WHAT IS THIS DISEASE THAT IS COMING UPON US?

Like a thief at night it steals in upon us unawares. Many persons have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back. They feel dull and sleepy; the mouth has a bad taste, especially in the morning. A sort of sticky slime collects about the teeth. The appetite is poor. There is a feeling like a heavy load on the stomach; sometimes a faint all-gone sensation at the pit of the stomach which food does not satisfy. The eyes are sunken, the hands and feet become cold and feel clammy. After a while a cough sets in at first dry, but after a few months it is attended with a greenish coloured expectoration. The afflicted one feels tired all the while, and sleep does not seem to afford any rest. After a time he becomes nervous, irritable, and gloomy, and has evil forebodings. There is a giddiness, a sort of whirling sensation in the head when rising up suddenly. The bowels become constive; the skin is dry and hot at times; the blood becomes thick and stagnant; the whites of the eyes become tinged with yellow, the urine is scanty and high-coloured, depositing a sediment after standing. There is frequently a spitting up of the food, sometimes with a sour taste, and sometimes with a sweetish taste; this is frequently attended with palpitation of the heart; the vision becomes impaired, with spots before the eyes; there is a feeling of great prostration and weakness. All of these symptoms are in turn present. It is thought that nearly one-third of our population has this disease in some of its varied forms. It has been found that medical men have mistaken the nature of this disease. Some have treated it for a liver complaint, others for kidney disease, etc., but none of the various kinds of treatment have been attended with success, because the remedy should be such as to act harmoniously upon each one of these organs, and upon the stomach as well; for in dyspepsia (for this is really what the disease is) all of these organs partake of this disease and require a remedy that will act upon all at the same time. Seigel's Curative Syrup acts like a charm in this class of complaints, giving almost immediate relief. The following letters from chemists of standing in the community where they live show in what estimation the article is held.

John Archer, Harthill, near Sheffield:—I can confidently recommend it to all who may be suffering from liver or stomach complaints, having the testimony of my customers, who have derived great benefit from the Syrup and Pills. The sale is increasing wonderfully.

Geo. A. Webb, 141, York Street, Belfast:—I have sold a large quantity, and the parties have testified to its being what you represent it.

J. S. Metcalfe, 55, Highgate, Kent:—I have always great pleasure in recommending the Curative Syrup, for I have never known a case in which it has not relieved or cured, and I have sold many gross.

Robt. G. Gould, 27, High Street, Andover:—I have always take a great interest in your medicines and I have recommended them, as I have found numerous cases of cure from their use.

Thomas Chapman, West Auckland:—I find that the trade steadily increases. I sell more of your medicines than any other kind.

N. Darroll, Glen, Salop:—All who buy it are pleased, and recommend it.

Jos. Balkwill, A. P. S., Kingsbridge:—The public seem to appreciate their great value.

A. Armstead, Market Street, Dalton-in-Furness:—It is needless for me to say that your valuable medicines have great sale in this district—greater than any other I know of, giving great satisfaction.

Robt. Laine, Melksham:—I can well recommend the Curative Syrup from having proved its efficacy for indigestion myself.

Frickheim, Arbroath, Forfarshire, Sept. 23, 1882. Dear Sir:—Last year I sent you a letter recommending Mother Seigel's Syrup. I have very much pleasure in still bearing testimony to the very satisfactory results of the famed Syrup and Pills. Most patent medicines die out with me, but Mother Seigel's had a steady sale ever since I commenced, and is still in as great demand as when I first began to sell the medicine. The cures which have come under my notice are chiefly those of liver complaint and general debility.

A certain minister in my neighbourhood says it is the only thing which has benefited him and restored him to his normal condition of health after being unable to preach for a considerable length of time. I could mention also a great many other cases, but space would not allow. A near friend of mine, who is very much addicted to constiveness, or constipation, finds that Mother Seigel's Pills are the only pills which suit his complaint. All other pills cause a reaction which is very annoying. Mother Seigel's Pills do not leave a bad after-effect. I have much pleasure in commending again to suffering humanity Mother Seigel's medicines, which are no sham. If this letter is of any service you can publish it.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) William S. Glass, Chemist,
A. J. White, Esq.

