POPE LEO DEAD.

Less Sufferings End in a Peaceful Death.
Rome, Italy, July 20.—Pope Leo died at 4:04 o'clock this afternoon, his last words before passing to his final rest being the Benediction. The end came peacefully except for a slight choking immediately preceding the lapse into insensibility. The death bed scene was most impressive. The dying Pontiff was surrounded by Cardinals, members of the Papal Court, diplomats and relatives, who had been summoned early in the day.

RUSSIA GOADS JAPAN.

Diplomats at Peking Think Situation is Now Dangerous.
Peking, July 19.—Diplomats say that since the rapprochement between Great Britain and France in far Eastern matters, Russia has adopted the policy of provoking Japan. There is increasing danger of war between the two countries.
Seoul, July 19.—The Russian Minister has protested against the action of the Emperor of Korea in opening the port of Wiju at the request of Japan and Great Britain.

Venezuela Rebels Lose.

Soledad, Venezuela, July 20.—The rebel forces at Ciudad Bolivar began an attack on the Government forces that surrounded the city at an early hour this morning. Owing to the surprise occasioned by the early onslaught the Government troops were for a time threatened with annihilation. They rallied promptly, however, and forced the rebels back to their stronghold with a loss of over 200 men. Soon after the battle commenced, the city was shelled by five Venezuelan vessels, the Government troops advancing to the walls of the city under cover of the bombardment. The Government loss is placed at 100 killed. The fighting continues.

Bear and Eagle Agree.

Washington, D. C., July 16.—It was announced at the State Department today that the Manchurian question has been settled to the complete satisfaction of the Government.

The full terms of the agreement reached have not been made public. Assurance is given, however, that China will open the new treaty ports as requested. These ports are supposed to be Moukden and Tatungkiao.

Russia is party to the agreement and consents to offer no opposition to the freedom of American trade in the new districts.

Bryan Scores Clevelandism.

Chicago, Ill., July 18.—William J. Bryan while in this city today, in conference with Democratic leaders, gave an interview in which he denounces the Grover Cleveland democracy and its followers in most scathing terms. Bryan reiterated his old-time charge that Cleveland and his followers have been traitors to the party, and, having once gone into the Republican ranks, should stay there.

Russia Wants no Advice.

St. Petersburg, Russia, July 18.—A semi-official statement regarding the American Jewish petition has been published giving Russia's position in general terms. The cause of Russia's refusal to receive the petition is based on the Government's objection to outside interference in matters that are purely internal affairs.

Congress Special Session.

Oyster Bay, July 16.—The President announces that he will call Congress in extra session on October 9th to consider financial politics.

CAPITAL OF AUSTRALIA.

Tumut on the Murrumbidgee River is Selected.
Melbourne, July 19.—The Committee of Parliament on the site for the Federal Capital, recommends Tumut.

Tumut is a town of less than 2,000 people. It is located on a branch of the Murrumbidgee river, is well watered, is in the center of a large level tract, and a rugged ridge of mountains rise between the town and the sea. The future capital is equi-distant from Sydney and Melbourne, so that neither of the two big cities can be jealous of the other in the matter of the capital's location. At present the town has no connection with any railway but a railway is to be built to it. Since the Australian Federation was formed Melbourne has been the temporary capital.

Japan Disappointed.

London, July 16.—The Japanese legation is disappointed over Great Britain's attitude in the Manchurian affair. It is believed that the interchange of visits between King Edward and President Loubet is significant of the non-support of Russia by France in far Eastern politics and the withdrawal of Great Britain from the Japanese alliance.

Cassini and Hay Dispute.

Paris, July 20.—Count Cassini denies that he assured Secretary Hay that Russia would concede the opening of certain Manchurian ports.
Washington, July 20.—It is asserted at the State Department here that Count Cassini pledged Russia to the opening of two ports in Manchuria.

Keatsarge for Record.

Portsmouth, England, July 17.—The American squadron, commanded by Rear Admiral Cotton, sailed from Portsmouth today. The departing Americans were given a most enthusiastic farewell by the British ships. Special interest is given the sailing of the squadron in view of the plans for a record trip by the Keatsarge.

New Orleans Official Killed.

New Orleans, La., July 20.—District Attorney Gurley of this city was today shot and killed by Lyons, a former clerk in Gurley's office. Lyons has long held a grudge against Gurley on account of difficulties that arose while in the District Attorney's office. After killing Gurley, Lyons committed suicide.

Lipton's Boat Good.

Atlantic City, July 20.—The Challenger defeated the Shamrock I in the trial race today.

New Port, July 20.—The Constitution defeated the Reliance today on time allowance, by ninety-seven seconds over a course of thirty-seven miles.

London, July 17.—James McNeill Whistler, the artist, died today.

London, July 20.—The King and Queen left today for a visit in Ireland.

Winnipeg, July 17.—P. M. Arthur, chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, dropped dead tonight while speaking at a banquet.

New York, July 17.—The decision of the court permits the Mercantile Trust Company to foreclose its mortgage on the shipbuilding trust for $16,000,000. There will be an appeal.

San Francisco, July 17.—The Grand Jury has indicted Jacob Eppinger, head of the bankrupt firm of Eppinger & Co., for obtaining money under false pretenses. More indictments will follow.

GREAT BRITAIN'S CLAIM.

May Be a Boundary Dispute in the Philippines.
London, July 15.—In the lobby of the House of Commons today it was reported that the United States had seized a group of islands off Borneo which is owned by Great Britain.

Washington, July 15.—The group of islands off Borneo which is claimed by Great Britain is Cagayan. It was purchased from Spain in the Treaty of Paris and the American flag was formally raised over it.

Washington, July 19.—Secretary Hay says that Great Britain has no claim to the islands lying near Borneo and included in the treaty with Spain.

The most southerly points in the Philippines occupied by the United States are the islands of Cagayan, Bongao and Tawe-Tawi and these are all very close to the Borneo coast. On old maps they are colored red as British possessions. Bongao is merely a military post established by the Spanish in 1882. The people of these three islands are a very unruly class and it is said that they have frequently intermarried with Dyaks of Borneo. The British North Borneo Company, a concern which runs North Borneo under British protection originally secured many of their concessions from the Sultan of Sulu and in this way probably claim title to some of the islands we now occupy. There are many small islands in the Mindoro Sea which may be the ones in dispute as the British and American islands are so close to each other as the islands of the Hawaii group. The islands in this vicinity are valuable in that they are located on rich pearling grounds and about two years ago a British Company, operating from North Borneo, had a fleet of five luggers and crews of divers at work testing the pearling grounds around the islands of Tawi-Tawi, Bongao and Baganan.

