ROBINSON OPENS CIRCUIT COURT

Will Risk No Repetition Of Old Term Lapse Question

POINT MIGHT BE TAKEN TO U. S. SUPREME COURT

JANUARY TERM FORMALLY OPENED, BUT NO ATTORNEYS APPEAR ON THE QUIET SCENE.

While work was generally suspended today in the Judiciary building, Judge Robinson made an exception by formally opening the Circuit Court for the January term. He did this to prevent any possibility of the term being declared lapsed because it was not opened on the first day of January, which might have been the case had the opening been postponed until tomorrow on account of the holiday today.

This term lapse question was brought up last term and caused much delay of the work. The September term was opened on September 2, as September 1 was Labor day, which was declared a public holiday, and several attorneys made the claim that the term had lapsed, because the law provided that it should open September 1. Although the Supreme Court finally found the term to be legally in session, Judge Robinson did not want to take any chances.

"I open the term today to prevent the possibility of the term lapse point being carried up to the United States Supreme Court," said Judge Robinson this morning. "Such an appeal might be taken in any case involving more than $5000, or, if a criminal case, one in which the death penalty might be inflicted. Although the local Supreme Court had ruled on the point, holding that the opening of the September term on September 2 was legal, still the Supreme Court in Washington might have a different view on the question, in which case much work and great expense would be wasted, so I am not going to take any risk."

The Court was formally opened at 10 o'clock. All the defendants named in the criminal calendar, who are at present in custody, were present under the protection of Officer George Hubbell, but not an attorney showed up.

Bailiff Clem Quinn impressively knocked three times with his little hammer, and made the formal announcement: "Hear ye, hear ye, hear ye. This honorable Circuit Court, for the January term, 1906, is now in session."

"Any ex parte motions, gentlemen?" asked Judge Robinson, addressing imaginary attorneys.

No answer being given the Court announced an adjournment until tomorrow morning, when the Judge will deliver his charge to the Grand Jury, after which the criminal calendar will be called.

W. W. Harris stated this noon that no word has yet been received from the other islands regarding their selection of members of the Washington delegation.

ORPHEUM BLOCK TO BE RENOVATED

Tomorrow work starts on the complete renovation of the Orpheum building, including stores and the theater.

Saturday afternoon last a contract was signed between Joe Cohen, representing the German Savings and Loan Society of San Francisco, owners, and Lucas Brothers, of this city, contractors, for improvements and renovation of the theater and building.

The present stage, which is wide enough, but lacking in depth, will be increased as to the latter dimension by ten or twelve feet. A new roof will be placed on the structure and practically a new front will appear. The

Hawaii Inspires Play For Local Production

PRETTY LOVE SKETCH OF ALOHA-LAND

For the first time professional actors will produce a drama with the scene set in Hawaii.

Ernest Wilkes of the National Stock company, Richard Buhler's aggregation of talent, has written a one-act play, taking for his plot a Hawaiian theme. Within a few weeks this will be produced, probably for three nights running, at the least, at the Orpheum theater, by the crowd of players which has so pleased Honolulu playgoers the last month or so.

Wilkes' short play is entitled "The Half-White" (hapa-haole) and is sure to catch on.

Later the sketch will be produced on the mainland and thus accomplish some good promotion work for these islands, as it will serve to advertise the fact that Hawaii can inspire plays as well as boast a long list of advantages and delights.

In "The Half-White" a white man marries a beautiful half-white and half-Hawaiian girl, with, of course, the blood of the Kamehamehas coursing through her veins. It is a love match in the midst of their happiness he is suddenly called away to the mainland on important business. On the eve of his departure from Honolulu he asks his "best friend" to look after his little wife during his absence, to keep a brotherly eye on her.

The friend promises and the husband departs. Then the "friend" gets in his fine work and writes to the absent husband to the effect that his wife has been untrue to him. The fool of a hubby believes. Later he hears that his wife is dead. After all this he takes his time about returning to the Hawaiian Islands.

One day, however, years after, he does return and, in the beautiful region of Waikiki, or thereabouts, discovers a young relative making ardent love to an entrancing three-quarter white. He advises the youth to cut it out, telling him his own experience, but, while in the midst of his lecture an incident occurs which reveals to him that the girl to whom the youth

1906 Business Changes

Several business changes take effect with the opening of the new year, most of them anticipated by the Bulletin during the past week or so.

By mutual consent of the members of the partnership of F. A. Schaefer & Co., Herman Focke retired from the business on the last of the year, F. A. Schaefer and W. Lanz now alone constituting the establishment. Focke will travel for a while. The business will be conducted as heretofore.

Pioneer Reduces Dividend

In line with the generally contemplated move to reduce dividends on all sugar stocks because of the present low price of sugar, the Pioneer Mill Company, which has been paying two per cent per month, is paying out its first monthly dividend of 1906 at the rate of one per cent, as of January 2nd.

FRIENDS WORRY OVER YACHTMEN WHO RETURN

Considerable anxiety was felt last night by the friends of Paul Ehlers, E. L. Kruss and Mr. Elicner, who left here early yesterday morning in a yacht. They did not return last night and the people at Pearl City were notified to be on the lookout for the party. Nothing had been seen of the yacht and this morning a number of men in coats went out searching for the three. Jack Young, who was taking a party to the Peninsula, sighted the trio this morning on their way to Honolulu. They arrived late this afternoon, much to the pleasure of their relatives and friends.

MOANA NEW YEAR'S DINNER.
A special menu for a New Year's dinner has been prepared by the Moana hotel for their diners this evening. Several dinner parties have reserved tables and it is probable that many other parties of city people will spend their evening at this popular resort. There will be plenty of music and following the dinner, if it is desired by the guests, there will be dancing.

The schooner Rosamond left Newcastle with coal for Honolulu, December 18. There will be a matinee at the Orpheum at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon: "Why Women Sin." The steamer Ke Au Hou, bound for the windward ports of Kauai, departs tomorrow at 5 p. m. The concert of the Hawaiian band at the Capitol grounds drew a big crowd yesterday afternoon. Book circulation at the library will be suspended for today, but the reading room will be open as usual. Luther Dutot, for ten years with the O. R. & L. Co., leaves in the Alameda for Arizona for the benefit of his health. The last afternoon concert of the year by the Royal Hawaiian Hotel at the Capitol grounds yesterday was largely attended. The Kamehameha Alumni dance at Alumni hall, upper Fort street, Saturday night, was well attended and most enjoyable. The service at the Rapid Transit Men's clubhouse at 10 a. m. yesterday included an address by Mr. Merrill of New York. Division No. 1, Ladies' Auxiliary, Ancient Order of Hibernians, gives a dance this evening at Progress Hall at 8 o'clock. High mass was celebrated at the Catholic church of St. John the Baptist at 8:30 this morning. Father Clement was in charge. Beginning today College Hills residents take Nuuanu valley water from the Government instead of taking water from the Oahu College artesian well. "Peace" was the subject of the 4:30 afternoon meeting in the Y. M. C. A. hall yesterday, all agreeing that the victories of peace are far greater than those of war. J. M. Levy & Co. are selling for a short time only, for purpose of introduction, choice seedless Sultana raisins for 12 1/2c per pound, in bulk. These raisins usually fetch 20c per pound. The following sugar list is reported by the Ke Au Hou from Kauai: K. S. M., 2000; V. N., 700; G. & R., 1070; McBryde, 5000; Koloa, 2150; M. A. K., 5870; L. P., 2395; A. M., 1440; Diamond W., 1400. The ship John Ena, from Philadelphia for Manila, which put into Capt. Town on November 15 with her cargo of coal overboard, has discharged her entire cargo, and will proceed to Hilo in ballast. Some folks still use candles—and a great many folks continue to do things in the hardest ways. Modern candle-burners should try the "wand ad-plicity" of doing things—it reduces perplexities to their simplest terms. An Associated Press report from Victoria, B. C., announces that a contract has been signed for a new monthly steamship service between British Columbia and New Zealand. It is probable the steamers will stop at Honolulu. A union meeting will be held at Oahu prison at 2 p. m. today, conducted by Rev. Mr. Tawing and Mr. Morgan. A feature of the exercises will be the reading of a letter to the prisoners written by the mother of Theodore Richards. "Major" W. E. Kelley, formerly captain of the bark Mohican, is now master of the bark George Curtis, which sailed from San Francisco for Honolulu last week. The death of Captain Calhoun opened the position on the Curtis for Kelley. It is proposed to enlarge the stage of the Orpheum so that the plays presented by the Buhler company may be produced to better advantage. The company may play for a week at the Opera House, returning to the Orpheum when the alterations are completed. The owners of the Norwegian ship Heiga have directed the captain to abandon and terminate the voyage of the ship. The Heiga was previously reported as having put into Sydney while bound from Newcastle, Australia, to Honolulu, totally dismasted. Repairs to the vessel will cost $25,000, not including general average expenses. It was officially announced at the Pacific Mail office that Chief Officer Arthur O'Neill of the Siberia would be in command of the liner on her homeward passage, but that her future commander had not yet been decided upon. It is generally believed, however, that Captain Adrian Zeeder will be given command of the Siberia upon her arrival in San Francisco.—Coast Seamen's Journal. Oahu College will open tomorrow in all departments at 9 o'clock.