15th August, 1883.

Dear Sir:—I write to tell you that Mr. Henry Hillier, of Yatesbury, Wilts, informs me that he suffered from a severe form of indigestion for upwards of four years, and took no end of doctor's medicine without the slightest benefit, and declares Mother Seigel's Syrup which he got from me has saved his life.

Yours truly,
(Signed) N. Webb,
Chemist, Calne.

HONOLULU'S HEALTH.

It is a remarkable thing that for a city which is constantly being spoken of as a sanitarium for the world we should have so many doctors and so much sickness. In a carefully-prepared series of articles in the Hawaiian Monthly, the able editor of that periodical, Dr. C. T. Rodgers, showed a frightful rate of mortality in this generally-considered healthy city, and it is to be deeply deplored that the community, with a false sense of security, have taken so little interest in that exposure as to take no steps to remedy the evils therein indicated. It is with defiance that we handle a subject which could be so much better touched on by a professional pen, but the fact that malarial fever or typhoid fever has obtained a permanent footing here ought to be noticed. Its periodical visits carry off some of our finest men and women, besides desolating our homes by removing the little ones, most cherished of all. Why it should be such a scourge here with every natural advantage in the place for keeping it away is not clearly known, but it may probably be laid down to one of three causes or a combination of them, viz: want of systematic drainage, the superabundance of trees in the city and its suburbs, and the bad water which every summer season is supplied to the town. We would draw the attention of the Board of Health to these facts and suggest that steps be taken to prevent this evil assuming greater proportions than it has done. What would become of the people of this city if cholera, small-pox, or yellow-jack were to find its way here? What would prevent the nation being decimated if such a thing were to occur? Yet at present the physicians have only the hope that a Kona will break up these frightful conditions, but will it or can it do so?

PATRIOTISM IN COLONIES.

The Advertiser of yesterday devotes some of its valuable (?) space to a dissertation on the above subject. From the opening sentence, which reads as follows, "Nobody who has not lived in a dependency can be fully aware how complete is the want of national spirit, or how great the evils of the want of national spirit are," one would imagine that the writer must have lived in a dependency in order to pen such a sentence. But, whether he has or not, the statement is a lie upon the face of it. Although the heading is general in its application the writer has confined himself to the British Colonies in his article, and to these we shall limit our reply. He says, "No pride is felt in the country." What does he say to Hanlan disclaiming publicly being called an American and claiming his Canadian citizenship. And thousands, aye, hundreds of thousands of hearts beat proudly in unison at that avowal. The Australian cricketers are famous all over the world, and everywhere make it their proudest boast that Australia is their native land, and the name of Australia "uttered" in any land "as an appeal" will waken an "enthusiastic response" in the heart of every one who claims it as his native land. Is there no pride of countryman's pride in Canada pleading all her resources to the speedy construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway, to unite with a bond of steel every part of her vast territory stretching from the Atlantic to the Pacific? Was there no patriotism in the little dependency of Nova Scotia when a noble band of reformers wrested the privileges of responsible Government by constitutional agitation from the Imperial authorities and brought an end to the corrupt, extravagant and oppressive rule of the Council of Twelve appointed by the Crown? "Political ambition does not look to it for the highest honors," says this writer, and yet statesmen of both Canada and Australia have refused the titular honors offered by their Sovereign because the honors won in their own land were greater in their estimation. Only the other day Sir Charles Tupper, on the eve of his departure to take the post of Canadian High Commissioner in London, in referring to a rumor that his ambition was to obtain a seat in the British Parliament—as countrymen of his had done before—declared that he would prefer to remain the representative of the constituency that had returned him at every election for twenty-nine long years. "Patriotism, in short, can hardly be said to exist," is another of his misrepresentations. Yet the Australian colonies, as one man, resolved to back up Queensland in her annexation of New Guinea, and to band together for the resistance, even to war, if necessary, against any foreign power whatsoever that might dare to interfere." And the patriotic spirit of Canada has been so manfully expressed on various occasions that the British Government has found it wise to adopt the policy of non-interference with all her affairs, while retaining the responsibility of being her protector. When the Marquis of Lorne, Queen Victoria's viceroy, was dubious about the course taken by the Canadian Ministry in summarily dismissing a Governor of Quebec, and appealed to Her Majesty's Privy Council for instructions, he was simply instructed to follow the advice of his Ministers. It was nothing but colonial patriotism that led the Imperial authorities to adopt the policy of making those colonies that showed capacity for self-government feel as little dependent as possible. That policy is further illustrated by Great Britain accepting gracefully the imposition, by different Australian colonies as well as Canada, of tariffs prejudicial to her commerce. "The restless craving for the notice and patronage of England," said by this degenerate colonialist to exist in the colonies, may do so or not, but it is certain that it exists, and always has existed, in a large section of the population of the United States, and it can hardly be said that the States are a dependency. As for Belgium and Ecuador not doing the same, that may be so, but to cite such out-of-the-way and poky little states is but a poor showing in an argument concerning such great lands and peoples. The writer also states that a national hymn can only come from the heart of a nation. Does that imply that the national hymn of England came from the heart of that nation? If so, then the English nation had no heart for the first thousand years of its existence. Or did the Hawaiian national anthem come from the heart of this nation? When the colonies really need national hymns they will come to them. Meantime they can do without the frippery of national freedom while enjoying the patriotism of their sons and daughters, exulting in being citizens of the greatest empire in the world and proudly claiming their birth-place as an integral part of that empire.

