J. H. BOYD TO REORGANIZE WORK OF DEPARTMENT

so large that Mr. Boyd figures it will be money saved to have the workmen under closer direction. The aid of two assistants in the road department will give Supervisor Lloyd more time to attend to the discharge of the general duties of his office.

The incorporation runs for a period of fifty years. Its purposes are to acquire and dispose of lands and to engage in stock ranching.

The officers are Rufus A. Lyman, president; Henry J. Lyman, secretary; Frederick J. Lyman, treasurer.

CECIL BROWN SAYS HE OPPOSED DOLE

But Now Intends to Support Him to Last Ditch.

SENATORS THREW SOME BOUQUETS YESTERDAY

Both Parties Accused of Failing to Do Anything for the People—Governor's Appointments Submitted.

The Senate spent its afternoon session yesterday in a bouquet throwing match as to the relative merits and strength of the Independent and Republican parties, the whole discussion having been precipitated by the introduction in the Senate of Emmeluth's House Concurrent Resolution No. 2, which expresses a want of confidence in Governor Dole.

Mr. J. Brown was the first to take the floor. He said that the Governor was not deserving of the confidence of the people. After the close of the last session he had signed a bill which was of benefit to three people alone—the Judges of the Supreme Court. The County bill, amendment of the people, was silently tucked away. Certainly something should be done to show the feeling of the people against the Governor.

Mr. Carter said he for one was not in sympathy with the Governor's action in signing a bill after the close of the session. However, he did not believe with the last speaker that the Governor had been partial. If he had been partial to the Republican party as had been hinted at by Mr. J. Brown, he never would have signed Senate bill 36, providing for bailiffs in certain courts and giving Circuit Judges the power to select their own juries for, in both houses, the Republican vote was solid against the bill.

Mr. Cecil Brown, in referring to the Governor, said: "Gentlemen, I went to Washington and remained there six weeks for the express purpose of working against the appointment of Sanford B. Dole as the Governor of this Territory and if the backing I had and the letters in my possession were to be made public now, it would make some of you in this Legislature turn a somersault. My mission failed and Mr. Dole was appointed Governor. Since that is a fact, I intend to support him. All the resolutions of the kind that 150,000 legislatures of the same nature might pass, would be like pouring water on a duck's back when presented to President McKinley. He will take no notice of them for Governor Dole has kept within the law as long as he does that, he will be safe in his position."

Mr. Baldwin spoke at some length on the County bill, stating that no man with an ounce of brains could possibly sign such a bill. It was defective throughout, and even if the bill itself had been amended so as to make it perfectly acceptable to the Governor, its career in the two houses would have been distinctly illegal.

Mr. Achi then spoke on the County bill and branched off to other bills, accusing the Independents of playing a block game and of doing nothing for the good of the people. If the Republicans instead of the Independents had had the majority, all the bills brought up during the session would have been finished in fifty days. Continuing, Mr. Achi said he could see the Hawaiians during the next two years, suffering all manner of hardships simply on account of the foolish actions of the Independent party—men of their own race whom they had sent into the Legislature to carry through legislation which would help them and the country at large.

"By the faulty action of the Independents," said Mr. Achi, "every man in the Territory has been robbed of about $20 for there has been absolutely no measure passed providing for an increase in the receipts of the Treasury."

Mr. Achi went on to say that the Governor was perfectly correct in what he had done with reference to the Legislature. His legal knowledge was superior to that of any member of the Legislature, unless it be Messrs. Cecil Brown and A. G. M. Robertson. He was foolish to be introducing such resolutions as the one which Mr. Emmeluth had sent up—a resolution emanating from the brain of a man who was filled with anger. To pass it would mean to lower the dignity of the Senate. The Legislature and not the Governor was to blame for the results of the session. Why then should such a resolution be foisted on the Legislature. It was nothing more than rubbish and should be relegated to the rubbish basket.

