Bishop Nichols Addresses Those of Them Who Are of the Church

MISSIONARY DISTRICT OF HONOLULU ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL, HONOLULU, T. H., April 12th, 1902.

THE INDEPENDENT has been specially favored with the publication of the following letter:

To all Hawaiians who have been associated with the Anglican Church in Hawaii:

My dear Friends:—With a Cathedral which is a Memorial of one King, Kamehameha IV, the corner stone of which was laid by another King, Kamehameha V, the property of which was increased by Queen Emma's gifts, at the font of which Princes and Princesses have been baptized and at the altar of which they have knelt, some of your best and most treasured traditions are built into the walls of St. Andrew's, which bears its very name from the death of Kamehameha IV on St.
Andrew's Day, November 30, 1863.
The four stalls of the Cathedral-Canon happily bear the native names, Iolani, Poomaikelani, Kalele-onalani and Kaiulani, two of them having been so named since the American Jurisdiction began. I need not mention Queen Emma's personal good works as a communicant, or the going out of so many girls from the Priory and of boys from the Iolani College, or the worshippers within the cathedral nave and the choristers in the cathedral choir, or the several beautiful memorial windows to Hawaiians who have been taken to their rest, including one to the pathetic life and death of the little "Prince of Hawaii," to recall to you how the cathedral walls have had and are having the fondest associations with your race and your native tongue.

In coming to bring you all, cordial greetings from the American Church, let me first express to you in the name of our Presiding Bishop, our happiness in finding that through the labors of those who have been here, the Cathedral Church does stand for so much that is precious to you as a people.
The American Church rejoices that it can take up racial associations clustering so closely around the central Church, not to say other Churches of the New Missionary District. As an earnest that it does so the two new canon's stalls, already referred to, have by the American Church been named after Kalele-onalani and Kaiulani, and in using the property every endeavor will be made to maintain the services and church life of the Hawaiian people with the greatest possible efficacy for all. To this end I trust that all the cathedral stalls may be more fully endowed and all who can, of those who have been worshippers, or in any way connected with the Cathedral, the Priory or College, will rally around the Church so that under American auspices its opportunities and agencies for the race, may all the more realize the legend of the old shield of the Diocese "He Lanakila ma ke Kea"—an especially fitting motto for this Eastertide.

It is pleasant for me to recall the fact that my predecessor in the Diocese of California, the Right Reverend Doctor Kip was one of the first of those interested here in providing the services of our Prayer Book, which was afterwards translated in your own tongue by Kamehameha IV with a preface from his own pen, and that another association of my Diocese of California with the Hawaiian people was the privilege of one of the churches of the Diocese, Trinity Church, San Francisco, to have within its walls, and to have their Rector minister,

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Harmony now is the sole cry of the Advertiser. Will our other contemporaries be harmonized? The INDEPENDENT is not yet so and will never be, so it is hoped for.

The subject of fusion with the Democratic party, as put forward by THE INDEPENDENT, or as has been hinted and very much desired by some with the Republican party, is worth consideration at this time and at all times. It is a matter eminently wished and highly desired that it should come about. THE INDEPENDENT'S desire is to see the Home Rule and Democratic parties fuse as one.

The Advertiser was so badly beaten during the last campaign that it has found it necessary to apologize under the disguise of a plea for harmony. J. P. Cooke hit the nail on the head in the interview granted the morning glory and which we publish elsewhere. The fact of the matter is that the Advertiser is a newspaper without following and is discredited and repudiated by its own friends. Too-true!

Rumour is rife that Senator Kalaokalani, the much inflated leader of the Home Rule Republican party, is seriously considering to resign from that party and join the rank and file of the straight out and out Republican party. He would rather throw away to the winds and in the dust the reputation he has gained as a leader of his party, a much over-rated standing for such a one. We think his party would be much bettered and improved if he would resign and that as soon as is possible for him to do.

If the employees of a certain corporation interested in a big damage suit for injuries received through utter carelessness do not immediately stop annoying a certain person who may be an important and a very material witness in the case, they will hear something drop to their cost and sorrow. Saturday the person herein referred to had been annoyed thrice by as many different parties, asking for information in reference to the occurrence of an accident that has been made as the basis of the cause now instituted in the present case, and he emphatically says that he does not wish to be further annoyed. Those busy-body employees may take their cue from these remarks and be content with retaining their anatomy in good fighting trim.

