IMPROVEMENTS GOING ON PIKOI STREET PROPERTY OWNERS HAPPY. THE WINTER SEASON FITTINGLY USHERED IN. FIFTY CHINESE VAGABONDS MAY BE HAULED IN. PORTUGUESE WILL HOMESTEAD IN NAHIKU.

PIKOI STREET PROPERTY OWNERS HAPPY.

The Government is Macadamizing the Thoroughfare—Vineyard Street Opened for Traffic—Waialae Road.

At the office of the Road Supervisor it was learned this morning that the work of improving the streets and country roads is going merrily on.

Pikoi road has been put into shape from Beretania to King street. The road will be improved as far as Lanalilo street. Large stone is being used for the gutters and a crushed rock with regular macadam top is put on the street. The property owners on Pikoi from King to Lanalilo streets, are meeting the government half way and are putting in a stone curbing.

Fourteen day men are engaged in this work. There is a great deal of traffic on Pikoi street on account of the baseball park.

Vineyard street is now in good condition to drive over and will be open for traffic this week. This road runs down to the river and some day will be extended to Liliha street.

Prison labor is working on the Waialae road. This road is now in fine condition to a point about half way between Moiliili and Iseberg's place. Lava rock is being used and a good stone top is being put in. A gang of prisoners have just completed a big job in cutting away the weeds and bushes growing along the Waialae road from Iseberg's down to Koko head.

A gang of day men are engaged in weeding and repairing the Tantalus road and are working in.

A large number of prisoners are putting in a hard rock top on the Mauna Loa road below the city. The crusher is doing service there.

The Nuuanu stream wall, between Kukul and Beretania streets, nearly the St. Louis college, has been raised to the grade.

A gang of prisoners are working on the upper Panoa road.

Some patch work is being done on Nuuanu, King and other streets.

THEY NEED CONFIDENCE.

Faculty of Iolani College Improving Students in Eloquence.

Principal R. D. Fenn of Iolani College has introduced monthly elocutionary and musical entertainments. The object in view is to improve the elocution of the pupils and give them confidence on the platform.

The next evening of the series will be November 26, and the program on the occasion will consist chiefly of selections from Shakespeare. Mr. Fenn is glad to see any of the parents or friends of the pupils who may feel interested in the matter.

NEW QUARTERS.

Pacheco & Fernandes to Have a Larger Shop.

When Pacheco & Fernandes, the proprietors of the Criterion Barber Shop, commenced business last year, they started with two chairs. They attended strictly to business, kept their tools in perfect condition and paid particular attention to the cleanliness of their shop. Their businesslike methods attracted the best class of custom in Honolulu and in a short time they added a third chair. Last June they remodeled the shop, put in some handsome fixtures, and in response to the demand, placed a fourth barber at work.

As a natural result of their enterprise, they find now that they require larger quarters. These they have secured in the Arlington block on Hotel street, in the store next to the billiard room. The place will be very handsomely fitted up and enough money will be spent to stamp it as the only first class shop in this city. A fifth chair will be placed in the new shop, which will be occupied about the first of next month.

A POINTER.

To housekeepers, those Nottingham curtains for $1.50 a pair are 3 1/2 yards long; the dotted muslin curtains are 3 1/2 yards long and 34 inches wide, and finished all round with ruffle, for $4.50 a pair; bargain, hardly expresses it. At N. S. Sachs.

WILL GO TO MOLOKAI.

Executive Officer Reynolds of the Health Department will leave for Molokai next Monday to give his attention to several matters at the leper settlement.

Fine Repair Work.

When your Bicycle, Gun, Typewriter or any article of fine mechanism needs repairing and you wish a job which is certain to prove satisfactory, bring it to us and we will fix it for you and guarantee it fully.

We take pride in turning out only the very best of work and will call for and deliver it to any part of the city.

THE WINTER SEASON FITTINGLY USHERED IN.

Last Night's Heavy Storm Quite General—Violent Wind and Heavy Rain—Another Blow Brewing.

The tropical winter was ushered in with a storm of more than usual violence. The rain fell in torrents, the wind blew and lightning, accompanied by heavy thunder, added impressiveness to the onslaught of old Boreas. So far as can be learned no damage was done, but leaking roofs and ramshackle buildings suffered, and many timid persons burned copious quantities of midnight oil to keep their courage up.

The storm had been gathering for several days, and its approach was marked by fitful gusts of wind and showers, but it was not until after most folks were abed last night that it finally broke over the city. It was not a steady blow, but rather a series of heavy squalls. Out at Makiki, and along the Waikiki road, it is estimated that the wind attained a maximum velocity of from 35 to 40 miles an hour, although it blew scarcely more than 25 miles down town. But the heaviest rainfall was, as usual, in the heart of the city. One gauge showed a fall of over an inch between sunset and sunrise.

