PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, NOV. 7, 1893.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The "Hawaiian Star" is moved with pains and a hope that Minister Willis will read the HOLOMUA's veiled social jokes and regard them as an index to the "moral as well as political sentiment of the monarchist party." We imagine this would act as a boomerang, for the social foibles joked about, concern mainly the elite of the Stars enlightened circles.

But if the HOLOMUA's little jokes at the passing show are so wicked, what shall we think of the Star, whose columns since its first issue are daily filled with the most venomous and unprincipled falsehoods and abuse of the Queen, and the very considerable circle of ladies and gentlemen who as royalists and loyalists were and are yet associated with the monarchy. The career of the Star has been no credit to the Annexation Club. Its denunciations of the Queen and the Royalists have not been based upon argument against their method of government, but simply is wild abuse.

Read last night's "Star" where it refers to the late monarchy as a "rule of bribetakers and harlots." Can the dignity of journalism descend lower than this. Can the organ of the annexation club find no better argument than this contemptible insult as a cause for their existence. Let us warn the Star that there is an unwritten history of the misdeeds of the harlots and bribe givers of the highly moral reform party, during the last legislature, that would make this city blush.

The P. G. organs are fond of repeating the refrain that "revolutions never go backward." This may be true, but is it not also true that backward revolutions never go forward, and is not that axiom proved by the present situation. The revolution of January not only stopped the wheels of progress in Hawaii, but set them paddling astern. This little Kingdom was making fair progress in its self government according to modern democratic principles, when the towering conceit of a minority caused them to break down the established fabric of law and order, and replace it with a military despotism, depriving the people of their representative rights, and maintaining a system of government, decidedly backward in its despotic tendencies.

All Hawaii now waits expectantly, for Minister Willis to act. A Provisional Government cannot last forever and must be replaced by a permanent organization. It is the hope, prayer and belief of the native inhabitants and true citizens of this little country, that the United States through its Representatives will repair the political crime of Mr. Stevens, and his coterie of traitors, and restore to the Hawaiians the independent government of their choice.

The two band concerts last night were fairly indicative of the difference between the political minority and majority. At Emma Square the P. G. Band of imported foreigners tooted to an audience that never amounted to over 30. At the Hawaiian Hotel the National Band, the band that has endeared itself to the people by its patriotic loyalty to the Queen, drew a delighted audience of over 3000. If Minister Willis was attentive, he would have found it difficult to reconcile the visible fact of an accomplished band of native musicians playing to a large audience of native Hawaiian men and women, orderly, well dressed, and thoroughly civilized in character, with the assertions of Thurston and his claquers abroad, that the Hawaiians were ignorant, degraded, and semi-civilized.

Annexation Murderers!

"IT WOULD SERVE THE EX-QUEEN WELL TO PRAY TO HER GODS THAT THE PERIL OF RESTORATION MAY NEVER COME TO HER."
Hawaiian Star November 6, 1893.

Any one who has closely observed affairs here since the organization of the annexation club is aware that there exists in that body a gang of desperate Americans determined to hold on to the offices and power they have fraudulently obtained, and to further grab all the offices and boodle in sight. The Star is their organ, and the above quotation contains an unmistakable threat, that can have but one meaning.

It is not long since that some cranky member or members of the annexation club put a placard on Claus Spreckels residence threatening him with murder, and a well known correspondent of the associated press, informed the American public that there existed within the annexation club a "murder society" an American mafia who were determined to defend their usurpation by murdering the Queen and all prominent royalists if necessary.

We do not believe that this faction are numerous, or have the sympathy or support of the majority of that club who are principally, Portuguese, beardless missionary youths, and departed tourists, sailors and vagabonds. Nor do we believe that Mr. Hatch the President of the Annexation Club, or Mr. Dole the P. G. president, have any feelings in common with their murderous allies.

We concede to the leaders of the Provisional Government, that though their methods of revolt were untenable, they were really inspired with a delusion that they could give us better government than we had hitherto had. But while trying to imitate the revolution against monarchy in Brazil, they had not figured out the difference in complications that would result, nor the difference between revolt of a people and the revolt of a cabal assisted by a foreign power.

The organization of the Annexation Club may have been worthy in its motives, but it eventually got controlled an animated by men who having been failures in their own land saw the opportunity to seize and enjoy the spoils of fat offices in this foreign Kingdom, and to secure which they stand ready to do murder.

The organization of a "Citizens Reserve," Rifle Clubs and other warlike affairs, in conjunction with the Annexation Club, proves that their object is not for good government, law and order, but for usurpation and plunder.

How disgraceful the whole conduct and attitude of the American Annexation Club in distinction to the Hawaiian Patriotic League. The former boil over with threats of murder and violence if their theft of a nation is not supported by the United States. The latter headed by their Queen, appealed to the honor and justice of Christian America, and with quiet dignity and patience await the decision upon their appeal which we hope is close at hand.

A TRAITOR.

For the special benefit of the Patriotic League, we reproduce the following item which appeared in the New York Sun on the 18th of October.

