While this statement is as true as it is flattering we would respectfully suggest that our friends and patrons kai, Judge of the Circuit Court of the Second Judicial Circuit, Territory of Hawaii.

The Grand Jurors of the Territory of Hawaii submit their final report and respectfully represent as follows:

Presentments and Indictments.
There have been presented to the Grand Jury by the Attorney General's Department nine cases, in each of which a careful investigation has followed, resulting in the finding of true bills in six of these cases, and for the offenses herein-below set forth:
Territory of Hawaii vs L. K.
Akana, Perjury.
Territory of Hawaii vs Ah Yen, Ah Wan and Ah Kim, Assault and Battery with a Weapon.
Territory of Hawaii vs Kaili
Haili, Forgery.
Territory of Hawaii vs Meleana Kaaipalaoa, Subordination of Perjury.
Territory of Hawaii vs Meleana
Kaaipalaoa, Perjury.
Territory of Hawaii vs John Ro-drigues, Burglary, 1st degree.
Investigations in which no bills were found:
Territory of Hawaii vs George Kaonohi Auwekoolani, charged with murder.
Territory of Hawaii vs Meleana
Kaaipalaoa, Manslaughter.
Territory of Hawaii vs Ah Hoy, Perjury.

License Fees.
The Grand Jury has investigated the above matter and report that they find lax business methods in the matter of collecting license fees and issuing health permits on the part of the Sheriff and the Sanitary Officer, and we recommend that the Territorial Treasurer appoint an agent to attend to the matter of collecting license fees for the County.

We recommend the complete exoneration of the officials in the matter of misuse or any irregularity whatever in the purchase of gun powder to be used on the public road in the district of Hana except in the matter of freight, amounting to $20.00 which should have been charged to the Territory.
The Grand Jury recommends that suitable quarters be provided for the deliberations of the next Grand Jury of the Second Circuit Court to be held in Wailuku, in June, 1907.

The Grand Jury wish to extend their thanks to the Deputy Attorney General, Mr. D. H. Case, for many kindnesses and prompt attention during our present term.

ASSOCIATION MEETS AT PAIA.

The Association of the Evangelical churches of Maui will begin its Semi-annual session this morning at the Paia Native Church. The meetings will last until Friday afternoon, March 29, and promise to be of unusual interest. An excellent program has been provided which is printed in English and Hawaiian. The public is cordially invited to all the meetings.

The hour of 9:30 to 10:30 from Monday to Thursday has been reserved for careful study and explanation of the book of Colossians. One chapter will be considered each morning. On Friday at 9:30 Rev. B. V. Bazata will lecture upon the subject "How we got our Bible." This lecture Mr.

hambra in the University Extension Course. Maui people are fortunate in having this opportunity to hear it.

Rev. Doremus Scudder, D. D.
and Rev. O. H. Gulick from Honolulu and Rev. John E. Dodge are to be present, and are scheduled for important parts in the program.

GUN CLUB SHOOT TOMORROW.

As was announced in the News last week the members of the Kihei and Wailuku gun clubs met on the grounds at Waikapu last Sunday and contested for places in the shoot to take place between the highest scores and a picked team from Puunene.

Those making the highest scores were P. J. Bell, W. A. Sparks, M.
Moura, E. M. Keeney and F. A.
Mayfield.

These marksmen will begin tomorrow to shoot against the Puunene team consisting of G. L.
Keeney, George W. Mayfield, W.
W. Wescott, A. Betts and Wm.
Lougher for a silver cup offered by the Maui Hotel.

It is the plan to have the cup won twice when it will become the permanent property of the team that wins out.

The shoot will be watched with interest as the teams are well matched and honors are supposed to be about evenly divided.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT.

The first case tried by the Circuit Court this week of the criminal calendar was that of the Territory of Hawaii vs. Ah Yen, Ah Wan and Ah Kim charged with assault and Battery with a weapon on the person of Young Nap. The jury evidently didnt take much stock in the theory that the witness was a Sunday school boy and didnt know any thing of the the many gambling games of which he was asked. Although he swore he was "a very good man" it was evident that the jury did not believe him. The defendants were acquitted.

The charge against L. K. Ahana will be tried next term as the principal witness against him is in Honolulu attending the Legislature.
J. L. Coke was assigned to defend Kaili Haili by the Court and when the case was ready to go to the jury a nolle pros was entered as it was evident that there were others in the case far more guilty than the defendant.

