THE GREAT EMPRESS LINE

Its Fine Steamers May Shortly be Transferred to This Route.

Canada's Trade Commissioner to Japan Has Returned and Makes Some Important Statements.

Hon. George Anderson, special trade commissioner to Japan from the Dominion of Canada, has returned from a two months visit to the land of the Rising Sun, and has been interviewed at length in the Victoria and Vancouver papers.

Speaking of the Empress line of steamers Mr. Anderson believes the time to be near at hand when these will be transferred to the Vancouver Sydney route. If Canada is anxious to capture even a portion of the immense trade which the Antipodes are doing a first class steamship service must be placed at their disposal. That accomplished there is no reason whatever why passengers and mails could not be landed in Sydney in less than 30 days from London, Liverpool or Glasgow. The saving of five days' time means a great deal to business men nowadays. On the Vancouver China Japan route larger and swift-rst-amers will certainly be required and a twice-a-month service established.

The above statement bears out what has previously been noted. The business done by the Empress line of steamers has increased to such a degree that newer, large and more powerful vessels must be employed to keep up with the traffic. It has already been stated that a fleet of 19 knot steamers on the best Atlantic models has been ordered to take the place of the present boats on the Empress line, and it seems to be regarded in Canadian Pacific circles as settled that the old vessels will be transferred to the Australian route as a matter of course.

Speaking of the trade relations of Japan and the Provinces Mr. Anderson said:

"I do not wish to be optimistic in my views on the trade with the East, but I am confident that a few short years will develop such a commerce that it will open people's eyes. As far as British Columbia is concerned the lines of demand would be for the most part lumber. The immediate demand is exceedingly large, and we are not getting our share. Oregon and Washington are supplying a large amount which British Columbia might easily supply. The Northwest territories and Manitoba can send flour and grain, a great deal of which is now being supplied by Oregon and California. The flour and grain that have already been sent from Canada have been found very satisfactory, but the Japanese are not as well acquainted with Canadian flour and grain as they might and should be. The general feeling in Japan was that trade with Canada would be most beneficial, and there was a general desire for trade extension. In return for the products of Canada the Japanese merchants can send tea, rice, silks, etc. In Japan at present there is a general desire to adopt European customs and imitate the British in dress, food and business habits; in fact in everything. The ladies, however, although the men have long since taken to the British style of dress, refuse to throw aside their picturesque costumes."

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT

Plea in Bar Against Henry Smith by Hamakua Mill Company.

Judge Perry Renders a Decision on Demurrer in an Ejectment Suit Brought Under Peculiar Circumstances.

In the ejectment suit of L. N. Hao vs. Neleolani (w) and B. L. Hao, her husband, plaintiffs at torneys, S. K. Kane and J. M. Poopoe, have served notice on defendants that they will move the Court at 9:30 a. m. December 4 for the hearing of the defendants' motion for a new trial. A. S. Humphreys for defendants.

In Judge Perry's Court this morning the petition for the probate of the will of the late Mary E. Luce was taken up, J. M. Monarrat appearing for the petitioner, William Seaborn Luce, and W. A. Henshall for contestants, Beringer Bros. After hearing the testimony of Susan Edith Piender and Elizabeth Bourne Waterhouse and argument of counsel, the Court admitted the will to probate, appointed William Seaborn Luce administrator with the will annexed, to act without bonds; he to give the usual notice to creditors and file an inventory within thirty days.

Judge Perry has rendered a decision on demurrer in the ejectment suit of Haleak vs. Kaauwana w. Plaintiff brings ejectment for certain land at Paoa, Oahu, alleging that his wife Nua in May, 1891, being at that time seized in fee simple of the land in question, conveyed it to defendant by a deed in which plaintiff joined in consideration of an agreement on defendant's part that she would take care of both with food, fish, clothing and a place to live until both were dead, etc. Plaintiff alleges that defendant entered into possession of the premises in question but has failed to perform the conditions required. Defendant demurs on several grounds, one of which is that the above condition is not a condition subsequent. Judge Perry construes the deed differently and overrules the demurrer.