Frank Brown's gauge on King street showed a fall of .28 of an inch, during yesterday, and .50 of an inch fell in Kapiolani park last night, according to Cecil Brown's gauge. The rainfall was very heavy on the Peninsula. George Allen says that when he came to town this morning he could see the cows in his pasture knee deep in mud and water. The gullies were all overflowed and the lowlands all transfused into lakes. Nuuanu and Maunaloa valleys are almost water-logged from the heavy downpour of the past few days.

The heaviest part of the electrical storm occurred at about 3 o'clock this morning, while the wind was knocking down the cocoanuts and rattling tin roofs and loose shutters. The thunder rumbled in unison with the rain, making a great din. On the whole it was a wild night, and no gentle warping of the approach of winter.

The indications today are that another larger storm is brewing to the eastward. Frank Brown, who says that he was once a weather prophet, but has lost the hang of things in these latter days, predicts a very heavy easterly storm, with high winds and heavy rains, and he thinks it ought to be in evidence tonight.

The meteorological conditions are certainly very much disturbed, and the reputation of Hawaii as a land of continual sunshine is likely to be materially injured unless something happens to drive away the dark and threatening clouds that are casting a gloom over the city.

From all indications the storm is general, extending, it is believed, pretty much over the entire Islands. Reports from Kauai by the James Ma-kee this morning indicate that it extends in that direction, and is quite as severe there as here.

SOME FAST HORSES.

Arrive on the Irwin Today From San Francisco.

Seven blooded horses arrived from San Francisco on the W. G. Irwin this morning. Mrs. W. G. Irwin's new carriage team is among the lot. They are a handsome and spirited pair of bays and are said to have cost a pretty sum.

W. M. Giffard of Irwin & Co. received a buckskin that can "do three minutes" on the road, it is said. It is a stylish looking animal and stood the long voyage well. The remaining four horses of the lot are for Mr. Hyman.

FIFTY CHINESE VAGABONDS MAY BE HAULED IN.

Better Class of Chinese Merchants Want Them Jailed for Vagrancy—Burglars Said to be Among Them.

The attention of the police authorities will be called to the presence of a half hundred Chinese vagabonds, some of them bad characters, in Honolulu, by a deputation of young Chinese Christians.

George C. Bungehong, a bright young Chinese who holds the position of clerk in the law office of De la Vergne & Case, is at the head of the reform committee. He stated today that they had the full endorsement of the better class of the Chinese colony in their work, and they had every confidence of riding the city of a very undesirable element.

"There are from fifty to sixty Chinese living in the city who do not do one stroke of work from morning until night," said Mr. Bungehong this morning. "It is not because they cannot get work or are not able bodied, but simply because they are downright lazy and will not work."

"Nearly all of these vagabonds are living in what is known as Chinatown. They are gamblers and opium smokers. True, they have no money, but they will take a hand in a game and if they win will purchase their opium. Should they lose and be called upon to settle after the game is over, they attempt to get away and then a general free for all fight ensues."

"They are a curse to the Chinese community in that they are continually blackmailing some of their own countrymen. Now a strong suspicion is pointed toward them for connection in the many burglaries recently reported."

"It is believed that they have come to the point where they have no fear of thieves and burglarizing residences; they having become so well spotted in Chinese circles that it is hard for them to obtain one penny."

"The better class of Chinese recognize the disgrace this element is now bringing on the colony, for they are the ones who are so frequently arrested. What we want is the police authorities to arrest these worthless Chinese on the charge of vagrancy, and if found guilty sentenced to six months imprisonment, as the law provides. If this is done there will be less thieving, opium smoking and gaming in Chinatown."

IN THE FIELD OF SPORTS.

What is Going on in Athletics, Cycling and Boating.

Propos of the great growth of the game of football, a comparison between the old days and the present may be interesting. Before the introduction of the Rugby game, the audiences were decidedly limited. Very few except the substitutes were sufficiently attracted to stay through the entire match, and in truth the game hardly warranted the term sport. This was true of all football played in the United States at that time by the Americans. The Englishmen were much further advanced and in time, through Canada, their Rugby game came down to us. Even, however, after the Rugby game came in, it required a number of years to accustom the players and the public to the fact that football could be made interesting.

Ensign McCormack of the Bennington, who will play an important position on the Town football team, and Will Soper, in all probability the full back on the Punahou college team, were pitted against each other in the memorable Stanford Olympic game played in San Francisco in October of last year. McCormack played right end for the Olympics and Soper was full back for the Stanford students. Neither eleven was able to score. Captain Fickett of Stanford raised Soper for his excellent punting. The young sailor, who has played at Annapolis so successfully, also did fine work for his team.

Among the attractions on the board for the next fortnight is a game of baseball between the officers of the Yorktown, Bennington and Wheeling against Lieutenant Mayo and his brother officers now on duty at Pearl Harbor.

