AN ELOQUENT ADDRESS.

G. W. ASHFORD SPEAKS.

THE "CONSPIRATORS" DEFENDED.

TINKER A FREE MAN.

The District Court opened at its usual hour this morning after disposing of a few unimportant cases the great conspiracy case was called.

C. W. Ashford addressed the court and spoke for an hour and a half. It is impossible to do justice to the eloquence of this leading lawyer and we have to confine ourselves to publishing the gist of his forcible address.

The charge against the defendants is that of conspiring together and also with other persons not mentioned to overthrow the government by force. A conspiracy is a fraudulent and malicious combination between any two persons to do something injurious to a third party. If any of these defendants did conspire they should be committed. If not, they should be discharged. A magistrate should only commit for trial whenever he believes that a jury on the same evidence, with the same witnesses, and under the same circumstances would convict. It is not enough as the A-G. probably will contend that there is a suspicion, and that by other evidence adduced the defendants might be found guilty, by a jury. No man should be shut up except there is good reason to believe that a jury will convict him. I desire to take the case separately. I hardly need say much in regard to Weed. The Attorney-General has admitted that the evidence against him is very light. The evidence against Weed has been given by only one man, and the man is Osmer. Supposing his evidence against Weed had been more damaging than it was, that he had identified Weed with all these schemes against the government, it should be remembered that his evidence was only that of one man against one. And I doubt that the court will hold that the evidence of Osmer against the denial of Weed would hold good before a jury of 12 men. The court is not to assume that other evidence will be produced. The government cannot be supposed to have any more evidence against Weed. If it had, it would have produced it here. Osmer has not brought any evidence that any jury would entertain, even if Weed had not denied his statements. He admitted himself that whatever Weed did say it was only in general terms as what could be done in case an insurrection should happen: Mr. Weed's statements that he was indifferent to any disaster happening here may be brought up. He is not on trial here for his opinions. Any man has a right to express his opinion. I know that it is a very delicate point with the government. Any criticism of the government, is considered seditious. I don't know how long this government will be able to sustain itself in office. Many of its members undoubtedly wish to get out of it. Because they are opposed or criticized, the men doing so, do not become conspirators. Their proclamation January 1893 was that they established a free government, a liberal government, and it is perfectly legitimate for any man to criticize it even to the extent of advocating the re-establishment of the monarchy. But Weed never even went so far. Osmer is a spy. Possibly he wants to be called a detective, but to be that certain degree of intelligence, and integrity is necessary, and as Osmer possesses none we will call him simply a spy. He was bounced as a turnkey. He came to Weed to pump him. He met Weed at a saloon and he poured into his ear his grievances against the government and then he tried to borrow $10.

In regard to the gun on which the whole case against Weed rests, there is absolutely nothing to show that Weed ever proposed to use the said gun against the government. Osmer's statement that this young man ever could say that he had the control of the soldiers is simply atrocious. If the court believes it, he is undoubtedly the only man in the room who does. With whom did Weed conspire? With Crick? Yes, he was seen in a saloon with Crick and as Crick is a conspirator naturally Weed is another. Such seems to me to be the argument of the learned Attorney General. But if such theory is to be carried out, who is safe? Especially as long as the government uses such reproaches as Osmer in its service. If Weed was conspiring with whom was it. If he did not conspire with the other defendants he ought to be discharged, and there is absolutely no evidence that he did so.