In the case of Henry Smith vs. Hamakua Mill Company, the defendant by its attorney, Cecil Brown, files a plea in bar, setting up that by reason of a certain decree of the Supreme Court of Hawaii made by Chief Justice Allen in 1871, the claim of Kapehe through Huakini to the estate of Kailikanoa was denied and cancelled, and therefore plaintiff is estopped from setting up any title to the lands in question through the claim of Kapehe. The proceedings had in the matter of the estate of Kailikanoa are referred to and made a part of the plea.

Honolulu Mill is Off.

The new Honolulu machinery was taken by the steamer Hawaii yesterday. It is worthy of note that the shipment weighs 300 tons. No special difficulty was experienced in getting it aboard ship, and it would be an interesting lesson to deep sea mariners to note the ease and promptness with which the little vessel discharges her cargo at the difficult landing near Honolulu. It is generally remarked that island vessels are far ahead of the times in this matter. Foreign ships and steamers fume and kick far more over machinery and other freight of smaller tonnage.

Railroad Engine in Wood.

James Dodd has received a pretty miniature model of a railroad engine in wood, made by H. Voss, a Honolulu boy who is now living in Boston. Accompanying the model is a certificate from the 29th industrial exposition of the Mechanics' Institute of San Francisco, at which the work was awarded a prize.

BRINGS DOWN THE RAIN

Blasting at Pali Floods Nuuanu Valley
With Water.

Mr. Cassidy Discovers That a Few Bombs Will Fill His Reservoirs—Pumping Plant a White Elephant.

Blasting at the Pali during the past five months has brought to the head of Nuuanu valley an unprecedented rainfall. There has not been a time since last June when the big reservoirs that feed the pipes of the city have not been filled to overflowing with clear, sparkling water fresh from the mountain tops.

These facts suggest an important conclusion. As Mr. Cassidy said yesterday there will never be an excuse again for dry reservoirs and short water. When the supply gets low the superintendent will simply arm himself with a few bombs, set them off on the Pali and the thing is done. Down will come the rain. If he wants a small shower, a few explosions will be sufficient; but if it is desired to bring a "trash lifter" the number of bombs will be increased.

The scientific reasons for Melbourne's failures in Kansas and other States on the plains do not apply at the Pali. Here the mountains are high and the upper air currents are cool. The moisture condenses quickly and concussion brings it down. By this simple process water to float the mill and can be procured at a very small cost. Some of those following the matter up are inclined to feel that the new pumping station on Beretania street may be a useless enterprise.

MORTUARY REPORT.

Deaths in Honolulu Last Month and What Caused Them.

The Honolulu death roll for November footed up 51, as against 58 last year and 60 the year before. Of these 36 were males and 15 females. Hawaiians numbered 24, Chinese 12, Portuguese 5, Japanese 4, Americans 2 and other nationalities 4. Nineteen died without any medical attendance, equal to nearly 40 per cent of the whole. Prevailing causes of death were: Heart disease 69, old age 5, unknown 4, consumption, abscess, dropsy and inanition 3 each.

The annual death rate for the month was: Hawaiians 25.04; Asiatics 19.20; all others 15.53.

Another Fowl Farm.

Chris. Conradt is a fancier of fine fowls and is starting quite a bird farm at his residence on Beretania street. Heretofore his experiments have been largely confined to growing Plymouth Rock chickens. He has now decided to extend the line. Twelve fine Houdans have been ordered and will arrive on the Australia. They are smaller than the Plymouth Rock variety and an excellent table fowl.

THE FREE KINDERGARTENS

Business of Interest and Importance at Meeting of Supervisors.

Thanksgiving Festivals for Various Schools.
Mrs. Hyde Meets an Old Friend
Abroad—New Salary Scheme.

There was a very satisfactory meeting in monthly session of the Board of Supervisors of the Free Kindergarten Association at Queen Emma Hall this morning. The return of Mrs. C. M. Hyde, president, from a long visit in the Orient, was gratefully noticed in the proceedings. Mrs. Coleman's report as secretary noted one yearly pledge of $300. Mrs. Swaazy, treasurer, presented a favorable report.

Seventy children attended a Thanksgiving festival of the Chinese kindergarten, to which Mrs. Stetson's mission kindergarten on Hotel street had been invited. Refreshments were provided mostly by the parents, and consisted of rice and salted boiled eggs. The conduct of the children was most excellent. A swing holding three children, donated by Geo. P. Castle to this school, afforded great enjoyment.