The final contest for the Elvin trophy will take place at the military range on Saturday and Tuesday, between Companies B and D. Both of the teams are confident of winning.

It is understood that it is the wish of President Dole to have a fleet of yachts sail out of the harbor for a cruise to Pearl Harbor and back on some Saturday in the near future. A little over a fortnight ago eight yachts sailed to Pearl City.

W. H. Crozier, the well known oarsman, who pulled the bow oar in senior crew of the victorious Myrthes this year, has gone to Hilo to embark in business.

PORTUGUESE WILL HOMESTEAD IN NAHIKU.

C. W. Dickey Returns From Maui and Tells of the Great Excitement—Will be a Klondike Rush.

Architect C. W. Dickey of the firm of Ripley & Dickey, who is just back from a visit to his parents living on Maui, has much interesting information concerning the throwing open of the Nahiku coffee lands next Monday.

He says that all Maui is in the greatest excitement over the event. There will be a great rush for the land and Land Agent Aiken for the Maui district will think that a Klondike boom has struck him sure.

"While I was on Maui," continued Mr. Dickey in an interview today, "the Nahiku lands were being inspected by hundreds of Maui residents. The choicest bits of the big tract have nearly all been located, so I was told, and when these lots come up for sale at public auction there will be lively bidding."

"There are a good many Portuguese on Maui who will be in line bright and early Monday, with applications for a homestead in Nahiku. They have all heard of the success of their countrymen at the Honakua homesteads and have the greatest faith in coffee. These people will be given first choice of the land and can buy a homestead at the upset price put on the land by the government, first come first served. The land law favors the actual settler and gives him the privilege of buying at the upset price while all other must bid for the land. From all I could learn there is every prospect of a good sized settlement of homesteaders, mostly Portuguese who will invade Nahiku."

Land Commissioner Brown is in receipt of a report from Land Agent Aiken, who says that there will be a big rush for the lands. Commissioner Brown says that the whole tract embraces nearly 4000 acres of land very heavily timbered. The tract is cut up into 100 acre pieces and are to go under the various conditions of the great land act.

A NOVEL RECEPTION.

Miss Blanche Bates, leading lady of the Frawley company, gave a farewell reception to her friends recently at San Francisco. The affair was entirely a social one, no member of the profession being present but Mr. Frawley and Mr. Worthing. Miss Bates received her guests on the stage of the Columbia theater, which was artistically decorated for the occasion. The lady is a charming hostess, as well as a delightful actress, and has loads of friends. Her guests wished her bon voyage and much success in the Islands.

ABOUT THE MISSING MAN.

Belief that Miller Has Gone to the Klondike Highly Improbable.

Some of Harry Miller's friends believe that he has gone to the Klondike region. A close friend of the mining man said today that the news highly improbable for two reasons. One was that Miller was not strong enough to endure even the milder hardships of the Klondike and the other that he certainly would have called at the Enterprise Brewing Company and another liquor place in San Francisco and secured the money that was waiting for him there had he gone.

A bright, handsome girl on the borderland between childhood and womanhood, is at once a source of pride and anxiety to her mother. But she has grown fast and is still growing. Nature makes stern demands upon the slender body. The skin is dull, the eyes lustreless, the cheeks and neck are sunken, the appetite is capricious, and the movements languid. The trouble is impurity and sluggishness of the blood. It needs the life giving elements from which alone the body derives its vigor and health. The remedy is

WHAT SAILOR MEN TALK OF

BRIG W. G. IRWIN HAS A CLOSE CALL OUTSIDE.

Alice Cooke Arrives From the Sound. Lumber Laden—Rights of the Port Surveyor—Gossip.

Rough weather is reported on the Kaula coast. It is believed that the storm is general over the Islands.

After lying in the stream for a fortnight, the British bark Aethelbert has hauled alongside the railroad wharf, where she will discharge her nitrate cargo.

The Ke Au Hou arrived late last evening from Lahaina, bringing up the merry-go-round from that place. She will sail at 4 this afternoon for Eleehoe, taking down fifty tons of coal and a new boiler.

The bark Columbia hauled over to Allen & Robinson's wharf yesterday afternoon and there got out the remnants of her lumber cargo. She is now taking ballast, and will probably get away for the Sound tomorrow afternoon.

Nearly 200,000 feet of lumber was taken off the Jessie Minor's deck yesterday—a big day's work. Captain Whitney says he will have his vessel discharged by Friday noon. Before leaving port he will bend his sails and make some repairs, so that he does not expect to get away before the middle of next week.

The James Makee returned this morning from Kaula, after landing her coal cargo at Kapua, with difficulty. The weather was very rough on the Kaula coast, and Captain Tillet did not attempt to secure any freight, so that the Makee returned empty. The channel was choppy and disagreeable last night.