Madrid, Spain, July 20.—Senor Villevord has been appointed Premier and will undertake the organization of the new Spanish Cabinet.

Washington, July 17.—George Beaver, former chief of the Bureau of Statistics and Allowances of the Postoffice Department, has been indicted and arrested on a bench warrant for attempted bribery and various irregularities. Three thousand promotions, approved by the Secretary, were cancelled by Beaver.

Lisbon, Portugal, July 17.—A sensation in army and official circles was created today by the arrest of a number of leading officers charged with conspiracy against King Carlos of Portugal. The plot against the King is not believed to extend far, as the King's agents think they have nipped the conspiracy practically at its inception. The officers arrested will be court-martialed.

Blackfoot, Idaho, July 14.—A company with a million dollars' capital will build a beet sugar factory here to cost half a million.

Augusta, Maine, July 15.—Mrs. Harriet Blaine, widow of the late James G. Blaine, died today at the old Blaine homestead in this city.

Portsmouth, England, July 14.—The American squadron is making preparations for departure. It is reported today that the battleship Kearsarge has been put in condition for a record run across the Atlantic.

Solidad, Venezuela, July 14.—The rebel forces at Ciudad Bolivar have rallied to a last defence against the Government forces. Frequent attempts have been made to break through the siege lines, but without success.

Washington, July 14.—Hansen, the Russian charge d'affaires today delivered a message to Secretary Hay regarding Manchurian ports which Russia is ready to open. The Secretary declines to discuss the proposal.

Rome, July 15.—The symptoms of pneumonia, which have threatened from the first of the Pope's illness, have almost entirely disappeared. The physicians report tonight, however, that their patient is suffering from complete prostration. They are very much mystified with the course of the Pope's illness and are now of the opinion that he may linger for days. No hope is held out of eventual recovery.

St. Petersburg, Russia, July 15.—The Czar has issued an edict contemplating to allay much of the disrest among the working classes of the country and it is hoped will act as preventive against the many outbreaks against the civil authorities. The edict abolishes many of the harsh punishments to which laborers have been subject for infringement on regulations made by employers. Factory employees are further given the right to representation in conference with the inspectors.

Oyster Bay, L. I., July 14.—President Roosevelt held a conference today with Jewish representatives on the petition to the Czar on the Kisheneff outrages. After the conference it was reported that there is a probability that the petition will not be forwarded. The Czar has taken steps to punish the leaders of the massacre and the delicate relations now existing between Russia and the United States over Manchuria make it advisable that any possible complications be avoided.

Marysville, Ky., July 15.—The high feeling aroused during the recent trial of William Tacker today took the form of a lynching. Tacker, a white man, was recently tried and convicted of murder and sentenced to prison for life. An appeal was taken and a new trial sought on technical points. Many believed Tacker guilty and were highly incensed at the law's delay. Today a body of masked men attacked the jail in which Tacker was confined, overpowered the guards and hung their victim to a nearby tree.

Castro Again Holds Orinoco.

Caracas, (Venezuela), July 6.—All the shore of the Gulf of Para has been reoccupied by the Government. President Castro's fleet entered the Orinoco last Friday.

RAILROAD AND PLANTATION.

Figures Relating to Olan, and Hilo Railroad.

William O. Smith, guardian of Eric R. J. Gay and Arthur F. K. Gay, minors, addressed a petition in each case to Judge De Bolt for his approval of investigation of $1000 apiece in the bonds, respectively, of the Hilo Railroad Co., and the Olan Sugar Co. Statements relating to the different securities by officers of the companies are appended.

Of the Hilo Railroad Co., there have been issued and sold $850,000 of the six per cent 10-20 year first mortgage gold bonds and a sinking fund consisting of five per cent of the annual gross earnings of the company has been established to commence five years after the date of the bonds, so that by the time the bonds mature seventy-five per cent of their face value will have been set aside out of the earnings of the company. A list of bondholders is given, showing the amount of $283,000 held in San Francisco and the rest by local investors. The net earnings of the railroad last year were $28,054.60 and for this year they are estimated at $30,000. The machine shops last year cleared more than $16,000. Lately the company acquired the property of the Hilo Dock Co., to be paid for out of the $150,000 of bonds remaining in the treasury. The company is paying a dividend of one per cent a quarter and owes nothing but its bonded debt. Only about one fifth of the area tributary to the road has as yet been developed. Elmer E. Paxton, treasurer, signs the statement.

The Olan Sugar Co., has issued $1,250,000 of the first mortgage six per cent 5-20 year gold bonds, secured by all of the property of the company under deed of trust to Bishop & Co. Of the whole amount $645,000 is held here and in San Francisco and the remainder of $605,000 as collateral security to notes aggregating $525,000 by the Mercantile Trust Co., Security Savings Bank, German Savings & Loan Society and Anglo-California Bank. The assets are valued at $6,524,333.88 and liabilities at $1,220,667.81, or an excess of assets over liabilities of $5,303,666.07. A conservative estimate of the coming sugar crop gives a value of $1,950,000, to harvest which should not cost more than $650,000, leaving a balance of $1,300,000. The company owes nothing outside of its bonds sold and notes secured by bonds, excepting monthly bills paid at the end of each month, and a credit balance with the agents at the end of this year of more than $200,000 is anticipated. Various factors of promise for the prosperity of the enterprise are mentioned, including the large and modern mill and the almost absolutely certain rainfall, and Treasurer Elmer E. Paxton in conclusion says:

"Nearly all of the bonds sold were taken by responsible parties when the plantation was first started before there had been one-fifth of the capital expended that there is at the present time and before it was fully demonstrated that cane would grow equally well at all elevations on the plantation. If the bonds could be considered, fair security at the time their value is certainly largely enhanced by reason of the expenditure and development of the property of the company."

TO FIGHT MOSQUITOES.

Board of Health Considering Campaign of War.