A REPORT QUESTIONED.

We have been handed correspondence that has taken place between Dr. Walters, Government physician at Lihue, Kauai, and the Hon. Paul Iseberg. It has reference to the report of a speech made by the latter in the Legislature, which appeared in the BULLETIN and contained the following passage:—"They paid a doctor in Lihue $400 a year, and if he (the speaker) wanted him to go a long distance he always shirked." Dr. Walters writes to Mr. Iseberg on August 12th, asking for a correction of this statement. Mr. Iseberg replies, August 19th, stating that he is not responsible for statements made in the BULLETIN, and giving, as far as he recollects, a report of what he did say in the Legislature. This report concludes with the following reference to the Government physician at Lihue, "If the natives shall be benefited it requires that the Government physician goes from place to place to visit the sick in their own houses, and if I should ask the doctor to do this he would shirk." Mr. Iseberg adds that he had no intention to hurt Dr. Walters's feelings or those of any other man. The Doctor replies, August 23d, stating that personally he is satisfied with the explanation, but, for the information of friends in Honolulu and throughout the Islands, he should feel obliged to have a refutation of the statement published in the BULLETIN. Having given the substance of the correspondence, we hope all parties are satisfied. Our report of Mr. Iseberg's speech was necessarily a condensed one, but his own version made a fortnight afterward shows that so far as it went it was accurate.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Correspondence is solicited on the topics of the day, or what may become so. We reserve the right to excise purely personal matter. We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by our correspondents.—Ed.

INFORMATION WANTED.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—I am anxious for a little information, and it is the custom in my country when one is afflicted that way to write to the Editor of one's favorite paper to get relief. I am occupying a little plot of land on the other side of the hills, of which I can spare about a quarter of an acre for cultivating purposes. I have a constant supply of running water and the soil is pretty good. Now I would like to know what I can cultivate on it which will bring in a fair return for the labor and money to be spent on it in the shape of beauty, household provisions, and a surplus for sale in the nearest market. Or, if not possible to attain all of these results, the best combination, or single one, of them.