The bark C. D. Bryant will finish discharging her grain cargo at the railroad wharf this week, and will then tie up to undergo general repairs while awaiting the new sugar crop. Some of the mills have already commenced grinding on the new crop, but it is not likely that the Bryant will be able to secure a full cargo before the middle of December.

The schooner Alice Cook, Captain Penhallow, arrived this morning, 23 days from Port Townsend, with 1,100,000 feet of lumber, to Lewers & Cooke. Mrs. Penhallow accompanies her husband. Good weather was enjoyed during the greater portion of the passage. The island was sighted last night, but too late to get in, so the Alice Cook stood off, and had a pretty good slaking up in the Molokai channel. Since she was last here the Alice Cook has made a voyage to St. Michaels.

A careful perusal of the law shows that the Port Surveyor is given explicit authority to search all vessels, domestic and foreign, together with freight, baggage and passengers on them, within twenty-four hours after their arrival in port, without being in any way liable to prosecution. The impression has prevailed hitherto that an innocent passenger subjected to search might have recourse to law to recover damages from the government.

The American brig W. G. Irwin, Captain Williams, was towed in this morning, after lying outside all night. She is twenty days from San Francisco, and brings 680 tons of general merchandise to Irwin & Co., ten mules and seven horses, three of the latter consigned to Hyman, and the remainder of the stock to Irwin & Co. The Irwin has gone alongside the Oceanic dock to discharge. It is likely that she will have quick dispatch, as there are 5000 bags of sugar awaiting her in the warehouse. The Irwin brought down ten passengers in her cabins.

The W. G. Irwin arrived off port last evening, but owing to the thick weather Captain Williams decided to anchor. The wind blew hard last night and the brig dragged her anchor. She was anchored pretty close in, and rumor says that she had a close call from scraping her ribs on the reef. Fortunately she was not loaded deep. It is impossible to secure anything of a definite nature concerning the affair, as all concerned profess ignorance. It is sufficient to say that the Irwin arrived in safe and sound, and has met with no serious mishap.

CIRCUIT JUDGE PERRY OPENS THE NOVEMBER TERM.

Many Important Cases to be Heard—
 The Rooker Suit—A Good Number of Criminal Cases.

The business of the November term of the First Circuit Court is now well started with First Judge Antonio Perry presiding.

The calendar shows that there are seven criminal cases which will be tried by a Hawaiian jury; twenty-three criminal cases which require a foreign jury. There are eight civil cases requiring a Hawaiian jury; twelve civil cases requiring a mixed jury and 37
 civil cases requiring a foreign jury.

In twenty-one civil cases the jury has been waived. There are nineteen divorce cases on the docket.

Chief among the Hawaiian criminal cases are those charging G. Malina and six others with the murder of John Milton. These men are now on trial before Judge Perry, they being held for murder in the second degree.
 Creighton and Woods are looking after the interests of the defendants.

Malina and his associates and Milton were seen drinking swipes together in Iwelei last August. Milton was found dead shortly afterward. His Hawaiian associates were suspicioned with having caused his death.

Kamii is charged with manslaughter in the first degree. J. T. De Gott is defending him. Malina for perjury. John Awa for assault and battery.
 Kill for practicing medicine without a license. J. K. Nakookoo for gross cheat and Ben for a serious crime, include all the other Hawaiian cases.

Among the many foreign criminal cases is that of Alex Harris who is charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Seven Chinese are held for opium in possession and Wong Lam must answer for importing opium.
 There are two liquor selling cases. D.
 Metrea is charged with lascivious conduct; Ah Piang for maintaining a lottery; Ah Kum for assault and battery; Chow Quon for embezzlement; J.
 Thompson, Ah Tuck and Tai Pan for gaming.

C. C. Conley and F. Hewitt are accused of assault and battery, as are also Chew Man and Chew Fan. Ah Wai is held for larceny in the second degree; Joanno Carvalho is charged with threatening language, and Tom Young for breaking the Sabbath.

Most of the civil cases are for assault, ejectment and damages. The second trial of the damage suit that was brought by C. A. Long against W. H. Cornwall, Jr., for alienating his wife's affections, is on the calendar.

The Minister of the Interior has a case against the trustees of the estate of B. P. Bishop and others, for land taken for public use.

The ejectment suit brought by John D. Spreckels against A. G. Hawes and George Lyeurgus for a portion of the Sans Souci property is on the list.

The cases brought by the Mott-
 Smiths and others against the Kohala
 Sugar Company, praying a payment of dividends, will come up for trial.

The damage suit brought against the Tramway Company by Mrs. Mary E. Burgess will be among the interesting cases. Mrs. Burgess was struck by the money box and badly injured on the head.

The celebrated cases of C. K. C.
 Rooke against the Queen's Hospital and others, involving a half million dollars worth of property, is another interesting case.