Mr. Achi then went off to a discussion on the relative merits of the two parties, saying that two years hence, there would be a great change in the make up of the Legislature. He said that in case there was a new election called for Senators, not one-half of the present membership would be in their seats two years hence. The people had awakened to the fact that the Senate and the Legislature as a whole, had done them no good.

It was now Mr. Kanuha's turn and he took it to the tune of about fifteen minutes. After admitting that the Independent party had made many grievous and costly errors during the regular session, Mr. Kanuha said he did not agree with some of his fellow Senators that the Governor was such a very bad man. He had met and talked with him three or four times and had always found him fair minded.

"It was not the Governor who was responsible for the refusal to grant an extension of the session, it was the minority in the Senate," said Mr. Kanuha. "They urged the Governor not to prolong the session and this was done to further the interests of the Republican party by putting the Independents in a ridiculous light. The Governor was pressed by the Republican party and he couldn't help himself. The Republicans have shown by their actions that they are not here to study the interests of the people."

Mr. Cecil Brown arose to defend the Republican party, saying that the organization could stand all such aspersions cast against its character. Two years hence, the people would show how the majority of the electors stand on the matter.

Mr. Brown went on to say that the Governor was perfectly justified in refusing to extend the session. Bills had been held back during the last days of the session to be used as a club to make the Governor extend the session. The Independent party had been caught bluffing and the head had been called. He was sure the resolution would strengthen the Republican party.

Mr. Kalanokalani clamored for the adoption of the resolution. The Governor had disregarded the wishes of the people and the voice of the people against him should be heard.

Mr. Paris was the very last speaker. He said in part: "The people should come forward and pass resolutions of want of confidence against the Legislature for wasting time and frittering away their money. What did we do for the people at the regular session? Nothing. When the Committee on Accounts tried to straighten out matters, the majority of the Senate simply doubled up the bills and helped out their friends. The Independents have accused the Republicans of doing nothing for the people. What about Achi's poll tax bill. That was killed in the House by the majority. How about the exemption bill of one of the Republicans in the Senate? That measure is still in the drawer of the member from Lahaina. Every measure introduced by the Republican party for the good of the people was smothered by the Independents. Why? Because, had the Republicans been instrumental in passing such bills, the Independents would be afraid to meet us at the next election. We had plenty of time for the passage of the Appropriation and Loan bills but the Independents would not act on them. Witness what was done with the Loan bill in the lower house."

The Chair then put the motion to indefinitely postpone the resolution which was made by Mr. Grabbie and seconded by Mr. Carter. The vote was as follows: Ayes: Achi, Baldwin, Carter, Crabbe, C. Brown and Paris—6. Noes: J. Brown, Kahillina, Kalanokalani, Kanuha, Nakapahu and Kaohi—6.

Declined to vote: Russell. Absent: White. The vote being a tie, the whole matter rested with the chair. President Kalua quickly cast the deciding vote on the side of indefinite postponement and the Republicans were duly jubilant.

A message from Acting Governor Cooper, submitting the recent appointments at the head of the Department of Public Works, the Treasury, Public Lands office and on the Board of Health, was read and action deferred until Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The $30,000 appropriation bill for expenses of the extra session and expenses incurred during the regular session, remaining unpaid, was submitted to the Senate but, owing to the discussion on the concurrent resolution, it was not acted on.

The Senate adjourned at 4 o'clock.

COAL OIL KILLS MOSQUITOES

Winchester is the name of a town in Virginia and it has been somewhat celebrated in song and story, because one Sheridan once rode around in that neighborhood, creating considerable commotion.