The Hawaiian kindergarten babes were guests of the Japanese kindergarten at a Thanksgiving festival. Miss Tarbell gave the Portuguese school an entertainment on her own account which was greatly enjoyed. The Ewa kindergarten had its festival, at which the rice was not only contributed but cooked by the children themselves.

Mrs. Hyde told of her meeting Mrs. Imamishi—formerly Miss Ozawa, who was in charge of the Japanese kindergarten here—in Hongkong. Her husband has taken a position in the Hongkong Specie Bank.

The Foreign kindergarten of Honolulu has 45 children, and all is going well with it. Mrs. Myers tendered her resignation as chairman of the buildings committee, which was accepted with a resolution of deep regret and high appreciation. Mrs. Wells Peterson was chosen to fill the place.

Mrs. Frear resigned from the publication committee, Miss Caroline Snow being appointed to succeed her.

The resignation of Mrs. T. Rain Walker as third vice president, on account of departure for England, was accepted with extreme regret. She is succeeded by Mrs. W. G. Irwin, expected shortly to return from abroad.

Mrs. Mabel W. Castle reported that the calendar would soon be issued.

At the beginning of the year the new scheme of teachers' salaries, graded according to efficiency and time of service, will come into effect.

Mrs. Thompson of Kamehameha school has given her services to the Palama kindergarten for physical examination and actual nursing, assisted by students of Kamehameha school. She has now volunteered for the month of December to perform the same services for the entire circle of schools, and if deemed necessary would continue the work indefinitely. It was voted to accept her services as sanitary inspector.

Leilani Wish to Build.

The Leilani Boat Club will make a desperate effort in the next few weeks to begin work on their new club house, which will occupy the site just beyond the house of the Healanis. Under the terms of their lease of the place a club house must be started before March. They pay a rental of $50 a year for the site.

MARK JOHNSON BADLY HURT

Falls Down the Hold of the Bark Iredale
This Morning.

Breaking His Jaw in Two Places, as Well as
One of His Wrists and a Finger.

About 10 o'clock this morning Custom House Inspector Mark G. Johnson, who was on duty on the bark Iredale, while walking along the deck near an open hatchway stubbed his toe against some obstruction and lost his balance, falling head foremost into the hold and striking on a pile of iron. Assistance was rendered immediately and the unfortunate young man was soon raised to the deck, where it was found that he had sustained very severe injuries.

At his own request he was taken at once to Dr. Wayson's office, where an examination disclosed that his jaw was broken in two places. One wrist was also fractured and a finger broken.

At the doctor's office the young man was put under chloroform and the broken bones set. Three fingers were dislocated instead of one as at first reported.

After recovering from the effects of the anesthetic he was taken to his home, where he is being especially looked after by his friend and former partner, Customs Inspector Storey.

ESPLANADE ON QUEEN STREET.

Government Will Destroy Buildings
Opposite Honolulu Iron Works.

The iron warehouse opposite the Honolulu Iron Works, occupied by the California Feed Co., and the block of Chinese shops on the Ewa side of it, down to the corner of the old fishmarket lot, will be torn down by the Government at once. The purpose in clearing the place is to give more room to the wharves and the shipping public. On the large square the old customs building is all that will be left standing. The California Feed Co. and other tenants of the doomed houses have been given notice to evacuate not later than next Monday, the 6th.

On account of this change it was necessary for the California Feed Co. to secure other warehouses for their stocks of grain, hay, etc. A deal was made with Larry Dee whereby the company became owners of the lease of the old armory on Beretania street and the property of the City Feed store. The house will be used as a warehouse and distributing depot. O. A. Stevens has been installed as manager of it.

ABOUT BICYCLE ACCIDENTS

Uncertain Risks Taken by the Accident Assurance Companies.

Nearly Ten Thousand Accidents Every Year
in the United States and Canada—
Scorching Denounced.