Following is a list of the divorce cases:

Maria G. Levinho vs. J. M. Levinho;
 Alla Pilipo (w.) vs. K. L. Pilipo;
 Charles J. Faneuf vs. Ida M. Faneuf; Irene M. Long vs. Carlo A. Long; Isabel E. Davis vs. Forster A. Davis; Annie Kalawala vs. D. L. Kalawala; E.
 C. Hobron vs. Hikaalani Hobron (w.);
 Samuel Piliuauiwi vs. M. Piliuauiwi;
 Emilia (w.) vs. Kale; Eliz. Lopez vs.
 Delphinio Lopez; Kahaina Aulia (w.)
 vs. Aulia; Lucy Kanakaewae vs. Ben Kanakaewae; Ermina Quilgna vs. Vincente Quilgna; George Muller vs. Sarah R. Muller; Mary K. Mooney vs.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1897.

GREATER NEW YORK'S ELECTION.

Yesterday, November 2, the first election took place in "Greater New York" since the consolidation with several cities and districts which surround it. Under the new charter, its population is estimated at between three and four millions, which places it second only to London among the large cities of the world. Much interest has been taken throughout the United States and its latest annex, Hawaii, in the result of this election, with the new conditions under which it is held. As the annual receipts of the city government, under the consolidation charter will not be less than seventy millions a year, it becomes a very important matter whether the expenditure of this large sum is confided to an honest administration and spent for the city's growing needs, or to enrich the Tammany gang, which has at times during the past forty years held the keys of the treasury and squandered the public money among the leaders of their party, and to impoverish the city.

Elections in large American cities are always attended with great uncertainty owing to the fact that citizens generally do not take much interest in the result, while certain classes, chiefly the ignorant and floating population, become the dupes of designing politicians, and by them are induced for a consideration to vote too often in favor of their leaders. Under her consolidated charter New York will probably poll over 400,000 votes, especially if all classes are roused to take part in the election; and it is said that great efforts have been put forth to bring every voter to the polls, and it is not unlikely that this result will be accomplished.

In the presidential election of 1896, the Republicans carried the city with a majority of 70,000. But that is no criterion for judging of the present election, as many gold Democrats then voted the Republican ticket. The city is peopled largely by a foreign population, many of whom cannot speak the English language, and being ignorant, are easily led by designing politicians, who are ready to spend money without stint to secure the prize of handling seventy millions of the public money.

There are four candidates or tickets in this year's election, headed as follows:

- General Tracy, Regular Republican. Seth Low, Independent Republican. Van Wyck, Tammany Democrat. Henry George, Bryan Democrat.

For these four candidates there will probably be over 400,000 votes polled. In 1886 the situation in New York was somewhat similar to what it is this year—both parties were divided into rival factions, as may be seen by the following returns:

- Seth Low, Independent Republican (elected) 93,000 Abram S. Hewitt, Tammany Democrat 90,000 Henry George, Independent Democrat 68,000 Theo. Roosevelt, Regular Republican 60,000

If either of the Independent candidates for this year has withdrawn the result would probably be that the regular nominee of the party has been elected, whether Republican or Democrat. The voters of New York have undoubtedly been fully roused to the importance of the results involved in the present election—the first under the new charter, as they have never before been stirred up, and have decided to put their best man at the head of municipal affairs. At this distance, it would seem that the man who has assisted, more than any other in forming the new charter, ought to be chosen to inaugurate its successful working from the start. That man is Seth Low, now president of Columbia College, New York, who heads the Independent Republican ticket. A New York journal, commenting on the situation says: "The fight is on between the politicians and the people. The politicians want New York governed on the lines of partisanship; the people on the lines of non-partisanship. Tammany and the Republican organization represent national parties which have nothing to do in their platforms with the methods of local government in New York City. Its government should be non-partisan, and that is provided for under the new constitution of the State by local elections held separately from the State elections. This non-partisanship should be insisted upon, and the party machines should understand and accept the conditions. Mr. Low is nominated as a non-partisan. The Republican is nominated—apparently with a squint to his subsequent withdrawal—for the sole purpose of using the city election for partisan purposes. It is a straight conflict between the two ideas, and we hope that the leaders of the Republican party will see the duty of yielding and accepting Mr. Low's candidacy. The principles of non-partisanship cannot and must not be yielded." The mail steamer Australia, which left San Francisco at 2 p. m. yesterday, will probably not bring decisive news of the result of this election, and for the full returns we may have to wait for the Alameda, which leaves San Francisco on the 11th inst.