Washington, Dec. 15.—It is believed that the ultimate settlement and colonization of Hawaii on American lines can only be secured by the gradual partition of all leasehold lands among settlers, who will grow cane to be sold to central factories, thus changing the present plantation system into that of a mill corporation only, assuring the people the prospect of an independence that may be secured by intelligent labor and effort. It is such a policy that the administration is determined shall go into effect in Hawaii.

CONFERENCE CONCLUDED

BISHOP HAMILTON MAKES 1906 APPOINTMENTS

METHODISTS PASS RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS FOR ALL WHO HELPED DURING SESSIONS. EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Korean Epworth Leagues, at Saturday evening's session of the Methodist Conference, came from Kahuku, Waialua, Ewa and Waipahu and camped on the paragon campus, Honolulu. Korean and Japanese Leagues and the First Church League were represented on the platform with Chairman J. M. Martin. The president of the Korean Epworth League of Ewa said that as a child he was educated in the religion of Korea, but this did not satisfy him. Now he had found "the true way". Here in Honolulu, he said, there was trouble to understand all the different languages, but he hoped some day to be a citizen of the heavenly city where all will understand each other.

Mr. Hong, Korean missionary, said that Korea was in darkness twenty years ago. Now Korea has Christ and international communication.

A lady who has been unable to work for five years gave her testimony of faith and peace, much impressing all present.

Mrs. Eddie Damon gave one of her popular religious short talks, wishing that all those that bear the name of Christ might have the joy and know the peace of Christ.

Bishop Hamilton was the closing speaker of the Saturday evening services. He said, during his talk:

"It is a great privilege to me to attend an Epworth League meeting like this. A meeting where there are Koreans, Chinese, Japanese, Hawaiians, and other races as well as those with which I am more familiar. It makes my heart leap to look into their faces and hear their testimonies and realize their joy in the Christian life.

"What a harvest there is ahead for these islands! What riches we can expect in the years to come. I shall tell the people on the mainland of what a wonderful harvest you are going to get. The peoples of Asia may not stay here long, but they stay long enough to light their torches by your fires and carry them on the mainland. And we are fast coming to the time when there will be no Russians, no Japanese, no Frenchmen, no Americans, no English, no Chinese, no Indians, whether east or west, but one great brotherhood of man, when we shall be one in Christ and with Christ in God."

Yesterday the Conference came to an end. The final session was held in the morning, Bishop Hamilton presiding. The Bishop delivered a sermon, following the singing of "Onward, Christian Soldiers" in three languages at once, taking for his text John 4:22: "For Salvation is of the Jews." He spoke of the discrimination between races and reviewed the history of the Jews.

Rev. S. Mura, who came to the Conference from the Presbyterian Church of Japan, was catechized and recommended to the California Conference for acceptance.

Resolutions were adopted thanking the First Methodist Church of Honolulu and J. M. Martin for the use of the church and the assistance given. The press was thanked for its "unwonted courtesy." The Ladies' Aid Society and the band were also thanked for assistance at the Bishop's reception. The Hawaiian Board also came in for thanks for its "kindly courtesy." The Governor and the Board of Supervisors were not forgotten; they were thanked for having expressed their appreciation of the work of the mission by granting the use of the Hawaiian band. Bishop Hamilton was remembered in the resolutions of appreciation, as were also several individuals figuring in the work of the conference.

Bishop Hamilton in turn expressed his thanks and appreciation and announced his appointments for the ensuing year as follows:

Superintendent of the Hawaiian Mission, John W. Wadman; English work, First M. E. Church, Honolulu, J. W. Wadman; assistant pastor, Miss Alta Morrison; missionary to the Japanese (to be appointed); missionary to the Koreans (to be appointed); Susanna Wesley Home, Miss Theodora Jayne, superintendent; evangelistic work, one lady missionary (to be supplied); Bible woman's work (to be supplied); conference temperance evangelist, John M. Martin.

Japanese Work—Honolulu: River St. S. Yura; King street, G. Motowawa; Aiea, T. Takahashi; Waipahu (to be appointed); Kahuku, E. Tokimasa; Waianae, (to be appointed); Lahaina, S. Fujii; Hana, R. Abe; Kealia and Kapaa (to be appointed); Elele (to be appointed); editor and publisher Hawaiian "Gokyo" G. Motowawa; Japanese night school and gospel society, River street, R. Fukimoto, and King street, Howard M. Chandler. Korean Work—Honolulu, C. H. Yin; Waipahu, Y. C. Kim; Ewa, W. S. Kim; Waianae (to be supplied); Kahuku and Waialua, C. S. Lim; Lahaina and Kaanapali (to be supplied); Spreckelville and Walluku, P. S. Shin; Lihue and Hanalei, S. Hyon; Kilauea and Kealia (to be supplied); Elele and Koloa, K. C. LETTERS FROM STATES

TO SECRETARY WOOD

SHOW INTEREST HERE

"I think the efficiency of each of us will be increased by cooperation," writes R. P. Jennings, of the California Promotion Committee to Secretary H. P. Wood, of the Hawaii Promotion Committee. Further the letter reads as follows: "I shall be glad to hear from you concerning any of your plans that we can work together upon and I am still awaiting details from you in reference to the yacht race."

At a meeting of the Counties Committee in Santa Barbara, which was attended by the Governor of California and many other prominent men, a letter was read from the Hawaii Promotion Committee to the San Francisco organization relative to the cooperation of the two orders in benefiting each other in every way possible.

Another letter showing the work of Secretary Wood and the interest being taken in Honolulu on the mainland is from Corvallis, Oregon. Milton P. Morgan, in the printing business, writes as follows: "Your favor of December 11th inquiring whether I wish further information about Hawaii to hand. No. I believe I have learned enough. I am convinced that as soon as I can sail out here, I think within a year I will visit Honolulu."

Wesley Merritt, industrial commissioner of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway System, writes Secretary Wood as follows: "I have your letter of November 27th and am pleased to hear from you again. Would like to know more about Honolulu and Hawaii, and will be obliged for any literature or descriptive matter you can conveniently furnish. I received the copy of the Paradise of the Pacific which is quite interesting as far as it goes."

OREGON'S NEW SENATOR.

John McDermott Gearin, appointed by Governor George E. Chamberlain to succeed the late John Hippie Mitchell as United States Senator from Oregon, was born August 15, 1851, in a prairie schooner, where the old Oregon immigrant trail crosses the Umatilla river, a point where the town of Pendleton now stands. His parents settled at Champanee, in the Willamette valley. In 1862, at the age of 12, the future Senator was sent to St. Mary's College, San Francisco, where he remained four years, going thence to Notre Dame University, Indiana. He was graduated in 1871.