Accident Assurance, a journal whose title denotes what it is devoted to, has been studying the bicycle risk question. It read 3000 papers to get at the facts and now announces that during August there were 1450 cases of accidents in the United States. This it thinks is only about 15 per cent. of those which actually happened. Assuming this basis to be correct, there were 9666 bicycle accidents in the States and Canada in August last. We note that Canada is credited with 31 out of the 1450. This is certainly very far below the mark, as there were more than that number in one of our cities. Out of the 1450, 46 were fatal, and 48 expected to result fatally. That is, out of each 33 accidents, one, as a rule, results fatally. If this estimate is even 50 per cent. too high, the fatal bicycle accidents in the States and Canada, during the season, number five per cent. A considerable proportion of the fatalities were not accidents, but deaths from ailments produced by the exercise, such as, paralysis of the heart, bursting a blood vessel, and so on. A large number of accidents of a dangerous nature were from scorching, coasting and racing. There is no question but that "scorching" has developed a form of lunacy; the victim rushes heedlessly along, reckless of his life and limbs, and the life and limbs of others, for no intelligent purpose whatever. A scorcher is controlled by a maniacal impulse, which calls for the control of the police, and a punishment adopted to re-train others from giving way to this very dangerous habit. So far as the accident insurance companies are interested, they are in a position of much uncertain risk. They cannot tell what style of wheel an insured person rides, nor what roads he will run over, nor by whom he will be accompanied, nor whom he will meet, nor what will be the length of his trips, nor speed at which he will travel. Yet each one of these points bears directly upon the risk of a bicyclist who holds an accident insurance policy.

COLORED GOODS.

How to "Set" Them So They Will Not Fade When Washed.

It is absolutely impossible to tell whether a color will or will not wash until a trial has been made, and even after the first trial one need not feel too secure, for delicate shades, unless properly "set," almost invariably lose a little of their brightness each time the garment is laundered, so by far the safest plan is to "set" the color before it goes to the tub for the first time.

One of the best methods of setting delicate colors is also the cheapest and least troublesome. It consists in simply making a strong brine of cold water and salt and soaking the garment from 12 to 24 hours. Of course this should be done just before going to the laundry, and the salt should not be allowed to dry in it. This is especially good for all shades of pink and green, and colors once set this way will be bright as long as there is a scrap of cloth.

A strong solution of alum and water is good, particularly with blues and the more delicate shades of brown, but its effect is not as lasting as that of salt, and it is sometimes necessary to renew the bath after the first three or four washings.

Yet another and very highly spoken of wash to insure against fading is a solution of sugar of lead and water, about a nickel's worth of the drug to a gallon of water. This recipe has but one objection. It is poisonous, and for that reason in a house where there are children or animals it should be handled with the utmost care. The same objection can be raised against the use of copperas and water, though there are some colors, lilacs and yellows, that can only be made fast by soaking them in it for something more than 8 or 10 hours. Solutions of salt and alum are perfectly harmless, but too much care cannot be exercised in the handling of sugar of lead and copperas.

EVENING BULLETIN.

A. V. GEAR, - - - Manager.
DANIEL LOGAN, - - - Editor.

FRIDAY, DEC. 3, 1897.

An article elsewhere on bicycle accidents suggests the necessity of new police regulations adapted to the wheel. Scorchers act more like idiots than maniacs, coursing along the streets with heads down like bulls. A good means of their suppression would be to take their wheels from them, together with the privilege of riding a wheel for a period, according to the offense, of three months to one year.

A Coast paper has a report of an interview with Senator Morgan, wherein he is reported to have said: "Hawaii certainly is going to be a State, but whether it will be at the time of annexation or later remains to be seen. Should it be annexed as a territory, the Hawaiian commissioners would recommend that the islands be admitted to Statehood and a special act of Congress would undoubtedly follow." This agrees with the tenor of Senator Morgan's expressions while he was visiting the islands. No doubt the State will have to be reached through a territorial vestibule.

An exchange has a paragraph about the agency of city street dust in spreading disease. It says: "While the use of water settles the dust, it also converts it into the most favorable sort of culture ground for the development of all kinds of bacteria. Salt water, if used, would remedy that danger, and is the best possible disinfectant for use in street sprinkling, because all chemicals are either too expensive or dangerous." One of the present local medical officers years ago stated to the writer his objections against water on dirty streets. In his opinion it caused in evaporation the rising of noxious vapors loaded with disease germs. Perhaps the use of salt water, as recommended above, would greatly or altogether prevent bad effects from streetsprinkling. It is probably out of court, the discussion of whether to wet the streets or not. To perish from malarial effluvia would likely be chosen as soon as to be choked to death with hot dust. Many a one has wondered, however, to see the water carts fill up from the city's supply of fresh water when it was scarce, while they had the whole Pacific ocean from which to be replenished. The public health would therefore seem doubly to suggest an entire change from fresh to salt water in our street sprinkling. This would require some additional apparatus—perhaps even a power pump to drive the brine to uptown tanks—but what of that if the public health is in question?