In regard to Nawahi the first evidence is that he was at a meeting with McEvoy, Bush, and Crick on the 14th of August at the residence of Bush. McEvoy has fortunately for the defendants located his "meeting" on a day on which we have been amply able to prove an alibi. This man McEvoy has been on the trail of these men for a year. He has not even known enough to locate dates although according to his own statements he said that he recently has refreshed his memory with a reference to his diary. Now that meeting was either on the 14th of August, or he lies. He gives evidence that a meeting took place on the 14th of August. He says that Wilson and Norrie and other noted, and more or less disreputable characters were called traitors by Nawahi. He says they talked about a movement. If it was in the salvation army line, or any other kind of move we are not told. This Scotland Yard man says that Nawahi stated that if the natives got gun and cane knives they would fight the haoles. Will any one believe such rot? It has been proven that as early as the 15th of January last the defendants knew or at least had reason to believe that McEvoy was a spy. Since then he was held at arm's length. Is it reasonable then to believe that these defendants would make him their confidant and expose revolutionary schemes if they did entertain such? I dismiss Mr. McEvoy from this case, with the contempt that his despicable character deserves. I do not desire to use the English language in expressing any sentiments as fully as I might in regard to that specimen of humanity. Nawahi's presence at his house on the 14th of August has been fully proven. Have we come to the point that the evidence of a defendant has no weight against any hired scoundrel, who will perjure himself for a petty pay and attempt to swear away the liberty of a citizen? McEvoy has sworn that Nawahi was at Bush's house at 2 p. m. on the 14th of August. We have proven he was not.

I now take up the evidence of Van Giesen. We cannot close our eyes to the fact that the provisional government and the republic have led a most miserable life and have been harassed from its beginning to the present day. I pity the men now in office and I offer my gentle advice to all— an advice which I am following myself—"keep out of politics." (The A. G. "Kokua") I hold it perfectly right for any citizen to discuss the situation and even discuss probabilities which may happen at any day. Has not a man the right to discuss what would happen if explosives were used, if the soldiers deserted their ranks, and if an insurrection should happen? I discuss the situation, and with all due respect to Nawahi, I believe that I am as good a military man as he and I must say that I never could approve of his plan of turning a gun into the natives, and the natives into the haoles—with cane knives.

This Van Giesen has proven himself to be a bound. He has accepted the hospitality, the food and even the money of the defendants and he made a sorry show of himself. Van Giesen's yarn in regard to the map which he claimed was the object of the alleged conspirators has been disproven by every man employed and present in Bush's house. The map and the list, which Van Giesen claims that he copied, are very suspicious. Van Giesen has been paid for one year $100 a month and when that list was in his hands, a list that would have furnished stronger evidence against the defendants than any produced here, he simply took a copy and left alone the original the most damaging original if it ever existed which I doubt. I believe that I can prove an alibi for Van Giesen at the meeting in October to which he testified. The employees of Bush have stated that Van Giesen was bounced in September. Nawahi brings the latest appearance of Van Giesen at Bush's house to 27th of September. Since then he did not go there. Nawahi at the time was on Maui. As none of them were there how is it possible that the conversation between them as reported could take place? Van Giesen stated that according to his diary he was present at Bush's house with Nawahi in October and November. It has been proven that neither Van Giesen or Nawahi were there during those two months, which finally proves that Van Giesen is a miserable liar who for a paltry sum of money, handed to him out of taxes collected, makes up conspiracies to suit the Attorney-General. If Van Giesen says, that there were 1100 arms around town and it was true, this trial would not take place today!

In regard to Bush and Crick the evidence seems equally absurd. What is there to have prevented Van Giesen from having placed the guns in the house occupied by him and Crick? The guns were found 48 hours after Crick had been locked up. I believe that the Attorney-General and Marshal act honestly, but they are so badly scared that their condition is bordering on insanity. The very mention of a magazine rifle throws them into hysterics.

There is nothing to show that Bush was connected with any move to overthrow the government. He had a right to put his rifles outside his house or inside. It might have been foolish for him to hide his guns, but where is the law preventing a man from hiding his arms or any other property. There is nothing to show that Bush knew anything about these guns at all. The principle of Bush in his papers has always been Wait! wait! wait! Royalists have cursed him for that policy, but, nevertheless, he stuck to it and hoomanawani was his war cry! If the finding of the cartridges on Mr. Bush's premises constitutes a conspiracy the statute ought to be changed. And then I hope that we all are guilty!

Mr. Ashford ended his address at 11:35, stating that he felt sure in his position as far as Weed and Nawahi were concerned. He admitted that there were some show of evidence against Bush and Crick, but he thought it was altogether based on the finding of the guns. He asked for the discharge of all defendants.