John Rodrigues plead guilty to the charge of burglary and Meleana Kaaipalaoa plead guilty to the charge of Perjury. They will be sentenced today.

Some of the St. Paulists are suing the Sheriff and a jury is wrestling with the case at the present time.

Kahului Church Dedication.

The new church at Kahului is to be dedicated next Sunday at 3 p. m.
The sermon will be preached by Rev.
Doremus Scudder D. D. of Honolulu.
Trains will be run from Wailuku, Paia and Puunene and a hearty invitation to attend is extended to the people of Maui through the columns of the News.

SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1907

Does Maui Dictate? The members of the House from Oahu and Hawaii ought to combine to prevent Maui from defeating items in the appropriation bill from which their counties would derive great and legitimate benefits.

To Oahu and Hawaii, it is of high concern, as the islands chiefly visited by tourists to keep the Promotion Committee in funds. That Committee is beginning to show results; to hamper it now might deprive Oahu and Hawaii, and incidentally the Territory, of benefits worth many times the $25,000 which the Committee asks for. The cut to $12,000 means $500 a month for the biennial period, which would just about pay salary and other office expenses of the Promotion Committee, leaving nothing for the outside work and special drives which tell in tourists.

It is amazing that Oahu and Hawaii representatives do not see the Maui game and stand together for their own good and, through them, for the general good of the Territory. It would not be half so unfair to do so, as it would be unfair to the constituencies they represent, not to do so.

And why should Maui twist the representatives of the other islands around her finger? Are all the shrewd and smart men in the Maui delegation? And are the prejudices of a feudal hermits to stop the movement which, in the end, may enrich the people of Hawaii as it has the people of Southern California?

Oahu and Hawaii ought to compel the reconsideration of the $25,000 promotion item.—Advertiser.

Does Honolulu at last realize that she has played the game of grab all to the limit and wishes now to make a fair division of spoils between herself and Hawaii? Her greed for many years has been of such a character that Hawaii was the first to kick and it has been a great joke for the Honolulu members to refer to Hilo as Kicker's village. Kauai was the second to see the game of the metropolis but without the help of Maui she could do but little against the combined efforts of the common enemy.

Now after Maui has seen her taxes go to building sewerage systems and water works and a thousand other things that are of a purely local character she has apparently joined the other two islands in an effort to do justice to the whole Territory and we glory in the good sense of the members not only of Maui but of the other two islands, that have been the common prey of Honolulu.

Has Honolulu just discovered that she loves Hawaii? Does she imagine for a moment that she can make even the most thick skulled backwoodsman believe that she is actuated by a sense of justice after all the years of greed? We imagine not. Even the school boys of Hawaii know that the Honolulu game is to get the Territory to put up the funds for tourists and then every mother's son in Honolulu does everything in his power to keep the tourists from leaving the city limits.

The NEWS believes the appropriation of liberal funds for promotion work could be made of great advantage to the entire Territory but if the methods that have been in force for the past years are to continue we see no reason why the other islands should pay the bills. If Honolulu loses this great revenue she has no one but herself to blame for the loss.

The Honorable Gentlemen Are Offended. From reports from Honolulu it seems that certain senators, clothed with temporary authority and questionable honor have become offended at a just demand of the teachers of Maui.

The demand made by the teachers is that the Territory fulfil its part of a contract that was entered into by the Territory and its teachers a contract that could be easily enforced in a court were the parties thereto individuals. It is a just demand and one that men of honor should heed. The teachers of the Territory were employed at a certain fixed rate, to find later that the Territory would not keep its part of the contract.

Even the Governor who ordered the cut did not defend his action on the ground of justice but on the ground that the financial difficulties of the Territory made it necessary and promised that as soon as the difficulties were passed the Territory would again fulfil its part of the contract. These same over sensitive senators with more dignity than common sense went on the stump and promised the teachers the restoration of their salaries that justice and the future welfare of the Territory demands only to treat with scorn the plea of the noblest body of workers in the service of the Territory. From the tone of the letters received from all over the Territory we do not hesitate to say the teachers are in earnest in their demands and unless they are heeded some political careers will be cut short and a number of politicians will be relegated to the shadows of oblivion.

The Grand Jury's Report. Some comment has been brought about by the wording of the report of the Grand Jury in so far as it refers to the issuing of sanitary permits by the sanitary officer.

Members of the Grand Jury have been interviewed and state positively that this does not refer in any way to Dr. Dingear the Government physician of the Wailuku District.