"We have been permitted to read a letter from Hawaii sent to a gentleman of this city by a leading Hawaiian politician who until recently was an opponent of annexation and a supporter of the ex-Queen, and whose picture has been printed in the Herald as that of a determined anti-annexationist. This patriotic native of Hawaii, in his letter to his correspondent in New York, writes thus:

"We Hawaiians are anxious to know what our destiny is to be, and what is Cleveland's policy, so far as we are concerned. I was not at first in favor of annexation, which, as I am pleased to know, is advocated in America by The Sun; but, after due consideration, I have come to the conclusion that annexation, pure and simple, is the only salvation for our Hawaii. I am now, therefore, a rank annexationist."

This correspondent, as we learn, is not the only Hawaiian of importance who, after seeing his picture in the Herald, has changed his views on the subject of annexation. He is a man of large influence.

We regret to say that we cannot give him the information which he desires concerning "President Cleveland's policy" in the case of Hawaii. We should like to be able to offer the assurance that this policy will be that which, as the Hawaiian writer says, holds out the only hope for the salvation of Hawaii. But we can only say to him, in the plaintive old language of his native country. "Aloha nui loa."

IN CHICAGO.—"That was a mean thing for Rownder to do." "What was it?" "When his former wife married he sent the groom a copy of 'The Taming of the Shrew.'" —Truth.

Isn't He Right??

A Denial of Self-Government.

It is interesting to note the fervor with which the jingo organs unite in exclaiming against the proposition to let the people of Hawaii vote as to whether they wish to be annexed or not, and as to the form of government they prefer. The fact that the so-called "republican" government has stood for nearly a year on the basis of denying the right of the people to govern themselves is a mild one besides the force with which our vigorous advocates of jingoism declare that they must not be permitted at all, either to govern themselves or to choose their own form of government.

The reasons why this disfranchisement and subjugation of the people in question must be perpetuated in the interest of spreading the republican idea have a familiar sound. The people of Hawaii are "notoriously venal, superstitious and ignorant." They are "practically barbarians," and they "could be bought in droves at so much per head." Take any of the arguments and they have been employed by the Solid South to justify the exclusion of the negroes from the polls; substitute "Hawaiians" for "negroes" and you have the identical logic which the supporters of the annexation scheme employ in favor of robbing the Hawaiians of the right to their own chosen form of government.

The proposition to hold an election of the Hawaiians on annexation is a futile one, for the reason that, even if the Hawaiians wished to be annexed, the United States does not want Hawaii. But an annexation scheme which is based on the denial of the right to self-government of any people is an extreme illustration of how little respect some interests in this nation have for the principles on which our government was founded.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

That's It.

(Altoona Tribune.)

As the United States are not engaged in the business of annexation by conquest we do not see why the Hawaiian question should not be settled by a vote of the people of the islands. To permit the American and British merchants who have settled there to decide the matter would be antagonistic to the fundamental principles of the government. Some of the missionaries who are now arguing so strongly in favor of annexation tell us that modern Hawaii is the result of the labors of themselves and their predecessors. Very well, then, if the Hawaiian natives have been civilized they are competent to settle the question of their future relations to this country. It would be an outrage of the first magnitude to annex Hawaii without first ascertaining the wishes of the natives. The Japanese and the Chinese may be left out of the question; they are aliens, but the people who were born on the islands and who have had the benefit of missionary instruction for the last fifty years surely know what they want. Let them be heard.

LOCAL NEWS.

The P. G. Band played on the steamer dock this morning.

One hundred and eight Chinese arrived on the steamer China.

The steamer Waialeale is up to leave for Hamakua to-morrow.

The P. G. Rifle-carriers and P. G. band, were displayed this morning.

Between thirty and forty people listened to the P. G. Band's Concert at Emma Square last evening.

Rear-Admiral Irwin hoisted his flag on board of the U. S. F. S. Philadelphia this morning, and was saluted.

Rev. Mr. Howland will hold a special service, at Arion Hall this evening at 7:30 p.m. every body welcome.

United States Minister Albert S. Willis, presented his credentials to the Provisional Government this forenoon.

Quite a number of people were present on Palace Square this forenoon to see Minister Willis drive to the Palace building.

Minister Willis was accompanied by Consul General Mills, this morning when he called on the Provisional Government.

Rear-Admiral Skerrett's flag was saluted this morning when it was lowered from its position at the mainmast truck of the U. S. F. S. Philadelphia.

When the China left port this morning, Rear Admiral Skerrett's flag was displayed from the mizzen mast. The U. S. F. S. Philadelphia saluted the departing Admiral.

The following persons left the city by the steamer China this morning. Rear-Admiral Skerrett, Lieutenant Wilson, Lieutenant Fox, H F Lewis, S G Wilder, Ensign Williams, Mrs. Opfergelt.

It is to be hoped, that no one of the "goody goody's" of the present regime do such a wicked thing as smuggle opium, or try to do so, or allow it to pass in. We would not like to trust any of them.

Another immense throng of patriotic Hawaiians listened to the music of the Hawaiian National Band at the Hotel last evening. Fully 3,500 or 4,000 persons must have been present. The concert was complimentary to United States Minister Willis.