The next year he entered the legal firm of Dolp & Mitchell, in Portland. About the same time Joseph Simon began reading law with the firm and both were subsequently taken in as partners. This legal firm has now furnished four United States Senators, Joseph N. Dolph, John H. Mitchell, Joseph Simon and John M. Gearin. Gearin is the only Democrat among the four.

In 1874 he was admitted to the bar and the same year witnessed his election to the Legislature. Two years later he became City Attorney, and in 1884 was elected District Attorney. Four years after this he was nominated by the Democrats to run against Blinger Hermann for Congress, but was defeated. When the celebrated opium frauds were unearthed in Portland in the early '90s Gearin was appointed by President Cleveland to act as special prosecutor for the Government.

Gearin is the second man in the history of the State to owe his elevation to the United States Senate to the appointment of a Governor. He is the first Democrat to hold the office in twenty years. Gearin is a man of learning and is regarded as the finest orator of the Oregon bar. He has one brother, Hugh Gearin, who still cultivates the Champanee homestead.

REV. KINGAID TO LEAVE

CENTRAL UNION PASTOR IN ORMS CONGREGATION

MAKES PERSONAL ANNOUNCEMENT FOLLOWING SERMON YESTERDAY—TO RESIGN BY AUGUST.

At the conclusion of his morning sermon yesterday, the Rev. William Morris Kincaid of Central Union Church announced to the congregation his intention to leave for the mainland, retiring from this pastorate, intimating that his resignation would take effect as soon as his successor was chosen and not later than August first of this year.

It had previously been published that Mr. Kincaid would have an announcement of a personal nature to make at the morning gathering in Central Union and the attendance was large.

The personal announcement, given below, followed an earnest exhortation to the church to reach for the best and greatest in all things, to rise to the full measure of its strength, to take, at the beginning of this new year, full advantage of all opportunities to uplift the community. Mr. Kincaid took for his text:

Philippians 3:13—"Brethren, I count myself not to have apprehended; but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the goal for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

In making his announcement Mr. Kincaid spoke in his usual unaffected but effective manner, voicing no criticism, going into no explanation, making a plain, sincere statement, as follows:

"Now, my dear friends, allow me a personal word with reference to my relations to this church. I say it now because when the pastor of a church decides on a certain line of action it is right that he should take the congregation into his confidence.

"For some time past it has been a growing conviction with me that the time was coming for me to go back to the mainland. At the end of the present church year, at the latest, it is my purpose to retire from the pastorate of this church. It has seemed to me but right that I should give you timely notice, so that you may call a new pastor before the beginning of next church year or sooner.

"I wish I had time to dwell on the many kindnesses I have received from this church and its individual members. The seven years I have passed in the pastorate of Central Union Church have been among the pleasantest and most delightful of my life. In the future I shall reflect upon the days that I have spent here with delightful remembrance and I trust that you will have like feelings.

"On coming to Honolulu the one thing I had in view was to bring the people of this community into purer and better relations with the gospel of Christ.

"Of course I have made mistakes, but you know there is one comfort about mistakes. A man often profits more by his mistakes than by his successes.

"There is really nothing for you to set upon regarding our relations except to prepare for the fact that on the first of August I will cease to be your pastor. Let us make these last few weeks, or months, as it may be, the best in the history of the church. Let us not think of things past. Let us press onward to the prize of the goal of the upward calling of God.

"I wish you all this morning a happy new year and pray that it may bring the blessings of peace and love into every home and heart in this congregation."

MANY OF THEM TO YOU

A Very Happy New Year to all mankind. To our Friends because they are deserving and true. To our Enemies, because no man can be genuinely happy when opposing the work for American Standards, recognition of Character, more perfect Justice, and the Right. Here's a New Year's resolution for the Improvement Club—that every party of serenaders shall be worth the price it asks.

REV. DR. KINCAID

The announcement by Rev. W. M. Kincaid that he contemplates returning to the mainland is received with genuine regret by the people of this Territory. Mr. Kincaid is a religious leader of the type that Hawaii needs. He has preached religion, whether it interfered with the daily business method of alleged religious men or not. He has upheld a high standard and allowed no person to influence him into veering the Golden Rule in order that an uneasy conscience may have more peace.

As a pastor and a citizen Mr. Kincaid has been independent, tolerant, sympathetic, never evading the Right as he sees it. Hawaii needs leaders and citizens of this character. Sometimes it seems that it needs them more than any other section of our country. It is not for others, however, to tell a man where his duty lies, and the situation in need of a man usually finds the person for the occasion. Mr. Kincaid has fulfilled that qualification during his residence in these islands. His departure will be gratifying to the evil-minded alone. Honest citizens of Hawaii in his church and out of it have for him best wishes for happiness and signal success in his every undertaking.

STANDARDS FOR THE NEW YEAR

Prof. A. E. Winship, the educational leader, said in one of his recent addresses that our country has been taken up with the Era of Organization, and the Era of Standards is dawning. The spirit of reform spreading throughout the country does much to impress one with the truth of what Prof. Winship says. The record of leading organizers, as it has been slowly but surely exposed, leaves no doubt of the necessity for higher standards.

As a rule, a review of the year just passed and an expression of the hopes for the future begins with a recitation of the material benefits that have been received and closes with those anticipated. This is all very well. The year passed certainly lacks something if it has not been prosperous, and the outlook for the future is not altogether gay if it is lacking in a promise of a fair share of material blessings. At the same time, each and every advantage brought by the hard grind in the mill of dollars and cents is worse than hollow mockery if it does not carry with it a large measure of ideals for the betterment and happiness of mankind,—something in the nature of a higher Standard. Material success is not everything. For nothing is more heartless than the spirit of a financial oligarchy, personified in the misery and selfishness of the miser, who hates everything and would destroy everything that does not feed his insatiable greed. Hawaii has had a most successful year judged from financial standards. It has suffered no disasters. The fruits of its industry have found a market at very satisfactory prices. It has been a good year for Hawaii reckoned in columns of dollars and cents. What of the year judged by American ideals and standards? Much of the sentiment of the financial oligarchy has prevailed, but 1905 recorded a distinct gain in Standards, hard-fought but won in the face of open and secret and vicious opposition as every advance has been since indignantly and liberty were first asserted.

The establishment of local self-government, commonly termed County government, is the great advance step toward American ideals which especially marks the year 1905 for Hawaii. Greed, the spirit of the miser, Greed for power, Greed overcome with fear that a reformation in government might cause the loss of a dollar though it brought the work-a-day citizens great benefits,—all these forces were marshaled against it in an array historically perfect.

The sentiment that a free people have a right to act for themselves in their local affairs carried the day—a result equally in line with historical precedents. The people have found that the acceptance of higher ideals has brought the benefits anticipated. Even in the limited form of self-government with which this Territory started its decentralization, experience of the past few months has proved that more public spirit can be aroused, more real interest taken in public affairs, more accomplished for the people as a whole and in a shorter time. Some complaint has been raised by old-time enemies. The way has not been free from exhibitions of cupidity and lack of high standards among certain citizens and officials. This is true of every event in life, whether it be a departure from old ruts, or meek following of the beaten track of alleged conservatism.

On the whole, on the same basis that the financial and industrial successes of the year have been judged, the response of the people of Hawaii to the American Standard has been highly satisfactory and gratifying. So much so, in fact, that the reactionaries, if any there be, are left without a cause, and, should they aim at retrogression, it must be by means of misrepresentation, manipulation, or other avenues which a man of high American standards and an honest people hate.

The year has been a happy one. People are more disposed to get together for the upbuilding of Hawaii as an American community. They worry less about what the Federal government is not doing for them and are setting to work for themselves—the only American method of accomplishing anything worth while. The tendencies are toward construction and away from destructive complaint. Advancement in personal and public ideals of the year 1905 has been such as to inspire every vigorous-minded person with a determination to couple material success with better moral Standards, and thus during 1906 aid in making Hawaii a loyal American Territory of American citizens with American Standards,—a happier home for its own people and more attractive to those who visit us.