I have seen some reference made to an article written by Mr. Jaeger on a similar subject which has appeared in the Planters' Monthly, but I can not afford to subscribe to that periodical in the hope of getting many similar articles, and I would like, too, to see the subject brought down to a still more practical statement than has yet been done. It is all very well to tell me, inexperienced cultivator as I am, that India rubber, cinchona, tamarind, cork oak, tea, coffee, spices, mulberry trees, fibrous plants, bee culture, &c., will do for me what I want. I need more than that. I need practical and exact information as to what is the best and most suitable for my circumstances as detailed above, where and how to get that best thing, and then what to do with it when I have got it. So, Mr. Editor, I appeal to you to do the best you can for me to get that information. I am sure that there is many another man on these islands in similar circumstances who would be also glad to know what I am asking you to tell me who would feel as greatly obliged by it as

PERPLEXED.

TREE PLANTING.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Though the Government support a nursery which under the able superintendence of Mr. Jaeger is doing good work in renovating the forests of the islands, they have never yet made any attempt to line our principal streets with shade trees, which in this climate are greatly needed. What a noble vista might be made on Beretania or King street toward Waikiki, by planting a row of Royal or Date Palms on each side of the street. How cool a row of Monkey-pods or Ponciana Regia would make a drive to Kalihii. How tropical the aspect of Queen street with a row of Fan-Palms on each side, and last, but not least, how fine the BULLETIN office would look with a tree on each side of the entrance under whose refreshing shade you might sit and cool your heated brain after worrying out a few more yards of disloyalty to the Times and its King, Brian Born.

But in all seriousness, I commend the matter to the attention of the Government and Mr. Jaeger as a proper subject for their consideration. AVENUE.

THE COFFEE ROOMS.

EDITOR BULLETIN: From the vigorous ideas set forth by the author of the article, "A coffee saloon" (which appeared in yesterday's issue of the BULLETIN.) We should style him "a young man." For any man with a young heart and ideas suitable to young man-hood, we, of the Y. M. C. A., style "a young man." No matter if the good old family Bible does record 50 years or more. Therefore we shall claim him as a young man. Only in one thing did he exhibit any quality entitling him to the name of Old Fogey, and that was he was "behind the times" in that the Y. M. C. A. have already voted to have a coffee lunch each day for members and friends from 12 to 12 1/2, for 6 cents, commencing a week from next Monday.

Now in reference to "A Coffee Saloon" (we prefer the name "Coffee Rooms"), personally I would like to see such an enterprise undertaken, and carried out in first-class style, or not at all. But the Y. M. C. A. could easily carry on the work successfully. Personally I should be more than willing to undertake its management, for I believe it would be a "boon" to young men, and a potent element in our temperance work. By the way, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union have this kind of work in charge all over the United States. Why not here?

In closing permit me to suggest that any interested in this subject call upon the Gen. Sec'y of the Y. M. C. A., and confer with him in the matter or present it to the members of our temperance committee.

Yours for the Young Men.

C. S. MASON.

Honolulu, Sept. 5th, 1884.

SLIPS OF THE TYPES.