Honolulu, July 15.—"Since the physicians of the city are unanimously of the opinion that the dengue fever is the result of the diligent work of the pestiferous mosquito, why it is that the Board of Health does not get in and start a crusade against these pests that bite in the night?" is a question was asked a Bulletin reporter this morning by a young man who had just emerged from the mysteries of the prevalent fever.

The Bulletin reporter put the question to Dr. C. B. Cooper, president of the Board of Health, who answered as follows:

"We have been agitating that very question and, at the present time, although no plan of campaign has been arranged against the descendants of the pioneer mosquito from San Blas, still interest in the matter is growing faster than the spread of the bothersome dengue and we expect soon to be organized for the fight.

"Of course, the Government has not the funds to purchase all the oil that would be necessary to cover the surfaces of the bogs, swamps, patches and other places where the young mosquito lives and has its being and for a great deal of this necessary article we will have to depend on the business community and others who for various reasons would like to hear the joyful knell of the departing mosquito.

"We of the Board of Health have been agitating the matter for we realize the great benefit that would result from a standpoint of health and also from that of attracting tourists to the Islands. If the one line, 'There are no mosquitoes in Hawaii,' could be put on our advertising matter that goes to the mainland, it would certainly prove a great drawing card. Add to this, 'Neither is there any dengue or malaria,' and you will have tourists coming here by the thousands.

"The plan I have in mind is this. We will assume charge of the campaign and will use our inspectors to do the work of spreading the oil of death to mosquitoes. We have already succeeded in interesting D. L. Van Dine of the U. S. Agricultural Experiment Station, some of the instructors at Kanehameha and some of the business men, including among whom is P. M. Pond, one of the principal workers in the interests of the Research Club.

"We expect to get together very soon and then we can decide better what to do. A regular campaign will have to be instituted with a certain amount of territory assigned to each one of our inspectors."

Asked as to proposed new work under the appropriation bill coming directly under the superintendence of the Board of Health, Dr. Cooper stated that plans and specifications for the new insane asylum, to cost $75,000, are now being prepared by an architect and that this part of the work of the department would be pushed along as quickly as possible for the inmates of the institution are sadly in lack of a new place, the old building having already served its usefulness.

The Board of Health is at present looking around for a new site for the insane asylum, the present location being deemed unfavorable to the best interests of the inmates. It may be that a site some distance out of town where all is quiet and there is nothing to obstruct the free passage of the tradewinds, will be chosen.

Another piece of work the Board of Health has in mind is a new Government dispensary, to cost $8,000 and to be erected on the site of the old one at the Ewa-makai corner of the Judiciary building grounds. Plans for this building are now being made and work will be started some time in December, if all goes well.

The other new work under the Board of Health has not yet been considered to any great extent, but will be pushed ahead as quickly as possible.

SUES CLAUD SPRECKELS.

Daughter Brings Suit to Recover Honolulu Property.

Honolulu, July 15.—Claud Spreckels is reaping trouble anew from his hasty resolution, after the revolution of 1893, to be rid of all of his Hawaiian possessions.

Yesterday a suit was entered in the Circuit Court here on behalf of his alienated daughter, Mrs. Watson, to dispossess the venerable multimillionaire of property in the business heart of Honolulu which stands on the tax books at a valuation of $400,000, and to judicially assess him in damages to the amount of $100,000 as the rental of the property during its alleged wrongful detention.

The property in question constitutes the entire city block bounded by Fort, Queen, Alakea and Merchant streets, excepting only the lots whereon are standing the Stan genwald, Judd and Mutual Telephone Co. buildings.

Pursuant to his resolution already mentioned, Mr. Spreckels conveyed his controlling interest in the vast Spreckelsville plantation, owned in the name of the Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar Co., to his sons. The inter-family litigation that started over that enterprise is now an old story.

To his only daughter, Emma Claudina, the old gentleman conveyed all of the Honolulu business property involved in the present suit. Miss Spreckels in 1897 or thereabout ran away with Mr. Watson to San Jose and was there married to him. A telegram to ask forgiveness and their blessing was the first intimation her parents were given of the match.

Mr. Spreckels raged over the marriage and was implacable. In later communications between father and daughter in San Francisco, Mrs. Watson, stung by the parental taunts of past kindness, informed her father that he was welcome to a return of the Honolulu property. Mr. Spreckels, taking her word, proceeded with a notary and deeds to the hotel where Mr. and Mrs. Watson were still pursuing their honeymoon. Mrs. Watson promptly signed the instruments and they were duly acknowledged by the notary.

Second thought probably made Mrs. Watson repent the sacrifice, but to all appearances hitherto must have deemed the repentance too late. There were the deeds, no doubt recorded.

Here, however, there comes in a little provision of Hawaiian law, governing real estate under Hawaiian jurisdiction, which indicates a flaw in the title of Claud Spreckels. A little bird may have sung a bar of the statutes of Hawaii in the ear of Mrs. Watson away across the Atlantic in a lordly manor house of England.

The husband under Hawaiian law has a one-third interest in his wife's real estate, to protect which it is provided that a woman may not convey her real estate without the consent of her husband.

At all events, there is one of the biggest real estate contests now on which has ever been entered in the records of the Hawaiian courts. Humphreys & Watson and Robertson & Wilder are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Paris, France, July 15.—A dispatch to a leading Paris paper states that the relations between Russia and Japan are greatly improved. It is believed that the course of the Manchurian conference has been such as to allay the feeling in Japan that the Russian policy will be aggressively inimical to Japanese interests.

A SLOW POT.

"A watched pot never boils," and that is the reason the political pot in East Hawaii refuses to simmer.

It is certainly time for the ambitious to speak out. The voting public is entitled to know for whom they shall have a chance to vote.

A great many are doing a lot of underground wiring which they hope will land them safely.

The one hustler along the whole line of aspirants is Sheriff Andrews. He has changed his tactics in a masterly fashion since he came to a realization that votes would be needed by and by.

Not only has the Sheriff become alert and vigilant in furthering his chances for a nomination this fall but he has become, suave, politic.

It is pleasant to note this silent power of the Right to Vote.

THE KOHALA ROAD.

Philip Peck goes to Honolulu today to be present at the meeting of the stockholders of the Kohala-Hilo Railroad.

When Mr. Peck took hold of the Kohala-Hilo Railroad proposition several months ago, his best friends were doubtful as to the wisdom of his decision.

A ratification of all that Mr. Peck has done, by the stockholders and directors, and a reorganization along the lines hitherto agreed upon, are all that stands between negotiation and actual work.