"Have another drink?"

"Yes, of Primo."

Knights of Pythias Dance.

The Knights of Pythias gave a grand ball at their castle hall on the evening of the 16th instant that was largely attended.

From seventy five to one hundred dancers were on the floor at one time and kept up the dancing until midnight and then were not ready to leave the hall.

The Walkapu Quartet Club furnished the music and all were pleased with their performance.

Refreshments were served by the Maui Hotel to all who wished to dine while soda water and other cold drinks were served to those who were thirsty.

There was no admittance fee although a small charge was made for refreshments in order to meet the expense of the occasion as it comes too high on the members to foot the expense of such an occasion.

It is the intention of the members to send out invitations once each quarter provided the public appreciate the opportunity to the extent of footing the necessary expense. No charge is made for the use of the hall or the lights.

The evening was a most enjoyable one and it is to be hoped there will be many more such entertainments in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Buriem are now occupying their new cottage recently built in Wailuku.

Tribute to Principal Henry Dickenson.

The teachers of the Lahaina Public School have drafted the following resolutions.

The teachers of Lahaina School desire to place on record a loving tribute to the memory of their lamented Principal Henry Dickenson.

In order to express these sentiments of regard, perhaps it may be advisable to make use of the somewhat trite and common place method of "Adopting Resolutions," which often seem formal, cold-hearted and stilted; a simple, statement of our sincere and profound reverence for our departed friend will be more appropriate in this season of sudden affliction.

In regard to Mr. Dickenson's professional ability, his successful teaching in Lahaina for thirty-two years is all sufficient testimony. We gratefully acknowledge his uniform courtesy towards ourselves, the members of the staff.

In the school-room Mr. Dickenson was gentle, yet firm, his quiet and unassuming dignity won the respect and obedience of the scholars. They felt that he was trying to help them in their daily tasks.

Although Mr. Dickenson had been in educational work so long, he was not behind the age, nor did he cling to antiquated methods. He took all the latest professional journals, and was always ready to introduce improvements, so far as they were practicable in this community.

Much more might be said, but the above will give some idea of the faithful laborer, and the broad minded, tender-hearted disposition of Henry Dickenson.

Questions Legality of Method of Voting.

There is likely to be a lot of trouble in the future if the opinion of a lawyer is correct as to the passage of some of the bills by the lower house. It appears that when House bills have passed third reading in that body and are referred to the Senate for action and amendments made there, it has been the custom in the lower house to take the vote on the concurrence in those amendments by raising of hands.

The Annual Meeting.

The Maui Teachers Association held its annual meeting Friday in the Waiuku school building. A good attendance was present and the old time interest in any thing for the betterment of the schools was enjoyed.

President Moses Kaubimahu presided. After the reading of the roll and the minutes of the last convention the exercises were begun by the singing of "My Country 'Tis of Thee. A vocal solo by Miss Pihl was greatly appreciated as the young lady has a beautiful voice.

Owing to the illness of Mr. F. W. Hardy his paper was read by Mr. F. P. Rosecrans, the subject being "The School City." The subject was one of unusual interest and if carried out will do much toward the establishment of better government where ever it is put into practice.

The plan outlined in the method of governing the school is in practical use by the Wailuku school and is found an excellent one for the better government of the school and the grounds and is fitting the pupils for local self government.

THE SCHOOL CITY.

In explanation it should be stated that some months ago this subject was assigned Mr. S. R. Dowdle to be given by him before the Makawao teachers' association but as he was unable to perform the task he kindly allowed me the use of several pamphlets he obtained from Wilson L. Gill of Germantown, Philadelphia, the originator of school cities in America.

WHAT THE SCHOOL CITY IS.

According to Mr. Gill, the school city is an organization of the pupils of a school into the city form of government. The pupils are citizens. The three divisions of popular government, legislative, executive, and judicial are established. The pupils elect from their own number a mayor, city clerk, city council, etc. Each room in the school bears a relation to the entire School City like that of a ward to a city, electing ordinarily two members of the School City council and being apportioned its quota of police, health officers, etc. Elections are held at least four times a year. Responsibility for the good order and discipline of the school rests upon the pupils themselves as citizens of the School City and upon the officers in their various capacities.

The teachers, or principals give advice and guidance, and supervise, this pupil self-government, and it thus becomes a method of moral and civic training.

HOW IT ORIGINATED.

