No Buncombe.

The Secretary of State desires
it to be distinctly understood that there is no buncombe in his action or that of the President.
In the course pursued they have been controlled by only one desire, and that is to right a gross wrong. Political questions have been waived entirely, and the conclusion reached has not been hasty.

No question, not even that pertaining to finances, has been more thoroughly discussed and deliberated upon than this Hawaiian question. Secretary Gresham has worked day and night upon the subject, wading through thousands of pages of manuscript, hearing personal arguments and discussing the subject from all standpoints.

Not the least important papers which aided in bringing about the conclusion of the President and his Cabinet were the reports of Mr. Nordhoff, who was sent by the HERALD to Hawaii to furnish the public with an intelligent unbiased account of the true inwardness of the Queen's overthrow and the sentiment of that country on the annexation question.

You've noticed when you're going out,
Your wife must change her gown;
And though she says she'll hurry up,
She never hurries down.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, DEC. 2, 1893.

Late Foreign News

The Australia which arrived this morning brings news up to the 25th inst. While there is no change in the situation since the China left, there seems to be a strong determination on the part of the administration to keep Hawaiian politics absolutely secret in the future, and at the same time enforce the original programme of the President and Secretary Gresham. A Washington despatch dated November 23d, reads:

There was a notable lack of excitement in the reception of the Hawaiian news to-day. The copyright letter from Honolulu was read to Gresham by the Associated Press representative. At the portion where Willis was reported to have said that he would be glad to see the American flag over Hawaii and every other island in the Pacific, the Secretary said: "I don't believe that." Even as subsequently modified by Willis with the additional clause "under proper conditions" the Secretary said, the Minister must have been incorrectly reported. "Willis is a capable man," he said: "He ought not to have talked on that subject at all, and I don't believe he did."

The statement contained in a letter received in San Francisco from a private correspondent in Honolulu that the Provisional Government, was under arms all night preceeding the departure of the Alameda attracted the Secretary's interest.

"If that were true," he said, "it is not likely that your correspondent would have failed to know it, and speak of it in his letter. I think there are many inaccurate statements in the letter."

Regarding the assertion that Willis said, he would do nothing, until he had heard further from the State Department, he declined to say anything.

Secretary Gresham received a cipher message this afternoon from Minister Willis, giving a complete report of the Hawaiian situation up to the time of the departure of the Alameda. As to the exact contents of the message, no one outside of the President and cabinet knows. The fact that a message had been received was given out, however, and it was also announced that its contents were highly satisfactory. This is interpreted by officials outside of the cabinet to mean that Willis has completed all arrangements for the restoration of Liliuokalani to the Hawaiian throne.

Gresham's theory is that the Provisional Government of Hawaii comes to an end with a notification from the government that annexation with the United States is denied, the government having been formed for the purpose of annexation. He may hold under this theory that Thurston no longer holds any diplomatic relation to this government, and that his own government has ceased to exist.

Washington, Nov. 24.—The Cabinet meeting to-day, was a protracted one. It is understood that the President's message and the reports of the cabinet officers were under discussion. If President Cleveland is disturbed over the Hawaiian situation he did not show it to-day. There is good reason for believing that the despatch received by the Alameda was considered at the cabinet meeting to-day, and the consideration seems to have resulted in a determination not to enlighten the public any further on what is proposed to do in Honolulu, or what has been done, but to allow it to wait upon the regular means of communication.

The Councils and the Finances.

The councils were in session on Thursday. Judging from the report in the official organ yesterday morning, no business was transacted.

The weekly financial statement was presented. The current account balance, shows a book amount of $155,190.39 in the treasury, which does not prove the true status of its financial condition. It will be noticed that the expenditures have been very small, the largest item being in the Attorney-General's dept. No doubt for payment to some of the numerous prowlers and spies. Whereas comparatively nothing has been spent for public works, or anything decent. When the current account debts are all paid, the balance will no doubt be considerably reduced.

The Total Treasury Balance, is announced to be $167,749.04; if the Finance Minister will look over the figures, he will no doubt find that the correct amount is $157,635.28.

In the Postal Savings Bank department, an amount of $1,015 has apparently been paid on account of withdrawals. While the cash on hand balance shows a reduction of $3,636.95 since the report of last week. This is not a healthy showing.

The Courts.