JAPAN'S FINANCIAL CRISIS.

A brief Yokohama dispatch reports a ministerial crisis in Japan, through the resignation of the Premier, on account of difficulties encountered in adjusting the budget.

To those who have watched the course of affairs in Japan of late years this situation is not surprising. Such a crisis has, in fact, been inevitable.

Japan's military ambition has crippled her financially. She is maintaining a standing army of 157,829 officers and men, or double that of the United States.

Several years ago Lane was fortunate enough to find a piece of the same material and this proved to be ambergris, so when the big bunch of between two and three hundred pounds was found Mr. Lane stopped fishing and saw to it that the valuable find was hauled ashore.

In order that the question might be settled, the matter was referred to Jared Smith, Director of the U. S. Agricultural Experiment Station.

Even taking the estimated weight at 200 pounds, Mr. Lane has on the other side of the Island something which will bring him over $100,000 in cold cash.

NEW PUBLIC WORKS PLAN.

Special Deputy Will Have Charge on Each Island.

Honolulu, July 18.—Superintendent of Public Works Cooper, upon arriving at his office this morning from the Peninsula, opened a communication from Marston Campbell, in which the latter tendered his resignation as an employe of the Department of Public Works.

Intending to visit Kauai next week, the Superintendent is in the meanwhile being besieged by many who are desirous of finishing various business matters before his departure.

It is his intention to thoroughly investigate conditions on all of the Islands and to so arrange matters on each Island that one man familiar with the requirements can be put in charge of all work pertaining to the Department on that Island.

In regard to Hawaii's representation at the St. Louis Exposition, Mr. Cooper will look up those who have exhibits to make and put the supervision of their proper collection and arrangement in the hands of some one who is capable of properly looking after the matter.

The Governor considers the appointment of a commissioner within his province and, it is said, has some names under consideration for that position.

A complete exhibit of the woods of the Islands will be included in the forestry contribution. A large number of the smaller fishes of these waters will be preserved and sent on; those too large for convenient preservation will be omitted.

Finds Ambergris.

Honolulu, July 18.—In the latter part of May Lot Lane, while fishing in the coral-bottomed waters off Punaluu, on the windward side of this Island, found a large piece of what he presumed to be ambergris, the valuable matter from sick whales which is used in the manufacture of perfume.

Several years ago Lane was fortunate enough to find a piece of the same material and this proved to be ambergris, so when the big bunch of between two and three hundred pounds was found Mr. Lane stopped fishing and saw to it that the valuable find was hauled ashore.

In order that the question might be settled, the matter was referred to Jared Smith, Director of the U. S. Agricultural Experiment Station. A piece of the block found was sent to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and the reply was received by the last steamer from the Coast.

Even taking the estimated weight at 200 pounds, Mr. Lane has on the other side of the Island something which will bring him over $100,000 in cold cash. The price averages about $32 an ounce.

Hilo Shipping. July 17, cleared, Amr. Bark Amy Turner, Warland, master, 4 passengers, with cargo of general merchandise for San Francisco. Sugar: Onomea, 23,997 bags; merchandise, $182.85. Total value $93,163.97.

IMMIGRATION COMMISSIONER.

Planters and Merchants Find Work for New Official.

Honolulu, July 18.—A conference of planters and merchants was held this forenoon for the purpose of consulting with Treasurer Kepoikai with reference to the duties of Immigration Commissioner.

The meeting presented to Mr. Kepoikai a list of what the planters and merchants had decided on as the proper duties of the new officer.

After these duties had been defined and the Treasurer made to understand the attitude of the planters and merchants, the appointment of a man to fill the office recently created by the Legislature was mentioned.

Mr. Kepoikai stated that he was somewhat in doubt as to his power to appoint the man to fill the office. He was half inclined to believe that the appointment was up to the Governor.

In other words, the Treasurer thinks that since the Legislature failed to add after the Immigration Commissioner and Advertising Agent the words, "To be appointed by the Treasurer," he has no right to make such appointment.

However, the matter is to be submitted to the Attorney-General for an opinion. This would have been done today, but Mr. Andrews was not in his office when the Treasurer called. At all events, Mr. Kepoikai is disposed to do nothing about the appointment until the return of the Governor.

County Election Coming.

"The county machinery is complete. There remains only the election to get it in running order. Registration and election are provided for, and they will be substantially what they now are under the general statute.

"The Governor of the Territory is charged with the duty of issuing a proclamation sixty days prior to November 3. I do not believe that he will hesitate for a moment to perform every duty enjoined upon him by the County Act, although the Act is being tested in the Courts.

LIVELY AT KILAUEA.

Party Spends Pleasant Three Days at Volcano House.

The Volcano House was a lively place this week, the number of guests for two or three days being about forty. Manager Bidgood was equal to the occasion and while the house was crowded, he made everyone comfortable. The guests were given a dance Tuesday evening. There was good music and a merry time.

Among those present from Hilo, were C. C. Kennedy, Bruce Kennedy, J. Derwent Kennedy, Stanley Kennedy, Clarence Cullemore, J. A. Scott, Florence Scott, Marguerite, Alvah, Irwin and Wallace Scott, and Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Maileira.

Returning Hiloites are strong in their commendation of Manager Bidgood and Mrs. Bidgood for their hospitality and their general improvement of the Volcano House. As a pleasant place to spend a summer vacation, they recommend it to Island people without reserve.

F. L. NASH.

Judge Little opened Court Tuesday in Hilo, hearing probate and jury waived cases at Chambers. At the recent Honokaa term there were nineteen cases in which the parties waived trial before a jury.

J. A. Kennedy of Honolulu is a guest at the home of C. C. Kennedy. He came over by the Mauna Loa and was at the Volcano House yesterday. He will return this week with his sons, who have been visiting at Waiakea.

Marston Campbell has resigned from his position as an employee of the Department of Public Works and will take a trip to the Mainland. W. E. Rowell will attend to the duties formerly looked after by Mr. Campbell.

Captain Hutchinson of the Salvation Army goes to Honolulu by the Kinau today to attend a special meeting of the army at that place. During his absence, which will be for ten days the army hall will be closed only on Saturday and Sunday nights.