In 1888 Mr. Gill made an effort to have manual training introduced into the public schools of Columbus, Ohio, where he then resided. The proposition was defeated at the polls by the most ignorant element of the city's voters. This event deeply impressed upon Mr. Gill's mind the need for a better citizenship and led him to organize the Patriotic League for the study of citizenship.

After carrying on this work for awhile Mr. Gill became convinced that the place where citizenship can best be taught is in the public schools and that the best method of teaching citizenship is by the actual practice of it.

In the winter of 1896-7 he put his ideas successfully into practice in a large primary and grammar school in New York city which was in a most unruly condition.

The School City laws may be thus summarized according to Rev. Thomas R. Slicer of New York. SCHOOL CITY LAWS.

Chapter I. The General City Law. Do to others as you would wish them to do to you. This is the natural law, without which no popular government can succeed, and it is the general law of this School City, to which all other laws and regulations must conform.

Chapter II. Things Prohibited. Article I. Do not to others that which you would not wish them to do to you.

ORDER.

Article 2. Anything which disturbs the order in halls classrooms or in any place within the jurisdiction of the School City is prohibited.

Article 3. Anything which is profane, rude, intentionally unkind or impolite is prohibited.

CLEANLINESS.

Article 4. Anything which detracts from the neat and orderly appearance of our School City is prohibited.

HEALTH.

Article 5. Anything which detracts from the healthful conditions of our School City is prohibited.

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE PROPERTY.

Article 6. Anything which mars or destroys property in our School City is prohibited.

CHAPTER III. DUTIES.

Article 1. Every citizen is in duty bound to call the attention of the authorities to any violation of the laws of this School City.

CHAPTER IV. PUNISHMENTS.

Article 1. Any citizen violating any law of this School City shall be subject to punishment not less than a reprimand, and not greater than a withdrawal of the rights of citizenship.

Article 2. No punishment shall be carried into execution before it has been approved by the principal of the school and then it must be put promptly into effect.

CHAPTER V. OFFICERS.

Article 1. The Director of Public Safety, with consent of the Mayor, shall appoint one chief of police for the school and one captain of police and four policemen for each room. Appointments before going into effect must be approved by the City Council.

CHAPTER VI. TERMS OF OFFICE.

Article 1. The terms of office of all officers, unless otherwise provided, shall be until the next general election, and until their successors are appointed or elected.

Article 2. Captain of police shall serve two weeks and policemen one week, unless sooner removed by the Director of Public Safety.

Some of the advantages claimed for the system by Mr. Gill is as follows:

- 1. It produces better order and discipline in the school. 2. It is a beneficial influence upon the children when out of school. 3. It releases for constructive work much of the teacher's energy formerly consumed in police duty. 4. It removes causes of friction between teachers and pupils and develops most cordial relations. 5. It gives the students an acquaintance with governmental forms. 6. It tends to preclude snap judgments by establishing a system of judgment upon evidence. 7. It cultivates in the students the judicial frame of mind. 8. It improves the personal morals of the students. 9. It develops in the young people honor, respect, and obedience to laws of their own making, and hence to all properly constituted authority. 10. It increases and gives valuable support to self-respect. 11. It prepares for future participation in the city the state, and the nation, a body of citizens who are informed as to their duties, trained in the practice of them, and imbued with the interests and purposes of a true public spirit. 12. It furnishes a means, proven to be thoroughly successful, for constant training in the application of the Golden Rule and other ethical ideas. This is a decided improvement on the simple memorizing of moral precepts.

Among the many indorsement of The School City by persons of the highest standing in educational affairs is one from President Roosevelt in a letter read at the School City banquet given in the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia.

White House

Washington,

May 27, 1904.

My Dear Sir:

I hear with satisfaction that an earnest movement is well advanced in Philadelphia to establish in the schools of that city the teaching of civics by the admirable plan originated by Wilson L. Gill in the School City as a form of student government.

I know of the work of Mr. Gill, both in this country and in Cuba, where Mr. Gill inaugurated this form of instruction upon the invitation of General Wood. Nothing could offer higher promise for the future of our country than an intelligent interest in the best ideals of citizenship its privileges and duties among the students of our common schools. I wish for you efforts in this direction the utmost success.

Very truly yours,

Theodore Roosevelt.

Some of its indorsers state: The School City is the best, the strongest, the simplest attempt yet made to solve the municipal problem. It is simply a reasonable apprenticeship in the art of citizenship or right living.

This apprenticeship is of necessity founded on the constant practice of the Golden Rule and the spirit and plan of government indicated by the Declaration of Independence and Constitution of the United States.