WHY WOMEN SIN TODAY AT THE ORPHEUM

"Why Women Sin," the play which is to be given at the Orpheum tonight, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, through of a somewhat different stamp than "The Queen of the White Slaves," is by no means second to it in dramatic strength and strong situations. mingled with the great psychological question is considerable humor, so that the representation will keep its audience passing from laughter to tears, while the satisfactory climax ending it will bring back the smile again. The play dwells on the temptations of a young woman, neglected by her husband, which are thrown in her path by the villain of the piece, whose base schemes are, however, finally defeated.

1906 BUSINESS CHANGES.

(Continued from Page 1.) reported in the Bulletin, is going out of the merchandise business, to devote entire attention to plantation work, as soon as the merchandise stock is disposed of, no new stock having been taken in for some time.

H. J. Nolte retires from the active management of the restaurant on Fort street he has so long conducted and Herman Kruger is in charge, although Nolte will still be seen on the premises.

The Henry Waterhouse Trust Company, Limited, relinquishes to Mr. Wickett the agency of the New York Life Insurance Company.

George P. Thiele, the stock and bond broker, takes William Williamson into partnership, the firm to be known as Thiele & Williamson.

J. A. M. Johnson, of the J. A. M. Johnson Company, Fort street, National cash registers and office supplies, etc., is soon to depart for Japan to take charge of the National Cash Register people's Oriental business.

McCauley Brothers are soon to start on their new building on the corner of Bethel and King streets, adjoining the postoffice, in which some of the postoffice departments are to be located.

There is talk of the Republican headquarters being moved from over the Hawaiian Trust Company to across Fort street in rooms above the County Treasurer's office.

The Orpheum theater is to be improved, the stage being enlarged, and elsewhere reported.

TO GIVE HONOLULU

The stage improvements will bring the space behind the footlights up to the size of the stage in the Opera House.

While work starts tomorrow morning on the main building, operations on the theater section will not be begun until Monday next.

Next Saturday evening's performance at the Orpheum will be the last before the stage is enlarged.

The work of improvement will occupy about one week, during which time, providing satisfactory arrangements can be made with Wm. G. Irwin & Company, controlling the Opera House, the National Stock Company, Richard Duhler's talented players, will give performances at the Opera House at the same prices that have prevailed at the Orpheum. If satisfactory arrangements cannot be made with the Opera House people, the players will take a week's rest, which, by the way, they will very much appreciate.

The Orpheum block will take on the appearance of a new building when Lucas Brothers are through with it.

NEW YEAR ENJOYED IN VARIOUS WAYS

Festive Citizens Greet Change With Big Racket

MANY ATTRACTIONS FOR HOLIDAY CROWD

SPORTS, SHOWS, DINNERS AND BALLS PRESENT GREAT OPPORTUNITIES FOR ENJOYMENT.

The parting farewell to the old year and the ushering in of the new was done in Honolulu with the usual noise and general venting of a feeling of good cheer. When midnight announced the dividing line between 1905 and 1906 a full toned roar of all kinds of whistles, blasts of whistles, ringing of bells, explosion of fire crackers, firing of guns, etc., etc., broke loose, lasting for some little time. The noise was not confined to the limits of the city alone. In the suburbs, even the most distant ones, such as Kaimuki and Kalihi, numerous festive residents celebrated the occasion by firing guns and giant crackers, awakening the more staid citizens, who had retired long ago, and reminding them of the great change. In the meantime those of a more religious turn of mind seriously observed the event by worship at the midnight mass in the churches.

Very little business was done in the city during the day. The public offices were all closed, with the exception of the federal offices, where accounts were being prepared, and one or two territorial offices where the officials dropped in to attend to a little business for a short time. The business houses were closed, although in some of them the bookkeepers and clerks availed themselves of the opportunity for balancing the books for the past year.

For those who did not have to work all kinds of recreations were provided. Special trains took many to Haliwa, where the golfers crowded the links. Others went to Ewa, where a tennis tournament took place. For the lovers of sports who remain in the city, two baseball games have been provided, both of which take place at the baseball park, one between the Good Eyes and the Unknowns, at 1:30 p. m., the other, between the H. A. C. and Punahou teams, at 2:15 p. m.

Those for whom sports have no attractions have an opportunity to enjoy the Orpheum shows. There will be a matinee this afternoon and the usual performance in the evening. For the gastronomically inclined the hotels offer special dinners, while the society people will have their lolling in the evening at an invitational concert and ball given by the Young hotel.

JAPANESE FOR OLA

Says the Coast Seaman's Journal (S. F.) of December 29, following the Bulletin's exclusive story on the matter: Plans for a large Japanese immigration movement are being arranged at Honolulu as the result of the making of contracts by which the Ola plantation, on the island of Hawaii, is to lease 5000 acres to prospective settlers from Japan. M. Aoki, a member of the Japanese parliament, who has been instrumental in bringing the deal about, will arrive next month to complete the plans. Contracts have been signed which provide that the plantation shall buy the sugar cane to be raised by the Japanese. It is reported that other plantations will make similar arrangements with Japanese, thus attracting thousands of laborers.

The Japanese are celebrating New Year's today and will continue two days more. Today is devoted to the celebration for the men, tomorrow the women will laud and Wednesday the children will commend in honor of the New Year. The farmers and fishermen among the Japanese celebrate the day before the Chinese New Year in January.

CALLED TO CONFER ON EXCLUSION

The general opposition among the Japanese here is that United States Minister to Washington from Japan Takahira, who passed through here on the Manchuria, en route to his home country, and Hawaiian Consul Miki Saito, who went home on the same boat, have been called home for a conference, by the Emperor, in regard to the labor conditions in the United States and the talked-of proposition, which originated on the Coast, to exclude the Japanese from the country.

It is known that on account of the agitation in California fewer Japanese have been arriving at this port, going through or stopping off, than has been the case for some time. The Japanese are very sensitive and it is believed as a result of the conference between the American representatives of the Emperor and himself a decision will be reached as to what action will be taken in case the exclusion idea continues to grow in the States.

There has been talk of Consul Saito not returning to Honolulu but nobody seems to know anything definite about the matter. Before he left Mr. Saito expected to be back within two months, probably the latter part of February. Some time ago a petition was sent to the Emperor by certain local Japanese against the Consul's actions in the immigration bank matter. It is hardly thought probable, however, that he was called to Japan on this account, although it might be taken up after the labor matter has been settled.

SHERIFF BROWN HAS HIS ANNUAL LUAU

Prominent guests at Sheriff Brown's annual New Year's luau to the members of the police department and their friends is going on in the police court room this afternoon. Shortly after noon the guests and about thirty policemen in uniform sat down to the feast. At the head of the table sat Sheriff Brown. To his left were Supervisor Lucas, Judge Thurston of the fire department, A. P. Taylor, H. C. Vida and Frank Andrade. On the opposite side of the sheriff sat George W. Smith, Sam Johnson, W. W. Harris, J. H. Boyd, Dr. Emerson, Harry Simpson, George A. Davis, Harry Murray and B. P. Zablan, in the order named.

The room was tastefully decorated with the different flags, flowers and ferns. After the first set of policemen finished their meal they will relieve the other watch on duty. This has been so arranged that all members of the force, foot patrolmen, the mounted police, clerks, and patrol wagon drivers will all get their share of the Sheriff's annual luau, and not leave the city without police protection at any time.

"They also serve who only stand and wait," once forceful, now is slightly out of date: these strenuous days demand a livelier trick, they also serve who only stand and kick.

A discussion was going on along the waterfront (discussions were the only things doing) this morning whether sharks would tackle a live man in the water. The talkers were about equally divided and no decision was reached except that each man who had been opposed in his views figured it out that the other fellow was a fool. Some declared a shark would not attack a live man in mid-ocean or anywhere else. The other side argued that the shark would grab a live man as quick or sooner than he would a dead body. The argument will be continued again the next dull day on the front. Col. Sam Parker is entertaining a party of Honolulu people at his Peninsula home today.