W. H. Shipman, at his mountain home, gave a luau Tuesday in honor of J. A. Scott and C. C. Kennedy and their families, who were stopping at the Volcano House. The feast served was an elaborate one and all enjoyed the occasion immensely.

There were two mass meetings held this week by the Federation of Allied Trades to consider questions relating to the welfare of that body. Monday night at the regular meeting seven new members were taken in and seven applications placed on file.

Judge Little left yesterday morning for a week's outing at the Volcano House. Since an attack of dengue last June Judge Little has been decidedly under the weather, and while able to attend to his duties has taken a week off on the advice of his physician.

Rev. F. L. Nash will speak at the Waiakea Mission, Sunday evening, July 26. Mr. W. H. Beers will sing. This meeting at the mission is the opening of a summer campaign, no meetings having been held for some time. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. R. T. Guard gave an informal party at her Reeds Bay home Wednesday evening, complimentary to her two daughters, Ruth and Stephanie, who expect to return to school by the next Enterprise. It was a delightful affair and was attended exclusively by young people. Dancing and cards were the principal diversions and lasted until a late hour.

SUMMER COMPLAINT is the children's most dreaded foe. Immediate and proper treatment is always necessary. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, given according to directions, is the most effectual remedy known. Every household should have a bottle at hand. Get it today. It may save a life. The Hilo Drug Co. sells it.

Last year the Hilo Cotillion Club gave a benefit ball for the Hilo Hospital, which resulted in a generous sum being raised. Mrs. Hayes of Oiaa, while on her trip home, purchased for the hospital with this money, a number of China tray sets for the use of hospital patients. They are of exquisite Haviland China and are very much appreciated by the hospital management. Miss Grubb, the matron, expresses her thanks to the Cotillion Club.

LOST BAG OF MONEY.

Careless Japanese Cane Grower Has Bad Luck.

Akamoto and Tanaka, two cane planters from Waiakea were in town Wednesday and claim to have lost a bag containing $700 in coin in a manner that would make ashamed the rawest Reuben that ever landed at Castle Garden.

The two Japs cashed a draft for $700 at the Hilo Wine & Liquor Co.'s store and carried the coin away in a sack. They stopped at J. D. Kennedy's, according to their story, and left the bag of coin on the floor in front of the show case, where it was forgotten. They went out of the store and in a few minutes, remembering their coin, returned to secure it. It had been taken. They at once laid their troubles before Sheriff Andrews, who is investigating.

J. D. Kennedy says he remembers that the Japs were in his store and that there were three or four other Japanese hanging around. He did not see the sack of money. The supposition is that the two farmers were shadowed by sharpers who made away with the boodle.

Ladies in Smashup.

Mrs. Bergstrom and Mrs. Childs, her mother, had a narrow escape from serious injury while driving to Hakalau last Saturday. At Papaikou gulch a Japanese on horseback was standing in the road and refused to make the road clear. When Mrs. Bergstrom's rig was alongside, the Japanese spurred his horse. It plunged to one side and crowded the rig over a twelve foot embankment. Mrs. Childs leaped out and did not go over. Mrs. Bergstrom went over the side with the horse and buggy all in a heap. The Japanese fled in fright and left the ladies unassisted in their predicament. Mrs. Bergstrom escaped with no broken bones but she was badly bruised and shaken up. Mr. Deyo came along opportunely and rendered the necessary aid.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the Japanese but he has not been captured.

J. J. Combs Wanted.

Honolulu, July 20.—J. J. Combs, for whose arrest on account of an alleged tendering of worthless checks to the Wilder S. S. Co. and other concerns, a warrant was sent to Hawaii some time ago, surprised the police department and everyone else acquainted with the case by bobbing up serenely in this city.

High Sheriff Brown, by the Kinau, received a letter from Manager Verdenburg, of Puako plantation, to the effect that Combs was staying in a small fishing village in the vicinity of Puako. The High Sheriff was this morning informed that Combs had been seen last night in Waikiki.

Those who saw him were officers of a steamer of the Wilder Company and knew him well. The police are at present looking for the man.

LAWYERS DIDN'T SUIT.

Hilo Man Pays for Doubting Hilo Lawyers.

A prominent and well-to-do man living in the suburbs of Hilo has had an experience with the devious ways of the law that will probably result in his permanent retirement from the halls of litigation and possibly inspire him with a higher opinion of the Hilo bar as compared with the profession in the Capital city.

The gentleman in question was arrested and fined in the District Court charged with maintaining a nuisance. He sued the informant for malicious prosecution and lost in the Hilo Court. He then lost faith in Hilo lawyers and procured legal talent in Honolulu. The Honolulu lawyers failed to procure for their client any better satisfaction before the Court, and besides, as an aftermath, sued him for $500 attorney's fees. Nothing daunted, the Hilo litigant secured a second Honolulu law firm, which brought suit for malicious prosecution in the Honolulu courts, where the case was thrown out on the grounds of no jurisdiction. Now the pugnacious Hilo litigant is at cross purposes with his latest Honolulu lawyer and may have to employ the entire Hilo bar to untangle his affairs.

Violin Recital at Spreckels Hall.

Hilo's lovers of classical music will have an opportunity August 22nd of hearing Prof. d'Albert a violinist virtuoso of no mean ability and standing in the musical world. The P. C. A. speaking of a recent d'Albert recital says:

Progress Hall held a large audience last evening, and it was one which seemed to enjoy good music. The program, of course, was largely given over to Mr. d'Albert, and the various violin selections gave him an opportunity to display all his technique and versatility. At times his bow went rollicking over the strings in the wild abandon of a caprice, and again was soberly restrained to the measured cadence of a sonata.

In classic and in lighter music d'Albert was equally at home, and the quality of the melody was clear and decisive, showing complete mastery of the instrument.

The violinist opened the recital with Greig's Sonata, op. 45, attacking it with decision, and then carried his audience along with him in the varied moods of Allegro molto ed appassionato, Allegretto espressivo alla Romanza, and the Allegro Animato, excelling in his interpretation of the latter.

Mr. d'Albert won generous applause when he finished the "Spanish Dance" by Rehfeld, a composition so gently and expressively handled as to seem almost the voice of a child on his violin.

Wellknown local musical talent will be invited to participate so that the evening will be most enjoyable spent and should prove a rare treat to music-lovers of this end of the island. This is the formal opening of the remodeled hall and it is expected that this high class christening will attract a large house. Saturday evening has been set so as to not interfere with the mid week engagements and most suitable to out of town people who might wish to attend.