The children understand that the offices are not for officiousness but for kindly service to all the citizens.

As much as an hour a week ought to be allotted to this work. The plan is simple or complex according to the needs of the school or judgement of the teacher in charge. The teacher's absolute authority is not changed in the slightest. The teacher does not become a citizen, but is the leader, guide, and friend. The degree of its success, in any given school is dependent, the same as a method of teaching mathematics or drawing upon the tack and interest of the teacher.

Some suggestions for Maui Schools. THE SCHOOL COUNTY.

One room may be organized as a county or a number, each room in the latter case representing a district of the county.

If only one room is so organized, then five supervisors divided among the different grades or classes in the room should be elected every ten weeks. If more rooms than one are included, then supervisors should be elected from each.

These supervisors should choose a chairman from among themselves. They should immediately adopt a code of laws similar to those suggested by Mr. Gill.

They should appoint a sheriff every two weeks, and two Deputy-Sheriffs or Policemen every week to maintain order in the room or rooms on the verandahs, and on the grounds.

They should appoint two health officers every week (a boy and a girl) to look after yard and sanitary conditions generally. (The policemen may do duty as health officers, if the teachers deem it best.)

They should appoint a county judge every two weeks to try all cases arising from any infraction of laws or ordinances.

They should appoint a Board of Inspectors of Election every ten weeks to arrange for and to conduct elections according to the Australian ballot system now in use in the Territory.

They should pass ordinances from time to time whenever necessary. Every act of supervisors and other officers should be subject to supervision and indorsement of the teacher in charge.

Advantages of the School County. The cosmopolitan character of the pupils attending the schools of Hawaii and the fact that the parents of these pupils as a class are uneducated and therefore unable to instruct their children as to civic rights and duties, seem to justify an attempt on the part of the teachers to civil government in a simple way to the pupils.

It seems hardly right to allow future citizens of the great American republic to remain ignorant of the fundamental principles of good citizenship until they go to the ballot-box and then to be instructed by those who as a rule are unscrupulous politicians seeking their own selfish ends.

Appeals can not be made to an intense feeling of patriotism to aid in the matter, as was done in Cuba when the School City was being organized there, but a appeal can be made to the feeling of right and justice that exists, though may be lying dormant awaiting development, in every human mind.

If children learn to love and practice the principles embodied in the Constitution of the United States, they may gradually come to love the county government by such principles.

If boys and girls learn early in life to consider the right and wrong of matters, to think of things as they affect the general good, surely something marked in a moral way in the way of character building will have been accomplished.

The hedge was broken in many places and looked very much abused. Children, above all things, should be taught that the proper entrance to the school yard is through the gates provided for that purpose, and not through the hedge or over the fence or wall. A lot of narrow trails across a grass plot do not add anything to its beauty. Insist that the children enter and leave the school grounds by the proper entrances and exits. It may not be possible in city schools to have individual gardens, but, every school yard should have a piece of ground sufficiently large for each grade to have a community garden, where the various vegetables and flowers may be grown according to their season.

It should be cleared of grass, weeds and loose rock. These should be disposed of and not merely thrown around the edges of the bed as is usually the case. It is as well to have a large hole in which all rubbish can be thrown and afterwards burned. Later on it can be used as fertilizer on the lawn or in the vegetable and flower garden. Wood ashes are very valuable and if scattered over the ground and worked in, not only help to kill off ground or root Aphids, Slugs, and other pests, but materially add to the luxuriance of whatever vegetables or flowers are grown in the bed. The vegetables will grow quicker and the colors of the flowers will be more brilliant. The children should be taught the value of every scrap of rubbish that can possibly be converted into fertilizer. Much valuable material goes to waste all over the Islands which a little fore thought would save. So often we hear of gardens being successful the first year, but, failures the next. Very often the cause of failure can be traced to the lack of nutriment in the soil. The fact of the matter is that we are always ready to take all the land will give us in the shape of fruit and vegetables, but we neglect to give back to the land anything in return. Another cause of failure is that there are so many insect pests to contend with and we hear on all sides, "What is the use of growing things for bugs to eat." Remember that there are insect pests every where and still people grow things just the same. Don't get discouraged. Teach the children to look for the pests and destroy them and you will probably meet with more success. You can usually get the best of cut worms and caterpillars if you get up early enough.