It has lived on that reputation ever since, but now it has been doing something on its own account to secure fame. Its people had read in the newspapers that kerosene oil properly applied would kill mosquitoes. They knew of their own knowledge and experience what an ugly thing a Virginia mosquito is and how viciously it bites. They had read, furthermore, in the newspapers that mosquitoes carry malaria and other diseases and that, altogether, they are very objectionable insects. Accordingly the Town Council took the matter in hand and passed an ordinance requiring the owners of all ponds and pools anywhere in the neighborhood to pour crude petroleum on the waters. It went further and required every household to put tubs of water on the surface of which there was a goodly supply of petroleum, under all the shrubbery.

This experiment was made last summer and it finished the mosquitoes. It also finished the malaria and struck a death blow at the quinine business. So successful were they last year that they are going to do the same thing next spring. Winchester's success in this direction should incite other mosquito infested places to rise up and do likewise. The residents of New Jersey in particular should take note of the Winchester example and follow it right away quick.—Utica Press.

Pain-Killer, the old and well known remedy has acquired a world-wide reputation for the cure of sudden colds, coughs, etc., weak stomach, indigestion, cramp or pain in the stomach, bowel complaint, diarrhoea and dysentery. It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis. Price 25c and 50c.

PLATT AND THE CUBANS

New York, April 16.—Senator Orville Platt of Connecticut, author of what is known as the "Platt amendment" relating to Cuba, is at the Murray Hill Hotel. In an interview last night he said:

"The real essence of the propositions of this Government is that the Cubans recognize the right of the United States to maintain the independence of Cuba and the stability of its government. That right, once being recognized by the Cuban Constitution, there will be no trouble about the enforcement. All will be plain sailing.

"The property owners and the conservative class in Cuba almost unanimously desire the protection of this Government; those opposed to it do not count for much.

"Most of the people in this country do not understand the real feeling in Cuba. The news reports from Havana have been very conflicting. They are almost as trustworthy as the dispatches from China last year about the Boxer troubles.

"A few days ago the Platt amendment was reported defeated in the Cuban constitutional convention by a vote of 24 to 2. A little later the vote was given 18 to 10. As a matter of fact, final action has not been taken.

"In reality little interest is manifested in Cuba in the convention. Many people there have not even heard of it. The property owners took very little interest in the election of delegates, believing that in any event the American Government would protect them and their property. No interest was shown by the large colored population in the convention. Many of the delegates have no interests at stake, but want to figure as patriots. Some of the members are old revolutionists, officers in the insurgent army and lawyers, while some are mere adventurers. Some of them seem to think that the Spanish yoke having been thrown off, they ought to come in and take possession.

"Yet one-third of the members of the convention are friendly to the United States and appreciate what we have done and what we intend to do for Cuba; another third is hostile to America and the balance are indifferent. It is the members of the hostile element who are making all the noise and attempting to create a belief that Cubans do not want this government. They are misrepresenting the facts. The two most important elements in the Cubans—the property owners and the working men—heartily favor the proposals of the United States and rely on the continued assistance of our Government.

"In the course of time all Cubans will accept the overtures of the American Government in letter and spirit, unless the agitators convince the people we are oppressing them, something I believe they will not succeed in doing."

CHAMBERLAIN A FACTOR

London, April 25.—The date of Lord Salisbury's return to London from the Riviera is still problematical and the rumors of Cabinet trouble over the budget are assuming greater consistency in the lobbies of Parliament. According to the Daily Mail, the framing of the budget revealed considerable dissension. Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, wanted the whole cost of the war raised on the credit of the South African colonies and had schemes of his own for providing the interest on the loan and the increase of normal expenditures.

To these schemes, however, with the exception of the coal duty, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach turned a deaf ear, and on being pressed he offered to resign. Chamberlain, according to the Daily Mail, favored the resignation, but Lord Salisbury and Balfour strongly opposed it.

Now it is said that although at first Sir Michael Hicks-Beach did not advocate a coal tax, he now declines to drop it, thinking his reputation would suffer now that he is committed to it. He has, however, agreed to give a careful consideration to the alternative proposal to substitute an ad valorem duty on a basis of 8 pence or 9 pence on inferior coal, rising to 18 pence on the best Welsh coal. While this would mollify the Northern colliery owners, it would intensify the opposition from Wales, and the belief prevails that the upshot will be either the abandonment of the tax altogether or the resignation of the Ministry.