An explanatory act will be passed by the Legislature of Ontario, setting forth that the requirement of having the word "limited" spelled out, by limited liability companies in giving their names, does not apply to the stamping of the names upon manufactured goods, but only in the case of advertisements. In this the law will not worry the typo in making a "line."

Municipal liability for dangerous thoroughfares has been exemplarily affirmed by the Supreme Court of British Columbia. It has rendered a decision in favor of Mrs. Patterson's claim, as adjusted by a jury, for the loss of her husband in the Point Ellice bridge disaster of May, 1896. As this is only one of scores of similar claims, the city of Victoria will pay dearly for allowing that rotten bridge to stand.

Manitoba farmers are going quite strongly into tobacco raising. If they go making cigars up there, Commissioner Marsden ought to be ready with Hawaiian leaf for wrappers. It is well known to be that official's opinion that this is the best line of tobacco culture for the islands. When the New York experts have reported on samples lately furnished, however, it may be in prospect that Honolulu will rank as high as Havana in the market.

It is a good idea that moves the literary circle of the Kilohana Art League to offer prizes for original stories with a local coloring. Hawaii is not to be despised for the showing its own people make in painting and music, and why should it not have successful aspirants to the realm of belles lettres? A very excellent way to start latent talent in that direction is by prize competition.

SONS OF THE REVOLUTION.

The Hawaiian Branch Holds a Special Meeting at Noon Today.

There was a special meeting of the Hawaiian society, Sons of the American Revolution, at noon today in P. C. Jones' office to take action on a proposition to form a combination of the two societies, Sons of the Revolution and Sons of the American Revolution, in one in accordance with the action of the convention held by the two societies at Cincinnati, Ohio, on October 12, 1897, whereby a union of the two organizations was proposed under the name of the "Society of the American Revolution."

The Hawaiian branch voted in favor of the union as proposed.

Sailors Have Shore Drill.

Two companies of bluejackets and one company of marines, under Captain Berryman, were ashore this morning for drill. The details were from both the Baltimore and Bennington.

Prizes for Stories.

The Literary Circle of the Kilohana Art League offers $25 for the best original story, and $20 for the next best original story to be awarded on the following conditions:

- 1st—Each story must not exceed 3,500 words.
- 2d—It must not have been previously published.
- 3d—It must have a distinctly Island coloring.
- 4th—It must be typewritten.
- 5th—Each story must be signed with a fictitious name, and the real name enclosed in a sealed envelope. Both must be sent on or before February 1, 1898, to Mr. C. W. Dickey, Secretary of the Kilohana Art League, Honolulu.
- 6th—Any person residing in these Islands may compete for the prizes.

BULLETIN, 75c. PER MONTH

November 30, 1897.

There is no better oil stove in the market than the justly celebrated BLUE FLAME for which we are agents. We have recently imported a fresh lot of these convenient stoves and they contain two new improvements which add to their desirability. One of these is a regulating screw for the burners and the other is a spring by which the burners are brought to the top of the stove when it is desired to light them. These stoves are absolutely the best coal-oil stove in the market and they are sold at a reasonable price.

In coal and wood stoves we recommend the PANSY as being the best. We have it in all sizes at prices to suit all purses. STEEL Ranges for large families and restaurant use are a specialty with us and we shall be glad to quote prices at any time.

A useful article in this warm climate is a small alcohol stove with kettle. We keep them.

ANGLICAN CHURCH SYNOD.

Proceedings at the Closing Session Held Last Evening.

At the meeting of the Anglican church synod last evening, H. W. Mist and L. Asea of Kohala, lay members, were present in addition to the list of members given in yesterday's issue.

Financial reports from the Trustees and Standing Committees of the cathedral were submitted and approved.

Several amendments to portions of the rules of order were adopted after considerable discussion.

A motion that a committee of three to revise the rules of order and report at the next session be appointed was adopted. Rev. V. H. Kiteat announced that the committee would be appointed during the recess.

Bishop Willis' requisition for $70 for a strong box to hold the Diocesan Fund contributions was allowed and ordered paid.