For your seed planting choose cloudy mornings and try and have the children follow the directions printed on the seed packets. Many failures in growing anything from seed arise from either too shallow or too deep planting. Do not forget when the seedling cabbage, Lettuce, and Tomato plants come up that they will need transplanting. Allow plenty of room for each to mature. It is to have a dozen perfect heads of lettuce or cabbage than fifty scraggy ones. Beets, Carrots Turnips, Onions, and Radishes should be sown rather thick but afterwards thinned out. If two crowded look for failure. See that climbing beans have support before they get all tangled up. Choose vegetables and flowers that do well in your district. Children soon get discouraged when things do not grow well and are apt to lose interest at this stage. They want to see results, and are always immensely proud even if they only succeed in raising one good specimen of either fruit, vegetable, or flower.

Don't withhold the kindly word of praise and encouragement when boy or girl draws your attention to the large cabbage, tomato or chrysanthemum they have grown, children, like grown folks, like to be patted on the back once and awhile. I would like to say a word here in regard to Schoolgrounds that are in good condition when you enter upon your duties. If you do not possess much knowledge of Agriculture be guided by what your predecessor has done in the way of beautifying the schoolgrounds and try at least to keep them in as good condition as you found them. Do not allow them to get overgrown with lantana and weeds. Every teacher can at least direct the children in pulling weeds and digging out lantana and guava. If you live on the School grounds think sometimes of the teacher who will come after you. Plant a few fruit trees around the teachers cottage. You may not be there to gather the fruit, but someone else will and rest assured they will be grateful. You will get your reward.

I have spoken of the necessity of keeping up the children's interest in the school gardens, and it may not be out of place to tell you of a few little things done by myself and my assistant who happens to be my wife, fortunately. No Department of Public Instruction has any right to expect the teachers in its employ to put any schoolgrounds in good condition that were not in good order when the school house was built. I do not wish it to be understood by this, that teachers should not improve and beautify the school grounds with the assistance of the pupils. The Department has the right to expect that, but, no more. When a school house is built the grounds should be graded and put in shape so as to enable the teachers and pupils to go on with their agricultural work.

When we came here a little over two years ago and entered the path way leading from the landing to the school premises, it was not a garden of roses which met our sight. We looked around and could see very little of an encouraging nature. A wretched, looking building, grounds covered with lantana and guava. The rocks were enough to frighten a man not inclined to work out of a years growth.

We made up our minds to change things at Kipahulu. The first two or three months, the children did not seem to take much interest in their out door work. They did not see the necessity of doing a thing more than once. If they cut down the lantana one week and it grew up the next, that did not trouble them, but, it did me. I realized that I must create the desire in them not only of labor but a love of the beautiful in nature. This is what I did, I selected a very rough place near the school yard gate. It was a tangled mass of grass, lantana, guava, and rocks. There were three date palms but they could hardly be seen so overgrown were I carried off an enormous quantity of rock and finally got it in to shape to plant. I trimmed off the palms and planted a border of double red geraniums. Fortunately I had a package of gallia dia seed and had just received from "Childs" seed house packages of Royal Dinks Balsams, and Jubilee Phlox. It was not long before I had a veritable garden of blossoms. The Balsams were all double and of the most beautiful shades.

The Phlox and Royal pinks were exquisite in color and marking. It was called the "Teachers" garden and goes by that name still. It was not long before I had numerous requests from the children for permission to make gardens. This was readily granted, but, on one condition. That condition was this, that each and every child who wanted a garden must go and start like I had done, a rough piece of ground where the lantana was thickest, no picking out of easy spots. We soon had, a number of small gardens cleared and planted, with flowers and vegetables. That was a beginning. At this time we were much troubled by stray horses on account of having an apology of a fence. I suggested to the boys that we tear down what remained of the old rotten picket fence and build a stone wall. Many of the children came before seven o'clock, and I made it a point to be cut working at that stone wall when they came down the road. There was little excuse for them to go off and play when they saw the teacher working. Before the summer vacation came around we had finished that stone wall and had about a third of the lantana dug out. We had a large vegetable garden and a few trees and shrubs planted. During the summer vacation the school house was painted and repaired which was a great improvement. When school re-opened I had a good supply of choice flower and vegetable seeds on hand and I told the children when the ground was ready I would give them the seed. The girls had now begun to take a good deal of interest in the agricultural work. They too wanted gardens. The same conditions were laid down for them with this exception that the boys could dig out the hard guava roots and move the heavy rocks. Some of the hardest and best work in the school yard has been voluntarily done by the girls. We can look around with not a little pride and a good deal of satisfaction on the improved condition of the schoolyard. Beautiful flowers at all seasons, fine young shade trees Papayas, Bananas and vegetables now take the place of worthless weeds. Orange, Lime, Pomelo, Nut, Alligator Pears, Peach, and Mango trees now gladden the eye and will tickle the palate of those who come after. A grove of coconut Palms will wave their leafy arms on high, and future generations will play beneath their shade. Rubber trees will supply us with erasers? at least we hope so. Tons upon tons of rock have been put into walls and plied up on worthless places. We have many individual gardens. They bring out many characteristics that would not be developed in the community garden. It prevents quarrels and jealousies. If there are only two tomatoes on a vine in a community garden it is hard to say who shall have them. But if in the individual garden the question is soon settled. I spoke of it being an easy matter to arouse the interest of the children, but, hard to maintain it. I maintain it by always providing good seed, both vegetable and flowers, always the best varieties we can get from the States. By working with the children, not trying to direct them from the School house lanai. By having my own garden and thus avoiding any criticism on the part of parents. They should appoint a county clerk to act as secretary at their meetings and to do all clerical work.