After a short recess the Attorney General in answer to a question of Mr. Peterson stated that he had desired to enter a nolle prosequi in the case of J. Tinker. His argument in the conspiracy case was started at 1:30 p. m. and is going on as we go to press. Mr. Tinker was received with sincere congratulations on his liberation after having been confined for 9 days in the station house.

At 2:30 p. m. the Attorney General closed his address. The Judge reserved his decision till Monday Morning at 9:30.

ADMIRAL WALKER.

There seems to be a great deal of commotion and jubilation because Admiral Walker has written a report which is distinctly different from the report of Blount. Nobody so far has seen the report of the Admiral, but we doubt very much that anything said or written by that gentleman will have any influence on the American administration. Mr. Walker is a "back number." We took pleasure in calling our friends attention at one time during the sojourn of the Admiral that he was another specimen of the naval bug which infests these fair isles. Our "friends" were highly indignant and the admiral was lauded and praised for his integrity, truthfulness and honor. We knew the specimen of the blight better than our friends did.

There is no naval officer in the U. S. navy who does not favor the fortification of Pearl Harbor and the annexation of Hawaii. These things accomplished, promotion, an increase in service and raised salaries are matters of course. Mr. Walker puts his statement, we are told, against that of Blount. The latter gathered a most exhaustive material and he wrote a just report based on his own observation and on the information received by him. The Admiral was dined and wined and writes a report which from the start must be prejudiced because he and his colleagues necessarily must advocate the annexation of these islands.

What did Walker know about the sentiments of the people? The property holders he says favor annexation. Who were they? The intelligent citizens cry for annexation. Who were they? The majority of the people hankers for annexation. Where did the admiral meet the majority?

The truth is that he adopted the views of his dear chum Chief Justice Judd. He listened to nobody outside the sacred circle which could afford to dine him. He took no evidence. He did not "mix" with the people. He simply accepted as gospel truth the selfish statements of the little ring which now runs the government.

Blount kept aloof. He listened with the greatest impartiality to every man or woman who desired to furnish him with impressions or facts, and as a result of his untiring and careful work he gave to his government a report which in days to come will stand forth as the clearest and truest document filed in the archives of the United States. The men now in power here may for their own ends impeach and dispute Blount's statements. In their hearts they know that he spoke the truth and nothing except the truth.

But he wouldn't be "wined" or "dined."

Talkee—Talkee.

A few members gathered at the hall of the American League last night, and listened patiently to annexation speeches of Cecil Brown, Hartwell, and C. L. Carter. The three attorneys filed briefs and made arguments and the "judges" slept. The only remark worthy of notice was the statement of Kikila, that annexation is our only "salvation!" That from a senator, and a prominent supporter of the republic is quite interesting. As a final tableau Dr. McGrew and Cecil Brown shook hands, and the respective members present shook hands among themselves and congratulated each other for being such thundering fine fellows. And then they went home—we hope so at least.

If we are to judge the popularity of an article by the number in actual use Haviland China stands on the crest of a popular wave. The reason for it is the low price at which it is sold. In the United States, where the people are "Haviland Mad," the price is thirty per cent higher than it is here owing to the tariff on this ware being so much greater between France and the United States than with Hawaii. We have sold thousands of pieces here and have never had anyone complain of being tired of it. Here's a something about the decorations on Haviland China that never wearies the eye. We have some new colors that may please you if you want to make up a set for a single course.

An entire new stock of Refrigerators and Ice Boxes built on the Ice Saving plan and finished in the latest artistic style is what we have to show you. One of these is large enough to hold meats and provisions for a large family. One compartment with glass shelf is made for Butter and Cream exclusively. The say you can put onions in the same compartment without the butter being affected, the ventilation is so perfectly arranged. Our lowest priced articles in this line are perfect in their ice saving qualities.

Some very choice pieces of Cut Glass will attract your attention because of the price. We've aimed to get them at a cost within reach of the masses. Olive dishes, Creamers Muffiniers, Cruets, Flower Stands, etc. None of them high priced and nothing but what is useful.