A suggestion made by a contemporary, that the fees of appeal might be made heavier in order to prevent appeal is a vicious one. Law is dear enough, too dear, a great many people think, for justice. There are cases where a man will rather put up with injustice than go to the expense of perfecting his appeal, and there are other cases where he has to put up with injustice because he has not the means of perfecting his appeal, however much he may resent the injustice. A case in point occurred only a few days ago in the police court. As far as the man was concerned he could not appeal, his means were insufficient. If he does appeal it will be on other people's money, not his own. The man may, or may not be guilty, but he certainly ought to get his chance. To raise the fees would be to throw this man entirely out of court, as it would do a large number of others. After all judges are for the community and not the community for the judges, and if judges cannot get through their work they should either hold longer terms, open courts earlier in the morning, or if need be have assistant judges to help out on the work. But for heaven's sake do not let us have fees to prevent people from getting justice. It is better that a hundred criminals should avoid their just deserts for a time, than that one innocent man should suffer injustice because the legal fees were made purposely too high to prevent appeal.

NEW CORPS OF OFFICERS. The new list of officers for the Young Hawaiians' Institute to be installed next week includes: President, Dr. G. H. Huddy; vice president, G. R. Desha; treasurer, Charles Wilcox; secretary, Isaac Sherwood; financial secretary, James L. Holt; marshal, James Keola.

AT MAKEE ISLAND. The Government band will render the following program at Makee Island tonight:

- PART I. March—The Iron King St. Clair Overture—A Summer Night Suppe Miserere—Il Trovatore Verdi Grand Selection—Lucrecia Borgia Donizetti
- PART II. Cornet Solo—The Surf Steinhauser Mr. Charles Kreuter. Overture—Queen of Spades Suppe Ballad—Good Night Abt Galop—Full Speed Bohm Japanese Anthem. Hawaii Pono!

A LITTLE CAKE TALK. Cake is cake; yes, sir; just as water is water. Some is good; some very good; some past description—bad. Some cakes you buy are made in an indifferent manner, of poor material and flavored with what? You can taste the Asiatic maker and his cigar or cigarette at the first bite. Why not buy a good article from a clean, well conducted shop, where tobacco is never used and where cleanliness is practiced to an extent almost unknown in the average bakery. We will make you a layer cake from 50 cents up, tastefully ornamented, and guaranteed good to eat. Our ginger snaps and ginger bread are selling like hot cakes. Have you tried them yet? Yours,

The days are dark and dreary; the nights are dark also. Darkness comes early, too. The moon is a bit unreliable—but our lamps—never. The subject of lamps is a good one at the present time. We can talk about lamps because we carry a stock that cannot be excelled in Honolulu. They come in all sizes, styles, and prices. We have hanging lamps, from moderate cost to elaborate designs; hall lamps; piano lamps; banquet lamps; lamps for the boudoir; nickel-plated lamps for students; bracket lamps; two, three and four-light chandeliers. We have mammoth Rochester lamps which can give electric arc lights cards and spades for brilliancy. Some people go through the house in the middle of the night playing blind man's buff over tables, chairs and other old things, in vain attempts to locate a particular object, when if they had a small night lamp, such as we sell, they might have avoided personal injury and the breaking of a commandment. A piano lamp would add wonderfully to the appearance of your parlor—why not get one now? It will make your home comfortable—and comfort and happiness go hand in hand. Besides, you can get one without spending the last dollar you've got.

Worth It.
Edwin Forrest, the renowned tragedian, was showing a "super" how to do a small part, and at last exclaimed, in despair: "Can't you do it as I do?" "No," said the super, "if I could, do you suppose I would be working for five dollars a week?"
This illustrates the trouble with the low prices of many articles of furniture. If they were well made do you think they would be offered at kindling wood prices?

BACK FROM THE KLONDIKE

CAPTAIN PENHALLOW RELATES HIS EXPERIENCE!

Was at St. Michaels When the Excitement Broke Out—Wholesome Advice to Prospective Adventurers.

Captain Penhallow, master of the schooner Alice Cooke, which arrived this morning, lumber laden, from the Sound, can almost lay claim to being a Klondike veteran. That is to say he spent thirty days at St. Michaels immediately after the Klondike excitement broke out, and that was about as close to the famed gold fields as the jolly skipper wanted to go. He saw enough in those thirty days to warrant him in making the assertion that it requires an iron constitution, a stout heart and a well filled purse to become a successful Klondiker.

"It was while I was on my way to St. Michaels," said Captain Penhallow this morning, "that the excitement broke out. It has been my custom to make a voyage up there by the Alice Cooke every summer with supplies for the mines, and I was chartered this year as usual, taking up 1625 tons of food stuffs and a deck load of thirty barrels of ginger ale. We arrived at our destination about the middle of July, and learned at once of the rich strikes on the Klondike. My men would have deserted if they could have secured money or provisions. I took good care that they did not secure either, and consequently only lost one man.

"There is undoubtedly plenty of gold to be dug on the upper Yukon, but it is a safe assertion that not one man in every fifty that make the attempt will be successful in getting it. It is a big undertaking to get into the Klondike, and the great majority of the adventurers who came beneath my notice were not prepared for it. Why, I saw scores of men land at St. Michaels without a cent of money in their jeans. They sought employment at building or in doing odd jobs of any sort. They could scarcely support themselves there, let alone preparing for the long and dangerous trip inland. You can imagine some of the dangers of the journey when I tell you on the best of authority that the thermometer goes down to 65 degrees below zero. Only those who are most thoroughly equipped with clothing and food can stand such a climate.