SISAL PLANTATION

Proposed Development on Lands at Heeia.

Honolulu, July 15.—W. H. Pain and H. W. S. Edmunds have issued a prospectus of the Hawaiian Sisal Co., Ltd., to be organized for the development of a sisal plantation on the lands of the Heeia Agricultural Company at Heeia on this island. The company has over 12,000 acres at its disposal under favorable lease and in fee simple. Conditions of the location are highly advantageous for producing first class fibre. Under the leases all the houses at Heeia and Kaneohe pass to the control of the new company and a good portion of the land is very well fenced, thus obviating large initial expense on this score.

Arrangements have been made for the importation of young plants required for seed and by buying in large quantities very favorable terms can be made. There is already growing on the land a good number of thrifty sisal plants, the leaves from which have been tested with the best results. The castor oil bean is also being produced on the land at a profitable figure. During the first year it is proposed to plant 3,120 acres in sisal and besides this the cultivation of hemp, ramie, jute and abutilon fibre will be undertaken. The water supply from rainfall and water courses is conservatively estimated at eight million gallons a day, which is quite sufficient for all purposes.

The management is to be in the hands of H. W. S. Edmunds, who undertakes to produce fibre at a cost that will give a good profit should the selling price fall as low as three cents a pound. The present selling price in San Francisco is 9 cents a pound. Edmunds has had extensive experience in tropical and semi-tropical countries especially in Mexico.

It is estimated that a profit of at least 50 to 100 per cent on the capital expended during the first four years can be safely reckoned upon in the case of the first crop, which is obtained, as we have above stated at end of three years or three and a half years after planting, according as "bulbils" (pole plants), or plants of older growth, are planted, and that a profit of at least 70 to 200 per cent on the annual capital expenditure can be reckoned upon each year afterwards, during the life of the plantation.

And it is confidently expected that the income in the meantime before the first crop of sisal is obtained, from the cultivation of jute and hemp and ramie and abutilon fiber and other fibers, and from the cultivation of manioc, tobacco, pineapples, castor oil beans, and other quick-growing crops, will amount to at least $60 to $100 per acre per crop, giving a net profit of at least $40 to $50 per acre per crop.

Extensive tables are given in the prospectus which deal with the items of expense in most minute detail, estimating the selling price at the lowest figures and expenses at the highest. This shows a certain and well sustained profit on the investment.

Referring to the small farming features the prospectus says:

"It is a mistake to imagine that sisal is a small farmer's crop, at least in the ordinary, proper American acceptance of the term, as the length of time which must elapse between planting and gathering necessarily precludes its being so, especially when, in addition to this, the cost of necessary mill and baling press, and the labor of gathering and milling and expense of cartage to mill are taken into consideration. As only some 4 to 5 per cent of the weight of leaves is returned in fiber, the expense for cartage of the leaves to the mill or factory is a heavy item even with the portable mills we intend using, and necessarily involves considerable expenditure in carts and stock or in estate tramways. Only under the metayer system of cultivation, under which the cultivator would have a half-interest in the proceeds of the crop, the over-lord providing land and house and implements, and fertilizer if any be necessary, and young plants for planting, and making the actual cultivators certain advances for living expenses against the growing crop, (which advances would be repaid out of the share of the crop accruing to them), the crop being gathered by the cultivators and milled at the joint cost of the over-lord and the cultivators, and the fiber disposed of by the former to the best advantage of their joint account, could it be considered in any way a cultivation for small proprietors. Such an arrangement as this, with proper precautions, should, however, be found both safe and practicable, and advantageous to both cultivators and over-lord.

"The advances which should be made the cultivators under this system should be something like as follows:

"1. On planting so many plants to the acre supplied by the over-lord or patron company (1000 or 2000 as may be as at first planting, $7.50 per acre.

"2. On completion of each clearing and weeding of the land, (there should be one every four months), say, $1.25 per acre.

"3. On delivery of crop at mill in bundles of 50 properly sorted according to length, say, $16 per acre.

"4. On planting the young plants at side of the old ones, providing for continuance of the plantation: the same as at first planting, $7.50 per acre.

"The milling and baling and subsequent handling, including shipping, would be at joint account of both parties, at actual cost, a fair percentage only being charged as interest (or rent) for use of the milling and baling machines, or, perhaps better still, the over-lord or patron company might provide the mill and the facilities for baling, and the cultivators do the actual work. The gross returns obtained for the fiber, less freight and all other expenses in disposing of the crop, would be divided equally between the over-lord or patron company, and the cultivator, there being first deducted for the share accruing to the latter all advances that have been made him on account of his share, with say interest at bank rate added.

"Or, if this is considered too liberal,—though here it is well to point out that a policy of "live and let live" will pay all parties best in the end,—the over-lord or patron company might take delivery of the leaves at the cultivator's land, the milling and baling and other disposition of the crop afterwards being entirely his, or its, own business."

Dealing with other fiber products than sisal the prospectus says we can grow jute here to a certainty in any quantity and there will be a ready market here for all that can be raised for the manufacture of gunny sacks for the export of sugar. Hemp is a product which it is believed will do exceedingly well in the islands and be found extremely profitable. Abutilon fiber, manioc tobacco and pineapples are also products that can be grown with profit.

The promoters propose to float a company capitalized at $250,000, divided into 25,000 of $10 each. The assessments will be called 25 per cent on subscription, 25 per cent October 1, 1903, 25 per cent March 1, 1904, 25 per cent June 1, 1904.

ROOSEVELT'S MESSAGE

And the Long Route it Traveled Around World.

Associated Press dispatches of July 4 give the following interesting detail of the course of President Roosevelt's message, with which the Pacific cable was opened:

The course of President Roosevelt's message around the world was by the Postal Telegraph Company's land line from Oyster Bay to San Francisco, thence by the Commercial Pacific Cable to Honolulu, to Midway to Guam and to Manila. From Manila to Hongkong the message passed by the cable which was lifted and cut by Admiral Dewey in 1898. From Hongkong it went to Saigon, to Singapore, to Penang, to Madras, to Bombay, to Aden, to Suez, to Alexandria, to Malta, to Gibraltar, to Lisbon and to the Azores. Between Hongkong and the Azores, it passed by foreign cables. At the Azores the message was taken up again by the Commercial Cable Company and sent to Canso, to New York and to Oyster Bay.