The November term of the Circuit Court closed to-day. A large number of cases have been tried and a large number went over till next term. In the only case left against Mr. H. F. Poor a nolle prosequi was entered by the Attorney-General and Mr. Poor is now a free and vindicated man again. In the cases of A. Johnstone and A. Cloys charged with libel no indictments were presented and the cases were dropped. The libel suits against the editors of the Star and of the Holomua will be tried at the next term—pela paha.

In the Supreme Court a decision has been filed in the bankruptcy case of W. H. Aldrich in favor of Mr. Aldrich.

On Monday next, Mr. F. Wundenberg will appear and answer certain charges made against him by Attorney-General W. O. Smith.

Robert W. Irwin Esq. H. H. M's Minister Resident at Tokio, is expected to arrive on the Oceanic.

Letter from T. J. Burke.

[Mr. T. J. Burke of Denver Colorado, who visited these Islands some months ago writes the following interesting letter to a gentleman in this town.]

DEAR FRIEND:—

It is my pleasant duty to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 31st of October, and to say to you that you cannot be in any doubt at the present time as to the result of your "Tempest in a tea-pot" revolution as you term it. My friends here say, that this (the Hawaiian matter) is the only thing done under the Cleveland Administration that has been done to our liking; be this as it may, Cleveland has done an honorable and necessarily a creditable thing to the great American people, although his course will be very severely criticised by the opposition and many a man who, understanding the real true condition under which the Queen was dethroned would pursue the same course that he (Cleveland) did, were he in position so to do, will now, under the pressure of partisanship which will be brought to bear on this question denounce his acts as unpatriotic and undeserving the sanction of American citizens. However, when the true conditions are explained, and you will find that time will necessitate the explanation, then the honorable Americans will endorse his course regardless of party lines. As a disinterested admirer of your country and the people of it, I take pleasure also in congratulating them on the replacement of their choice to the throne "Queen Liliuokalani," and I wish her all the success that belongs to a queen whose intentions are to do the most good for the greatest number of her people and I believe that to be her sentiments.

I am aware of some newspaper criticism in Honolulu on my letters to a newspaper in this State, and I will say to you now in regard to it that my object in writing to such paper as was mentioned was that the paper is published in the home of our two United States Senators and I knew it would get to Washington and be placed in the place where it would be scrutinized carefully and commented on sufficiently to get an expression of opinions, that would do some good for an honest cause as I believed it to be, and I am now rejoicing on account of its success.

There is considerable talk as well as newspaper threats here that the Provisional Government will resist the United States in re-instating the Queen, but I know it is all bosh, and I do not hesitate to say that there will not be a rifle on the usual quiet that ordinarily prevails in Honolulu the day it takes place, and those 2,000 sharpshooters that they talk of (in the papers here) will diminish to less than twenty, and they, I think, have wisdom enough to look out for themselves and put their Winchesters in a safe hiding place or they will be taken away from them.

OFFICIAL VISIT.

Monsieur S. Fujii Diplomatic Agent and Consul-General, for Japan, visited the war ship Naniwa this forenoon. He was accorded the usual salute upon leaving the vessel.

More Lies, Same Liars!

Stevens and Thurston on the Rampage Again.

The Australia brings newspapers in which Mr. Thurston, the present diplomat and Mr. Stevens the past diplomat have entered into an interesting competition in their efforts to become the champion liars of the century. It is a pity that the two gentlemen did not consult each other before they started out to contradict the plain and truthful facts contained in Blount's report, so they could have avoided contradicting each other in getting worse than tangled in their attempts to clear themselves. Mr. Thurston states, that Stevens and Wiltse, landed the Boston troops on their own responsibility, and without the knowledge of the revolutionists, while Stevens says, that he would never have asked Wiltse to land his forces if it hadn't been that Mr. Thurston on behalf of the so called committee of safety had requested him to do so. Mr. Stevens says, that there was no conspiracy, no secrecy, underhanded business in the whole revolution, but at the same time, Attorney General W. O. Smith accuses Mr. Wundenberg of having divulged the proceedings at secret meetings and betrayed the confidences of his co-conspirators. If the devil makes an entry in his ledger of each lie uttered on earth, he must have been very busy since the Hawaiian revolution started and the pages devoted to our Christian friends, the annexationists must be filled to overflow. Among smaller liars, we notice a fellow who signs himself Garrett, and who in a letter to the Examiner indulges in a lot of abuses against Mr. Wundenberg of whom he says, he once was a partner, and whose "wicked character" he had ample opportunity to become acquainted with. There was once a fellow here who absconded and never paid his lawful debts, but he was neither a partner, nor in any way intimate with Mr. Wundenberg. He simply was as he seems to be now, a rascal and a liar.