AGRESS ORGANIZES THE WORKISE

Miss Lillian Heyward, leading lady with the National Stock Company, now playing in Honolulu at the Orpheum, is the originator of what is known as the Workise Society. Despite her occupation, Miss Heyward has a sense of humor and, perhaps, a sense of the fitness of things.

For the guidance of her fellow Workises, or anybody else for that matter, the following has been prepared by the actress:

"Workists are people who believe that everything can be accomplished by those who labor while they wait. Here are the articles of faith:

"Now, therefore, abide talent, ambition and work, but the greatest of these is work.

"For though ye have talent the stage director may not recognize it; and though ye have ambition, it may be discouraged by forty weeks of one-night stands; but if ye be a Workist, then shall ye overcome all these things and star on Broadway.

"Verily, I say unto thee, though thou hast the figure of Lillian Russell and the voice of Adeline Patil, and be not a Workist, it shall avail thee nothing.

"And though thou hast made a ten-strike with the manager and had thy salary boosted even unto the point where thou dost eat thrice daily, and still be not a Workist, the day of thy downfall is at hand.

"For though there be managers, they shall fall; and though there be long stock engagements, they shall pass away; and thy stand-in with the management and thy meal ticket shall alike come to an end and vanish.

"But if thou art a Workist, then shall all the swift runners from the skindivane come unto thee, and bowing at thy feet, and placing before thee wonderful and lucrative contracts, shall beseech thee, saying: 'Come with us, and we will do thee good.'

"And if it be some managers of whom we wot, they will do thee good and proper. These thou must put aside, saying: 'Nay, nay, Pauline, I never knew thee and I cannot bear thy voice.'

"But then turn thou to the good and righteous manager, who, knowing that thou art a Workist, will send unto thee his agents, his stage directors and his office boys, all carrying costly presents, gold and silver and precious stones. Laying them at thy feet, they will cry out in a loud voice with one accord:

"Behold, our master has sent us with these (prop.) treasures, and has commanded us, upon pain of death, to return not, neither to sleep nor eat, until thou hast signed this contract. For he knoweth that thou art a Workist. Nuf sed."

"And then thou, being a Workist and proud, shall make them return unto their master and boost the salary to five thousand talents a week and no matinee, and then thou shalt accept.

"But not in haste and not too eagerly, but with all dignity.

"For being a Workist, thou hast reached the top of the ladder and fame is thine."

WILL INVESTIGATE HILO JAIL SCANDALS

"Are you to change any officials of Hilo prison on account of the charges made against them by the Grand Jury?" asked a reporter of High Sheriff Henry this forenoon.

"Certainly not at present," answered the High Sheriff. "The Grand Jury only hears one side of the story, and the other side has not been heard yet. I have received three or four letters from Hilo denying the charges made by the Grand Jury. We all know Jailor Mabey. He is a good, faithful and honest man. I shall probably take a trip to Hilo to investigate the matter."

WATER FRONT OBSERVES FIRST DAY OF 1906

The waterfront was practically closed down today in observing the first day of the New Year. The only activity was the operation of the dredger Pacific and at the naval wharf, where Lord & Belsler, who are behind in their contract with the government, are endeavoring to finish the job as soon as possible. The marine railway was not running.

The inter-island wharves were locked up and nobody but the watchmen and an occasional sailor moved about. Not a steamer or sailing vessel arrived or departed during the day. The railroad wharves were shut and nobody was at work. The Alameda lay quietly at the Oceanic wharf with nothing doing either on board or on the landing. The collier Dix was not discharging coal at the naval wharf, and everywhere along the front the crews of the different steamers and sailing vessels were loafing about the boats and enjoying the start of 1906.

DEPARTMENT HELPS THOSE WHO HELPS THEMSELVES

"Some teachers want the Department to furnish a package of nails and a hammer, if they have to drive a nail into a school fence," said Superintendent of Public Instruction Rabbitt this morning. "Others go ahead and do things. I have received a letter from a teacher who belongs to the latter class. Here it is:

Waihoa, Maui, Dec. 27, '05.
W. H. Babbitt, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Honolulu.

Dear Mr. Babbitt:—I hand you here-with the report of the Kealahou school for the term ending December 23, 1905.

"Owing to lack of material we have accomplished but very little in manual work, but the boys have done other work which deserves to be mentioned. They have painted the roofs of the school house and the cottage, whitewashed the board fences, repaired the stone fences, and other such work to beautify the school premises. The carpentry class have done some repairs on the cottage.

As the teachers have been requested to be conservative in their requests for material I have hesitated to ask the department to furnish me with material for manual work, but if you can possibly furnish me ten or fifteen dollars worth of manual kindly inform me and I shall write the list and forward it to you.

Respectfully yours,
J. VINCENT.

"The Department helps those who help themselves," said Rabbitt. "You can state that, Vincent will be given the material he asks for."

H. Uila and Waimanalo school reports have not as yet been received.

Manager Gray has issued invitations for a New Year's concert and dance to be given this evening at the Young hotel. The concert is from 7:30 to 9:30, after which the dancing will begin. This is strictly an invitation affair and it will be necessary to present cards at the door.

The steamer Ke Au Hou from Kauai ports only brought 1170 bags of sugar Sunday morning owing to the fact of a break down of the machinery at the Kilauea plantation.

The barkentine Coronado, that left yesterday for San Francisco, was the last vessel of the year to depart from this port. She took 18,097 bags of sugar.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Neatly furnished rooms at the Popular, $1, $1.50 and $2 per week. 1113 Fort street.

Camera views, Paradise of the Pacific, on sale at all news dealers and curio stores.

The steamer Ke Au Hou arrived from Kauai early Sunday morning with 1700 bags of sugar.

The bark Nuuuanu and the barkentine Fullerton, dressed ship today in honor of the New Year.

The steamer Kaula, arriving yesterday morning, brought 70 head of cattle from Kawaihae.

Business for the harbor boatmen is pretty dull since the cable repair ship Restorer went away.

Two sailors swam from the revenue cutter to the boatmen's wharf this morning and back again.

The Elks will hold a social session in their club rooms Friday evening for members and their friends.

The Alameda, leaving Wednesday, will take bananas, coffee, rice and a general cargo for the Coast.

The schooner Robert Lewers arrived yesterday with lumber from the Sound. She was thirty days making the trip.

The steamer J. A. Cummins brought in 1000 bags of Waimanalo sugar Saturday night. It was loaded onto the barkentine Coronado.

The dredger Pacific and Lord & Belsler's machine were working today in the harbor. The former is digging at the foot of Fort street.

A bigger, better house than you live in, and a small rent saving—sounds fanciful? Watch the Bulletin rental ads, and investigate a few!

The bark Nuuuanu goes to Hilo within a few days, where she will finish taking on her full cargo of sugar. From Hilo she will sail for New York.

The man can't look an "Arab" coated iron roof in the face. The cooling properties of the compound are marvellous. California Feed Co., agents.

The steamer Nooka got in yesterday morning from Hawaii ports, bringing 35 head of cattle, 50 bags of coffee, 2 crates chickens, and 10 packages sundries.

Oswald Mayall, charged with a violation of the Edmunds Act, was committed by U. S. Commissioner Malins last Saturday. Defendant offered no evidence.

The bark Coronado left yesterday afternoon for San Francisco with sugar. She was here just six days and discharged her cargo and filled up with nearly a full load of sugar.

Mrs. Goodrich, wife of Rear Admiral Goodrich of the Pacific squadron, accompanied by her daughter, will leave for the Coast on the Siberia. They have been here nearly a month.

O. Mayall, who was committed last Saturday for a violation of the Edmunds Act, was released from custody yesterday upon furnishing a $1000 bond with the Henry Waterhouse Trust Co. as surety.