Several modifications of the by-laws were proposed and discussed, but all of them failed to pass.

It was 10:15 p. m. when the business of the synod was finished up, and owing to the lateness of the hour the reading of Bishop Willis' account of the proceedings of the Lambeth Conference was not attempted. A suggestion that it be read by each of the clergy of the diocese to his congregation met with general favor and will probably be acted on.

The synod then adjourned sine die.

Refreshing

— AND —

Healthful.

Every being who has suffered from sick-headache caused by derangement of the stomach can appreciate a preparation which will at once give relief and does not lose its effect after taking a few doses, the result generally experienced after taking many saline aperients.

Magnesia

The cooling and refreshing effect produced by taking a dose on rising will convince even the skeptic that it is just the thing for this climate. It has a pleasant taste and never fails to act. A dose taken before breakfast regularly will insure good health.

Sal

The ingredients that enter into the composition of MAGNESIA SAL FRUTAS are salts obtained from fruit and are harmless when taken into the system. The preparation can be taken indefinitely without injury.

First Lieut. Commander—Chas. B. Edwards.
Second Lieut. Commander—Urband W. Conklin.
Quartermaster—W. L. Eaton.
Chaplain—R. J. Greene.
Surgeon—Sam'l McKeague.
Officer of the Day—W. F. Williams.
Officer of the Guard—Frederick Sherman.

Island Views.

Over our establishment on Hotel street is the sign Island Views. For the benefit of those who may not know, King Bros. have opened the place as a branch to their store. Colored and uncolored photos, oil paintings, water colors, pastels and menu cards of Island scenery are specialties.

How to Make Potato Soup.

Six large white potatoes, peeled and boiled until well done in 2 quarts of water, together with an onion, a bunch of pot herbs (half the pepper), a bay leaf, Mash all through the puree sieve (you do not like too much onion taste take it out before you put through the sieve); salt to taste. Put over the fire and add a little thickening and a table spoonful of butter and a quart of rich hot milk. In serving dip from the bottom of the dish, as the potatoes fall there. Add finely chopped parsley.

He Still Needed Her.

A pathetic little tribute to a wife's tact and self forgetfulness was given by an old New Hampshire farmer.

The couple had lived happily together for nearly 50 years, and when the wife died her husband seemed utterly unable at first to act or even think for himself. The funeral was taken in charge by an energetic niece, and, according to those who were present, everything was conducted with propriety. One of the neighbors stopped to speak to the poor old widower when the last offices at the grave had been performed. "William," she said, laying a kindly hand on her old friend's shoulder, "I think everything was beautiful. It was just such a funeral as Mary wished, I am sure."

"You mean well, Mis' Snowden, I know," said the old man, looking up at her with dim eyes, "but you don't take it in as I do. Niece Ellen couldn't see to everybody's comfort as Mary would have. Why, I've thought a dozen times today if Mary was only here to tend to this funeral seems to me I could almost bear to have lost her."—Youth's Companion.

He Forgot the Instructions.

A Georgia man who had made a flying machine offered a negro $10 to make a trial trip in it.

The negro agreed, got in position, and he and the machine were hoisted by block and tackle about 30 feet from terra firma.

When the rope was loosened, the machine took a sudden slanting course toward earth and plunged into an adjacent millpond.

It disappeared with the negro beneath the water, while the terrified inventor stood shrieking for assistance.

Presently the negro's head bobbed up serenely, and he struck out for dry land. On arriving his first spluttered words were:

"In de name er God, Mars John, why didn't you tell dat fool thing whar ter light?"—Atlanta Constitution.

The Juggernaut.

The ghastly stories told of many of the Indian fanatics who at the religious festivals throw themselves beneath the wheels of the Juggernaut car are for the most part imaginative, or at any rate grossly exaggerated. These car festivals, which sometimes attracted as many as 100,000 pilgrims, have certainly resulted in loss of life, but it is stated these deaths were purely accidental.

The tallest captain in the British army is Captain Oswald Ames. He is captain in the Second Life guards and stands well over 6 feet 8 inches in height.

An extraordinary find of French and English armor, dating from the time of the crusades, has been made at Constantinople.

Just Like Gold Coin.

For more than fifty years has PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER stood the test against all remedies prepared to eradicate pain, and today stands at the head of the list among the medicines that are so essential to keep at hand in the home.