Chamberlain is credited with urging the latter course. With the double object of getting rid of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, whose plain speaking regarding the deplorable financial consequences of the war offends him, and of proving to the country that there is no alternative government, as the opposition would under the existing conditions, decline the task of forming a Cabinet. According to lobby gossip, this expedient would pull the Conservative party together and kill the opposition within its ranks to the necessary financial expedients.

SHIPPING NOTES.
 The Claudine sails tomorrow at 5 p. m. The transport Lawton is expected here about the middle of next week.

If the Sierra left San Francisco on time, she should arrive here about midnight. This would make her time 5 days and 12 hours.

The Mauna Loa was late in getting away today as she had a lot of Porto Ricans to take aboard at the Quarantine Island. She left the wharf at 12 o'clock and, about an hour later, sailed for her regular Maui and Hawaii ports.

The Kinau did not get away for Hilo today until two o'clock. Besides her regular passengers she had ninety families of Porto Ricans about two hundred men, women and children. The Lehua and Mokoli leaving this afternoon will each take some of the laborers.

The Colon Arrives.
 The Pacific Mail steamer Colon, Captain McKinnon, arrived from Port Los Angeles last evening after a slow trip. She brought 522 Porto Ricans for the plantations. There were three deaths and one birth on the voyage. The passengers on the Colon are a great improvement in appearance over the previous lots brought here. Many of them speak English and they are better clothed.

This morning they were taken to quarantine island where they bathed and had their clothing and baggage disinfected.

Captain Hector Friis.
 The bark Hesper has a new master. Captain Soderberg of the vessel who is in trouble here with the Federal authorities, has resigned the command and Captain Hector Friis, for a long time assistant harbor master, has taken the vessel. Ever since his connection with the harbor master's office Captain Friis has been attentive to his duties and painstaking in every way. His many friends, while they are glad to hear of the captain's promotion, will be sorry to have him leave Honolulu. With Captain Friis in command of the Hesper, she will no longer be known as a hell ship as Friis, who for many years has been in command of sailing vessels, is known by sailors as a square man and merciful.

NEW CODE OF SIGNALS.
 Captain Gilbert Brokaw of the Fearless has arranged a code of signals for ships towing on a long hawser at sea. The signals are as follows:

1. Several short blasts of whistles-Take notice.
 2. One long whistle-Set fore and aft sails.
 3. Two long whistles-Set square sails.
 4. Two long and one short whistles-Port braces haul in.
 5. One long and two short whistles-Starboard braces haul in (or fog signal).
 6. Four long whistles-Take in and furl sails.
 7. One short and one long whistle-Stand by hawser in case want to let go.
 8. Two short and one long whistle-Get anchor ready.
 9. Three long whistles-Let go hawser.
 10. Five long whistles-Let go hawser, look out for your ship.
 11. Two long and one short whistle-Have hawser ready if you have one, mine is disabled.
 12. If night, show light on the bow, when signal is understood.

Zephyr Gingham.
Whitney & Marsh, LTD. AT Whitney & Marsh, LTD.
HALF
 Those New York people of ours are covering themselves with glory. Their last fortunate purchase for us (and for you) was 10,000 yards Beautiful Gingham
 from an overstocked Manchester manufacturer, at just half of what they were intended to bring. They came on the Mariposa-bright, new, pretty gingham, that have never seen the light of a store until Saturday afternoon. A bewildering variety of patterns-broad stripes, narrow stripes, big checks, little checks, and every color imaginable. Several inches wider than the gingham we have been selling-colors guaranteed fadeless. If you have shirt waists to make, or holokus, or children's dresses, this is a money saving opportunity, which you can ill afford of miss.