A Chinaman walked into a drug store the other day and with his arms crossed on his breast said to the clerk, "Wante alle samee this." He was after poison and his arms represented the crossbones on the poison labels.

No pardons, paroles or commutations of sentences were given out at the Hawaii prison, as no action has yet been taken on several applications recently filed. It is probable that some of these will be granted in the near future.

Mrs. Judge Shea, Miss Shea, of New York, and Archdeacon Jeffries, leave for the Siberia for the mainland. They have been here more than two months. From San Francisco the party will continue on to the eastern states, completing a tour of the world.

George A. Brown and wife returned Saturday from a visit to the volcano. They are stopping at the Hawaiian Hotel. Mr. Brown is a well known San Francisco real estate man. He and Mrs. Brown have been on their honeymoon. They leave for the mainland this week.

Edwin D. Whitney, advertising man for the Michigan Central, who is writing up Hawaii, accompanied by his family, leaves on the Alameda for his home in Chicago. Mr. Whitney has hopes of again visiting Honolulu some time and taking in the Volcano and the other islands.

William Hannigan, who was chief steward of the transport Thomas last voyage, has been ordered back to the Sheridan. Chief Steward Peterson, who was on the Burnside for a long time, has been appointed to the Thomas. H. Fraser, who has been in the service since 1895, will go out again as second steward.

The first arrest of 1906 made by the police was Ben Dunfus, who had imbibed too freely and who had no idea of ever landing in the police station as a result of his celebration. He was taken in at 8:20 this morning. Yoshida, a Japanese, was the last person to be arrested last year. He was taken in at 11:25 yesterday afternoon.

The last dance of the year was given in Progress Hall Saturday evening by Oahu Canton No. 1. The dancers filled the hall by 8 o'clock and from that time until midnight everyone seemed to be making the most of the old year's end. The pavilion was prettily decorated with flags and plants and flowers. Ellis' quietest club supplied the music.

WORK AS A BLUFF AND SELL GOODS

Many of the Chinese employed on the through ocean liners from the Orient to San Francisco that touch at Honolulu work as a bluff. They make their wages many times over by selling cigars and silk goods brought with them from China. These goods are sold to the passengers who buy a suit or two of pajamas or some other silk article and generally get through the custom house inspection without detection.

The custom officials are aware of this fact, but it is a hard matter to prove that a person has purchased some of his wearing apparel from the Chinese on the ship upon which no duty has been paid. And the Orientals are particular to whom they sell. Before they will dispose of any article upon which duty is due the purchaser will have to produce pretty good evidence that he is not a government agent.

Many of the other Chinese who do not engage in this business make handsome salaries, or rather "rake-offs" each trip by running different kinds of gambling games. These games of chance are indulged in by the cabin passengers as well as the Chinese in the steerage, who do a great deal of playing when returning to China from the Coast. But a wise guy on the Siberia between here and San Francisco when the ship was en route to the Orient in November played a system, so it is said, and broke the Chinese fan tan bank, winning something like $90. It is reported that the gamblers got their $90 back before Yokohama was reached and in addition a goodly sum of the cabin passenger's own money.

CHRISTMAS AT MCBRYDE

(Special to The Bulletin) Wahaiwa, Kauai, Dec. 28.—Quite ahead of time the employees of the McBryde plantation celebrated Christmas in a befitting style at the Lawai beach house. The music was furnished by Professor Rochfort's quartet. Kaula, the largest of the engines, brought most of the entertainers to the top of the promontory west of Lawai, from whence a procession led all to be surprised by the stream having eaten away the sand bank. Here two or three of the party safely carried their companions across the dashing stream.

After the usual greetings the crowd soon settled down to dancing and other merry makings. A short intermission was had towards the disappearing of the largest hour of the evening, during which choice ice creams and tempting viands were served. The night was so refreshing that the dances brought forth a loaded floor every time. Among those entertained were Manager and Mrs. Wm. Stodart, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Moler, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Jaeger, Mr. and Mrs. Kruse, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Silva, Mr. and Mrs. D. Roder, Mr. and Mrs. Zoller, Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Kinney, Mrs. Duncan, the Misses—Lina, Dunn, Mabel and May Hastie, Dora Kruse and the Messrs. W. D. McBryde, J. Grace, L. Weinsheimer, Geo. Collet, Geo. Cannon, J. F. McKechnie, Doc, Donald, Wm. Hastie, J. Kamanuau, D. Glass, Arbrej, J. Smith, J. Nevin, Chas. Wilcox, Rurick and Hutton.

LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

W. L. Peterson has filed motion to quash service of summons in the suit to abate nuisance instituted by the Territory against him and others interested in the old Camarinos corner on Alakea street, on the grounds that the summons served on him was not signed. All the defendants demur on the grounds that the court has no jurisdiction to destroy the buildings or compel the occupants to move out, and that the building permit statute is unconstitutional and does not apply.

DIED.

WILLARD—In this city, December 30, 1905, Miss Jewell Willard, 35 years of age.

Soo Canal tonnage this season up to November 1 was 37,993,650. This beats the previous record-breaking full season, 1902, by 2,022,000 tons. At this rate the full season this year will come very near 44,000,000 tons, or 8,000,000 tons more than 1902.

LEAHI INSTALLATION ENDS SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Leahi Chapter No. 2, O. E. S., closed a very successful year Saturday evening. Past officers' jewels were presented to the retiring Matron and Patron. Retiring Patron E. C. Brown was toastmaster during the banquet. Speeches were made by the Worthy Matron, Mary E. Brown, P. W. M. Sallie L. Williams, Brother Wilkinson, Brother Rideout of Olive Branch Chapter, San Francisco, and Sister Moore, Associate Matron of Lei Aloha Chapter No. 3, of Honolulu. Music was furnished by the Ellis Quartet Club.

P. W. P. Clarence L. Crabbe installed the following named officers: Worthy Matron, Mary E. Brown; Worthy Patron, Ray B. Reedy; Associate Matron, Alice G. Herrick; Secretary, Emma L. R. Crabbe; Treasurer, Amelia L. Reedy; Conductress, Clara M. Schmidt; Associate Conductress, Elizabeth Auerbach; Chaplain, Henry H. Williams; Marshal, May E. Hennings; Organist, Harriet C. Evans; Adah, Emma A. Able; Ruth, Elva B. Evans; Esther, Nellie J. Stephens; Martha, Carrie B. Riley; Eleuca, Ada A. Sharp; Warden, Annie S. Wright; Sentinel, Joshua D. Tucker.

CHRISTMAS AT HANAIEI

(Special to The Bulletin) Hanaiei, Kauai, Dec. 28.—The people of Hanaiei and Wainiha celebrated Christmas together at the Deverill's in Hanaiei. The decorations at the Deverill's homestead which were under the supervision of the Misses Baldrich, Lena and Florence Deverill and Mr. Vanhuizen, were exceedingly pretentious and artistic. The Christmas dinner under the supervision of Mrs. S. B. Deverill was the feature of the day and proved to be a great success.

A Christmas tree decorated by all hands proved to be the best thing of the day and W. E. Rowell, who impersonated Santa Claus, was a howling success. After all the presents were distributed the rest of the evening was spent in various kinds of parlor games until quite late, when those living afar thought it best to wend their way home. Those who participated in the celebration were: Mrs. C. Makee, H. Birkenmyre, L. B. Deverill, the Misses B. Aldrich, Florence and Lena Deverill and the Messrs. W. E. Rowell, C. B. Makee, H. Birmyre, W. F. Sanborn, Vanhuizen, A. M. Boyle and E. G. K. Deverill.

C. V. E. Dove, the civil engineer at Wainiha, who has been to Honolulu to spend his Christmas, returned to Wainiha on the 25th by the Ke Au Hou. Allan Jaeger of Wainiha, who also has been to town for his Christmas, returned to Wainiha by the Ke Au Hou. J. A. Palmer of Lihue, administrator for the estate of H. H. Willis, was in Hanaiei the last two days taking stock of all Willis's effects. He returns to Lihue on the 27th.