From our way of thinking, there is really no other salvation left for the Home Rule party at the coming fall election than by fusion with the Democratic party, otherwise they are doomed to obscurity and to oblivion. Such a course is its only and sole remedy, for in the Democratic party are identified the best and intelligent element of their own class as well as their best white friends. To fuse with them is to be saved from utter destruction and absorption, but to fuse with the Republican party is to entirely lose their identity and be altogether lost. This is a matter that should be first seriously considered, and the sooner it is done, the better, the results to be realized later on.

As it is a well known fact that many of our prominent citizens, whether officials or otherwise, are very largely and most heavily interested in the affairs of that certain corporation now laboring under a heavy damage suit recently filed in our Courts, and while they are so influenced, an attempt is being made, so we are informed, by a certain interested high official to employ some of the witnesses in the case to serve under him for pay at public expense. This is one of the many of those attempts to gag and to hoodwink the public, which ought and should never be tolerated or attempted. Should this procedure succeed, it would mean the prevention of the prosecution of that case. To allow it to be prosecuted would be to thereby force them to throw up their hands and the ventilation of those highly interested to public scrutiny. It would be eminently interesting if the Governor and the members of his Executive Council are not interested in this concern, whereby they are endeavoring to use their public positions as a means whereby this particular private corporation should receive aid at public expense to further its private affairs against the interest of another. The longer we live, the more we shall learn.

We fail to understand why the Dr. Hyde-Stevenson episode should be resurrected at this day. The principal actors in that drama in real life are now at rest, and may be in that happy dreamland from whence there is no returning to this mundane sphere. To be now again brought up to the public is to attempt to make of one a martyr and the other a remorseful sinner and villain. All the incidents were fully and quite well-known at the time and there has been nothing since Mr. Stevenson wrote that most soothing open letter to Dr. Hyde's infamy towards Father Damien to denote that the well known author felt remorse at what he had done. Surely if he had done so and say such letter is extant, it would no doubt have been trundled out ere this. Truth is a hard matter to refute and facts are stubborn. Nothing can now be said that will clear up the hazy horizon of calumny to which the reverend doctor laid himself open and liable to censure, and what he subsequently received from an admirer of the one he richly deserved. That chapter has been forever closed and there is no earthly use whatever in having it reopened.

During the reign of handsome "Jack" in the Public Works Department, THE INDEPENDENT did at sundry times make attempts to draw his befogged attention to the disgraceful condition of the Kukui street extension during rainy weather, particularly that portion of it in the rear of St. Louis College. This time we would like to draw the attention of "Home Ruler" Boyd, now holding the reins of that department, to cast his official eyes thereabouts and see for himself as to the state of affairs there. While the recent inclement days were on, that portion was nothing less than a pond, and since there has been a let up, it has not yet sufficiently evaporated to become of public service and utility. Some earth has been put down, but not in sufficient quantity to do any good. Better fill in the entire place is the only and best remedy to do. Let us offer an advise, if it is worth anything without attempting to interfere in the discharge of public duty, which is to dig a drain to the stream close by, and would not cost much, providing there is no present intention of having anything done for the ill-treated taxpayers living in that vicinity. If it had not been for the assistance given by some of the property owners there, who made a fair and decent footpath, the people would have been forced to wade ankle deep in mud and knee deep in water. Those good-natured property owners deserve public thanks for showing public spirited consideration for the comforts of others. But how about the Superintendent of Public Works, will he take any notice or give his personal attention to this much needed matter? Right away, please!

The Voice of Faction.

J. P. Cooke, member of the Republican Territorial Committee from the Fourth District, said yesterday over the telephone, when asked to grant an interview to the Advertiser, for the purpose of discussing grounds for Republican harmony: "I will not be seen, nor will I talk with any member of the Advertiser staff. I have quit reading the Advertiser since the last campaign, I have expressed in the Bulletin my idea of the Advertiser's view of harmony, and I have nothing to say. I will not listen to the reading of the editorial in question." —P. C. A.