The styles of articles in solid Silverware are so varied that it is difficult to keep track of them.— We have only the latest designs personally selected by Mr. Hendry during his recent visit to San Francisco. A half doz butter Spreaders and individual plates are pretty enough to eat—Were they not indegestatable. Berry Forks and Servers. Tea Spoons, Forks and Table Spoons, Ladies, etc. The design of the handles are alike in the different articles and is the very latest. They were selected in this way so that purchasers, if they so wish, may make up their silver set without having a lot of odd prices.

We have replenished our stock of plated ware and can offer you now a very full line in all the articles used on the table. The manufacturers of Plated-ware come as near giving imitations of the solid article as it is possible for them to be made. The price tells the difference.

We call your attention to the most complete assortment of flower vases in white and handsomely decorated Colored Glass-ware that we have ever shown. The shapes are captivating and the price "fetching." We don't expect these to remain in stock but a short time—if you are fond of cut flowers in your home, this are the needful things for holding them.

The finest stock of pocket cutlery ever shown in Honolulu is what ours is. Knives for little folk and knives for grown up people. Tortoise Pearl and Ivory Handles.

The "Fred Archer Racing Glass" is the most powerful field glass we have ever seen. It is extensively used in England, and will be here, once they become known. The Prince of Wales uses one to read the character of the snobs who seek introductions to him.

Death of T. J. Mossman.

The community was shocked this morning by learning of the sudden death of T. J. Mossman, an old and highly respected citizen. The deceased arrived in this country in 1846. He was born in England about 62 years ago, and was brought here by his father who was a well known captain of a vessel. The Mossman family is well known in this community and the deceased and his brothers have always been considered among the "solid" citizens of Hawaii. Mossman kept a store for many years in the Robinson block on Nuuanu and King streets and was at one time a prominent merchant. His death was quite unexpected and sudden. Apoplexy was the immediate cause. The deceased leaves four sons and three daughters to mourn the loss of a most devoted and conscientious father.

DANA AND ARMSTRONG.

The following paragraph from the South West, the most powerful journal in Cincinnati may be of interest to the esthetic editor of the morning paper. It is a pleasure to note that Mr. Armstrong can amuse even newspaper editors

DANA OF THE N. Y. SUN AND THE BEAUTIFUL WOMEN OF HAWAII.

Few paragraphs have lately made the rounds through the press that have afforded more amusement to the editors than the bombastic, malapropos invitation which the Advertiser extended to the hoary editor of the erratic New York Sun.

"Mr. Dana, it said, should be invited to visit these islands, and if he does, our beautiful women will crown him with leis, sing to him with low, sweet notes of our native music, and put to his lips the lotus fruit, which will pass him into dreams of tropical rest."

If there is anything on God's earth that the editor of the New York Sun loathes and despises it is things native to Hawaii, and there is nothing on the Sandwich Islands which he abhors so much as the native women and the sweet notes of her music. It is safe to say that he would as soon shake hands with anti-Tammany reform or as put his lips to the lotus fruit offered by a Hawaiian beauty.

That this aversion to the real people of Hawaii is not one-sided appears clearly from the Hawaii Holomua, which in its issue of November 1 comments in the following vigorous English on this invitation:

If the lying scoundrel, who, for the gold of revolutionists in Hawaii, has sold the columns of the New York Sun and persistently daily, weekly and yearly, has besmirched the character of the Hawaiians and vituperated the Queen, ever comes to these islands, our beautiful women will crown him with thorns, sing to him some bitter truth in very loud tones, and put to his nose a club, which will pass him into a most genuine rest."

We cannot reprint this paragraph from our Honolulu contemporary without telling its editor that he does not know Mr. Dana fully. He would take no Hawaiian gold if it were offered to him, and all the revenue that the Christian usurpers could possibly squeeze out of the poor, missionary-ridden population of the islands would not be one-tenth as dear to Mr. Dana as his consuming hatred of President Cleveland.