"Two young men desires situations, vide Bulletin Sept. 3d and 4th. A box belonging to * * * a veterinary surgeon, was also broke open. Idem—Advertiser." To-day the young men only desire situations, but the box is broke beyond repair. However, as one good turn deserves another, we submit for revision some choice morsels from to-day's Advertiser. Its leader begins with this wild attempt at pigeon English: "Between the Portuguese and Japanese immigrant there can be no choice." Its shipping notes open with the disloyal statement that "The eight-ordered boat of His Majesty, now in course of construction by Mr. Sorrenson, is undoubtedly the best of the kind ever built in this city." As if one stroke of treason was not enough, it says elsewhere, "When His Majesty the King went down to the steamer last evening to see the 16 lepers off, he was profundly affected." This is a terrible lapse from the position occupied by our contemporary yesterday, when it ground out between its metaphorical teeth that the King "must not be insulted with impunity." Reverting to the editorial columns we find this intelligent proposition, "This changed position, if judiciously considered by English Government, cannot but be to the advantage of England, since an interest that can be measured * * * is one that can be intelligently dealt with." How English Government can consider anything is a problem that cannot be intelligently dealt with. Lastly, our contemporary makes an advertiser call for building material to be delivered at Kakaopua. The Morning Guide is a little nettled over our well-meant efforts to repair its broken diction, but we are prepared to endure some little affliction for the brethren's sake. This morning it has the following specimens: "An unwisely witty critic gives the public a sample of his mare's nesting in one of Wednesday's contemporaries, because of the omiss of a line in the make up of a paragraph in Wednesday's Guide Readers of tomorrow's Press will please note the paragraph as written." The BULLETIN is not a "contemporary," and it never mentioned the "omiss" of a line, and never saw "Wednesday's Guide Readers," etc. Speaking of a person making sleeping arrangements for himself and two friends on a steamer's deck, it says, "He then made himself as narrow as possible and laid down between them," but omits to say whether it was an ocean cable he laid down between them, or what. This sage reflection it makes upon shipping. "The steady departures of shipping foreign and coastwise, and the almost total absence of arrivals since the first of the week has rendered the harbor quite and comparatively bare." How those things "has" made the harbor at once quite bare and only comparatively so, tortures us exceedingly. Heigho, we have undertaken too big a contract, and shall have to throw it up, with the hope that the journal that began scouting for typographical errors has got enough of it. It is a small business, except when the mistakes are comical, as has been the case when we were the aggressor.

RECEPTION.

Last evening, at his residence on Richard Street, Mr. J. W. Pfluger, the Russian Vice-Consul, gave an elegant reception in honor of Edouard Remenyi, the great violinist. The grounds were brilliantly illuminated, and at intervals throughout the evening colored lights were burned. The Royal Hawaiian Band was present and under the direction of its able bandmaster played some fine selections. A large number of invited guests were present. Soon after 8 o'clock attention was directed to the spacious parlor, where Remenyi was found with his "Princess" violin. He played, and how he did play! We cannot find words to express such playing as was heard last evening. It was a revelation. Miss Downing sang very prettily and Mr. Luckstone played a Nocturne by Chopin in a masterly manner. Mr. Himmer did not sing, as he is suffering from a slight throat complaint. Excellent refreshments were served, to which all the guests did ample justice. The Band then played the Honolulu Rides March, after which Remenyi played Schubert's Serenade, one of the best things he plays. Soon afterward the guests began to depart, but not before they had thanked the host for the right royal way he had entertained them.

NEW ZEALAND.

The Atkinson Ministry having become unpopular from a variety of causes, and after the elections failing to secure a majority in the House, resigned August 7th, and on the 12th August a new Ministry was announced as follows:—

Sir Julius Vogel—(with precedence).—Colonial Treasurer, Postmaster General, and Commissioner of Stamps.

Mr. Stout—Premier and Attorney-General.

Hon. E. Richardson—Public Works.

Mr. Montgomery—Colonial Secretary and Education.

Mr. Macandrew—Lands & Mines.

Mr. Ballance—Native and Defence.

Sir George Whitmore—without portfolio.

Great dissatisfaction is felt with this Ministry, as being composed almost entirely of politicians from the South Island. Although Mr. Stout is the Premier, the ruling spirit of the Cabinet is Sir Julius Vogel, and the fear is that he will plunge the colony into a course of borrowing in order to carry on public works, which will be ultimately disastrous to the colony.

One case of small pox occurred on board a steamer from Melbourne. The patient died, but no further outbreak in New Zealand has been reported. Further cases are, however, reported from Melbourne and Adelaide.

AN ALARMING DISEASE AFFLICTING A NUMEROUS CLASS.