St. Michaels is a little bit of a place, with no accommodations at all. Undoubtedly there will be great suffering right there. My advice to people in this part of the world is to stay out of Klondike unless they are experienced, not only in mining but in the cold and mountainous regions. It is not a poor man's paradise, for it requires lots of money, as well as experience, nerve and an iron constitution to reach the district where gold is to be found."

IMPERIAL FAMILY IN MOURNING.
For That Reason Mutsuhito's Birthday is Not Celebrated.

Owing to the fact that the Imperial family of Japan is in mourning, Japanese Minister Resident Shimamura cannot celebrate the birthday anniversary of the Emperor of Japan today as he would like to. For that reason Minister Shimamura has declined the services of the Government band so kindly offered by Minister of Foreign Affairs (Cooper).

By the China Minister Shimamura dispatched greetings and wished His Majesty many happy returns of the day.
Emperor Mutsuhito is 45 years old today. His reign has been a progressive one, the Emperor having fostered education and industry. He was a soldier during the Chinese-Japanese war, Mutsuhito is recognized as a strong ruler. He is very popular with the people.

LIVELY STOCK SALE.
A big crowd of stock investors were gathered in Morgan's auction rooms at noon today to attend the big plantation stock sale.

Five shares of Ewa went for $310.
Twenty-five shares of Onu, assessable, for $50.
Twenty-two shares of Makaweli for $111 and forty-five shares for $110.
Five shares of Pacific Sugar Mill at $391.
Twelve shares of Inter Island for $165.
Five shares Waimanalo for $150.
The remainder of the stocks were withdrawn.

THEY EXPECT TO HEAR.
Some of the physicians who are members of the leprosy committee of the Health Board, are anticipating a communication from Dr. Alvarez by the Belgic Saturday concerning the work of the Berlin leprosy congress. Dr. Alvarez was sent to Berlin as a representative for the Hawaiian government and as yet nothing has been heard from him. The congress has adjourned and Dr. Alvarez has probably gone to Colombo, South America, to investigate the leprosy question.

SURE TO WIN.
The people recognize and appreciate real merit. That is why Hood's Sarsaparilla has the largest sales in the world. Merit in medicine means the power to cure. Sales Talk

With Hood's Sarsaparilla, "Sales Talk," and show that this medicine has enjoyed public confidence and patronage to a greater extent than any other proprietary medicine. This is because it possesses greater medicinal merit and produces greater cures than any other. It is not what we say, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that Tells the Story.

All advertisements of Hood's Sarsaparilla, like Hood's Sarsaparilla itself, are honest. We have never deceived the public, and this with its superlative medicinal merit, is why the people have abiding confidence in it, and buy Hood's Sarsaparilla almost to the exclusion of all others.

Customers Want Hood's.
"We order Hood's Sarsaparilla in large quantities and it is the only blood purifier which a druggist can buy in large quantities without risk. It is selling very rapidly and customers who buy it once are sure to call for Hood's the next time. We believe Hood's Sarsaparilla must possess true merit in order to retain its popularity. Its sales exceed all similar preparations and its praises are often heard." L. SOMMER & SON, Springfield, Illinois. Thousands of druggists say the same.

GOOD RACING AT CYCLOMERE LAST EVENING.

James Carries Off the Professional Honors With Martin a Good Second—Fred Damon King of Amateurs.

Notwithstanding the showers that fell all over the city last evening, a fair sized audience saw good racing at Cyclomere park. The Hawaiian National band was on hand with lively music to cheer those who might be downhearted on account of the inclement weather.

The one-third mile exhibition races in which George Martin and Fred Damon were to try to establish a professional and amateur record respectively, were both declared off on account of the bad condition of the track. Then again Martin was not feeling at his best and he is determined to lower the "Manoa Wonder's" time of 40 flat.

G. Erickson won the mile Greenhorn race in 2:45 3-5. Tom Lloyd set a speedy pace for his competitors from the start, but was obliged to finish second.

Allan Jones won the two-thirds of a mile, professional, in 1:31. His riding was very strong. In the first heat Martin won out in 1:48 4-5 with Whitman second. John Sylvia finished third. In the second heat Jones and Sharrick qualified. Jones' time was 1:50. The final heat was contested by Jones, Martin and Whitman, the latter falling from his wheel on the second lap.

Fred Damon, K. B. Porter, C. Murray, H. Giles and C. Brede competed in the second heat of the one-third mile amateur. H. Giles won in 50 seconds, Damon finishing a good second.

Tom King won the second heat in 53 seconds, Henry Walker finishing a bad second. Jackson was the only other rider in the race.