LADIES' COLUMN.
 We want to help you out on your Christmas purchases, and intend to do it by saving you money on every purchase made of us during the Holidays. We have no end of useful things, that are in every day demand, that would lose none of their value by being given as Christmas Presents.
 We might give away a piano or something else as an inducement to purchasers, but instead of that everything will be marked so low, that every purchaser receives a benefit instead of its all going to one person.
 We will have a couple of counters in the store devoted to Special Bargains that are Special Bargains in the fullest sense of the word. You could not find a greater variety in a Grab Bag.
 We have received many new goods by the "Oceania" that call for special notice, all of them go at our reduced prices. PURSES, SILKS, CURTAINS, UMBRELLAS, SATINS, COTTONS, LINENS, and no end of goods will be sold at prices that will make bargain hunters happy, and be most acceptable as Christmas Presents.
 Remember we are open nights, have new electric lights in the store, so that goods can be examined as well as in the day time.
 Save all your checks for the Volcano trip, and send them to the store before 12 o'clock Dec 26th, when a Round Trip Ticket will be issued to the one having the largest number of Sales Tickets.

COMING to the POINT!
 is not always a pleasant operation especially if there's a TACK on the Floor,
 And you are bare footed, you are sure to find it. You are equally sure to find other things that leave attractive points Eminantly suitable for Christmas Gifts,

HIRES ROOT BEER

NERVOUS. ARE YOU? Can't sleep, can't eat, tired, thirsty? It's a tonic you want.
 HIRE'S ROOT BEER purifies the blood, tickles the palate.
 WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE? You drink HIRE'S ROOT BEER for pleasure and get a tonic. You take it as a tonic and get pleasure.
 G. E. HIRES, PHILADELPHIA

Suppose Niagara's ead less stream-- It might be so arranged By magic queer, to HIRE'S ROOT BEER Could suddenly be changed, Think what a mecca it would be For pilgrims, day and night, To stand and drink upon the brink Its nectarous elixir.

Morning, Noon, Night
 Good all the time. It removes the languor of morning, sustains the energies at noon, all the weariness of night--HIRES ROOT BEER--delicious, sparkling, appetizing. Good as luxury, good as a tonic.
 It is beyond all dispute a wonderful health-giving drink, and it is very easy for any one to understand why this is so. The root, herbs, barks and berries, from which HIRE'S ROOT BEER is skillfully made, are the identical things from which physicians get their most helpful remedies. For instance: Do you believe that sarsaparilla is a valuable remedy? Well HIRE'S ROOT BEER contains more sarsaparilla than many sarsaparillas. The same is true as to other ingredients.
 It is doing more to advance practical temperance than many people realize. It is used and recommended by the most cautious and conservative temperance people. The most scrupulous abstainer can enjoy HIRE'S ROOT BEER liberally, and recommend it to others as an agreeable and healthful substitute for the strong drink which he opposes.
 It is a home-made and homelike beverage. It is very easily prepared, and if the plain directions are followed, it will always be good. Every member of the family, from the baby to the grandfather, can enjoy HIRE'S ROOT BEER, and every one of them will have better health for each swallow they take. It improves the appetite, purifies the blood, and tones the whole system. Children especially delight in HIRE'S ROOT BEER. Its preparation interests them, and its use does them good. In thousands of homes, "HIRES ROOT BEER that mother made," will be among the happiest recollections of childhood.
 BEWARE! Do not confound it with other Rootbeer preparations, as it is entirely unlike anything else of the kind. Beware of extracts advertised for making Rootbeer, as they are composed chiefly of coloring matter and oils to give them flavor, which excite the nerves and cause nausea.
 Hires Improved Rootbeer packages makes really the most harmless of our fashionable drinks, yet nourishing and strengthening the blood. It cleanses the system of the poisonous humors that develop in kidney and urinary diseases, and in fact, in any case that arises from an impure state of the blood.
 Hires Improved Rootbeer is offered to the public with full confidence of its merits. It contains no poisonous or injurious properties whatever, and an infant may take it with perfect safety.