A message starting around the world at 5 a. m. today would arrive at Honolulu at 11 p. m. yesterday, at Midway at 10 p. m. yesterday, at Guam at 7 p. m. today and at Manila at 6 p. m. today. It would pass through India at 3 p. m. today and would return to New York before 6 a. m. Thus it would have made an excursion from today into yesterday and have arrived back at New York within an hour of the time it started. Another message leaving New York at 5 p. m. today would arrive at Guam at 7 a. m. tomorrow, apparently fourteen hours after it started. Continuing its journey it would arrive at Suez at midnight today and back at New York this morning.

The President's message was sent through the following sections of historical electrical circuits, welded into one circuit and interpolated in the circuit of the Postal Telegraph Company:

1. Section of the wire over which Professor Samuel F. B. Morse sent the first message by means of the Morse telegraph.

2. Section of the wire over which audible speech was for the first time transferred by means of the Bell telephone by Professor Alexander Graham Bell.

3. Section of the Atlantic cable through which the first cable message was sent across the ocean by Cyrus W. Field.

5. Section of the first trolley circuit put up at the historic Richmond (Va.) electric railroad by F. J. Sprague.

6. Section of the wire through which the current of electricity was sent by President Cleveland when he opened the World's Fair at Chicago.

7. Section of the wire through which the electricity was sent to illuminate the headquarters of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers by Moore's system of vacuum tube lighting, this being the first room in the world so lighted.

8. Section of the cable through which the first current was transmitted from Niagara Falls Electric Power Plant, April 16, 1895, loaned by William H. Hammer of New York.

Success of the Assuan Dam.

Cairo (Egypt), July 6.—The Assuan reservoir has been emptied of its winter's store of water for the first time. The results are most satisfactory. The area of cotton is largely increased and the success of the summer crops is assured in the entire area tributary to the dam. The officials say the expenditures on the dam are fully justified.

German Prince to Visit America.

Berlin, July 6.—Prince Adelbert, third son of Emperor William, will join the German East Asiatic squadron in October for a year, but he will probably return by way of the United States in time to visit the St. Louis Exposition.

Changes at Tahiti.

Papeete, Tahiti, June 20.—The French Government has decided to modify its colonial policy with reference to this section. The local government will henceforth assume the burden wholly of the expenses of the civil, judicial and military branches. The latter force will be reduced to a score or more in the near future. The naval contingent will probably be dispensed with.

For many years France has contributed toward the support of the local government. There are other changes, notably the enlargement of the Cabinet of the Governor, and the elimination of the popular assembly.

The local authorities favor an economical administration. Probably the subsidy for the inter-island service will be reduced from 120,000 francs to 50,000 or less. In that event, two 120-ton gasoline vessels will be acceptable to the Government, in place of its steamer of 450 tons capacity.

Compromise Reached.

Honolulu, July 15.—Word has been received by Captain Rodman that the Navy Department has ratified the compromise between the Honolulu Plantation Co. and the Navy Department. This was settled in a conference between Admiral Bradford, Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, and Attorneys Hatch and Silliman, for the plantation. The plantation obtained judgment for $103,500 for a thirty years lease on 561.2 acres. According to the compromise the plantation gets $75,000 cash and retains possession of the land now in cane until May 1, 1909. The plantation buildings are to be removed and plantation agents are only allowed on the land during working hours and for agricultural purposes.

The Navy has a right to take up any piece of land in case of emergency. The title of the land is vested in the government and judgment must be entered. The government gets the right to all water from wells on the land but allows the plantation the use of the surplus.

JAPAN'S ASPIRATION.

Her Attitude as a Power Discussed by a Subject.

A civilized nation! How will that sound! A civilized nation! The sound of these words ring through the world. The goal of the Empire of Japan was, and still is that "Promised Land" where never formality for religion, vulgarity for refinement, hypocrisy for every thing shall be substituted. Dazzled by its splendor, Japan began to rouse herself from her medieval lethargy and strode forth toward the purpose of becoming herself, a member of the civilized families of the world. She changed her educational system, her army and navy, her laws and customs. True it is that the history of Japan lacks a Peter the Great; but her revolutionists, statesmen and scholars, whose influence held sway over the silent masses, and who carefully steered the "ship of State" amidst the rough waves of reaction, are worthy to be regarded as many a Peter the Great. The reorganization of Japan as she is today, cost her what is dear to her heart. Civil wars, martyrdoms, assassinations took place at intervals. But then, having reached her goal, she has ample compensation for her regret over the bloody spots on the shining pages of her history.

While Japan was thus engaged in the task of introducing western civilization, China had little or no thought of marching at the heels of her cousin, except in the matter of a few Western weapons and pieces of furniture which she had adopted merely to please her fancy. China, so far as her national ideas and customs were concerned, was the same China of many hundred years ago. Strange as it may seem, yet it is a matter of fact that the Chinese politicians succeeded with tempting gold and crafty strategem in blinding the eyes of the Western nations some of whom began to respect the "Central Flowery Kingdom" more, and little Japan less. It is not a whit exaggeration to state that little Japan was almost forgotten by the west, until the armed conflict took place between China and Japan. That the latter fought for the sake of western civilization against the staunchest advocate of Oriental civilization can be clearly seen from the Declaration of War by the Emperor of Japan, and from the editorials of newspapers and the war-songs which were composed in those days.

Some suspicious people in Europe, however, took the notion in their heads that western civilization in Japan was but skin-deep; that Japan was imbued with the spirit of the blood-thirsty Attila, and that the day is not far distant when the warlike Japan shall make fearless soldiers out of the teeming millions of the Chinese, and then direct her barbarous attacks on Europe. Such charges against Japan could hardly have been made but by the foxy diplomats in the intriguing court of Berlin.

Unfortunately, there are many innocent people who seem to have believed such an imputation. Now, she is strengthening her foothold Korea. Now she is warning China with regard to her reformation. Now she is protesting against Russia's occupation of Manchuria: Why all this? Because they think Japan is disposed for war. To clear up the clouds of suspicion, let us give them a fact, and one is enough. That the Government of Japan has never been in the hands of any but the statesmen who were brought up under the influence of what we might call the civilized education, and whose aspiration was to place Japan in a rank equal to that of any power on earth. This answers all requirement to prove that Japan is by no means eager to take the field without grave cause.

