booked to the limit with pleasure seekers, Hilo promises to do splendidly in celebrating the Fourth of July this year.

The special excursion boat leaves Honolulu for Hawaii on Tuesday night, but so great has been the response to Hilo's invitation that many people left on the regular boat Saturday.

A big crowd is expected in Hilo on the Fourth and everything points to a fulfillment of the expectations.

That this year's Inter-island Cup race will offer as keen a rowing contest as has been seen in these waters for some time, is the prediction of the boosters of the race who see the crews of every entry in the pink of condition. The best oarsmen in the islands will compete, probably to endanger old records.

Entries for the track meet and the swimming events to be held in the bay, are above the average.

Passengers of the excursion boat will arrive in Hilo on the morning of the Fourth and just in time for the first event of the day, the patriotic exercises. They will be held in the armory and will be featured by the choruses that have been trained especially for the occasion.

The succession of events which include a parade with military, industrial, automobile, and Japanese features, has been planned to fill every moment of the day and continue at least into the middle of the night.

The Japanese of the city promise spectacular affairs in a lantern parade.

The baseball game between the Hilo league and the Twenty-fifth Infantry will be a leading feature of the sporting program for the day. The swimming races and the regatta have been arranged for the morning so everybody can see the game and the track meet which will come off after lunch. A special collection of unique fireworks has been made to add still further variety to the program of the day.

In spite of the reduced rate of the excursion tickets a stopover will be allowed, giving those who wish to extend their visit Thursday and Friday night for side trips. Large numbers have taken advantage of this opportunity to see the island in a large party which is being conducted by L. W. de Vis-Norton.

The Volcano of Kilauea will be visited by the party on Thursday. The latest reports from the volcano are that the fire lake in Halemauan has risen close to the rim and is very active.

'NO WASTE' MOVE AIDED BY MATSON

That the Matson Navigation Company's steamers are enrolled in the national service in the matter of table economy, at least, is proved by the bill-of-fare printed for their passengers. No attempt is made to force economy on the passengers by reducing the bill-of-fare, but in red letters on the menu cards are printed requests that travelers order small portions, re-ordering in case they desire more of certain dishes and viands.

A menu card printed on the steamer Manoa for breakfast on June 21, contained 22 items from which guests could select the dishes they wanted for the morning repeat that day. At the bottom of the menu was the red-lettered request:

"That there may be no waste caused by a passenger being served with more than he requires of a single item, smaller portions may be had on request."

And at the top of the menu, also in red, is the following quotation from President Wilson's appeal to America:

"The supreme need of our nation and all the nations with which we are cooperating, is an abundance of supplies and especially foodstuffs. This is the time for America to correct her unpardonable habit of wastefulness and extravagance."

CHINESE MAIDENS WHO WOULD WED MUST BIDE TIME BECAUSE OF YOUTH

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) WAILUKU, Maui, July 1. — The road to matrimony is proving not to be a smooth one for a number of comely Chinese maidens of Maui lately. Recently, Miss Charlotte Tam Wong, of Makawao, slipped one over on her parents on proving herself to be over 18 years old, and was granted a marriage license and quickly wedded to Sam Kaleo, Jr., of Paea, in spite of telephonic appeals to have the match stopped.

But now two other less fortunate Chinese maidens are being held by the police because they also wanted to get married against parental wishes, both are of pua. One is the daughter of Tam Chong, who would wed one Ed. Ali. The other is Rose Chang, daughter of Chang Yoo Chong, who applied to Marriage License Agent Cockett not long ago with Frank Estrella, a young Filipino for a license, but was denied on account of her youth.

LITTLE TALES ABOUT TOWN

Col. Robert R. Raymond, corps of engineers, Hawaiian department, tells an interesting tale of how Brig-Gen. Samuel E. Tillman, recently appointed head of West Point, has come in touch with three generations of the Raymond family.

Back in the '70s when Tillman was a lieutenant in the corps of engineers, Col. Raymond's own father, who was a captain at that time, figured with him in an exploring expedition in the Antarctic seas and through Australia, Tasmania, Capetown and other places to observe the transit of Venus between the sun and the moon. Both officers made the trip twice together, observing a natural phenomenon which will not occur again for 800 years.

When Col. Raymond was a cadet at West Point he studied under Tillman, who was at that time head of the Hawaiian department.

gone to the military academy, and Gen. Tillman has been named at the head of the institution. The announcement of the appointment came just shortly after the young cadet had left for the mainland.

Secretary Anna Nissen of the Industrial Accident Board has grudge against the Star-Bulletin. She says she is never able to give the reporters any news on deaths and accidents, for they always have it first.

When the local fire department goes over a week without a run Chief Thurston and Assistant Blaisdell become fidgety. Last month they went 10 days without a call.

By inaugurating novelties such as prize giving and favors for the ladies, Manager Harry E. Stinson of the Young hotel has boosted the popularity of the roof garden on Monday and Friday nights almost to that of Sat-