The disease commences with a slight derangement of the stomach, but, if neglected, it in time involves the whole frame, embracing the kidneys, liver, pancreas, and, in fact, the entire glandular system, and the afflicted drags out a miserable existence until death gives relief from suffering. The disease is often mistaken for other complaints; but if the reader will ask himself the following questions, he will be able to determine whether he himself is one of the afflicted. Have I distress, pain, or difficulty in breathing after eating? Is there a dull, heavy feeling attended by drowsiness? Have the eyes a yellow tinge? Does a thick, sticky, mucous gather about the gums and teeth in the morning, accompanied by a disagreeable taste? Is the tongue coated? Is there pain in the side and back? Is there a fullness about the right side as if the liver were enlarged? Is there costiveness? Is there vertigo or dizziness when rising suddenly from a horizontal position? Are the secretions from the kidneys scanty and highly colored, with a deposit after standing? Does food ferment, soon after eating, accompanied by flatulence or a belching of gas from the stomach? Is there frequent palpitation of the heart? These various symptoms may not be present at one time, but they form the disease progresses. If the case be one of long standing, there will be a dry, hacking cough, attended after a time by expectoration. In very advanced stages the skin assumes a dirty brownish appearance, and the hands and feet are covered by a cold, sticky perspiration. As the liver and kidneys become more and more diseased, rheumatic pains appear, and the usual treatment proves entirely unavailing against this latter agonizing disorder. The origin of this malady is indigestion or dyspepsia, and a small quantity of the proper medicine will remove the disease if taken in its incipient stage. It is most important that the disease should be promptly and properly treated in its first stages, when a little medicine will effect a cure and even when it has obtained a strong hold the correct remedy should be persevered in until every vestige of the disease is eradicated, until the appetite has returned, and the digestive organs restored to a healthy condition. The surest and most effective remedy for this distressing complaint is "Seigel's Curative Syrup," a vegetable preparation sold by all Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world, and by the proprietors, A. J. White Limited, 17, Farringdon Road, London, E. C. This Syrup strikes at the very foundation of the disease, and drives it, root and branch, out of the system.

Market Place, Peckington, York, October 2nd, 1882. Sir,—Being a sufferer for years with dyspepsia in all its worst forms, and after spending pounds on medicines, I was at last persuaded to try Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup, and am thankful to say have derived more benefit from it than any other medicine I ever took, and would advise any one suffering from the same complaint to give it a trial, the results they would soon find out for themselves. If you like to make use of this testimonial you are quite at liberty to do so. Yours respectfully, (Signed) R. TURNER.

Seigel's Operating Pills are the best family physic that has ever been discovered. They cleanse the bowels from all irritating substances, and leave them in a healthy condition. They cure costiveness.

St. Mary street, Peterborough, 7 November 29th, 1881. Sir,—It gives me great pleasure to inform you of the benefit I have received from Seigel's Syrup. I have been troubled for years with dyspepsia; but after a few doses of the Syrup, I found relief, and after taking two bottles of it I felt quite cured. I am, Sir, yours truly, Mr. A. J. White. WILLIAM BRENT.

Hensingham, Whitehaven, Oct. 16th, '82. Mr. A. J. White.—Dear Sir,—I was for some time afflicted with piles, and was advised to give Mother Seigel's Syrup a trial, which I did. I am now happy to state that it has restored me to complete health.—I remain, yours respectfully, (Signed) JOHN H. LIGHTFOOT, 15th August, 1883.

Dear Sir,—I write to tell you that Mr. Henry Hillier, of Yatesburg, Wills, informs me that he suffered from a severe form of indigestion for upwards of four years, and took no end of doctor's medicine without the slightest benefit, and declares Mother Seigel's Syrup which he got from me has saved his life. Yours truly, (Signed) N. WEBB, Chemist, Calne.

September 24th, 1883. Dear Sir,—I find the sale of Seigel's Syrup steadily increasing. All who have tried it speak very highly of its medicinal virtues; one customer describes it as a "Godsend to dyspeptic people." I always recommend it with confidence. Faithfully yours, (Signed) VINCENT A. WILLS, Chemist-Dentist, Meribyr Tydvil.