Nevertheless, this is not necessarily exclusive. In Russia, there exists a war party; in France the chauvinist; in Germany, a military coterie. So with Japan. Among her citizens there may be found the Japanese Jacobins and reactionists, thirsty for military conquest and fame. But then, the political power of Japan has never been and will never be held by such dangerous characters. It is a pleasant assurance to all who love order and progress that Japan is following in no way the foot-steps of the famous leader of the Huns. That Japan is to form the Pan-Asiatic alliance to face Europe is nothing but the talk of cranks. Why is it some curious person may ask that Japan is anxious to spread her influence over Korea? What is she helping China for? Why does she raise a protest against Russia's not retreating from Manchuria? This is our answer, plain and simple. Because Japan is disirous of becoming a civilized nation in its highest state.

What is meant by a civilized nation? Let us see. A nation whose economic foundation is firm and unshakable; a nation which is as capable of keeping its dignity as an individual of protecting his rights. This is our interpretation of the so-called civilized nation. Today the Empire of Japan has a population of 45,000,000. In other words, she contains 160 people within a square mile. This prodigious population increases annually at the rate of 11 per cent. Sixty-two years hence, the present population of 45,000,000 will reach 90,000,000. Just think of it! It is therefore a matter of necessity for Japan that somewhere, land should be provided for her children, and children's children. Korea and China, being nearer to Japan, afford the natural advantages and answers for this purpose. Japan should carry on her trade with these countries in order to promote her economic state. Japan's wants should be supplied by her neighbors. In turn, Japan will bring with her the arts and virtues of Western civilization. In addition to this, the life and property of the natives in those countries will be protected and be safe under her wings.

As already mentioned above, the Japanese are not a blood-thirsty race. Their economic necessity demands a wider field in Korea and China. That is all. On the other hand, the northern power, stepping into these countries, is trying by hook or by crook to monopolize all economically and politically. Wherever the Japanese go, there may be found order and progress, peace and liberty. But how about the Russians? Wherever they have gone they have taken with them disorder and corruption, crime and cruelty. If we are asked for the proof, we point to those Russians who are at present in Korea and China. Are they not corrupting with bribes the already corrupted people in these two countries? When forty years ago, the victorious troops of the Anglo-French alliance entered into Peking, from which place the awe-stricken Emperor took his flight to Mukden, a golden opportunity came to Russia to put her finger in the pie. She became an arbitrator, for which service she forced China to cede to her a gold slice of land stretching 1,200 miles along the river Amoor. And she got it too. Once again she was looking for such a job. Prior to the outbreak of the North China trouble in 1898, she was scheming a most horrible crime. It is rumored that it was she who whispered to the confidential ear of Tun Fou Chau to do away with the lives of ministers of Japan, England, the United States, Germany and France. But Russia, to her great disappointment, was sold by Tun Fou Chan, this awful "might-have-been" plot was known to more than one diplomatist in Japan. As for the rest, Russia is making careful preparations to play another mischievous political game. She seems never to withdraw her fingers from the throat of China. "Having cried wine, she sell vinegar." Russia's attitude in Manchuria is pretty much the same as this saying. In spite of her promise to evacuate, she continues to occupy. Furthermore, she is enlisting in her military service Chinese outcasts whose business is to plunder the property of the peaceful inhabitants. How long must we shut our eyes and tolerate such a high-handed policy?

We know that Russia is persuading the United States to turn her back on the Anglo-Japanese alliance. We know also that is almost certain that England will not draw her sword in order to settle the Eastern question. Whatever disadvantages Japan may encounter, she, and she alone will be compelled to push into the "last argument." She knows that "war is hell," and, as a matter of course, she desires to avoid it as much as possible. One more thing she knows is this: that Russia feels uneasy at present, being annoyed by the industrial depression at home, and externally by the threatening war in the near East. The time is fast approaching for Japan to play the part of young David against Goliath. When the cool month of the coming October shall have passed what will come—evacuation or war?—the future alone can tell. May the help from on High with which the shepherd boy slew the frightful giant, never be on the side of one who, in the name of the Greek religion, acts only for self—the sea wherein the rivers of virtue lose themselves—but upon the side of those who live and love and labor for the cause of justice, humanity and civilization. NIROKU.

ALASKA DISPUTE.
Evidence in the Boundary Case Completed by Both Sides.
Washington, D. C., July 6.—The counter-cases in the Alaskan boundary matter have been exchanged within the time limit. The counter testimony of the United States was delivered last Friday night to the British Charge of the Embassy at Newport, and at almost the same moment in London the British counter-cases were handed to the American Embassy, so that each side is now ready for the next step, namely, the preparation and submission of the arguments which are to be laid before the Commission in London, September 3d.

The British Government, after a careful examination of the American case submitted two months ago, had expressed a desire to see the originals of the many excellent charts and maps which are the main reliance of the American agents. They include maps that never before have been mentioned in connection with the case, and which the State Department has spent much time and money in securing from the most out-of-the-way places. The Government has acceded to the request. Otis T. Cartwright of Nebraska, who has already been connected with the American side, has been named as assistant agent to assume care of the original maps.

PARKER BUYS BIG TRACT.

Over 100,000 Acres of Pasture Land at Waimea Sold.

Honolulu, July 14.—One of the biggest land transactions of late was recorded at the Land Office this forenoon by A. A. Wilder of the firm of Robertson & Wilder. It was nothing less than the transfer of 95,000 acres of pasture land in Waikoloa, Waimea, Hawaii, in fee simple, to Samuel Parker and Annie T. K. Parker (daughter of John Parker, the deceased eldest son of Samuel Parker) by Lucy K. Peabody, et al. The purchase price was $112,500 and the land conveyed is a nine-tenths interest in which the following share: Lucy K. Peabody, Lucy Henriques and her husband, E. Henriques, Manele Lanuani and C. A. Reeves and wife. The other one-tenth is in dispute but it is presumed that the land belongs to Samuel Parker.

The land which has now passed over into the hands of Samuel Parker and his grand-daughter, has been under lease for many years to the Parker ranch and has been used for the pasturing of the great herds there. It is all good property and the consideration is thought to be a very reasonable one. The land of Waikoloa is directly adjoining the other holdings of the Parker ranch in the District of Waimea.