By allowing the children to have the produce they are entitled to, as the fruits of their labor. By encouraging the children to playless and work more. In Hawaii there is little danger of the children not getting enough play. By bringing before them the fact that eighty or ninety children can accomplish much in half an hour by their united efforts. That so long as the school grounds remained in such a poor condition it was a standing monument to the idleness of both pupils and teachers. They are learning to love their labor by being taught that all labor honestly performed is noble. They know the value of keeping the soil well pulverized and fertilized and make the most of every bit of shift that will help enrich the soil. By packing off the bugs and scale and destroying them. By not allowing any child to pick anything belonging to other children without permission. By showing favor to none. That was how interest was aroused and enthusiasm maintained. I am sure the children are better morally and physically than they ever were before. We have much work yet to do and I really do not think the time will ever come when there will not be work to be done in the Kipahulu schoolyard. You will find much to discourage you in your agricultural work among the children of Hawaii, but by perseverance you will find much enjoyment and pleasure. Kona storms will come and undo much of your work. Trees will die and get broken down, but keep on, some will arrive at maturity. You naturally ask, "does this agricultural work pay." It is in my mind of untold value both now and in the years to come. The large amount of extra work which all this entails the teacher must not look for payment. A niggardly Legislature made that impossible. A man has to rustle to get other things to do after school hours so as to enable him to support his family in a proper manner.

The best payment after all is not to be measured by dollars and cents, but from the knowledge that you have done what you could to promote the welfare and happiness of the children entrusted to your care by inculcating a love of the beautiful the pure and the useful into the child mind. You have put something into their lives that was not there before and created in them a desire for a better, cleaner, purer life. To love labor for labor's sake. There is nothing base in Agriculture it can only lead to higher and nobler thinking. It never debases, but on the contrary always elevates a man above the more sordid things of life. You will usually find that great lovers of nature are morally the best people. The children who grow up on the farm usually are found in later life steering the ship of State and invariably to success. By all means teach agriculture in your school. We feel fully repaid for anything we have done. When after a hard days work we can walk about in the schoolyard and looking at the gardens of the children and see the things we ourselves have planted and the things they have planted we are able to say sincerely and truthfully Yes! it pays.

W. W. TAYLOR.

Miss Nancy Daniels read a paper on Nature study. Mrs. McDonald read one on supplementary reading while Miss Crook got nearest the hearts of her audience by reading an able paper on the restoration of salaries.

The paper was excellent but the side remarks of the young lady were to the point with a vengeance. It was a pity the members of the legislature were not present to get the benefit of the force of her arguments. She has been in communication with many teachers all over the islands and all are taking a deep interest in the matter that means not only so much to them but to the children who will in time be the public leaders of the Territory. Her paper was as follows.

To Those Who Butt In.

Mr. Editor. If you will kindly allow us space in your paper to say to those who butt in at every opportunity without an invitation and who certainly are not wanted that should we give another dance in the future and they have immaculate grill enough to present themselves they will certainly be subjected to some humiliation. As they will undoubtedly be requested to leave without ceremony. Trusting to their judgement to avail themselves of a little good advice.

We beg to remain respectfully,

The Hawaiian Promotion Committee recently forwarded to the First National Bank of Wailuku an exhibit of amateur photography that was placed on display in the offices of the Bank for the benefit of the public.