The following passengers for Honolulu arrived on the steamer China: Rear-Admiral Jno Irwin, U S N, Lieut Adams, U S N, Ensign Parmenter, U S N, Mrs Parmenter, Mrs Adams, Mrs Irwin, Miss Irwin, Mr Jno Irwin Jr, Dr W E Taylor, U S N.

Funny Salutes.

Not only in Honolulu and Rio Janeiro has the U. S. Navy fired off its guns in methods incomprehensible to well established codes of international etiquette, but the following clipped from an exchange, shows that other U. S. officers have blundered.

The United States gunboat Concord, Commander C.F. Goodrich, arrived at Penang on the 19th ult, and not knowing that that port was not a saluting station, fired a salute. The Concord is a vessel of 690 tons and of 3,400 horse-power, and carries 6 guns and 192 men. According to the Penang Gazette she left for Singapore the same night.

Not Quite That Bad.

"You are charged with vagrancy. You never do anything but beg," said Judge Sully McDuffie to a shady looking prisoner.

Tramp—"You do me great injustice, Your Honor. I steal every chance I get, and I gamble, too, occasionally."

Judge—"I beg your pardon. I had no idea you were so respectable. I hope you will excuse me. I am very sorry."

Tramp—"Well, you needn't carry the thing too far, Judge. I don't claim to be a member of the Assembly.—Tit Bits

Sanitary Item.

First Clubman—"I was reading the other day that intemperance is a disease."

Second Clubman—"Well, if it is it's contagious, for when a married man gets drunk he catches it when he gets home—at least I do.—Texas Siftings."

ANOTHER CRANK.

Writes a letter.

To the Editor of the Brooklyn Eagle:

The departure of the United States steamship Boston takes from our shores a ship and officers and crew that are dear to us forever. None appreciate the rank and file of the Boston so much as the American residents here whose lives and property were protected by them last January. Indorsed by their fellow citizens and supported by the American colony in Hawaii, they made a record of which they may be justly proud and never ashamed. The name of the Boston and her officers and crew who protected us last January and February are indelibly written in Hawaiian history and opens the hearts of appreciative Hawaiian citizens and Americans in Hawaii. With the going of the Boston a woman's name must be mentioned—that of Lieutenant E. K. Moore's wife—Mrs. Moore was the only naval officer's wife with us during the winter and revolution of 1893, and who know her remember the lively interest she took in Hawaiian history; of her close study of it in all its phases—of the sympathy, in word and deed, she gave the American colony during their troublous period. No names are dearer to us than Stevens, Boston. Wiltse and Mrs. E. K. Moore. They have our aloha nui. There are the international expression of opinion from dominant, political and moneyed power of this country.

H. I.

HONOLULU, Sept. 25, 1893.

A HAPPY PEOPLE.

Speaking of the Japanese, the Tiser of last Friday morning says, "They are indeed a peculiar people, and among their many peculiarities not the least is that they are the only nation in the world practically without a religion."

They are satisfied with what they have got, and are all the happier for it. The Hawaiian people would be much better off today, if it were not for the hypocritical and sacrilegious religion which is preached to them every week by insincere preachers.

At the "Religious Session" of preachers held lately in Chicago, the Japanese representative was one of the ablest speakers present. In the course of his remarks, he made reference to the American Missionaries, in words something like this: He said that he was one of those Japanese who had protested against allowing those missionaries to enter Japan to teach religion, as the next thing they would try to do, would be to annex Japan to the United States.

Chawley (to his valet)—Slipson, I say, who was that stanning girl that just bowed to me?

Valet—That's your fiancee number 211, sir!

Chawley—Ged, y' don't say! That's what a felleh gets for engaging himself to a girl in a bathing-suit. Send her a tag, Slipson—send her a tag!—Town Topics.

Mrs. Bingo—Oh, dear! Charles I wish I could find a good name for baby.

Bingo—Why not call him "Atlantic Ocean?"

Mrs. Bingo—What for!

Bingo (wearily)—Because he never dries up.—Truth.

A Born Lawyer.

One of Colonel "Bob" Ingersoll's stories is that he found himself alone in the office one day, while as a young man, he was studying law with a firm out West. He was interrupted by the entrance of a raw-boned, sharp-featured country woman, who ambled into the room leading a freckled-faced, watery-eyed, ten year-old boy by the hand.

"Air you the lawyer?" she began. On being answered in the affirmative she went on to say that she had brought her boy Jim to town for the purpose of binding him out at the "lawyerin' trade". She was morally certain, she averred, that Jim was a born lawyer, and that all he needed was a chance.

"But, madam," objected the Colonel, "he is entirely too young to begin the study of law."

"Too young, indeed," sniffed the find mother, contemptuously; "you don't know Jim. He was born for a lawyer."

Much amused, the Colonel asked her on what grounds she based her hopes of a future at the Bar for her darling child.

"Why," said she, "when he was only seven years old he struck work, and he wouldn't do another lick if he got killed for it. When he was eight he got sassy, and put on more airs than a prize horse at a country fair; and now, Lor' bless me, he jest freezes onto everything he can lay his hands on."—Tit Bits.