PORTUGUESE INDEPENDENCE DAY.

Yesterday was the anniversary of the independence of Portugal, and the day was appropriately celebrated by the Portuguese colony. The two Portuguese Societies entertained the members and friends in their respective buildings and a very enjoyable time was had. The Portuguese Charge d' affairs Mr. de Souza Canavarro made an address to both Societies in which he told his countrymen that he on behalf of his government was instructed to advise them seriously not to interfere in the political trouble in Hawaii, not to carry arms for either one side or the other, but keep perfectly neutral and remain peaceful and quiet.

The C. A. S. S. Arawa, from the Colonies en route to Vancouver, is due to-day; and the O. & O. S. S. Oceanic, from Yokohama en route to San Francisco, is due on Monday the 4th inst.

Interesting Facts From the Baltimore Sun.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The critics of the administration are still engaged in rolling the Hawaiian matter as a sweet morsel under their tongues. They are apparently having it all to themselves for the present, and naturally enough they are endeavoring to make the best of their opportunity. In the meantime not a syllable has been uttered by either the President or any member of his cabinet. The President is content to let the statement of the Secretary of State stand alone until such times as he deems it fitting to supplement it with additional reasons for the policy he has deemed it best for this country to pursue. In due season the country will have the benefit of all the information collected by the administration, and when it is all brought to light many of those who are following the occupation of denunciation will be apt to hide their diminished heads.

Many, however, true to their instincts, will stick to their original text and brazen it out to the last. Such a fine opportunity for the lovers of gossip and sensation does not often present itself, and it is really astonishing to witness the ingenuity which has produced countless columns of allegations of all sorts in reference to the subject. This is rendered more easy from the fact that the fabricators realize there is no one to contradict their romances.

There is a well settled belief that the democratic party in both branches of Congress will sustain fully the action of the President, although doubtless there may be individual democrats who, for the sake of notoriety, may follow the republican example of empty vamping. Time will show the attitude of the country at large, and as to this the President has no misgivings.

Dr. Day's Misstatement.

In an interview in Chicago, Dr. F. R. Day is reported to have said that, "the success of the revolution in Hawaii is not the result of a display of force by the United States; that up to and within twenty-four hours of the proclamation of the new Constitution by the Queen no revolt was thought of; that the result would have been the same whether the marines landed or not, but that the landing of the marines made the revolution bloodless instead of bloody." "That the result would have been the same whether the marines landed or not," the Doctor no doubt knows better than to express such an opinion. But that their landing made the revolution less bloody for the revolutionists—is true.

The Misses Albu.

The two famous English Sopranos arrived this morning on the Australia and will give several concerts here. It is expected that if the necessary arrangements can be made the first concert will take place on Thursday evening. A rare treat is in store for our music loving people, and we hope that the concert will be well patronized.

CORRESPONDENCE.

[We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or the utterances of our correspondents.]

EDITOR HOLOMUA:

The part of the situation which strikes home most strongly to the American section of the P. G. Missionary stripe is the fact that after all these years of representing themselves as true types of the American Nation in acts and thoughts, they find themselves so utterly mistaken that on this the first opportunity for proof, they are utterly and forever repudiated as such. And that is where the shoe pinches. After having for years said, we are the only Americans to be publicly shown up as being entirely out of it—a hybrid mongrel compound of despotism and lying.

AMERICAN.

The Minstrels.

Don't forget that to-night the amateur minstrels will give their second performance at the Opera House. It is going to be one of the best entertainments and everybody fond of laughing must go. When you hear the P. G. Band imitated by the minstrels, you will be tickled to death.

Invitations to the wedding of Miss C. E. Vida, and W. P. Boyd Esq. United States Vice and Deputy Council General to Hawaii, are issued. The ceremony will take place at the Central Union Church on Dec. 12th. A reception will be held at the residence of Mrs. H. Cornwell later in the evening.

The "World" and Stevens.

The Hawaiian incident takes on new interest from the publication of the facts in a letter from Secretary Gresham to the President to-day. For ex-Minister Stevens this official document will have peculiar and perhaps annoying interest. It seems to show beyond question that he deliberately deceived his own Government when he declared that he had recognized the Hawaiian revolutionary junta only after it had secured actual control. It shows that he in fact made the revolution possible by landing marines and giving it the protection of American guns in the very act of overthrowing the existing Government by proclamation, unsupported by any force except that which he furnished. It is a very interesting statement, and it confirms in every particular all that THE WORLD said at the time in criticism of this filibustering diplomat and in advocacy of delay and full inquiry.—N. Y. World.