Preston, Sept. 21st 1883. My Dear Sir,—Your Syrup and Pills are still very popular with my customers, many saying they are the best family medicines possible.

The other day a customer came for two bottles of Syrup and said "Mother Seigel" had saved the life of his wife, and he added, "one of these bottles I am sending fifteen miles away to a friend who is very ill. I have much faith in it." The sale keeps up wonderfully, in fact, one would fancy almost that the people were beginning to breakfast, dine, and sup on Mother Seigel's Syrup, the demand is so constant and the satisfaction so great.—I am dear Sir, yours faithfully, (Signed) W. BOWKER, 765 1/2 y.

A SKILFUL SURGICAL OPERATION.

The American Ambassador at Vienna, Mr. Kasson, has lately forwarded to his government an interesting account of a remarkable surgical operation lately performed by Professor Billroth, of Vienna which, wonderful to tell, consisted in the removal of a portion of the human stomach, involving nearly one-third of the organ—and, strange to say, the patient recovered—the only successful operation of the kind ever performed. The disease for which this operation was performed was cancer of the stomach, attended with the following symptoms:—The appetite is quite poor. There is a peculiar indescribable distress in the stomach, a feeling that has been described as a faint "all gone" sensation; a sticky slime collects about the teeth, especially in the morning, accompanied by an unpleasant taste. Food fails to satisfy this peculiar faint sensation; but, on the contrary, it appears to aggravate the feeling. The eyes are sunken, tinged with yellow; the hands and feet become cold and sticky—a cold perspiration. The sufferer feels tired all the time, and sleep does not seem to give rest. After a time the patient becomes nervous and irritable, gloomy, his mind filled with evil forebodings. When rising suddenly from a recumbent position there is a dizziness, a whistling sensation, and he is obliged to grasp something firm to keep from falling. The bowels costive, the skin dry and hot at times; the blood becoming thick and stagnant, and does not circulate properly. After a time the patient spits up food soon after eating, sometimes in a sour and fermented condition, sometimes sweetish to the taste. Oftentimes there is a palpitation of the heart, and the patient fears he may have the heart disease. Towards the last the patient is unable to retain any food whatever, as the opening in the intestines becomes closed, or nearly so. Although this disease is indeed alarming, sufferers with the above named symptoms should not feel nervous, for nine hundred and ninety-nine cases out of a thousand have no cancer, but simply dyspepsia, a disease easily removed if treated in a proper manner. The safest and best remedy for the disease is Seigel's Curative Syrup, a vegetable preparation sold by all chemists and medicine vendors throughout the world, and by the proprietors, A. J. White Limited, 17, Farringdon Road, London, E. C. This Syrup strikes at the very foundation of the disease, and drives it, root and branch, out of the system.

Spanish Town, Jamaica, West Indies, Oct. 24, 1882. Dear Sir,—I write to inform you that I have derived great benefit from "Seigel's Syrup." For some years I have suffered from liver complaint, with its many and varied concomitant evils, so that my life was a perpetual misery. Twelve months ago I was induced to try Seigel's Syrup, and although rather sceptical, having tried so many reputed infallible remedies, I determined to give it at least a fair trial. In two or three days I felt considerably better, and now at the end of twelve months (having continued taking it) I am glad to say that I am a different being altogether. It is said of certain pens that they "come as a boon and a blessing to man," and I have no reason to doubt the truthfulness of the statement. I can truly say, however, that Seigel's Syrup has come as a "boon and a blessing" to me. I have recommended it to several fellow-sufferers from this distressing complaint, and their testimony is quite in accordance with my own. Gratitude for the benefit I have derived from the excellent preparation, prompts me to furnish you with this unsolicited testimonial. I am dear Sir, Yours ever gratefully, (Signed) Carey B. Berry, Baptist Missionary.