Mr. White of Wainiha the other day had some difference with a native carpenter working under him and during the argument he struck and whipped the native. The native after the thrashing had Mr. White arrested in the District Court in Hanaiei. Mr. White was fined $50 and costs.

Weather in Hanaiei wet and cold.

ANDREWS MAKES ANSWER.

Former Attorney General Lorin Andrews, writing from Shanghai, says: "I was certainly made when I saw the accounts of the accusations against me. To my mind the proposition is ridiculous. If I were in the stealing business it is probable I would have taken or even have discussed the matter of stealing $200 from a Japanese? For awhile I wished for an Aladdin's lamp that would bring me back to Honolulu immediately, but this feeling passed off when I remembered the number of real friends I had who would simply laugh at the story. The cowards or coward who attacked me as soon as I had left never had nerve enough to do so while I was in Honolulu, but my address is known and they can have me to give my testimony any time they want it."

K. OF P. OFFICERS ELECTED.

The William McKinley Lodge of the Knights of Pythias last night elected the following officers, who will be installed next Saturday evening: Chancellor Commander, M. M. Johnson; Vice Chancellor, F. M. McGrew; Prelate, W. F. Frazer; Master of Work, A. G. Ferguson; Keeper of the Record and Seal, E. A. Jacobsen; Master of Finance, F. G. Noyes; Master of the Exchequer, H. Bicknell; Master of Arms, W. G. White; Inner Guard, W. J. Coon; Outer Guard, C. J. Carlson; Trustee, E. Farmer.

BAD LUCK ON 13TH TRIP

SIBERIA'S LAST VOYAGE UNUSUALLY UNFORTUNATE

LATE CAPTAIN SMITH EXPLAINED HOW A DAY IS LOST WHEN CROSSING THE 180TH MERIDIAN.

When the P. M. S. S. Siberia touched at Honolulu en route to the Orient November 10th she was making her thirteenth voyage. When leaving this port one of her propellers became entangled with the chain of a buoy in the harbor. She was delayed seven hours. Between San Francisco and Honolulu a China man died, and during the trip from here to Yokohama a sick Japanese did not survive and was buried at sea.

After the arrival of the Siberia at Hongkong her commander, Captain J. T. Smith, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. Later there was a fire in the ship's hold which did a good deal of damage. The Siberia is due here again from Yokohama next Friday. Captain Smith's body is supposed to be aboard, being taken to San Francisco for interment.

During his last trip from Honolulu to Yokohama the late Captain Smith wrote the following explanation for the editor of the Atchison Globe, a passenger, of how a day is lost when a ship crosses the 180th meridian:

Wednesday, November 15.

"Explanatory of the consequences of crossing the 180th meridian, by Captain J. Tremaine Smith, S. S. Siberia; which is sometimes called the primer, or first meridian—longitude, 0. Places on the earth are either behind or ahead of Greenwich time, according as they are in east or west longitude. For example, when it is noon at Greenwich, it is 7 a. m. in New York the same day. New York is in 75 west, and as each 15 degrees of longitude is one hour of time, New York is therefore five hours behind Greenwich. When it is 8 a. m. in San Francisco, it is 4 p. m. in Greenwich of the same day. San Francisco is 120 degrees west from Greenwich, or eight hours of time later, of course. Places east of Greenwich have their time earlier by the difference of longitude, or the distance from Greenwich. Example: Manila is in longitude 129 degrees from Greenwich, or eight hours of time; therefore when it is 4 p. m. in Manila, it is 8 a. m. of the same day in Greenwich. In Japan, standard time is reckoned from the 135th meridian, or 9 hours ahead of Greenwich time. Noon at any place on the earth is marked by the advent of the sun across the meridian of that place. If the traveler is sailing from east to west, or from San Francisco towards Japan, and say, around the world on the same westerly course, he and the sun are moving in the same direction, and the instant the sun arrives at his meridian, it must be past noon at the place he left yesterday, and is not yet noon at the place he hopes to reach tomorrow.

The opposite could hold, of course, if he is going eastward around the world; or, instead of the sun overtaking him, as it did in going westward, he now advances to meet the sun, and therefore shortens his day by the length of his distance made each day, instead of lengthening it; or his day will probably be 23 1/2 hours, instead of 24 1/2 hours. By the time the traveler has reached the meridian of 180 degrees, going westward, he has lengthened his life by 12 hours of time, and if he continues to travel in the same direction until he reaches Greenwich (from which all time is reckoned) he will have added 24 hours to his life probably without being conscious of the fact. If traveling in the opposite direction (eastward), he will have shortened his life by the same time, but instead of dropping a day, as we have done here, he adds a day at the 180th meridian and even up what he had lost on the journey. To put the problem more plainly: Suppose two men, A and B, started on the same instant on a journey around the world, the first going east, and the other west, neither making any alteration in their date from the time of starting until their return together on the same day. This is what would happen: A would believe that he had arrived say on Sunday, while B would persist in the belief that it was Friday. There would be a difference of two whole days in their reckoning; but no one would seriously entertain the idea that on this account A had lived forty-eight hours longer than B. The actual day of the week would of course be Saturday, and the actual time consumed by each on the journey would be precisely the same. A going west, should have dropped a day; B going east, should have added a day."

"I inspected the new army post near Honolulu and found it to be in first-class condition. I did not inspect the defenses of Honolulu, as that is not in my province. I was well satisfied with the condition of affairs from an army standpoint in the Hawaiian Islands."

Franklin—"What did that Kentucky Colonel say when he saw the ocean for the first time?" Penn—"He said it was very evident that the gentlemen in the East didn't use water for a chaser."

You never find the man who knows it all working in an information bureau.

Don't neglect your cough. Stop it at once and drive away all thought of consumption. Begin as early as possible—the sooner the better—to take the most effective remedy for coughs and colds of every kind and in every stage.

One of the most annoying coughs is a throat cough, where you have that constant tickling in your throat. It comes on worse at night, keeps you awake, and makes you have that smothered feeling in the chest. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral quiets the cough, makes breathing easy, and heals the lungs. There is no other remedy so surely to be relied on.

There are many substitutes and imitations. Beware of them and of so-called "Genuine Ayer's Pectoral." Be sure you get AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

Put up in large and small bottles.

LARSEN QUIT DRINKING

Fred. Larsen, the waterfront policeman, has not touched a drop of liquor for more than fifteen years. Larsen used to be a sailor and, like others of the following, after a long voyage at sea, "took a few" now and then when he got into port. Larsen never took the gold cure—it happened to be the "gasoline cure"—and guaranteed.

Together with a fellow sailor just before he quit drinking for good, Larsen had been ashore at San Pedro. They had had a good time together and had returned to the ship after dark. Comfortably seated on a tank full of gasoline—which happened to be open—they were relating their experiences, planning the future, and talking over their travels of that day and years before.

Suddenly there was an awful explosion and Larsen never saw his shipmate afterward. The other sailor had attempted to look into the gasoline tank, using a match for light, and the concussion followed. The vessel was destroyed and Larsen was thrown high into the air, fortunately landing on the wharf. The man who had used his match so carelessly also fell on the wharf.

Larsen was picked up unconscious and more dead than alive. For eight months he lay in a hospital and finally after careful treatment was restored to his former good condition. The explosion only lasted a fraction of a second, but during that short space of time Larsen learned a lesson he has never forgotten—he decided that it would be best to let whisky alone, and his decision has lasted all these fifteen years. He never saw the other fellow again and does not care if he never sees him.

HILO SCHOOL LOT

Hilo, Dec. 26.—Governor Carter's visit to Hilo accomplished its purpose, and all opposition to the Carter program was immediately "Roosevelted." The Governor hurled the barriers placed in the way by Secretary "Jack" committing the government to reserve Block C for Federal purposes, and has declared that the prospects of a government building for Hilo are so rosy that a new population will be springing up whose desires for Federal improvements may not be so strong as our present voters.