Steamer Arrives at Hilo.

The steamer Enterprise arrived in Hilo harbor last Tuesday evening from San Francisco. She is the first trans-Pacific steamer to drop her mud hooks in sight of the walls of the Rainy City, and consequently the worthy citizens of Hilo have nearly gone mad. The Enterprise is a vessel of 2675 gross tonnage, and heretofore the Kinu was the biggest steamer that ever steamed into Hilo harbor. Banquets, meetings and picnics are now the order of the day at Hilo.

A half a dozen natives were found guilty of gambling, this morning and Judge Wilcox sentenced them to pay a fine of $10 and costs each.

FIRE AT EARLY MOON.

New Japanese Wooden Buildings Quickly Destroyed.

About 4 o'clock this morning the town was startled by the shrill call of the fire whistle and the roar of the engines tearing up Fort street. The sky was brilliantly illuminated by the glare of a great fire and in a very few minutes hundreds of people had gathered at the corner of Fort and Kukui streets.

Fire had started in a Japanese shop situated on Kukui street near Nuuanu, and in a very few minutes the whole building was surrounded by the flames. The firemen fought as they never fought before, but it was of no use. The building was doomed and nothing could be done but stop the flames from reaching the neighboring buildings. Unfortunately, those Japanese stores and lodging houses are made of wood and furnished very good inflammable material.

The fire reached a blacksmith shop near by and for a moment it looked as if the whole block was doomed. As it was and thanks to the heroic and herculean efforts of the firemen, the fire was placed under control and any further danger eliminated. Three buildings were burned down and are a mass of ruins. Nothing of their contents were saved.

The First Local Mint.

One of the institutions here which has the special attention of tourists as well as the local people is the Mint, which is established on Nuuanu street, opposite Queen Emma Hall. It is interesting to enter the large main working room, where general manager McDonough and his corps of assistants are at work. The cool and large lanai is a proper resting place and the vaults, where the "bars" to be minted and beer are kept present a very tasty spectacle. The Mint is open from 5:30 a. m. to 11:30 p. m. and during those hours the work never ceases.
Visitors after looking over the place will find first class refreshments and the purest of liquors.

TO THE HAWAIIAN PEOPLE.

the last rites before the remains were brought back to the Islands, over King Kalskau at the time of his death in San Francisco in January, 1891, and Princes Kawananakoa and Kalaupapa have both attended our St. Matthew's School, San Mateo, California. And Tuesday evening, the 22nd, I hope to have the pleasure of personally meeting as many as can come to a Reception for which a Committee is making arrangements to be more definitely announced later. It would add to that pleasure if all Hawaiians who have from time to time been identified in any way with the American Church would make the endeavor to come, and all Hawaiians will be welcome.

We are told that during the last few years of the reign of Kameha-meha I, he had within him a desire to learn more of that Supreme Being—"The one true God, the Creator and Ruler of the Universe" of whom Vancouver from England had told him. But the "teacher of the true religion" for whom Vancouver asked King George had not come and the First Kamehameha had to leave it for his royal successor, Kamehameha IV, and the good Queen Emma to foster the work of the Church. How they did this in their personal interest, their baptism, their confirmation, their value of the Holy Communion as when after an accident, the King and Queen being thrown out of their carriage, they had an especial celebration of the Holy Communion at six o'clock the next morning—and it is a happy coincidence that this is the very hour of the celebration in Hawaii once a month at St. Andrew's Cathedral—the King explaining "when we have received signal mercies, there is no higher form by which we can express our gratitude than the sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving." We remember how the King sometimes acted as lay reader, how Queen Emma personally interested herself in District Visiting Societies and in forming guilds of Hawaiian Communicants and how both found happiness in standing sponsors for Hawaiian children. This appeals to the American Church and I am hoping to have one or more of your own race chosen later to be trained in our Church Divinity School in California for the work of the ministry among their people. I am sure it will appeal to you to use the services and apostolic means of grace in the Church to build up truth and high character with the help of Jesus Christ and to realize how in Christ Jesus our Heavenly Father "hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth."

I am, yours very sincerely, WILLIAM F. NICHOLS, Bishop-in-charge of the Missionary District of Honolulu.