It is not a new fangle remedy nor do the proprietors lay claim to any wonderful revelation of the ingredients that enter into the manufacture of this ever popular remedy.

It is perfectly harmless, you need have no fear of becoming habitually inclined to its use.

For Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, Colds, and all painful affections, a few doses will certainly give relief. You cannot afford to be without a bottle in the house.

Your forefathers used it and found it beneficial.

Why experiment with some remedy that is new and its effect on the system unknown?

It has many rivals but no equal.

The new 35c. size contains over double the quantity of the 25c. size.

A Modern Fable.

One dark night an old and superannated watchdog who had been turned out to die was sleeping in an empty hoghead in the alley back of the big store belonging to his master when he was awakened by a suspicious sound. Peering cautiously out of his retreat, he saw a man in a black mask creep stealthily up to the building and begin piling a lot of inflammable material against it.

"Ah," said the old watchdog, "here is a fine chance to return good for evil and heap coals of fire on the head of my cruel master. Only this morning he kicked me from the premises which I have guarded so long, saying, 'Begone, you worthless cur!' and, bruised, humbled and well nigh broken hearted, I crept in here to rest and reflect, little thinking that I would so soon have an opportunity to demonstrate my worth and earn the lifelong gratitude of my master by saving his property from the torch of an incendiary."

So saying, the faithful watchdog, summoning all his strength, sprang upon the masked intruder and bore him to the ground just as he was about to apply the match. There was a terrific struggle, but the mastiff bravely hung on until a policeman reached the spot and took charge of the would be incendiary.

The next day the insurance authorities took the case in hand, and in due course of time the faithful and plucky old watchdog was fitted out with a gold collar and furnished with an easy berth and luxurious quarters in a big insurance building, while the dog's ungrateful master (for the man in the black mask was indeed he) received his just deserts by being sentenced to seven years at hard labor for attempted arson.

Moral.—It never pays to go back on an old friend—either four legged or two legged—especially if you are going into some crooked transaction where he is liable to catch you at it.—Harper's Esar.

Punched the Kaiser.

A German family in this city has received a letter from the fatherland purporting to give the true story of the so called accident to Kaiser Wilhelm, by which one of his eyes was blackened on board a German man-of-war. The incident was said at the time to have been caused by the dangling of a piece of rope.

According to the letter referred to, a Swedish steamer was sailing ahead of the German warship, and the emperor commanded an officer in command of the warship to order the steamer out of the course of the warship.

"We cannot do that on the high seas, your majesty," replied the officer. "International law gives them the right to be where they are."

"I am the emperor," cried the kaiser, smiting his breast in anger, "and I command you to make that steamer get out of the course."

"And I am in command of this ship and refuse to do so," replied the officer, also becoming excited.

The next instant the emperor, says the letter writer, slapped the officer's face. The latter struck the emperor with his fist in the eye. Then, realizing what he had done, and that his life was ruined, the officer jumped overboard and was drowned.—Chicago Chronicle.

Steamer Hawaii Takes the New Mill to Honolulu — Kaula Outward — Liner Rio Due — Mobican Loading.

Liner Rio de Janeiro from Frisco tonight.

The bark Mobican is taking on sugar at Brewer's.

The ship Tillie E. Starbuck is being painted and cleaned at Fish market wharf.

The steamer Hawaii took away yesterday the entire plant for the new nine-roller mill just built for Honoum plantation.

The bark Albert is overdue from San Francisco having cleared from there November 10 with a big cargo of general merchandise and a number of passengers for this port.

Steamer in Storm. San Francisco, Nov 19—The steamer Umatilla arrived from Puget Sound this afternoon, bearing evidences of a hard struggle with the seas. The Captain's cabin was flooded, and the pilot house was shattered, but no serious damage was done. Captain J. C. Hunter was on the bridge for 36 hours. He says that the Umatilla passed a steam schooner on Wednesday, 298 miles south of Cape Flattery. He thought she was the Truckee. The seas were breaking clear over her, and she seemed to be getting the worst of the struggle.

The Roderick Dhu's Cargo.