The views were taken all over the islands and brought out the characteristics of many localities in regard to scenic views as well as the diversified industries of the Territory.

Many persons took advantage of the opportunity offered and visited the Bank during the time the photos were on display. The exhibit was the finest ever seen on the island and in a great majority of cases were the equal of the work of professionals.

Those who did not see the exhibit missed a rare treat.

Bright Prospects for Baseball Season.

Judging from the size of the crowd and the enthusiasm shown at last Sunday's game of baseball at Wells Park between the Lahainas and Kahului's the sport ought to take quite well in Wailuku.

The game was not a very fast one and there were many errors made, although much more could not be expected of the Lahaina team which had but two short practices before they came over. Nevertheless they have made up their minds to beat the Kahuluis and to carry the championship banner to Lahaina at the end of the season and there may be something doing when they next come over.

Joe Espicada, the catcher of the Lahaina team was in no form for the game and could not hold the ball. In the third inning he let the third strike pass by enabling the batter, Hampton, to get to third base before he could find the ball. In the sixth inning Joe was substituted by a native lad and a great change was noted.

Pitcher John Garcia of the Kahului threw a wild ball over the third baseman's head and the Lahainas scored their first run on it.

At the end of the game the score stood 7 to 4 in favor of the Kahuluis.

The committee appointed by the Association to arrange a schedule is hard at work, and so far it is understood there will be four teams competing for honors. They are the Wailukus, Kahuluis Lahainas and Wai kapus.

A subscription has been taken up to fix up the grounds, move the grand stand and make other needed repairs and the local sports have responded handsomely.

All in all the game is taking with the people and it would be no surprise to hear of a challenge from the married men of Kahului being issued to the Wailuku Benedict's team.

Undergoes Serious Operation.

H. S. Hagerup of the Kahului Store has undergone a serious operation at the Malulani Hospital and is now entirely out of danger. The operation was for the purpose of draining the mastoid process of the temporal bone.

The operation is a delicate one but is not necessarily dangerous.

Mr. Hagerup's friends will be pleased to know of his recovery. Dr. R. H. Dingar performed the operation.

Teachers Demand Justice.

The Teachers Association in convention unanimously adopted the following set of resolutions at their annual meeting in Wailuku.

To the Honorable the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii.

WHEREAS, Three years ago the salaries of the teachers of the Territory of Hawaii were reduced twenty per cent; and,

WHEREAS, This reduction was stated at the time by the authorities to be only temporary; and,

WHEREAS, The salaries at present are, in the majority of cases, less than the necessary expenses of living; and,

WHEREAS, This Territory makes no provision whatever for the support of its teachers who become incapacitated through sickness, accident or length of service; and,

WHEREAS, In many cases the teachers must furnish their pupils with medical supplies as well as with materials for supplementary study; and,

WHEREAS, The isolation of the position of very many of the teachers is such as to necessitate the expenditure of considerable sums for travel; and,

WHEREAS, The public emphatically demand that teachers shall conform to a respectable standard of dress, society and living, which standard cannot be attained upon the present diminished scale of the teachers' salaries; and,

WHEREAS, In comparison with the salaries of corresponding positions on the mainland, our salaries were too low, even before the reduction; and,

WHEREAS, Many of the most capable teachers of Hawaii are leaving the profession or the Territory through inability to subsist in the inadequate salaries now paid; and,

WHEREAS, Satisfactory service in the important work of education in this Territory can be expected only from teachers properly qualified and adequately paid; Therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we, the teachers of the County of Maui, in our regular annual convention assembled, do, as voters and citizens of this Territory, hereby demand that the Legislature fulfil the ante-election pledges of the several party platforms on which its members were elected, by appropriating sufficient funds:

First, To restore the teachers' salaries to the figure at which they stood prior to the reduction; and,

Second, To provide for the increases in salaries as scheduled by the regulations of the Department of Public Instruction; and,

Third, To provide for the proper increase of those salaries which were absurdly inadequate even prior to the reduction, especially the salaries of those brave and ambitious young teachers, who, in most undesirable locations a d most difficult circumstances have struggled on, trusting to the promise of the legislature that they should have justice as soon as the financial condition of the Territory would permit.

RESOLVED, That we strongly deprecate the language used by some members of the Legislature, referring to some old and faithful teachers as 'fussy old maids' etc., as belittling the influence of teachers generally, and diminishing the proper regard in which the teachers and their work ought to be held.