Henry Walker made a spurt at the start of the final race. He held his big lead to the finish, circling the track in 59 seconds. Tom King came in second, Damon and Giles bringing up the rear.

The half mile amateur handicap was won by Fred Damon in 1:11. Henry Giles crossed the tape after the winner an instant later. Giles won the first heat in 1:13 1-5, Damon finishing second.

Jackson won the second heat with a handicap of 50 yards. King came in second.

S. M. DAMON,
Minister of Finance.

Harper's Weekly

of October 2, 1897, has an interesting article on "Lessons of the '97 Bicycle," from which we take the following:

"How much of a figure the department emporium will cut in next season's trade cannot be estimated, but it is not likely that the big stores will bother so much with the selling of cycles, which has not been particularly profitable in all instances. The makers of high grade machines have no grievance against the department stores, whose cheap wheels induced thousands of people to become riders, and these same people will buy again next year. They will not buy, however, the average department-store wheel, AND WASTE UPON IT MORE IN REPAIRS THAN ITS ORIGINAL COST."

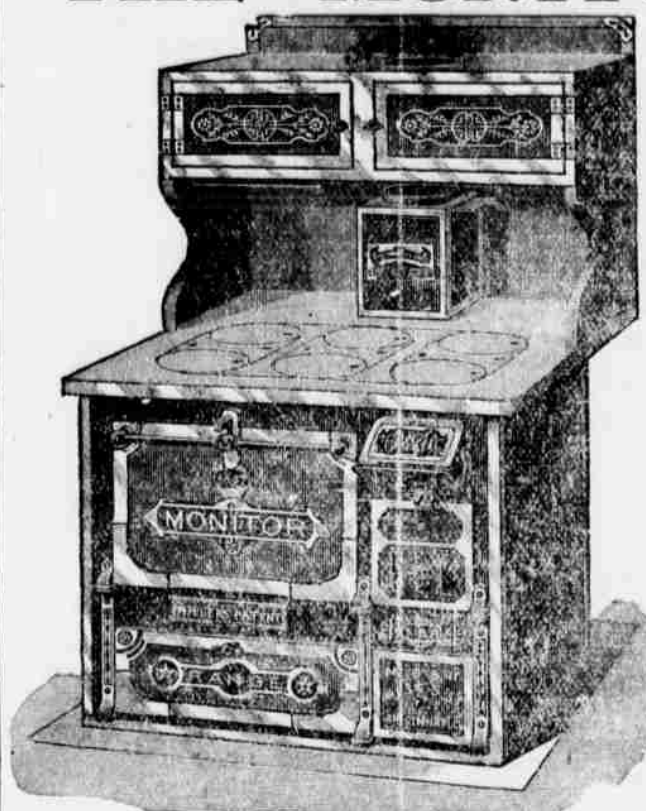

Columbias and Ramblers

have never been known as department-store wheels. They cost too much for such people. Look out for the new wheels with high sounding names. For department-store trade should be stamped on most of them.

CAMP WRITES HIS VIEWS

AN ISLANDER HEARS FROM THE FAMOUS COACH.

Replies to Those Who Criticize Football for Its Alleged Brutality—The Game Brings Out the Men.

Walter Camp, who was coach for Stanford's football team in 1904 and who has many warm friends in Honolulu, has made a very intelligent reply to the charges brought against football on the grounds of brutality.

"Baseball is in most of the colleges self-supporting, the gate receipts equaling the expenses. Baseball is unquestionably the national game. We all love baseball and some of us love football, too.

"In addition to this, it can be said that the sport is sufficiently entertaining, even in the practice days, when no regular match is being played, as to attract audiences as large as formerly were wont to visit a regular match.

"A number of criticisms have been made upon the sport regarding its brutality. Such criticisms are best answered by Rev. W. Burnett Wright, a personal acquaintance of mine, who after spending forty-eight hours in constant intercourse with a college football team in 1902, said: 'I wish I had those fellows in my church. But as I cannot get them to my city, I will try to train others to be like them.'

"That a great many of the charges now being brought against football have been brought against other games which have survived the criticisms, nothing will show more plainly than the following extract from the Yale Courant in 1868, regarding baseball: 'We are not an admirer of the national game as to the amount of amusement to be obtained by this means: it is just what might be extracted from a certain number of sand heaps, basswood clubs and common balls by educated and enlightened men under other circumstances. On the question of bodily damage we would suggest that the immense increase of accidents insurance companies is due to this cause, and if the maim does not presently cease, the country will be without able-bodied men.'

The three year old boy of J. A. Johnson of Lynn Center, Ills., is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved the little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros., of that place, and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians all ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cures of croup.

Red Ants

are the most destructive pest we have. They shed their wings and become book-worms; bore into furniture. They are particularly numerous

Here's a good remedy:

Place a sheet of