The bark Roderick Dhu has just finished discharging the following cargo at Hilo: 108,722 lbs barley, 58,853 lbs bran, 21 coils rope, 6 cs groceries and provisions, 1 bale leather, 1388 lbs potatoes, 9 cts wheat, 12 cs whiskey, 5772 lbs middlings, 6885 lbs salt, 500 bales hay, 13,275 ft lumber, 6 horses, 221 lbs of butter, 5 cs dry goods, 300 lbs oleomargarine, 10 cs stationery, 400 lbs and 2 cs manufactured tobacco, 12 pkgs saddlery, 109 cs hardware, 100 bbls of lime, 6 boxes soap, 60 cs and 5 bbls salmon, 1935 gals wine, 11 pkgs machinery, 27 pkgs electrical goods, 5 cs paints and oils, 338 bbls flour, 1342 lbs corn, 500 lbs codfish, 20 cs of canned goods, 400 lbs hams and bacon, 13 cs crackers, 211 pkgs tank material.

SWIMMING RACE A GO.

Kimoko Will Accept Renear's Challenge—May be Other Events.

Kimoko will accept the challenge of Dan. Renear, published in this paper yesterday, for a 100 yards championship swimming race to take place early in January. In addition to this it is now proposed to arrange other events and make a half day of it, to which the public will be invited. A second feature will be a half mile swimming race for professionals. Marshall, Mitchell, Mayne, Kimoko and one or two others will be invited to compete. Then there will be a quarter-mile contest and, last, a water polo match. The latter will be under the direction of Mr. Renear. He hopes to enlist Hawaiian swimmers in it; and if they prove good players hopes to arrange to take them to San Francisco next spring to compete with Coast teams.

Alarmed About Rabbits.

There is some kicking about the number of white rabbits that are accumulating in the city, especially in the Punchbowl region. The law is hard on rabbits and any person is liable for allowing the little animals to run at large. Complaint is made that they are frequently turned into the streets and they have been known to find their way down town. A gentleman said this morning that he had seen them out of town in the valleys, and believes they have become wild and are increasing rapidly. He fears that unless their growth be checked they will soon overrun the country.

Awa Licenses Sold Today.

Awa licenses found a slack market at the Government building this morning. There was but one bidder, C. K. Ai, a Chinaman. He bought Honolulu for $1005, and Koolanoko, Waianae, and Ewa and Waianae for $100 each. Koolanoko was withdrawn.

"A SOCIAL HIGHWAYMAN."

Fine Stage Effects in the Play by the Frawleys.

The Frawleys had another very fair house last night when they played "A Social Highwayman." It was exceedingly well performed by the following cast:

- Courtice Jaffery
- Frank Worthing
- Merton Harley
- T. Daniel Frawley
- Carolus Despard
- William Lewers
- Gordon Key
- Wilson Enos
- Livingston Remsen
- Harry Corson Clarke
- George Bartlett
- George Bosworth
- Jenkins Hanby
- Frederick Perry
- Duchess of Clayborough
- Eleanor Robson
- Mrs. Munyon Pyle
- Madge Carr Cook
- Senora Leila Caprices
- Selene Johnson
- Lille Wren
- Mrs. Deane
- Phosa McAllister
- Elinor Burnham
- Blanche Bates

Among the chief delights of the performance were the splendid grouping of characters in different scenes, the beautiful and elaborate stage settings, and the exquisite costuming of the ladies.

For individual glory the play has not many opportunities, out of ordinary, yet Frank Worthing carried a strong part with great success throughout, Miss McAllister as a clairvoyant was realism itself and, in the final climax, Miss Bates gave one of the finest pieces of acting of the season.

After the magnificent acting of Wilson Enos as the Confederate spy in "Held by the Enemy," it was hoped by many that, in succeeding casts, we should have had him in other strong roles and "more of him" What he had to do last night could have been done tolerably well by an artist of less rank, but he really enhanced the strength of the character assumed by the art that conceals art and evidence of astute interpreting power.

Many would also have been disappointed that Harry Corson Clarke should not have had a less tame personation in his duty, but his natural manner on the stage and attention to the minutest details of byplay brought himself out in bold relief.

William Lewers had a congenial part—that of a sprightly but unassuming artist—and was a prominent figure greatly helping out the whole harmonious success. "A Matrimonial Maze" is the bill for tomorrow's matinee, and in the evening "The Ensign," a stirring naval drama in five acts. Monday evening "Men and Women" will be played, the closing performance of the season.