Liberty or Death.

"And is that Liberty?" asked the immigrant, pointing to the statue as the vessel entered the harbor. "Yes," said the sailor, "that is Liberty." "Then give me death!" cried the immigrant, and he jumped overboard.—New York Sun.

HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS.

Opinions of Eminent Men on President Cleveland's Policy.

[COMPILED FROM LATE NEWS EXCHANGES.]

W. D. DAVAGE'S OPINION.

W. D. Davage, one of the leading constitutional lawyers in Washington and one who practices almost exclusively before the Supreme Court and in international cases, had this to say about the legal side of the Hawaiian question: "If Queen Liliuokalani was dethroned through the acts of an agent of this country, then it is the manifest duty of the United States to restore her to the position in which she was before this act was committed. If the matter could be referred to an international tribunal that would undoubtedly be their decision. If a private individual is deprived of any rights or property by the deeds of another the courts will order reparation to be made to the extent of the injury. If, on the other hand, Minister Stevens had no hand in overthrowing the monarchy in Hawaii, but it was done entirely through the acts of the subjects of the reigning Queen, then the United States has no concern in the matter, and any attempt to abolish the present government and re-establish the monarchy would be an act of unwarranted interference on the part of this country. The whole question on this point is this: If the representatives of the United States caused this revolution and established this Provisional Government in Hawaii, then the United States has the constitutional right to restore the statu quo, but that is as far as we can go. Having restored the former state of affairs we must stop at that. However, I do not construe the President's action in the light of a declaration of war."

ANOTHER OPINION.

A prominent member of the Foreign Affairs Committee had this to say to-night:

"If Minister Stevens was instrumental in causing the dethronement of the Queen, then it is the duty of the United States to restore her to the throne. If she was deposed by her own subjects, then we have nothing to do with the matter and cannot interfere in any way."

CONGRESSMAN SPRINGER IS IN ACCORD.

Congressman Springer of Illinois says he is in thorough accord with the administration on the question and believes, as he says, that as the Queen could not have been overthrown without the aid of the United States marines, she should be restored. Democrats believe that at the opening of Congress Cleveland will send a message in which he will make public many facts hitherto unknown to this country, which may put the case in an entirely new light. This is expected, especially in view of the fact that Commissioner Blount's report has not been given out.

Springer opposes annexation, but says it is the duty of the United States to assure the independence of Hawaii and to make it a cause of war for any other nation to attempt annexation.

REPRESENTATIVE MAGUIRE STATES HIS VIEWS.

The only members of the California delegation now in Washington are Representatives Geary, Maguire and Cannon. When seen to-night Geary declined to discuss the Hawaiian matter on the grounds that he is a member of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs. Cannon was also not disposed to talk.

Representative Maguire takes this position: The vindication of our national honor demands the restoration of the Queen as far as possible to the Governmental conditions existing last January. He believes the documentary evidence submitted thus far shows that the Hawaiian revolution, resulting in the dethronement of the Queen and the establishment of the Provisional Government was accomplished at the instigation, and through the aid of the authorized representatives of the United States.

He has this to say further: "The Constitutional Government of Hawaii made conditional its abdication and surrender of authority, under protest and solely by reason of fear of this country's military and naval powers. Mr. Dole, the Provisional Government President, indorsed the conditional abdication, and this indorsement may be fairly construed as a recognition of the conditions of abdication as stated in the document. If this view of the matter is correct the whole question of the change of government was submitted to the arbitration of the United States. Stevens, the accredited Minister of this Government to the constitutional government of an independent kingdom, deliberately engaged in a revolutionary intrigue for the overthrow of that Government and lent to the revolutionists the military and naval power of this country. All of this occurred when the Hawaiian power was at peace with us."

Minstrels to-night. Fun ahead.

Band at Emma Square this afternoon.

The game of foot-ball, announced for to-day, "is off."

Two P. G. braves, armed, were riding through the streets this forenoon.

The Japanese War ship Naniwa-Kan, arrived this morning from Yokohama.

Who was the ruffian that stopped a peaceable band of serenaders from singing yesterday morning, and threatened to arrest them all if they did not keep quiet? What next, will these P. G. prowlers do?