Met at the fish landing on Waikoa river by a committee consisting of John Moir, the Governor was escorted with as little demonstration as it is possible to conceive to the latter's residence at Onomea plantation, in which the Executive holds a large interest.

He came and went unheralded, and few citizens were aware of the Executive's presence in our midst. However, he summoned the leaders of the Masonic Hall Association and made known to them his decision after careful consideration, to accept the offer of exchange of the Masonic lot for a portion of Lot C. The Masons ask for lot having a frontage of seventy-five feet on Waiuanu street and one hundred feet on Bridge street, at a valuation fixed by the Governor of ninety cents per square foot. This means that the lot is valued at $6,750.

In exchange for this lot, the Masonic Hall Association propose to give title to two lots on upper Waiuanu street. These are the Hitchcock and Masonic lots, valued respectively at $1,500 and $5,000. The balance will have to be paid in cash. The Association agree to put up a substantial Masonic Hall on the newly acquired land at a cost of not less than $15,000 within eighteen months from July first next.

The arrangements were eminently satisfactory to the Governor, and after securing the agreement from the Masons in writing, he gave instructions to Engineer Gere to advertise for the removal of the Riverside School to the new school lots. It is hoped the school building can be removed during the holidays and not disturb the daily attendance of pupils. As soon as the specifications are drawn up for the High School, contracts will be let for the construction of that building on the Riverside lot.

"Why don't you go to work?" demanded the housekeeper. "Well, yer see," began the grey-haired old loafer, "I got a wife and 'rree children to support—" "But if you don't work how can you support—" "As I wuz sayin', lady, I got a wife an' 'rree

WAILUKU SCHOOL WORK

(Special to The Bulletin)

Wailuku, Maui, Dec. 29.—The pupils of the Wailuku High School gave a very successful entertainment at their school last Friday evening which was very largely attended by the friends and patrons of the school. The entertainment consisted of recitations, singing, dialogues, tableaux, etc., given by the pupils in all grades. Principal C. E. Copeland and his able corps of assistants have every reason to be proud of their pupils, who by the very manner they acted their various parts, showed the most careful attention of their teachers. The Wailuku school is beginning to be what it ought to be, and if it keeps on at this rate, it will sur- rank as one of the leading educational institutions in this Territory. What is needed in this school as well as other schools in Central Maui, is a capable music teacher, the same as in Honolulu.

WANT FATHER JULIAN

(Special to The Bulletin)

Wailuku, Maui, Dec. 29.—A large petition, signed by the members of the Roman Catholic Church in Wailuku and the friends of Rev. Father Julian, was sent to His Lordship Bishop L'Herbert this week, praying that Father Julian be retained here instead of being dispatched to Kau. The quick reply was wired this afternoon from Honolulu, demanding that the Reverend Father leave at once for Wailuku, for which port he will leave this evening by the steamer Mauna Loa, leaving behind a host of friends and parishioners who greatly regret his departure.

Collar That Dog

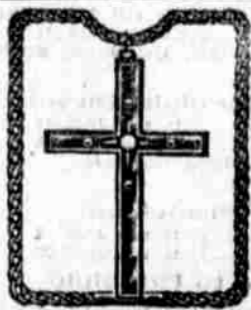

The law requires that you pay a tax on your dog and that the registry number be worn on the collar, and if you do not attend to this little matter the dog catcher will give your pet a ride in his wagon and there will soon be no more "dog days" for that pup.

When you pay your tax it should mean a new Collar, for any good dog is worth one new collar a year. We have a large stock of Collars and can fit your dog and your purse at the same time. We also have collar Locks, Chains, Dog Biscuit, and a full line of Glovers Dog Remedies.

DIVING BOY TELLS TRICKS OF THE TRADE

Travelers Never Forget First Sight Of Natives

ONE ATTRACTION OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

YOUTH SAYS FEAT IS EASY—THE ARMY OFFICERS ON TRANSPORTS THE BEST DIVING

The Hawaiian diving boys, a sight always remembered by tourists whether they stop off here or go on through either to the Colonies or the Orient, are always having their troubles. If the water isn't so muddy that the necks, dimes or 25-cent pieces cannot be seen when thrown to them in the harbor, it is something else.

Lack of appreciation of their wonderful swimming and diving powers by the on-lookers is another fault they have to find. And then some times the boats do not come into the harbor, or on the ones that do there is occasionally a light passenger list. When business is good and the water clear the boys frequently collect by diving in the neighborhood of from 50 cents up to as high as $1.50 each.

The boys say the army transports arriving from the Coast are usually the best paying steamers that touch at Honolulu. The officers, the youths declare, are usually liberal and hardy ever fool them by tossing pennies or slugs of some kind into the water for the fun of the performance. The public would be surprised, the boys say, if it knew how many old pieces of lead and slugs resembling coins are thrown to them by people in the cabins of the big ships and how much of the nickel to let loose of it. On the other hand there is nearly always the liberal soul who frequently parts with one or two dollars in change himself.

The denominations of the money heaved into the water vary. Some times when a vessel is coming in nearly every throw will be a five-cent piece. Now and then quarters are thrown and not so frequent half dollars. Once in a great while a commotion is caused among the native divers by the sight of a silver dollar splashing the water and then sinking out of sight. Then it is when they all turn upside down and disappear in a hurry. When the So-mo-mo was here on her last trip the water was very bad, for the boys, and they figure that they lost about $5. The harbor was particularly muddy at the time.

Joe Riney, one of the divers, 14 years old, has been in the business—it is really a business with him as he makes all steamers as regularly as the stevedores—for four years and never misses a passenger boat that arrives during the day time.

"They tell me the haoles think our diving after money and getting it is a wonderful trick and must take long experience for perfection," says Joe Riney, he being educated in the Honolulu public schools. "Well, it isn't, although I don't want to give the profession a knock. Neither do I want to encourage competition, but this money letting under water is easy, dead easy, I tell you." Riney was perched up on the top of a pile of boxes and was waiting for a steamer that was slowly coming in through the channel. He had nothing on but a wise look—and a piece of cloth about as big as an ordinary handkerchief. He was answering a Bulletin reporter's questions and explaining the different tricks of the trade. But of course not for publication. And above everything else he was not to be quoted.

"How do we see the money under the water? Go'n, quit your kiddin'. How do you suppose? Why, we open our eyes. When the water is clear getting a hold of the coin after it gets under is the easiest part of the feat—the hard part is to get the money from the pockets of the passengers.

"Did you ever see money under water? Of course you haven't, but it doesn't sink rapidly as the people think. Instead it goes down slowly, in a sort of a zig-zag course, first one way and then another. First we watch to see the coin leave the hand of the donor. Then we watch it and know where it will hit the water. Immediately we get under and peel our lamps. And somewhere near the silver will be sighted—if some competitor hasn't already got his coin-books on it.

"Sometimes we are compelled to go below the money and get between it and the surface. With good light and

HAWAII INSPIRES PLAY

(Continued from Page 1.) is making love to his own daughter and that his wife is alive and has remained ever true to him. And there you are. A pretty play that all will enjoy. Hawaiian songs and scenes add to the charm of the dainty production and it is bound to be a great success. It is a scene that could be laid anywhere in the wide world, but being laid in Hawaii, is rendered that much more entrancing. Joe Cohen, the Hawaiian Belasco, will father the production.

Several hundred people from here spent yesterday and today in the vicinity of the Peninsula. Several parties went down this morning in yachts and launches.

"But, Joe," inquired the reporter, "how in the world do you—" There was a splash in the water and the top of the pile was vacant of the little bare piece of humanity. The steamer was within a hundred yards of the wharf and Joe Riney was, with eight or ten others, barking like a savage, a thing that helps make the tourists part with their small change.

The swimming-diving-barking almost black-brown boy is something that impresses every traveler and compels him to begin to wonder what kind of a country this is anyway. And they all remember the diving boys with fond recollections as one of the first and most interesting sights of Hawaii and its natives.
